DE NEERS APPOINTS AUTOMOTIVE VETERAN SUDHIR MALHOTRA AS STRATEGIC ADVISOR – AUTOMOTIVE & FUTURE MOBILITY

De Neers, one of India's leading manufacturers of professional and insulated hand tools, today announced the appointment of Mr. Sudhir Malhotra as Strategic Advisor – Automotive & Future Mobility, strengthening its strategic capabilities in one of the Company's key long-term growth segments.

The appointment reflects De Neers' continued focus on expanding its presence across the automotive value chain, leveraging its engineering expertise and product quality to serve the evolving requirements of OEMs, dealer networks, and the broader mobility ecosystem.

Mr. Sudhir brings more than three decades of leadership experience across workshop operations, aftersales, dealer network development, sales, marketing, and business strategy. His extensive understanding of the automotive industry and deep relationships across the sector will support De Neers' efforts to accelerate customer engagement and strengthen its position in future mobility.

As the industry undergoes rapid technological transformation, the demand for high-quality, precision tooling continues to grow across manufacturing, vehicle servicing, and electric mobility applications. De Neers believes these structural trends present significant long-term opportunities for the Company.

Mr. Neeraj Aggarwal, Managing Director, De Neers, said -

"Our appointment of Mr. Sudhir reflects De Neers' commitment to building strategic capabilities that support sustainable long-term growth. His deep understanding of the automotive ecosystem will help strengthen our engagement with OEMs and dealer partners, while enabling us to better anticipate evolving customer requirements in a rapidly changing mobility landscape."

Mr. Sudhir Malhotra said -

"The automotive industry is entering a new era of technological transformation, creating opportunities for companies that can deliver quality, reliability, and innovation. De Neers has built a strong reputation for engineering excellence, and I look forward to working with the leadership team to deepen industry partnerships and support the Company's growth in automotive and future mobility."

As Strategic Advisor, Mr. Sudhir will work closely with the leadership team to provide strategic guidance, strengthen industry relationships, and support initiatives aimed at expanding De Neers' presence in the automotive and future mobility sectors
