CMC wins the Best of Breed HR Practices Award 2012

Mumbai, Dec 28, 2012: CMC Ltd. has won the “Best of Breed HR Practices-2012” at an award ceremony held on Friday 30th November 2012, at ‘HICC’ , Hyderabad. The award was presented to CMC team by Shri Ponnala Lakshmaiah, minister for information technology and communications-Andhra Pradesh and S Y Siddiqui, President, National HRD Network.

CMC has been awarded for challenging the norms and setting path breaking HR policies and processes away from the traditional approaches. CMC success story and innovative strategies for establishing effective HR communication and engagement practices were honored with “Best of Breed HR Practice Award” hosted by National HRD Network (National Human Resource Development Network) at its 16th National Conference-2012 held at Hyderabad.

R Ramanan, MD & CEO, CMC Ltd. said, “It is an honor for CMC to be recognized for its innovative HR practices. Best of Breed HR Services award validates our efforts to create world class people centric organization. Human Resource focus has been central to our strategy and the awards like Best of Breed inspire us to take our HR practice to the next level.”

About The Best of Breed Awards:

National HRD was constituted in 1986 and since then it is committed to promote the HRD movement in the country and enhancing the capability of human resource professionals in order to enable them to make an impactful contribution to enhancing competitiveness and creating value for society. “Best of Breed HR Practices Award” is another step in this direction for providing platform to organizations to showcase their innovative HR practices. This makes the Award an excellent platform that recognizes and rewards the entire HR community, thus emphasizing the importance of putting human capital as a key business investment.
