Press Release

Centum Electronics Limited to acquire the plastics and defense & aerospace business of Centum Industries Private Limited.

Bangalore 6th November, 2015:

The board of directors of Centum Electronics Limited (Centum) has considered and approved the proposal to acquire the plastics and defense & aerospace division business of Centum Industries Private Limited (CIPL).

About Centum Industries Private Limited

CIPL was established in 2004. CIPL operates in two business segments i.e. the plastics and defense & aerospace divisions. CIPL is engaged in the manufacturing and assembly of mechanical products, providing engineering solutions to various industrial customers in the field of plastics and sheet metal; and rendering services in the hi-rel electronics segment to mission critical customers in the space and defense segment.
