BJP, Congress accuse each other of dishonouring Constitution's spirit

Rajnath says Congress always chose power over Constitution, draws counter from Priyanka

ARCHIS MOHAN & PTI
New Delhi, 13 December

The opening day of the two-day debate in the Lok Sabha held to mark 75 years of India's Constitution saw leaders from the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and the Congress accusing each other of dishonouring the spirit of the document.

Initiating the "Discussion on the Glorious Journey of 75 Years of the Constitution of India", Union Minister of Defence Rajnath Singh said the Congress had always prioritised satta (power) over upholding the tenets of the Constitution. He claimed that allowing institutional autonomy had always been anathema to the Congress.

"These days, I see that many Opposition leaders keep the Constitution in their pockets. Actually, this is what they have learnt from childhood, they have seen their families keep the Constitution in their pockets for generations," the minister said. He accused the Congress of "hijacking and appropriating" the framing of the Constitution, refusing to acknowledge the contributions of several framers of the document, imposing the Emergency, dismissing state governments, and superseding Supreme Court judges for "standing up" to the then Indira Gandhi government.

"We must also remember those who were not part of the Constituent Assembly but whose ideas are part of it. We must remember Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya, Lala Lajpat Rai, Bhagat Singh, Veer Savarkar, and several other such icons whose ideas strengthened the Constitution," Singh said. He acknowledged India's first PM Jawaharlal Nehru's contribution to the framing of the Constitution, but also referred to the Nehru government's amending the Constitution to override a Supreme Court judgment for "stifling" freedom of expression.

Delivering her maiden speech in the Lok Sabha after being elected in a bypoll from Kerala's Wayanad, Congress General Secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra said Prime Minister Modi has not understood that the Constitution is "Bharat ka Samvidhan", not "Sangh (RSS) ka Vidhan". Had it not been for the Lok Sabha poll results, the ruling party would have started changing the Constitution, she said.

In her 32-minute speech in Hindi, she described the Constitution as a suraksha kavach (protective shield) of justice, unity, and freedom of expression and spoke of the BJP's alleged attempts to change the Constitution, "growing monopoly" of the Adani group, atrocities on women, incidents of violence in Sambhal and Manipur, and the demand for a nationwide caste Census. She said the country has never stayed in the "hands of cowards for long". The country will rise, fight, and demand justice, she said. Congress President Mallikarjun Kharge, Congress Parliamentary Party chief, and her mother Sonia Gandhi, her husband Robert Vadra, and son Raihan were in the visitors' gallery to listen to her speech.

Responding to Singh's remarks on Nehru, she said: "What is your responsibility? Or does all the responsibility lie with Jawaharlal Nehru ji?" "His name can be erased from the books, but his role in the Independence struggle and nation building can never be erased from this country." In an apparent reference to billionaire Gautam Adani, she said: "All the business, all the resources, all the wealth, all the opportunities are being handed over to one person. The country's ports, airports, roads, railways, and government companies are being given to just one person. There was always faith in the minds of the people that if we have nothing, then the Constitution will protect us. But today, this perception is being formed among the common people that the government is working only for the profits of Adani," she said. Addressing criticism of the Emergency, she said the BJP should learn from it and apologise for its mistakes. She challenged the BJP to hold polls by using the ballot paper, saying it will expose the reality.

In his speech, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav alleged that efforts were being made to reduce minorities, particularly Muslims, to second-class citizens. He demanded the government provide figures on the per capita income of those below the poverty line and criticised it over alleged Chinese transgressions.

Later, Trinamool Congress MP Mahua Moitra's reference to the death of Judge B H Loya "long before his time" sparked an uproar. Union Minister Kiren Rijiju accused her of raising a matter settled by the Supreme Court and warned of "appropriate parliamentary action". The House was briefly adjourned twice over the controversy, but the debate resumed after Speaker Om Birla said he had asked Moitra to authenticate her claims. He assured Opposition members he would review their objections to Rijiju's "threatening" remarks towards a woman MP.

House panel for increased pvt participation in rail infra

DHRUVAKSH SAHA
New Delhi, 13 December

After a heated debate on railway privatisation in the Lok Sabha during the current session, the parliamentary standing committee has advised the national transporter to explore ways to increase private sector participation in its infrastructure.

"The committee is of the opinion that the modernisation of Indian Railway infrastructure demands huge capital investment. The committee feels there is ample scope for improvement in Railways' infrastructure and a need to significantly increase its planned expenditure," according to the panel's report on the Ministry of Railways' demand for grants.

In the Lok Sabha last week, Opposition members strongly criticised the Railways Amendment Bill, 2024, calling the move a backdoor entry for privatisation. This claim was refuted by Union Railways Minister Ashwin Vaishnav during his reply in the lower house.

The committee also suggested that the railways improve its finances by undertaking a comprehensive review of passenger fares, which are typically subsidised by up to 46 per cent.

The committee feels that 'general class' travel must remain affordable for the masses but at the same time it urges Indian Railways to review its revenues with regard to AC classes by aligning it with costs incurred to reduce losses in passenger segment.

₹35K cr subsidies needed to meet 2030-31 ethanol-blending target

The Indian Sugar Mills Association (ISMA), in a road map presented to the government recently, said the country would need to increase subsidies to nearly ₹35,000 crore to create an additional 7.70 billion litres of ethanol capacity from sugarcane to achieve blending levels of 20 to 25 per cent by the 2030-31 ethanol supply year (ESY). To achieve the target of 25 per cent blending by 2030-31, a total production capacity of 29.52 billion litres would be required, of which sugarcane would contribute around 16.24 billion litres (55 per cent), with the remainder coming from grains. At present (2024-25 ESY), India has an ethanol production capacity of around 16.83 billion litres, with ethanol from molasses accounting for around 8.53 billion litres, while the rest is put up by grain ethanol makers. ISMA has also called for reducing the GST on flex-fuel vehicles to 5 per cent and differential pricing on ethanol. Also, senior ISMA officials advocated for revising the minimum sale price of sugar, a fresh pricing for ethanol for 2024-25 supply year, and addressing the issue of falling prices of sugar.
