Euro Pratik Launches Canfor 2 and Chisel 2026, Introducing Smarter and More Accessible Wall Panel Designs for Modern Interiors

New wall panel collections now available across India through distributor and dealer network, priced from ₹120–₹150 per sq. ft.

Mumbai, India — 19th February, 2026 — Euro Pratik, one of India’s leading decorative wall panel brands, has announced the launch of two new product ranges for 2026 – Canfor 2 and Chisel 2026. The products are available across the country at Euro Pratik’s exclusive distributor and dealer network. Canfor 2 and Chisel 2026 meet the contemporary aesthetic needs at affordable prices starting from ₹120–₹150 per sq. ft.

These new launches of Euro Pratik are aimed at elevating your personal spaces at practical price points. These new additions in the product ranges stand on the strong pillars of expression, functionality, and affordability.

Trends in interior design are moving towards more personalised, texture-rich, and practical spaces. With the launch of Canfor 2 and Chisel 2026, Euro Pratik is seamlessly blending versatile surface solutions with aesthetics.

The Canfor 2 range comes in 70 new designs and colour options. The textures are inspired from materials such as cork, metal, pastels, wood, stone, marble, and fabric. These finishes are designed to elevate your personal spaces. Key features of Canfor 2 include lightweight construction, durability, moisture-resistant panels ensuring long-lasting performance, and dimensional stability. Made from recyclable, eco-friendly materials, they integrate seamlessly across diverse residential and commercial modern interior applications.

The Chisel 2026 range presents pre-finished, ready-to-install wall panels that are designed for hassle-free installation with striking visual impact. Its precision-crafted moulds guarantee smooth, uniform finishes. And the durable, low-maintenance surfaces enhance longevity. Made from recyclable, eco-friendly materials, the panels suit residential and commercial spaces, delivering cohesive, contemporary interiors where form, function, and convenience align effortlessly.

Commenting on the launch, Mr. Pratik Singhvi, Chairman and Managing Director, Euro Pratik, said:

“Interior design today is about more than aesthetics — it is about creating spaces that reflect individuality while remaining practical and accessible. With Canfor 2 and Chisel 2026, we wanted to bring together design innovation, material versatility and ease of use in a way that empowers more people to transform their spaces. Our goal has always been to make premium interiors achievable — not exclusive — and these new collections are a step forward in that direction.”

With Canfor 2 and Chisel 2026, Euro Pratik continues to expand its portfolio of design-forward surface solutions that combine aesthetics, performance, and accessibility. By making contemporary wall panel systems widely available across India through its distributor and dealer network, the company reinforces its commitment to bringing premium interior design within reach of more homes and commercial spaces.
