REVENUE SHORTFALL

Govt pushes IOC, ONGC to pay 2nd interim dividend

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, March 13

GRAPPLING WITH a shortfall in tax revenues, the government has pressed cash-rich PSU-like Indian Oil Corp (IOC) and Oil and Natural Gas Corp (ONGC) to pay a second interim dividend for the current fiscal after seeking regulatory nod.

While IOC has called a board meeting on March 19 to consider paying a second interim dividend, ONGC has declined saying it does not have surplus cash to make such payments within a month of an interim dividend payout, sources with direct knowledge of the development said.

As per regulations, a company cannot declare a second interim dividend within a month of the previous payout and companies like ONGC would need to seek an approval of the market regulator SEBI to make such a payment.

Sources said the government is struggling to meet the revised fiscal deficit target of 3.4% in view of shortfall in GST collections. GST shortfall is likely to be around ₹30,000-40,000 crore and a similar shortfall is expected in direct tax collections as well, sources said.

In a regulatory filing, IOC said: "A board meeting of the company is scheduled on Tuesday, March 19, 2019, to consider declaration of 2nd interim dividend for the financial year 2018-19."
