ED set to receive Pawar today with 'courtesy'

Agency Likely To Quiz NCP Chief Only After Polls

IMS News Network

New Delhi: NCP boss Sharad Pawar may be receiving today before the Enforcement Directorate but the anti-money laundering agency does not seem to be in a hurry to escalate matters against the Maharashtra CM to return after receiving him with "courtesy" befitting his stature. Pawar has said he would appear before the agency at its Mumbai office on Friday.

Sources said the ED has worked out a plan to probe money laundering charges against former functionaries of Maharashtra State Cooperative Bank as part of the investigation ordered by Bombay HC into the alleged scam involving embezzlement of Rs 25,000 crore. The probe will first focus on the alleged role of former chairpersons, managing directors and senior Maharashtra politicians who were directly involved in decision-making in the cooperative bank.

According to sources, Pawar will be among the last persons to be examined and his turn is unlikely to come before the assembly polls in the state on October 21 — a timeline which is at odds with the estimate that Pawar will seek to leverage the FIR against him to garner sympathy in the poll contest where he has his back to the wall.

Sources said Pawar will be confronted with the statements of other accused. The questioning of other accused is likely to begin next week. Pawar's nephew and former Maharashtra deputy CM Ajit Pawar and several other NCP leaders are among those who have been named accused.

The ED is gathering details of all sugar mills that benefited from the cooperative bank when Pawar and Ajit were at the helm of the bank. The agency, sources claimed, has already gathered material which showed connivance of senior bank officials with those who bought sugar factories at "throwaway prices".

Former chairmen and MDs of the bank have been accused of selling off sugar factories without inviting tenders. Loans were first sanctioned to these units flouting RBI, Nabard and SARFAESI rules. In several cases, the bank gave loans to related parties without showing it as a related party transaction in its books of accounts.

The ED claims to have recovered forged documents and sale certificates of many sugar factories that defaulted on loans granted by the MSC Bank and which were later sold much below the price quoted in the sale certificate.

Choksi a crook, repatriation matter of time: Antiguan PM

TNN & Agencies

New Delhi: Mehul Choksi is a "crook" and will be repatriated to India after he exhausts all legal options, Antiguan Prime Minister Gaston Browne has said, insisting that the bank fraud fugitive's deportation was "just a matter of time".

Choksi and his nephew Nirav Modi are wanted by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and the CBI for allegedly defrauding Punjab National Bank of Rs 13,400 crore.

Browne said in New York that Antiguan and Barbuda had an independent judiciary and the matter was before the court. "I can assure you that he will be ultimately deported after exhausting all his appeals. He will be extradited back to India to face whatever charges are against him."

"It is just a matter of time," he told DD News. "He is allegedly a crook. If we had known that he is a crook, he could not have gotten Antiguan citizenship," he said on the 60-year-old jeweller's deportation.

"He will be repatriated and sent back to India to face charges as he brings no value to Antiguan and Barbuda," Browne said.

He was in New York to attend the UN General Assembly's annual session.

Denied care by 4 hospitals, cardholder dies on UP road

Times News Network

Bareilly: The Uttar Pradesh health department on Thursday ordered an inquiry into the death of a 59-year-old ailing man who alleged that he was denied admission by four private hospitals here. The family alleged that the hospitals refused to take him in after they showed them the Ayushman card.

The deceased's kin on Thursday met state minister Shrikant Sharma and filed a complaint. Mattoo Hussain, 59, who had fever for the past few days, complained of chest pain on Tuesday night. His daughter Nazia said, "After my father's health deteriorated on Tuesday, we first took him to a private hospital in Civil Lines but we were told the doctor was on leave. We then reached another private hospital where we were asked to deposit Rs 13,000. When we showed them our Ayushman card, we were told that there was no bed available at their ICU unit."

"When we took him to the third hospital, doctors came and checked my father in the ambulance. When I told them that we had an Ayushman card, they said the hospital was in the process of getting empanelled under the Ayushman scheme.

The fourth hospital asked us to deposit Rs 15,000. Despite showing them the card, the authorities told us they can't admit my father until we deposit the amount. We kept running from 9pm to 3am and when all the hospitals refused to take him in, my father died," Nazia added.

Imalda Parveen, a social activist who was with the family said, "All these hospitals were initially ready to admit Hussain but refused after we showed them the Ayushman card. We have met UP minister Shrikant Sharma who has assured us action."

Chief medical officer Dr Vineet Shukla said, "Taking cognizance of the matter, we will probe the matter and strict action will be taken. The matter will be taken up with grievance redressal committee comprising the additional district magistrate (executive) and additional chief medical officer."
