King Ke best contender for Independence Million

Joe Williams
PUNE
King Ke, the 5-year-old gelding from the champion yard of Pesi Shroff, shapes as the prime contender for the prestigious Teena Kattrak Memorial Independence Million, scheduled to be run at the iconic Pune Race Course on Friday. With a competitive field of 13 runners set to spring from the gates, King Ke carries the weight of strong expectations. The gelding announced himself in style earlier this year, clinching the Mysore Race Club Ltd Million in March — a performance that marked him as one to watch. While King Ke undoubtedly appears to be the horse to beat, the race will not be without threats. Endurance, with his proven staying ability, and Esccondido, who has been showing steady improvement, should be kept on the radar.
