Choice Group wins another contract worth over Rs 60 Crores for Jal Jeevan Mission

Mumbai, India, January 6, 2023: Choice Consultancy Services Private Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Choice International Limited (BSE: 531358/ NSE:CHOICEIN), a diversified conglomerate has recently won contracts amounting to approx. Rs 60 Crores to provide support for various rural water supply schemes under Indian government's Jal Jeevan Mission.

The scope of work for the contracts have been awarded for the state of Maharashtra for Project Management Consultancy Services. The estimated total project cost will be Rs. 4800 Crores and is expected to generate consultancy fees for Choice Group of Rs 60 Crores to be executed over a period of 2 years.

Expressing pleasure at being part of 'Har Ghar Jal' initiative, Mr. Kamal Poddar, Managing Director, Choice International said:

"We have always been an ardent supporter of road infrastructure and PMAY projects of the Government of India and will continue to support them moving forwards, with their ambitious Jal Jeevan mission and AMRUT Program. We are tremendously honored to be a part of the goal of ensuring that all rural families in Maharashtra will have ample access to piped drinking water. We are focused on high-speed execution of the projects efficiently and diligently. With this our execution of projects is being realized and appreciated at multiple levels by stakeholders of various initiatives Choice is part of. We believe our expertise and ability to execute going forward will further lead us to many other opportunities in the future"
