CarTrade Tech and Spinny Partner to Transform Used Car Buying and Selling

Mumbai, July 29, 2026: CarTrade Tech Limited, one of India's leading digital marketplace companies, today announced a strategic partnership with Spinny, a leading full-stack used-car platform, aimed at transforming the way consumers purchase and sell used cars in India.

Consumers selling their cars on CarWale and OLX India, will get a differentiated selling experience with this partnership of CarTrade and Spinny. Spinny will sell quality-assured used-car on CarWale and OLX India. The partnership brings together OLX India and CarWale's automotive buyers and sellers, technology and data with Spinny's operational capabilities.

Using CarTrade's proprietary VAYA AI, CarWale and OLX India will connect users instantly with relevant Spinny offerings. More than 23 million consumers come to OLX India and CarWale to buy or sell used cars annually. By integrating Spinny's proposition the companies aim to enhance the customer journey and make the entire buying and selling experience simpler for users on CarWale and OLX platforms.

Commenting on the partnership, Vinay Sanghi, Chairman and Managing Director, CarTrade Tech, said: "Our ambition is to fundamentally improve the way used cars are bought and sold in India. CarWale and OLX India bring together a large base of consumers actively looking to buy and sell used cars. With this partnership, we can make the transaction more seamless and trusted. The partnership is aligned with CarTrade Tech's broader strategy of building an integrated automotive ecosystem that supports consumers throughout the vehicle ownership journey of buying, selling and ownership."

Niraj Singh, Founder and CEO, Spinny, said:

"Buying a car is an important and deeply personal decision. At Spinny, our focus has always been on making the experience simple, transparent and dependable. Through this partnership with CarTrade Tech, we will be able to engage with more customers through CarWale and OLX India and offer them a trusted way to complete their used-car purchase. Together, we have an opportunity to set new standards for used-car market in India."
