Commenting on the order, Sheshadri Srinivas, Chief Executive Officer (CEO), M/s. Canarys Automations Limited (formerly known as Canarys Automations Private Limited) said

Canarys Corp has successfully won a significant order from Calibo Inc, the digital engineering services firm and offers an enterprise data and digital orchestration platform that combines an Internal Developer Portal with a data platform. The order valued at USD 780,000 for AWS and Azure cloud Services. This win marks a pivotal milestone in Canarys' enterprise growth journey, underscoring the company's deep technical expertise and its growing footprint within Tier-1 global technology organizations. Calibo's selection of Canarys as its trusted technology partner reflects the confidence that enterprise clients are placing in Canarys' capabilities to deliver complex, scalable digital transformation solutions at an enterprise scale.

This engagement is far more than a transactional win – it represents the beginning of a long-term, strategic relationship with one of the production-ready digital and AI products enterprises in the US region.
