cannot be a director and authorised signatory of the same firm," the bench said and directed that all the directors to appear before the forensic auditors with all the details of transactions and documents.

The bench also asked senior advocate Gaurav Bhatia, appearing for Amrapali Group, to explain how a company named 'Stunning Construction' was floated to pay the income taxes and advances amounting to ₹234 crore to the directors and their family members and other higher officials of the group.

The hearing in the matter remained inconclusive and would continue on May 8.
