Subject: Digikore Becomes India's Only Listed VFX Company with TPN Gold Star status

Sir/Madam,

Digikore Studios Limited (NSE: DIGIKORE) is proud to announce that Digikore has achieved TPN Gold Star status—making us 1 among only 3 VFX studios worldwide with this achievement. Further, Digikore is also the only listed company in India to have achieved this elite status.

Just like:

- A bank will only empanel security agencies with top licenses, and
- A large company will only hire ISO-certified vendors for critical work,

Production Studios shortlist VFX partners the same way. TPN Gold Star is the highest safety certification for a VFX studio.

In simple words this achievement tells major studios and platforms that Digikore is among the most trusted VFX partners to handle high-value content—helping us compete harder, win faster, and scale bigger.

Why this matters?

- We qualify for more projects (and some only we can quote for): Many high-profile studio and OTT projects require vendors to meet a minimum security standard even to be eligible to submit a bid/quotation. With TPN Gold Star, Digikore can now qualify for a wider pool of such projects—creating a strong advantage where fewer studios are even allowed to quote, improving our probability of winning more work.
- Higher win-rate in competitive bids: When multiple studios pitch for the same project, this recognition acts as a clear differentiator—reducing due diligence friction and increasing client confidence to award larger mandates.
- Competitive Advantage: In a highly competitive field, this accreditation sets a TPN Gold Star studio apart from non-certified or lower-tier studios, positioning us as a preferred partner for high-value projects and potentially leading to more and larger contracts.
- Brand premium with global credibility: Being in a very tiny global club strengthens Digikore's premium positioning and reinforces our long-term strategy to win more international work.

TPN Gold Star strengthens our credibility, expands opportunities, and supports stronger growth momentum globally.

Yours faithfully,
For Digikore Studios Limited
