Press Release

DocMode Launches Clinical Research Services, appoints Dr. Merin Dickson as Director - Medical Affairs

Mumbai, 2nd July 2024:

— DocMode Health Technologies, India's leading Med-Tech Ecosystem, announces the launch of its new Clinical Research Services. This expansion marks a significant milestone in the company's mission to advance medical knowledge and improve patient outcomes through innovative research and education.

With the launch of Clinical Research Services, DocMode aims to provide comprehensive solutions that encompass clinical trial management, data analysis, regulatory compliance, and more. This initiative will support pharmaceutical companies, healthcare providers, and researchers in conducting high-quality clinical studies efficiently and effectively.

DocMode's Clinical Research Services offer a broad range of capabilities. They include comprehensive management of clinical trials from study design to data collection and analysis, ensuring adherence to regulatory standards. Advanced biostatistical analysis and data management provide accurate and reliable results, while expertise in navigating complex regulatory environments ensures all studies meet necessary guidelines and standards. Additionally, the services include coordination and management of multi-center clinical trials to facilitate broader and more diverse patient recruitment and data collection.

In conjunction with this launch, DocMode announce the appointment of Dr. Merin Dickson as the Director of Medical Affairs. Dr. Dickson will lead the Clinical Research division, bringing extensive experience and a deep understanding of clinical research methodologies and medical affairs to the role. Dr. Dickson previously served as Chief Research Officer at Amrita Institute of Medical Science, where she managed multi-centric clinical trials and regulatory services for national biopharma missions.

"We are thrilled to launch our Clinical Research Services, which will play a crucial role in bridging the gap between clinical practice and research," said Hans Lewis, CEO of DocMode Health Technologies. "With Dr. Merin Dickson's expertise and leadership, we are confident that our new services will significantly contribute to the advancement of medical research and ultimately improve patient care."
