Annexure A1

Brief profile of Mr. Sameer Ahluwalia

Sameer Ahluwalia is a seasoned business leader with over two decades of experience in building, scaling, and transforming businesses across North America, the UK, EMEA, and India. He has extensive expertise in driving profitable growth, turnaround & restructuring, P&L management and digital & AI initiatives.

Sameer has held leadership positions with globally recognized organizations including Alvarez & Marsal, RPSG Group / Firstsource, HCL Technologies, Capgemini and GE. Across these firms, he has had significant experience in working with Boards, and stakeholders across varied governance structures including publicly listed multinational corporations, founder-led enterprises, promoter-driven groups, and advisory firms.

Most recently, he has been associated with Alvarez & Marsal as a Managing Director, where he focused on building a cross-border value creation and transformation practice catering to private equity sponsors, portfolio companies, and mid-market enterprises.

During his tenure with RPSG Group / Firstsource, as a Group President, he led the turnaround and transformation of a globally distributed BPM and B2B services organization operating across six countries with 8,000+ employees and 200+ clients. He successfully integrated multiple acquired entities, improved profitability, strengthened governance frameworks, and repositioned the organization towards domain- and technology-led services. At HCL Technologies, he was a founding leadership member of the global BFSI–BPO and platform business, where he helped scale businesses to US$200 million in revenue and managed large transformation and digital programs for global financial institutions. Sameer is a Six Sigma Black Belt professional and has been associated with the Forbes Business Development Council.
