Eros International & AR Rahman's YM Movies to produce Hindi Film

Film to mark music composer's debut as film producer

Mumbai, 12th August 2013: Eros International, a leading global company in the Indian film entertainment industry has announced its plans to produce with Oscar winner A R Rahman's YM Movies, a Hindi feature film. With this venture, the multi-talented Indian composer, singer-songwriter and music producer dons the hat of a film producer too. For the first time, AR Rahman has conceived the movie and written the basic story with help of international and local talent. It's a young sensual movie based on love, art and self-discovery.

Speaking on the announcement, A R Rahman said, "It's a 16 year relationship with Eros and this time it's extending the role a bit more. It's about exploring the other side of a creative partnership. YM Movies is born out of sheer aspiration to create movies which could bring a lot of joy, fulfilling the artistic and cinematic demands".

Sunil Lulla, Managing Director, Eros International Media Ltd added, "The film is an extension of the creative genius of A R Rahman and it's with great pleasure that we announce this very special venture with him. With this film, we wish to present music and cinema at its best and entertain fans and audiences with an unforgettable experience".
