MGM HOSPITALS LAUNCH DIGITAL OPD SERVICES

IPD rollout awaits hardware

Our Staff Reporter
INDORE

In a major leap towards digital healthcare, hospitals affiliated with Mahatma Gandhi Memorial (MGM) Medical College officially rolled out the Hospital Information Management System (HIMS) for outpatient department (OPD) services on Saturday.

On the very first day of formal implementation, Maharaja Yeshwantrao (MY) Hospital registered 1,537 patients, while MTH Hospital recorded 234 registrations, entering all consultation and treatment details directly into the digital database. The OPD module is now operational across other major affiliated facilities as well, including the Super Specialty Hospital, Chacha Nehru Bal Chikitsalaya, State Cancer Hospital and MRTB Hospital.

Integrated records for seamless care

Under the new digital system, a patient's registration, clinical consultations, diagnostic test results and treatment history are consolidated onto a centralised platform. This allows attending physicians across departments to instantly review a patient's historical medical record during follow-up visits, reducing paperwork and preventing duplicate diagnostic testing.

The OPD system had been undergoing trial runs since August to identify operational glitches, with healthcare staff and data entry operators receiving refresher training on day one of the official launch.

Infrastructure shortage delays IPD module

Despite the successful launch of outpatient digitisation, the transition to a fully digital hospital environment remains half-done.

While high-speed network cabling and internet infrastructure have already been laid throughout the hospital premises, the implementation of the inpatient department (IPD) module remains stalled due to a shortage of hardware. Wards and nursing stations are still awaiting the delivery of desktop computers and handheld tablets required to log bed allocations, round notes and real-time treatment updates.

Hospital authorities have yet to announce a firm timeline for the procurement and deployment of the IPD hardware.

Part of Rs 300 crore state project

The digital transformation at MGM-affiliated hospitals is part of the state government's ambitious ?300 crore HIMS project. The project aims to integrate government healthcare institutions across Madhya Pradesh onto a unified digital network, enabling seamless patient data access, improved inventory management and streamlined public health administration.

Hindu outfit creates ruckus at PS

INDORE Members of a Hindu outfit created a ruckus at Dwarkapuri police station late on Friday night, raising slogans and dancing to devotional songs inside. They also performed 'Garba' during the protest, which continued late into the night. The incident reportedly began when an argument broke out between a member of the organisation and the pilot of a Dial 112 police vehicle over giving way to the vehicle while the pilot was travelling to a crime event. DCP Rajesh Tripathi said Nikhil Jain, who was on the run, was arrested and two laptops and three mobile phones were seized from him. Police are examining the devices to trace digital records, betting IDs and financial transactions linked to the network. Liquor contractor accuses elder brother of assault over property dispute

INDORE

Liquor contractor Jagdish Lakhwani has accused his elder brother, Rajesh Lakhwani, of assaulting him over a property dispute and pressuring him to withdraw as a witness to their late mother's will. Jagdish sustained injuries to his face and body in Saturday morning's alleged attack. Tukoganj police registered non-cognizable reports (NCRs) following complaints from both sides.

According to Jagdish, he was returning to his New Palasia residence after offering prayers at a temple when his brother, also known as Raju, stopped him nearby. Raju allegedly asked him to withdraw as a witness to their mother's will. Jagdish refused, insisting their sister receive her rightful share. The argument escalated into an alleged assault.

Tukoganj police station incharge Jitendra Chauhan confirmed that NCRs were registered following complaints from both sides.

Dispute over three plots

Jagdish said their mother had distributed her property among her three children through a will. Their sister, who lives in Surat, Gujarat, received three plots, including one in Mahalaxmi Nagar.
