Nitish does it again: Quits NDA, joins Grand Alliance

To take oath as Mahagathbandhan CM today; Tejashwi to be his deputy

SHINHA SHARMA & ADITI PHADNIS
New Delhi, 9 August

Bihar Chief Minister (CM) Nitish Kumar on Tuesday broke the alliance between his party, the Janata Dal (United), or JDU (U), and the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), alleging 'conspiracy' by the BJP to break the JDU (U) and resigned as CM. He reached out to the Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) and other Opposition parties, including the Congress, which have agreed to support him.

All Opposition parties, except for the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) or CPI (ML), will join the Bihar government, adding up to 164 Members of Legislative Assembly (MLAs) in a House of 243. In a virtually bloodless coup, Nitish, whose party has lost 45 MLAs, not only swapped alliance partners, but also became a candidate for a national role in the Opposition. In one fell swoop, with his party colleague Upendra Kushwaha saying, "Hasten ahead, Nitishji, the nation awaits you".

Nitish and Tejashwi Yadav will take oath as Bihar chief minister and deputy CM, respectively, at 2 pm on Wednesday, officials said.

On Tuesday morning, Nitish called a meeting of all elected representatives of the JDU (U) and said he preempted a conspiracy by the BJP to break his party. "He did not speak for long, but we could infer the BJP has been deriding us at every stage. Around 25 MLAs spoke and each one said he should break the alliance," said a JDU (U) MLA who attended the meeting.

Nitish then met RJD leaders, including Tejashwi Yadav, to get down to the nitty-gritty of further government formation. He then met the Governor and handed over his resignation as CM. With his resignation, the entire Bihar Council of Ministers—including all RJD ministers—were deemed to have quit.

All Opposition MLAs have been asked to stay in Patna for the next 72 hours. An Assembly session is likely to be called in the next few days when the JDU (U) legislative party will propose Nitish as CM again—a claim that has the written support (letter) with the Government of 164 MLAs.

Nitish's new alliance partners are no strangers to him; he has been associated with the RJD and was in alliance with the party until five years ago. But he will retain the top job. "He has certainly not changed alliance partners to crown Tejashwi as CM," RJD leader Shivanand Tiwari told Business Standard, adding, "But we are placing no conditions. We believe he will be fair."

Tejashwi is expected to get the Home portfolio that Nitish had kept with him in the RJD alliance government. Earlier, Tejashwi had held the Public Works Department portfolio. Every party will get ministerial share in proportion to its strength. Effectively, this means Nitish will be presiding over a government that will be dominated by the RJD.

The new government's biggest priority will be to replace the Speaker Vijay Kumar Sinha (BJP) with one of its own, possibly from the Congress. Sinha and Nitish have had running battles—one of the reasons that influenced the prying with the BJP. Veteran Socialist Bhadrat Chandra Das, sent by the Congress as observer, said: "Nitish has left the BJP. That is enough for us. We will give him unconditional support. This is an opportunity for dialogue and further possibilities."

Meanwhile, the RJD held its own meetings at the residence of Deputy CM Tarkishor Sinha, Home Minister Amit Shah called on Nitish and spoke to him for six/seven minutes.

Sanjay Jaiswal, state president of the Bihar BJP, told Business Standard that the BJP will still be in Opposition, but will win a majority in the next election. "It is completely against the mandate that RJD and JDU (U) got. It was because of Prime Minister

THE NEW COMBINATION

121 Half-way mark

*Strength shown from this election by the RJD is 121. The RJD has a half-way mark in the Bihar Assembly. The RJD has a half-way mark in the Bihar Assembly.

TALKING HEADS

"IT WAS DECIDED AT THE PARTY MEETING THAT WE QUIT THE NDA. I HAVE, THEREFORE, RESIGNED AS THE NDA'S CHIEF MINISTER"

NITISH KUMAR, JDU (U) leader

"NITISH USED TO TALK ABOUT CORRUPTION. HAS IT ENDED NOW?"

RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD, RJD leader

"NITISH IS THE MOST EXPERIENCED CHIEF MINISTER IN THE COUNTRY WHO HAS TAKEN A COURAGEOUS STEP"

TEJASHWI YADAV, RJD leader

Narendra Modi's generosity that although the BJP got 74 seats, Nitish, with a handful of seats, was able to become CM. He quit the Alliance in 2017 because there were allegations of corruption. At that time, Jagan Singh was the one who had disclosed the multi-religious land scam. Where are those charges now? asked Jaiswal.

Dipankar Bhattacharya, the national general secretary of CPI (ML), said the party will support Nitish without joining the government. "Bihar should inspire a broader and more effective social and political realignment of forces against the BJP's game plan of concentrating all powers and turning India into a single-party state. The Bihar incident will have a greater impact against the BJP across India," he said. "The BJP wants to impose one-party rule in India and Shah has signed up to the BJP ruling India for the next four decades. This was a loud warning signal to BJP's allies. Tuesday's Bihar developments show Nitish has read the signals correctly," he observed.

18 ministers take oath in 41-day-old Shinde govt

Cabinet has nine each from BJP and Shiv Sena, but no woman

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, 9 August

Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde on Tuesday expanded his two-member ministry 41 days after taking oath as the CM by inducting 18 ministers, nine each from his self-led Shiv Sena group and the BJP. The list doesn't include a woman, a move being planned by politicians and women's rights activists.

The BJP has 12 women legislators in the state, including one from the Legislative Council. The Shiv Sena group has two women legislators and also the backing of an Independent Woman MLA.

There are 25 women legislators in Maharashtra, including three from the Legislative Council. Maharashtra was the first state in the country to give reservation for women. When 50 per cent of India's population is of women, they are not represented in the state cabinet.

Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde with Leader of Opposition Ajit Pawar and others during the swearing-in ceremony of new ministers at Raj Bhavan in Mumbai on Tuesday

MLA. NCP MP Supriya Sule said, "This shows the BJP's mindset," she added.

Activist Trupti Desai of Bhumata Brigade, who had spearheaded a protest for women's entry at the Shani temple in the Ahmednagar district in 2016, expressed disappointment over not a single woman legislator finding a place in the Shiv Sena cabinet.

Facing flak over non-representation of women in Maharashtra's expanded Cabinet, Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis on Tuesday said female legislators will be surely inducted in the ministry in the next round of expansion. Eighteen MLAs, including state BJP president Chandrababu Naidu, were sworn in as cabinet ministers at Raj Bhavan in south Mumbai on Tuesday. The strength of Maharashtra ministry has now gone up to 20, less than half the maximum allowed strength of 40. Governor H S Keshri administered the oath of office to the ministers.

As per Noida police officer said, "Yagi's three associates were also held along with him." Before the arrests, Yagi's wife was once again detained for questioning. PTI

Politician who abused, assaulted Noida woman arrested

Abducting politician Shrikant Yagi was arrested on Tuesday from Meerut, officials said, days after he was seen in a social media video abusing and assaulting a woman for objecting to his alleged illegal constructions at a housing society in Noida. Yagi was at large since Friday evening, and the Noida Police had announced a reward of ₹25,000 on his arrest. On the controversy surrounding security given to Yagi by the Uttar Pradesh police, Kumar said he had no such protection after February 2020. Yagi founded a construction that falsely identified him as an MLA and the sticker was given to him by Samajwadi Party leader
