Dear Sir,

Sub: Four Soft signs contract with Unifo Solutions, India

October 18th, Hyderabad: Four Soft (4S) (NSE: "FOURSOFT", BSE: 532521), a global leader offering software solutions for Logistics and Transportation industry is pleased to announce that it has further strengthened its partnership with UNIFO solutions, Chennai, India to implement its Global Customs compliance solutions 4S eCustoms®. As per the contract UNIFO would implement Four Soft's web based customs application 4S eCustoms® to its customers.

The contract will see UNIFO work with Four Soft to deploy 4S eCustoms® to customers of UNIFO enabling simpler and more cost effective processing of their export declarations. The software will be fully integrated with Four Soft's existing Global logistics Control tower application 4S Visilog® which was deployed last year. This integration will allow all parties to be synchronized. This integration will be done using Four Soft electronic data interchange tool (EDI) 4S eConnect®.

Please find alongside, the complete press release titled "Four Soft signs contract with Unifo Solutions, India" in this regard.

We request you to kindly take the same into records.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

For Four Soft Limited

U V Krishna Kumar, Director, UNIFO, commented "We are glad that our customers are reaping great benefits out of the web based order and workflow management solution, LMERGE, using Four Soft's Global logistics Control tower application 4S Visilog® leveraging the resonant SaaS Positioning of UNIFO . We see a great potential for customs solution for our customers. With the confidence in Four Soft and the systems they provide we now move forward to promote it's web centric customs compliance system 4S eCustoms® to the growing customs needs of our customers in this space. We're also confident that this new solution will generate more opportunities and improve service levels of our Global customers."

4S eCustoms® is a global customs compliance solution, with plug and play modules for different countries, designed to work in a multilingual environment. It has interface capabilities with all Four Soft enterprise products as well as with other standard ERP applications.

Rakesh Kumar Munigala, Vice President & MD – Asia, Four Soft Limited, said "Partnering with UNIFO solutions has been a strategic business move. Our strong relationship with them has given us a broad understanding of their business and its customer needs. With this understanding and confidence in place, we are sure that we will deliver more than expected on this new engagement." He further added, "Integration of 4S Visilog® with 4S eCustoms® will deliver lot of additional benefits to its global customers with respect to real time updates of the declarations and clearance of their shipments, which is one of the key element of the business."
