Anna calls off fast; happy with outcome of talks with CM

AGENCIES
Ralegan Siddhi

Social activist Anna Hazare on Tuesday called off his fast after a marathon meeting with Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis and two Union ministers here. Hazare, 81, had started his indefinite fast on January 30 over appointment of anti-corruption watchdogs. After marathon talks with Fadnis and the ministers, which stretched to over five hours, Hazare announced that he is 'satisfied' with the outcome of the discussions.

Hazare held talks with Fadnis, Union agriculture minister Radha Mohan Singh, Union minister of state for defence Subhash Bhamre and state water resources minister Girish Mahajan. "Offering autonomous status to the Commission for Agricultural Costs and Prices (CACP) at state and centre level, tabling of Lokayukta bill in the next assembly session of Maharashtra and abiding the SC time frame through a joint committee for Lokpal were the three demands for which I had started my agitation. I am satisfied with the assurances given to me by the government now and so am calling off my fast," Hazare told reporters on Tuesday evening. Hazare's close aide Sonpal Shastri will be one of the members of a committee which will be formed under the chairmanship of Radha Mohan Singh. It will complete its report by October this year for offering autonomous status to CACP. Fadnis said, "I have decided to call off my fast after satisfactory talks with Fadnis and the other ministers," Hazare said. The search committee for Lokpal is meeting on February 13 and will take further decisions as per the Supreme Court orders, Fadnis said.

On the seventh day of Hazare's fast Tuesday, his doctor said lab tests showed a significant increase in his blood pressure and blood sugar. He has lost 5 kg weight since the fast began, the doctor said. Earlier on Tuesday, Fadnis reached Hazare's native Ralegan Siddhi village in Ahmednagar district in the afternoon and held prolonged talks with him.

Hazare has sought appointment of Lokpal at the Centre and Lokayukta in states where such statutory anti-corruption watchdogs do not exist, and resolution of farmers' issues. He has also been demanding implementation of the Swaminathan Commission recommendations on ways to address agrarian distress, besides electoral reforms. Locals who observed a bandh recently to show support for Hazare's agitation, restricted entry of government officials to the village on Tuesday.

Malayalam actor Kollam Thulasi surrenders before police

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: Malayalam Actor Kollam Thulasi, who courted controversy over his anti women provocative remark during the sabarimala protest, surrendered before police on Tuesday in chavara in Kollam district.

A case had been pending against Thulasi for his 'shocking' statement in October last that young women entering sabarimala should be ripped apart and one half sent to Delhi and the other to chief minister Pinarayi Vijayan's office. He had also attacked the bench which had delivered the judgement. The actor, who is popular in negative roles in films and television serials, had made the offensive remarks while speaking at a meeting convened to welcome the BJP state president, P Sreedharan Pillai led 'sabarimala samrakshana yatra' on October 12 last year at chavara. Though he publicly apologised for his remarks, an FIR was registered on a complaint by a local leader of the DYFI, the youth wing of the CPI(M).

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) told a special court here on Tuesday that it had no objection to restoration of fugitive businessman Vijay Mallya's properties to a consortium of banks, but the banks should give an undertaking to return the amount claimed by them to the court in the future.
