'Refineries in India halt Russian oil imports'

Agencies
NEW DELHI

State-owned oil refiners have not imported Russian crude over the past week as discounts have narrowed and US President Donald Trump warned that buyers of Russian oil could soon face steep tariffs, sources said, citing industry sources.

Indian Oil Corporation (IOC) was among those to halt purchases. IOC operates 10 of India's 20 refineries, with a combined annual capacity of 60 million metric tons.

Other major state-owned refiners — Hindustan Petroleum, Bharat Petroleum and Mangalore Refinery and Petrochemicals — have also passed Russian oil imports.

Executives at the affected companies told Reuters that Indian refiners are now turning to the spot market to fill supply gaps, ramping up purchases from Middle Eastern OPEC members and West African producers.

India, the world's third-largest oil importer, is the biggest buyer of seaborne Russian crude, a vital revenue earner for Russia as it wages war in Ukraine for a fourth year.

Russia, on the other hand, is India's leading supplier, with around 35% of India's total supplies.

Rahul Gandhi not a child, should not harm nation's image: Rijju

New Delhi

Union Minister Kiren Rijju on Friday hit out at Congress MP Rahul Gandhi for echoing US President Donald Trump's criticisms of the Indian economy, saying the opposition leader is "not a child" and should understand the country's image cannot be harmed this way.

"Rahul Gandhi is giving statements against the country. Several members from the Opposition have also said that this is not right. India's economy and image cannot be harmed like this," the Parliamentary Affairs Minister told reporters.

"Rahul Gandhi should understand that he is not a child. It is everyone's responsibility to maintain the country's honour and image. The Opposition leader should have this much understanding," he added.

On Thursday, Gandhi stoked controversy after he reiterated US President Donald Trump's remarks on the Indian economy and said everyone, except Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharam, knows that the country's economy is "dead".

The Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha also alleged that the BJP-led Centre has destroyed the country's economic, defence and foreign policies, and is "running the country to the ground".

Pak rebuilds terror camps in PoK after Op Sindoor: IB

INDS
NEW DELHI

An Intelligence Bureau report has said that nearly 15 new terror camps and launch pads are being constructed in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir (PoK) to carry out attacks in Jammu and Kashmir. Pakistan and its terror infrastructure were hit hard following the Pahalgam attack in April.

While terror training camps are being deep inside Pakistan, some are being constructed in PoK. The aim now is to avoid Indian surveillance and ensure that these targets are not hit by the Indian armed forces.

EX-KARNATAKA CLERK OWNS 24 HOUSES, ASSETS WORTH RS 30 CR

Online Report

A former clerk at the Karnataka Rural Infrastructure Development Limited (KRIDL) in Koppal district, Karnataka, has come under scrutiny after a raid by the Lokayukta unearthed assets worth over Rs 30 crore. The former employee, Kalakappa Nidagundi, had been working on a daily wage basis with a salary of Rs 15,000 per month.

According to Lokayukta officials, Nidagundi was found to be in possession of an enormous amount of property, including 24 residential houses, four land plots, and 40 acres of agricultural land. The properties were registered not only in his name but also under the names of his wife and her brother.

The officials also seized 350 grams of gold jewellery, 1.5 kilograms of silver ornaments, and four vehicles, which included two cars and two two-wheelers.

Nidagundi, along with former KRIDL engineer ZM Chincholkar, is accused of misappropriating more than Rs 72 crore by allegedly fabricating documents and generating fake bills for 96 infrastructure projects that were never completed.

The discovery came following a complaint submitted to the Lokayukta, which prompted an inspection authorised by a court order. The investigation led to the uncovering of the extensive and disproportionate assets in Nidagundi's possession.

Nidagundi, who was posted in Koppal and earned a monthly salary of just Rs 15,000, was found to own 24 houses, four plots, and 40 acres of farmland which prompted an inspection authorised by a court order. The investigation led to the uncovering of the extensive and disproportionate assets in Nidagundi's possession.

Koppal MLA K Raghavendra Hittal stated that the government is treating the issue with due seriousness and will ensure a comprehensive inquiry is conducted so that appropriate action can be taken.

Nidagundi, who was posted in Koppal and earned a monthly salary of just Rs 15,000, was found to own 24 houses, four plots, and 40 acres of farmland

On July 23, the Lokayukta sleuths carried out searches in premises linked to eight officials, including an IAS officer, in a disproportionate assets case and recovered wealth worth Rs 37.42 crore.

The raids were conducted at 41 locations linked to the officers posted in Bengaluru Urban, Mysuru, Tumakuru, Kalaburagi, Koppal and Kodagu districts.

Among those raided was IAS officer Vasanthi Amar B

V, who serves as Special Deputy Commissioner at the Railway Infrastructure Development Company, Karnataka (K-RIDE). She was also responsible for the land acquisition for the Bengaluru Sub-urban Railway Project (BSRP).

During searches at five places linked to Vasanthi, officials recovered assets worth Rs 9.03 crore, including three sites, four houses, three acres of agricultural land to the tune of Rs 7.4 crore, ornaments worth Rs 12 lakh, and vehicles worth Rs 90 lakh.

BOLD STEP | The action comes after Singh's engagement to Samajwadi Party (SP) MP Priya Saroj

Rinku dropped from EC campaign for SP 'connect'

Biswajeet Banerjee
LUCKNOW

In a sudden move that has surprised many of his fans, Indian cricketer Rinku Singh has been dropped from the Election Commission's voter awareness campaign in Uttar Pradesh following his engagement to Samajwadi Party MP Priya Saroj.

The decision, taken by the office of the Chief Electoral Officer (CEO), comes amid concerns over potential political affiliations. All campaign materials featuring Rinku Singh's image are now being withdrawn on the directive of the Commission.

"Rinku Singh was appointed as a state icon because of his popularity and influence among youth. But once there is any indication that a person is associated with a political party or is perceived to be politically inclined, their continued involvement in official awareness campaigns becomes inappropriate," an official from the CEO office said. The Commission emphasized that the voter awareness campaign must remain apolitical and neutral in both spirit and practice. "Even if there's no active campaigning, the appearance of political alignment creates a conflict of interest," the official added.

Rinku Singh, known for his powerful performances on the cricket field, had been a popular face in the Commission's campaigns, aimed particularly at motivating first-time and young voters to participate in the democratic process. His removal has disappointed many fans who admired his non-political public image.

The equation changed after Rinku's recent engagement to Priya Saroj, the newly elected MP from Machhlishahr in Jaunpur district. The symbolic alliance with a serving politician from a prominent opposition party raised questions about the cricketer's political neutrality—something the Commission cannot overlook

Rinku Singh was appointed as the representative of the voter awareness initiative by the Uttar Pradesh govt. He appeared in numerous government advertisements, stadium billboards, social media campaigns and video messages. However, on the commission's orders, he is now being removed from all these platforms while maintaining the integrity of its public campaigns.

The development has sparked mixed reactions, with some criticizing the move as unnecessary, while others defended the Election Commission's decision to uphold the apolitical nature of its voter awareness drive.

He added, "Even a small trader and a poor farmer in India, who conducts his business with great dignity, integrity and humanity, can teach many lessons to Mr. Trump."

Former Prime Minister and JD(S) chief HD Deve Gowda has issued a sharp rebuke to US President Donald Trump over his recent "dead economy" remark.

In a statement, Deve Gowda said he was "surprised" by Trump's "baseless and ill-tempered remarks" and described Trump as "volatile, uncivil and irresponsible."

He added, "Even a small trader and a poor farmer in India, who conducts his business with great dignity, integrity and humanity, can teach many lessons to Mr. Trump."

The veteran leader accused Trump of offending not just India but several countries across the world, including long-standing allies. "There is something fundamentally wrong with him for which reason, diplomacy or statecraft cannot diagnose and address," Gowda said.

He praised the Modi government for not succumbing to external pressure. "India, under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, has not compromised our national interest. It has not blinked to Mr. Trump's bullying and has shown that it will never be dictated by threat."

Deve Gowda also lauded the government's efforts to protect the agricultural sector and small and medium businesses, which he said are the backbone of the Indian economy.
