The risks described in this section are those that we consider to be the most significant to our business, results of operations and financial condition as of the date of this Prospectus. The risks described below may not be exhaustive or the only ones relevant to us, the Equity Shares or the industry segment in which we currently operate or the industry segments in which the Portfolio Companies operate. Additional risks and uncertainties, not presently known to us or that we currently do not deem material may arise or may become material in the future. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial implication of any of the risks mentioned below. If any or a combination of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are not currently deemed material to us, actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected, the trading price of our Equity Shares could decline, and investors may lose all or part of their investment. The risk factors have been presented below on the basis of their materiality. Furthermore, some events may be material collectively rather than individually. Some events may not be material at present but may have a material impact in the future. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of us and our business and the terms of the Offer, including the merits and risks involved. Potential investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about the particular consequences of purchasing our Equity Shares.

Unless otherwise indicated, all financial, operational, industry and other related information derived from the Crisil Report and included herein with respect to any particular year refers to such information for the relevant calendar year. The Crisil Report was made available on the website of our Company upon filing of the Red Herring Prospectus until the Bid/Offer Closing Date. Internal Risks

1. Our total income is dependent on the performance of the funds managed and advised by us. We derive our total income from Management Fee, Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment and our total income during Fiscals 2026, 2025, and 2024 included Management Fee from the funds managed and advised by us and was 38.07%, 46.65% and 72.96% of our total income, respectively.

As part of our operations, we derive a significant portion of our income from management fee that we receive in exchange for providing the funds managed and advised by us with management/advisory services (“Management Fee”). In addition to the Management Fee, our income streams include (i) the performance linked share of net profits generated by a fund’s investments (“Carried Interest”); and (ii) the investment gains earned on the capital commitment as a sponsor to a fund (“Income from Sponsor Commitment”). For further details in relation to our revenue streams, see “Our Business—Description of our business—Income Streams” on page 234.

The table below sets out the breakdown of our income across our income streams (excluding other income) for the periods indicated.

Particulars	Fiscal
	Income	% of total Income	Income	% of total Income	Income	% of total Income
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)
Management Fee	600.80	38.07	575.23	46.65	758.54	72.96
Carried Interest	754.11	47.79	644.26	52.25	183.95	17.69
Income from Sponsor Commitment/investments in funds	167.43	10.61	0.00 [#]	0.00 [#]	69.32	6.67
Total	1,522.34	96.48	1,219.49	98.90	1,011.81	97.32

[#] Our Income from Sponsor Commitment was Nil in Fiscal 2025, primarily on account of a fair value loss.

Further, prospective investors in the Equity Shares of our Company (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) should note that after Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the Offer, they will be shareholders of the AMC entity (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) and not investors in the funds managed and advised by us, and therefore, shall not receive any returns, distributions, or profits arising from the performance of such funds, except to the extent of dividends declared by our Company from its own profits.

As of March 31, 2026, we had committed approximately ₹2,740 million, i.e., 6.41% of the total size of Gaja Capital Funds, as Sponsor Commitment. Further, in the past, we have typically maintained a high proportion of Sponsor Commitment across the Gaja Capital Funds, with an average of 5.18% Sponsor Commitment in Fund II and III and 8.45% Sponsor Commitment in Fund IV. Such higher proportion of Sponsor Commitment has exposed us in past and continues to expose us to a higher risk of losing all or part of our investments across the funds managed and advised by us.

Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment are contingent upon the successful realization of investment gains from a particular fund. The performance of the funds managed and advised by us may not necessarily result in positive returns. Poor performance of the funds managed and advised by us would cause a decline in our income from such funds and could therefore have a negative effect on our performance, cash flows and financial condition.

Additionally, there is a risk that the Management Fee and Carried Interest in the alternative asset management industry may decline, without regard to the historical performance of a manager. Any instance of our income from Management Fee or Carried Interest materially declining in the future, without corresponding decreases in our cost structure or assets under management, could adversely affect our revenue and profitability.

2. The historical returns attributable to the funds managed and advised by us should not be considered as indicative of the future results of such funds or of the future funds and the returns we may generate may be prolonged on account of the nature of these funds and may not be similar to what we may have generated historically.

The historical returns attributable to the funds managed and advised by us should not be considered as indicative of the future results of such funds or of our future results. The returns we may generate in the future may not be similar to what we may have generated historically and our future returns may be significantly lower than the historical returns.

We commenced our initial investment management and advisory operations with a set of four investments made on a deal-by-deal basis between 2005 and 2007 ("Prior Investments"). Our Prior Investments aggregated to ₹210.93 million which was invested by us on a deal-by-deal basis between 2005 and 2007. As of March 31, 2026, all the Prior Investments have been fully realized with an MOIC of 5.61x. Fund II was formed in 2007 and Fund III was formed in 2015 and was deployed by 2020 with ten investments and is in its exit phase with two partial realizations, as of March 31, 2026. Fund IV was formed in 2021 and as of March 31, 2026, had made six investments, deploying 62.00% of the total capital of the fund.

The table below sets out our historical performance across Fund II, Fund III and Fund IV (collectively the “Gaja Capital Funds”) as of March 31, 2026:

Note:

⁽¹⁾ Our Prior Investments aggregated to ₹210.93 million which was invested by us on a deal-by-deal basis between 2005 and 2007.

⁽²⁾ Industry benchmarks for Fund III and Fund IV are as of September 30, 2025 (latest available).

⁽⁷⁾ IRR represents the compounded annual rate of return generated from the fund's investments, prior to accounting for fees, expenses and taxes.

For details in relation to fund structure of the Gaja Capital Funds, see “Our Business—Fund Structure” on page 232.

We cannot assure you that we would be successful in implementing our growth plans, as their successful implementation is subject to factors beyond our control, including competition, market conditions and the regulatory landscape. Further, our business could encounter challenges, including obtaining government or regulatory approvals, retaining relationships with third party investors (“Limited Partners” or “LPs”), and finding investment opportunities. Any of these challenges could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Further, AIFs typically have a long-term investment horizon, with a minimum tenure typically of five years. The gestation period for returns and overall fund performance to materialize may be significantly prolonged. Accordingly, the funds managed and advised by us may require several years to fully realize their investment strategies, and returns may be limited or uncertain. We may face a delay in realizing the expected return, which could cause a decline in the value of our investments in the funds.

3. The timing and receipt of Carried Interest from the funds managed and advised by us are unpredictable and will contribute to the volatility of our cash flows. Our Carried Interest was ₹754.11 million and 47.79% of our total income for Fiscal 2026 and ₹644.26 million and 52.25% of our total income in Fiscal 2025.

Carried Interest is the performance linked share of net profits generated by the funds managed and advised by us and is a function of the respective funds’ net IRR. Carried Interest is calculated on a fund as a whole and not on an investment-by-investment basis. For instance, the Carried interest in Fund III and Fund IV is 20% of the net profits generated from the Fund, after achieving its preferred rate of return. Additionally, we follow a performance linked carry model, i.e., to qualify for Carried Interest, a particular fund must achieve a specified minimum return, known as the ‘Preferred Return’. The breakdown of our income from Carried Interest for the periods indicated have been set forth below:

Particulars	For the Financial Year ended,
	March 31, 2026		March 31, 2025		March 31, 2024
	Income	% of total Income	Income	% of total Income	Income	% of total Income
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)
Carried Interest	754.11	47.79	644.26	52.25	183.95	17.69

Carried Interest payments from private equity investments depend on the performance of the Portfolio Companies and opportunities for realizing gains, which may be limited. It takes a substantial period of time to identify suitable private equity investment opportunities, to raise all the funds needed to make an investment and then to realize the cash value (or other proceeds) of an investment through a sale, public offering or other exit. To the extent a fund has not achieved its preferred rate of return, no Carried Interest shall be received from a fund and we will only be entitled to a Management Fee on that investment.

Even if an investment proves to be profitable, there may be a considerable gap before any profits can be realized in cash. We cannot predict when, or if, any realization of investments will occur. If the funds we manage and advise were to have a realization event in a particular quarter, the event may have a significant impact on our cash flows during that quarter which may not be replicated in subsequent quarters. A decline in realized or unrealized gains, or an increase in realized or unrealized losses on account of fluctuation in our Carried Interest, could adversely affect our investment income, which could further increase the volatility of our quarterly results and adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

4. Valuation methodologies for certain assets of the funds managed and advised by us can be susceptible to significant subjectivity and the derived values of assets may not be realized, which could result in significant losses for such funds. The fair market value of Sponsor Commitments in Gaja Capital Funds was ₹2,436.23 million, ₹2,015.42 million and ₹2,204.75 million for Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Our income and profit are dependent on the value and composition of the assets of the funds managed and advised by us. The table below sets out the fair market value of Sponsor Commitments to Gaja Capital Funds for the periods indicated.

Particulars			Fiscal
	2026	Change from the prior Fiscal	2025	Change from the prior Fiscal	2024
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)
Financial Assets
Fair market value of Sponsor Commitments to Gaja Capital Funds	2,436.23	20.88	2,015.42	(8.59)	2,204.75

Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (“IBBI”) registered third-party valuers determine the value of the assets of each of the funds managed and advised by us, using a number of methodologies. Instances where the value of an asset turns out to be materially different than values reflected in prior valuation could cause Limited Partners to lose confidence in us, which would in turn result in difficulty in raising investments for future funds.

Third-party valuers determine the fair value of the assets of a fund based on a variety of valuation methodologies. There is no single standard for determining fair value. Further, in most cases, market quotations for valuation of assets are not readily available and determination of fair value by third-party valuers may differ materially from the values reflected in funds' net asset values. The types of factors that may be considered by third-party valuers when deriving fair value to an investment in a particular target company include, among others:

- historical and projected financial data for the company;
- valuations given to comparable and/or competitor companies;
- size and scope of the company's operations;
- strengths and weaknesses of the company;
- expectations relating to investors' demand for company's securities;
- proposed size of fund's holding in the target company and any control associated therewith;
- information with respect to transactions or offers for the target company's securities (including the transaction pursuant to which the investment was made and the period of time that has elapsed from the date of the investment to the valuation date);
- multiple applicable to peer comparable companies for valuation purposes (including revenue multiple, EBITDA multiple and P/E multiple);
- discounting factor applicable for future cash flows and illiquidity;
- industry information, growth projections and assumptions, general economic and market conditions; and
- nature and realizable value of any collateral or credit support and other relevant factors.

Further, fair values may be established using a market multiple approach that is based on a specific financial measure (such as EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA, cash flow, net income, revenues or net asset value) or, in some cases, a cost basis or a discounted cash flow or liquidation analysis or valuation multiples of recent comparable transaction and sum of the parts valuation ("SOTP") method (which may include one or more of the above methods).

Since many of the assets held by the funds managed and advised by us are in industries or companies which are cyclical in nature or otherwise subject to volatility, such assets are subject to rapid changes in value caused by sudden company-specific or industry-wide developments.

5. Our inability to raise sufficient capital from Limited Partners or their inability to honor capital calls in relation to the funds managed and advised by us could adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We depend on Limited Partners for capital infusion in the funds managed and advised by us. These LPs are typically fund of funds managers, alternative asset managers, HNI, UHNIs, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, insurance companies and family offices. Our ability to raise capital from the Limited Partners depends on a number of factors, including,

- the performance of a particular fund, including its historical rate of returns;
- the investments by a particular fund, including the current portfolio and investment strategies;
- the performance of the markets and general economic conditions;
- the pace of distributions from a particular fund and from the funds managed and advised by other asset managers;
- applicable regulations in India regarding investments including the FDI Policy and FEMA Rules; and
- investment policies to which such Limited Partners are subject.

Moreover, certain of the Limited Partners of the funds managed and advised by us are based outside of India. As of March 31, 2026, out of the 298 Limited Partners associated with us, 139 were located in India and 159 were located outside India. The overseas Limited Partners may choose to not invest in India due to several factors including, having access to better investment opportunities outside India, adverse impact on Indian economy or adverse change to India's sovereign rating.

Further, the funds managed and advised by us are also dependent on the Limited Partners honoring their capital calls, in accordance with the agreements entered into between the Limited Partners and our Company, for disbursements to enable the funds to make investments and cover fund expenses. However, these capital calls may not be honored by the Limited Partners due to several factors such as their own financial difficulties or liquidity constraints, or be subject to conflicting or competing investment commitments, which in turn could adversely affect the operations and performance of the funds managed and advised by us. While during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we have not experienced any instances of the Limited Partners of the funds managed and advised by us not honoring their capital calls, we have, however, faced delays in capital contributions from the Limited Partners in the past, and such delays did not have an adverse impact of the funds managed and advised by us. In the event of delayed or insufficient capital contributions from the Limited Partners which has an adverse impact on the funds managed and advised by us, we may be forced to seek alternative financing at potentially unfavorable terms or miss investment opportunities that could have been beneficial to a particular fund's portfolios. Further, macroeconomic conditions, market disruptions, or changes in the regulatory environment could further impact the willingness or ability of the Limited Partners to meet their capital obligations in a timely manner.

Additionally, the evolving preferences of the Limited Partners may require us to change the fund structures in the future which could increase our cost of raising capital at the scale we have historically achieved.

6. We, along with the funds managed and advised by us, are subject to securities regulation and any failure to comply with these regulations could subject us to penalties or sanctions.

The alternative asset management industry, securities market and our business are subject to regulations in India issued by the SEBI, the MCA, the RBI, and other governmental and regulatory authorities. For further details, also see “Key Regulations and Policies” on page 245. Further, our Material Subsidiary, Gaja Advisors Ltd, Mauritius is also regulated by the Financial Services Commission in Mauritius and other governmental and regulatory authorities in Mauritius.

The regulatory environment in which we operate is also subject to change and we may be adversely affected as a result of new or revised legislations or regulations imposed by any governmental regulatory authorities. Compliance with many of the regulations applicable to us involves a number of risks, particularly in areas where applicable regulations may be subject to varying interpretation. The requirements imposed by securities regulators are designed to ensure the integrity of the financial markets and to protect parties who deal with us. Consequently, these regulations often serve to limit our activities, including through capital adequacy, credit concentration and market conduct requirements. We are also subjected to periodic reviews, requests for submission of information, audit and inspections from the SEBI for the funds managed and advised by us. These reviews, audits and inspections are in accordance with the discretion of the SEBI and as of the date of this Prospectus, no reviews, audits and inspections have been conducted of any of the funds managed and advised by us. Furthermore, we are required to incur substantial costs to monitor compliance and comply with such regulations. In the past, there have been delays in submitting FC-GPR with the RBI by our Company in relation to allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the bonus issue dated June 7, 2025 and preferential allotment dated June 13, 2025. Subsequently, in connection with such delays, we have paid late submission fees amounting to ₹14,500 and ₹21,600, respectively, to the RBI. For further details see, “Capital Structure—Share Capital History of our Company—Equity share capital” on page 89. Any future violation of an applicable regulation may result in administrative or judicial proceedings being initiated against us that may result in fines, trading bans, deregistration or suspension of our and the licenses of the funds managed and advised by us, the suspension or disqualification of our Directors or employees, or other adverse consequences. For further details see, “Government and Other Approvals” on page 381.

The imposition of any of these penalties could adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations. For instance, our Company received a notice dated May 31, 2018 in relation to non-filing of form CRL-1, from Registrar of Companies, NCT of Delhi and Haryana, and a reply was filed by us on June 18, 2018. As of the date of this Prospectus, no further communications have been received from the RoC in this matter. For further details see, “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments—Litigation involving our Company—Actions and proceedings initiated by Statutory/Regulatory Authorities involving our Company” on page 374. Additionally, Gaja Capital India Fund – I, one of the funds managed and advised by us, entered into a settlement with the SEBI under the VCF Settlement Scheme 2025 to settle for non-compliance under Regulations 23(1) and 17(1) of the erstwhile Securities and Exchange Board of India (Venture Capital Funds) Regulations, 1996. Pursuant to the order dated March 9, 2026, the SEBI ordered Gaja Capital India Fund – I to pay a settlement amount of ₹500,000.00. Such legal proceedings could divert our management's time and attention and consume financial resources.

There can be no assurance that the laws governing the alternative asset management industry will not change in the future or that such changes would not adversely affect our business and future financial performance. We may also be adversely affected by changes in the interpretation or enforcement of existing laws and rules by governmental authorities. We face the risk of significant intervention by regulatory authorities in all jurisdictions in which we conduct our business. Among other things, we could be fined, prohibited from engaging in some of our business activities or subject to limitations or conditions on our business activities. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect our business, reputation, financial condition and results of operations.

In accordance with the SEBI AIF Regulations, a limited partner in an AIF has the right to change the investment manager of such fund, provided that the change is approved by more than 75% of the limited partners (in terms of their investment value) of that fund. This provision is designed to give limited partners additional oversight of the fund's management, ensuring alignment with their interests. While during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 we have not faced any such instance, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such instances in the future, or that such instances will not have an adverse effect on the funds managed and advised by us.

7. The auditor's report to the standalone financial statements of our Company as of and for the Fiscals ended March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025 makes reference to certain matters of emphasis and the auditor's report to the consolidated financial statements of our Company as of and for the Fiscals ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, make reference to an adverse remark. We cannot assure that our financial information for future periods will not contain such adverse remarks.

The audit reports issued by our Statutory Auditors on the standalone and consolidated financial statements of our Company as of, and for the Fiscals ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 include certain matters of emphasis and an adverse remark. The table below sets out the matters of emphasis and an adverse remark on the consolidated financial statements of our Company for the periods indicated.

Fiscal	Matter of Emphasis	Adverse Remarks
Fiscal 2026	We draw your attention to Note 10 to the standalone financial statements of the Company which describes that the Company has filed UDRHP with SEBI and is progressing toward listing. As of March 31, 2025, ₹117.04 million of IPO-related expenses have been capitalized under "Other Current Assets". These will be adjusted against securities premium upon successful completion of the IPO, as permitted under Section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.	Based on our examination, which included test checks and as explained in note 41 to the Standalone Financial Statements, the Company has used accounting software for maintaining their books of account which has a feature of recording audit trail (edit log) facility. The facility has operated throughout the year for all the relevant transactions recorded in the software except for the period from April 01, 2025 to August 27, 2025 where the feature was not enabled. Further, during the course of our audit we did not come across any instance of audit trail feature being tampered with, in respect of accounting software where the audit trail has been enabled. Additionally, the audit trail has been preserved by the Company as per statutory requirements for record retention from the date of enablement of audit trail for the accounting software except for the period where the audit trail feature was not enabled as described in note 41 to the Standalone Financial Statements.
Fiscal 2025	We draw your attention to Note 38(a) to the standalone financial statements which states that pursuant to the resolutions passed by the Board of Directors and shareholders in their Board Meeting and Extra-Ordinary General Meeting held on June 2, 2025 and June 5, 2025 respectively, the company has approved a bonus issue in the ratio of 2500:1. Consequently, in accordance with Ind AS 33 "Earning per share", Earnings per share has been calculated after taking effect of bonus issue, despite it being a post facto event. We draw your attention to Note 10 to the standalone financial statements which describes that the Company has filed Pre-DRHP with SEBI and is progressing toward listing. As of March 31, 2025, ₹27.81 million of IPO-related expenses have been capitalized under "Other Current Assets". These will be adjusted against securities premium upon successful completion of the IPO, as permitted under Section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.	With effect from April 01, 2023, the Company should use the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which has the features of recording audit trail (edit log) throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. However, the Company has used the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which did not have such features. Hence, we were unable to comment on audit trail feature of the said software at the time of finalisation of our statutory audit for financial year ended March 31, 2025.

	We draw your attention to Note 38(b) to the standalone financial statements which states that the Company holds an investment in a fund which, as at the reporting date, had a long-standing disputed recoverable under litigation in its books. In the month of April 2025, the fund received a favorable order from the Hon'ble Supreme Court, and the disputed amount has also been realized. Accordingly, the fair value of the investment in fund as at March 31, 2025 considered as good and recoverable and accordingly accounted for. We draw your attention to Note 38(d) to the standalone financial statements which states that the Board of Directors and Shareholders in their Board Meeting and Extra-Ordinary General Meeting held on June 2, 2025 and June 5, 2025 respectively introduced Gaja ESOP Scheme 2025, authorizing the Board of Directors of the Company to create, offer and grant up to 15,87,462 options to eligible employees, convertible into equivalent number of equity shares of face value of ₹5 each fully paid up.
Fiscal 2024	-	With effect from April 01, 2023, the Company should use the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which has the features of recording audit trail (edit log) throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. However, the Company has used the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which did not have such features. Hence, we were unable to comment on audit trail feature of the said software at the time of finalisation of our statutory audit for financial year ended March 31, 2024.

As a corrective measure to the adverse remark, our Company has now fully implemented an accounting software with an audit trail feature with effect from August 28, 2025. For Fiscal 2026, such facility has operated throughout the year for all the relevant transactions recorded in the software except for the period from April 01, 2025 to August 27, 2025 where feature was not enabled. However, our Company has effective control mechanism over monitoring of the data and access to such data through routine checks and internal compliances. Further, there is no instance of audit trail feature being tampered with in respect of the accounting software where such feature is enabled in the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024.

There is no assurance that our auditors' reports for any future reporting periods will not contain such adverse remarks which could subject us to additional liabilities which could adversely affect our reputation, results of operations and financial condition.

8. We have operations in foreign countries through our Subsidiaries in Cayman Islands and Mauritius, which exposes us to risks inherent to operations in foreign jurisdictions.

As a part of our business operations, we operate Subsidiaries in Cayman Islands and Mauritius. Each of these countries have distinct legal and regulatory systems and we may be subject to risks arising from the distinct legal, regulatory and operational environments in these jurisdictions. These include risks related to:

- changes in laws, regulatory requirements and exchange control restrictions on repatriation of revenue or profits;
- challenges caused by language and cultural differences;
- health and security threats or the outbreak of an infectious disease;
- imposition of international sanctions on one or more of the countries in which we operate;
- fluctuations in currency exchange rates;
- political, social or economic instability in such countries;

- changes in taxes, trade policies and treaties;
- circumstances and conditions outside of our control such as natural disasters, civil disturbance, terrorist attacks, war or other military action;
- legal compliance costs associated with multiple international locations; and
- exposure to local banking, currency control and other financial-related risks.

While there have not been any such instances which have materially affected us during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, if any such risks do materialize, it could adversely affect our business, cash flows, results of operations and prospects.

The growth in size or scope of our business, expansion of our footprint in existing regions in which we operate and entry into new regions will also expose us to regulatory regimes with which we have no prior direct experience. If any of these risks materialize, it could adversely affect our business, cash flows, results of operations and prospects. Our failure to effectively react to such situations in these markets could adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

9. We enter into certain related party transactions in the ordinary course of our business and we cannot assure you that such transactions will not adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

We enter into certain transactions with related parties (including our Promoters, members of the Promoter Group, Directors, and Group Companies) in the ordinary course of our business and may continue to enter into such related party transactions in the future. Also see “Our Management—Interest of our Directors” and “Our Management—Interest of Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management of our Company” on pages 267 and 277, respectively.

Our related party transactions include transactions with our Promoters, members of the Promoter Group, Directors, and Group Companies for salary, consulting charges, and travel advances, among others. Set out below are the details of our related party transactions (excluding related party transactions eliminated during the year) for the period indicated.

Particulars	Fiscals

Total related party transactions [#]	1,621.57	1,402.44	1,101.96
Total income	1,577.97	1,233.07	1,039.60
Related party transactions as a percentage of total income (%) [*]	102.76%	113.74%	106.00%

[#] *Total related party transactions means sale of services (in the form of Advisory services, Trustee Fees and Fund set up fees), employee benefit cost, finance cost, consultancy charges, legal and professional charges, rent paid and director's sitting fees (including directorship fees) (in absolute terms).

^{*} Includes transactions relating to income and expenses and therefore, for Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 this total exceeds 100.00%.

For details of our related party transactions during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, see “Summary of Related Party Transactions” and Note 37 to our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements included in “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements” on pages 73 and 332, respectively.

As certified by Nangia & Co. LLP, Chartered Accountants pursuant to their certificate dated August 12, 2026 (UDIN: 26076879DDPOPZ6634), all related party transactions of our Company as disclosed in the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements are in compliance with applicable laws, including taking necessary approval/resolution from our Audit Committee, Board of Directors and our Shareholders, to the extent applicable.

The transactions we have entered into have involved, and any future transactions with our related parties could potentially involve, conflicts of interest. While all such transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis, in accordance with the Companies Act and other applicable regulations pertaining to the evaluation and approval of such transactions and all related party transactions that we may enter into after listing on the Stock Exchanges will be subject to approval by our Audit Committee, our Board, or our Shareholders, as required under the Companies Act and the SEBI Listing Regulations. Related party transactions that our Company enters into in the future may involve conflicts of interest, which shall be in compliance with applicable law but may be detrimental to the interest of our Company and we cannot assure you that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our minority Shareholders and will not adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

10. One of the members of our Promoter Group, Mr. Johrilal Jain, has not provided his consent to be identified as a member of our Promoter Group and has not provided any information in respect of himself and his relevant entities as Promoter Group.

Our Company had requested Mr. Johrilal Jain, father of Mr. Gopal Jain (a Promoter of our Company), who is deemed to be a member of the Promoter Group under the SEBI ICDR Regulations, to provide information, confirmations and undertakings in respect of himself and his relevant entities (if any) as members of the Promoter Group. Despite repeated attempts, our Company has not been able to obtain any information or certifications from Mr. Johrilal Jain, in his capacity as a member of our Promoter Group, and all correspondence from our Company to him has remained unanswered. Mr. Johrilal Jain is not a Shareholder or involved in the management of our Company.

Given that our Company has not been able to obtain any information or confirmations required under the SEBI ICDR Regulations from Mr. Johrilal Jain, the disclosures pertaining to him and his relevant entities (if any) as members of the Promoter Group in the section “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” on page 279, have been included based on, and limited to the extent of, publicly available information on the websites of certain government authorities such as the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, and other websites, including, among others, watchoutinvestors.com and cibil.com, in order to comply with the requirements of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. Further, in the absence of the relevant information and confirmations from Mr. Johrilal Jain, our Company is also unable to identify an exhaustive list of his relevant entities as members of the Promoter Group, other than to the extent identified pursuant to public searches.

Our Company had filed the Exemption Application seeking exemption under Regulation 300(1)(c) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations from disclosing details of Mr. Johrilal Jain and his relevant entities as members of the Promoter Group, to the extent that such information is not available in the public domain. The Exemption Application was rejected by the SEBI by way of its letter dated September 23, 2025. For further details see, “Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures—Exemption from complying with any provisions of securities laws granted by the SEBI” on pages 396.

Our Company will also not be able to ascertain any subsequent developments in relation to the information of the individual mentioned above. Our Company has also not been able to ascertain any entity related to the mentioned individual which would qualify as a member of our Promoter Group.

11. Illiquidity of our investments may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations, and impact our ability to meet Sponsor Commitments to the funds managed and advised by us. As of March 31, 2026, our fair market value of Sponsor Commitments to Gaja Capital Funds was ₹2,436.23 million.

The funds managed and advised by us typically make investments in equity and convertible securities of private companies, which are unlisted, and such securities are generally illiquid and comparatively less active when compared to the listed counter parts, exposing our Sponsor Commitment to the risk of illiquidity.

The table below sets out the fair market value of Sponsor Commitments to Gaja Capital Funds for the periods indicated.

Particulars			Fiscal
	2026	Change from the prior Fiscal	2025	Change from the prior Fiscal	2024
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)
Financial Assets
Fair market value of Sponsor Commitments to Gaja Capital Funds	2,436.23	20.88	2,015.42	(8.59)	2,204.75

These investments by the funds managed and advised by us are generally long-term investments made primarily in unlisted private entities, which may not be readily marketable at a favourable price or at all, until certain appropriate time. While the investment focus of the funds managed and advised by us continues to remain on unlisted entities, their investment strategy also permits investments in listed entities. In addition, there also have been instances where the funds managed and advised by us have invested in unlisted entities which have later become listed entities. If market conditions deteriorate or specific investments do not perform as expected, the investments may not be easily exited. The illiquidity of our investments as a sponsor could significantly harm our business, cash flows, financial condition, and results of operations. Further, being unable to liquidate investments effectively could mean missing out on alternative, potentially more lucrative investment opportunities. In addition, the impact of such illiquidity on our cash flows may in turn affect our ability to meet balance Sponsor Commitments to the funds managed and advised by us currently and any Sponsor Commitments to future funds. If we are unable to meet our capital commitments, we may need to identify alternate sources for arranging adequate capital for meeting our capital commitment requirements to the funds managed and advised by us. We cannot assure you that we will continue to be successful in arranging adequate capital for our capital commitments on acceptable terms or at all, which may materially and adversely affect our business, cash flows and financial condition.

12. The funds managed and advised by us typically make minority investments which leads them to invest in portfolio companies that they do not control. Any adverse business decision(s) by the management of such portfolio companies may lead to a fund's underperformance and consequently lower returns resulting in lower Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment.

The funds managed and advised by us typically make minority investments in equity and convertible securities of portfolio companies and do not acquire control of such companies. Such securities may be acquired by the funds through trading activities or through direct purchases of securities from such target companies. While in all our transactions, we endeavor to secure rights essential for the funds managed and advised by us as an investor, including management oversight, board representation, and exit rights, however, these investments remain subject to the risk that the portfolio companies in which the investments are made may take business, financial or management decisions with which we, as the manager or advisor of the funds, may not agree or that the majority shareholders or the management of such Portfolio Companies may take risks or otherwise act in a manner that does not serve the interests of the funds managed and advised by us. As of the date of this Prospectus, the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds collectively comprise investments made in 29 Portfolio Companies, out of which a minority stake was acquired in 26 Portfolio Companies and majority stake in only three Portfolio Companies.

The details of our investments across the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds as of the date of this Prospectus are set forth below:

Particulars	Number of investments	% of total investments*
Minority ownership	26	89.66
Majority ownership	3	10.34
Total investments made until the date of this Prospectus	29	100.00

*Includes the fully realized investments.

While we have not faced any instance of the majority shareholders or the management of any of the Portfolio Companies acting in a manner, which has materially affected the funds managed and advised by us during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such instances in the future, or that such instances will not have an adverse effect on the funds managed and advised by us.

In addition, the funds managed and advised by us may in the past have acquired minority equity interests in large transactions, which may be structured as “consortium transactions” due to the size of the investment and the amount of capital required to be invested. A consortium transaction involves an equity investment in which two or more private equity firms serve together or collectively as equity sponsors. Consortium transactions generally entail a reduced level of control as the governance rights are shared with the other consortium sponsors. Accordingly, the funds managed and advised by us may not be able to pass resolutions or control decisions relating to a consortium investment, including decisions relating to the management and operation of the Portfolio Companies and the timing and nature of any exit.

Further, the funds managed and advised by us, may also dispose of a portion of their majority equity investments in the Portfolio Companies over time in a manner that results in the funds’ retaining a minority investment. If any of the foregoing were to occur, the value of investments by the funds managed and advised by us could decrease and our financial condition, results of operations and cash flow could be adversely affected.

13. The name of one of our Promoters, Mr. Gopal Jain, appears in the RBI list of “defaults above Rs. 1 crore under Non-Suit Filed Accounts” in connection with his erstwhile nominee directorship on another entity’s board of directors. Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected if any adverse action is taken against Mr. Gopal Jain by any financial institution or regulatory authorities in relation to such defaults.

Mr. Gopal Jain’s name appears in the RBI list of “defaults above Rs. 1 crore under Non-Suit Filed Accounts” in connection with his erstwhile directorship on the board of directors of Educomp Infrastructure and School Management Limited (the “Entity”), which is separate from the list of Wilful Defaulters (Rs. 25 lacs and above under Suit Filed Accounts and Non-Suit Filed Accounts). Mr. Gopal Jain’s name does not appear in the list of Wilful Defaulters (Rs. 25 lacs and above under Suit Filed Accounts and Non-Suit Filed Accounts) including in relation to the identified defaults in the RBI list of “defaults above Rs. 1 crore under Non-Suit Filed Accounts”.

Mr. Gopal Jain was appointed as the nominee/ non-executive director on the board of directors of the Entity on April 5, 2008. He ceased to be the nominee/ non-executive director of the Entity on February 5, 2013, and was not associated with the Entity at the time of the defaults made by such Entity. Further, as per the search conducted on the public TransUnion CIBIL Website (<https://suit.cibil.com/>), the name of Mr. Gopal Jain does not appear in the list of defaults above Rs. 1 crore under Suit Filed Accounts. A communication has also been received from Union Bank of India (Corporation Bank merged with Union Bank of India in 2020), with regards to the removal of the name of Mr. Gopal Jain from the suit filed list. Nonetheless, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected if any adverse action is taken against Mr. Gopal Jain by any financial institution or regulatory authorities in relation to such defaults.

14. The “clawback” provisions in the governing agreements of the Fund IV may give rise to a contingent obligation that may require us to return the Carried Interest to the Limited Partners.

The governing agreements of Fund IV include a “clawback” provision, which, if triggered, may give rise to a contingent obligation that may require us to return the Carried Interest to the Limited Partners. A “clawback” is a contractual provision which obligates the general partner of a private equity fund to return a portion of the carried interest to the limited partners if certain pre-agreed conditions are not met. For instance, in accordance with the pre-agreed conditions of the governing agreements of Fund IV, if the Limited Partners’ returns are lower than the hurdle rate, on account of indemnity payments or tax assessments, we could be required to return the previously received Carried Interest to the Limited Partners. While during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we have not faced any instance where we were required to return previously distributed Carried Interest, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such instances in the future.

The obligation to return previously distributed Carried Interest can impact our cash flow and profitability, particularly if substantial amounts are involved. In addition, the requirement to repay these amounts may also affect our ability to finance our operations, including future fund investments. Moreover, the invocation of such obligations could adversely affect our reputation with the Limited Partners of the funds managed and advised by us and could impair our ability to raise capital for new funds. Limited Partners may view these occurrences negatively, reducing their inclination to invest with us in the future, which, in turn, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

15. The Portfolio Companies may engage in transactions in or with countries or persons that are subject to U.S. and other sanctions.

U.S. law generally prohibits U.S. persons from directly or indirectly investing or otherwise doing business in or with certain countries that are subject to comprehensive sanctions and with certain persons or businesses that have been specially designated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) of the US Department of the Treasury or other U.S. government agencies. Other governments and international or regional organizations also administer similar economic sanctions. The Portfolio Companies may enter into transactions with their customers who may be doing business with, or located in, countries to which certain OFAC-administered and other sanctions apply. The Portfolio Companies may not be able to monitor any potential violation. If it were determined that transactions in which the Portfolio Companies participate violate U.S. or other sanctions, they could be subject to U.S. or other penalties, and future business prospects in the United States or with U.S. persons, or in other jurisdictions, could be adversely affected, which in turn may affect the investments in such portfolio company. Further, investors in the Equity Shares could incur reputational or other risks as the result of our portfolio companies’ dealings in or with countries or with persons that are the subject of U.S. sanctions. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

16. We may be unable to manage our growth or to successfully implement our business strategies. Our revenue from operations was ₹1,355.31 million and ₹1,219.99 million for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025, respectively.

We have experienced growth in recent financial periods and we may be unable to sustain the pace of such growth in future. The table below sets out the details of our certain financial indicators for the periods indicated.

Particulars	As of and for Fiscal
	2026	Change from prior Fiscal	2025	Change from prior Fiscal	2024
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)
Revenue from Operations	1,355.31	11.09	1,219.99	27.56	956.40
Profit before tax for the year	874.09	48.56	588.37	7.02	549.79
Profit/(loss) after tax for the year	819.59	32.30	619.51	38.46	447.42
Total Net Worth	6,065.15	55.93	3,889.67	17.20	3,318.77

Further, we plan to leverage our expertise to progress on new growth strategies by launching a new fund in the secondaries investment class which will be sector agnostic in terms of its focus sectors. A secondaries fund is a general partner (“GP”) solution focused fund to buy portfolio of assets from other GPs (“Secondaries”). For further details, see “Our Business—Our Strategies—Leverage our expertise to progress on new growth strategies” and “Objects of the Offer” on pages 230 and 111, respectively. We cannot assure you that our growth will continue at a rate similar to what we have experienced in the past and that we will be able to successfully implement our business strategies in the future. Risks that we may face in implementing our business strategies may substantially differ from those we have previously experienced. We cannot assure you that we will not experience issues in implementing our strategies such as finding adequate opportunities, increased competition, etc. If we are not successful in implementing our business plans or growth strategies, our business, results of operations and financial condition would be adversely affected.

17. Majority of the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds are located in India. Our business is therefore significantly affected by fluctuations in the general economic activity in western and southern India. As of March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025, 94.44% and 93.33%, respectively of the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds were based in India.

All the Portfolio Companies invested into by the Gaja Capital Funds have head offices located in India. One of the Portfolio Companies with operations in India was acquired by an overseas company in January 2023. Set out below is the split of the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds by location of their head offices, as of the dates indicated.

	Number of Companies	% of total	Number of Companies	% of total	Number of Companies	% of total
Northern India	3	16.77	2	13.33	2	13.33
Western India	8	44.44	6	40.00	6	40.00
Eastern India	-	-	-	-	-	-
Southern India	6	33.33	6	40.00	6	40.00
Overseas*	1	5.56	1	6.67	1	6.67
Total	18	100.00	15	100.00	15	100.00

*One of the Portfolio Companies with operations in India was acquired by an overseas company in January 2023.

Due to the concentration of head offices of the Portfolio Companies in a single geographical region, the funds managed and advised by us and their Portfolio Companies are susceptible to changes in local and regional factors, economic, social, geographical and political events, natural disasters, demographic changes, and other unforeseen events and circumstances that may occur in India. For further details, also see “—Any downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition” on page 45. Particularly, any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the western or southern regions in India, where the majority of the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds are based, could adversely impact the funds managed and advised by us, which may in turn impact our cash flows and financial condition.

While the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds have not been materially affected by any such impact during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, any future impact due to local and regional factors in India, could adversely impact the funds managed and advised by us and further could adversely affect our business, cash flows and financial condition.

18. Our Company is subject to SEBI AIF Regulations, 2012, as amended (“SEBI AIF Regulations”) and any failure to comply with these regulations could subject us to penalties.

Our Company acts as an investment manager for SEBI registered AIF, and is subject to extensive regulatory obligations under the SEBI AIF Regulations. An investment manager bears the responsibility for compliance with the regulations issued by the SEBI, including the SEBI AIF Regulations. These responsibilities include, among others, maintenance of prescribed records, timely reporting, annual compliance audits, and fiduciary standards. Further, pursuant to the amendment to the SEBI AIF Regulations dated May 5, 2021, the SEBI has introduced joint and several liability provisions, wherein investment committee members are equally responsible alongside the investment manager for investment decisions and regulatory compliance. Both the investment manager and members of the individual investment committee could be held liable for non-compliance, breach of fiduciary duties, or regulatory violations. Any regulatory actions or adverse findings against our Company as an investment manager could adversely affect our ability to manage existing funds or launch new funds, which would in turn adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

19. Our performance is dependent on the performance of the funds managed and advised by us.

The performance of our Company including our income and cash flows is dependent on the performance of the funds managed and advised by us. Accordingly, the Shareholders of our Company are exposed to the performance of the funds managed and advised by us. However, prospective investors in the Equity Shares of our Company (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) should note that after Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the Offer, they will be shareholders of the AMC entity (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) and not investors in the funds managed and advised by us, and therefore, shall not receive any returns, distributions, or profits arising from the performance of such funds, except to the extent of dividends declared by our Company from its own profits.

Also see, “—Our total income is dependent on the performance of the funds managed and advised by us. We derive our total income from Management Fee, Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment and our total income during Fiscals 2026, 2025, and 2024 included Management Fee from the funds managed and advised by us and was 38.07%, 46.65% and 72.96% of our total income, respectively” on page 20.

20. Any failure in setting up of the proposed funds could adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We aim to launch new funds under our business strategy. See “Our Business—Our Strategies—Continue to focus on delivering sustained growth and investment performance in our flagship private equity strategy” on page 230. Aligned with our past record, we intend to launch new funds and as on the date of this Prospectus, our Company is in process of setting up of Gaja Capital India Fund V and Secondaries Fund.

As on the date of this Prospectus, in relation to the Secondaries Fund, we have (i) entered into a trust deed; and (ii) filed a private placement memorandum dated June 23, 2025 with SEBI in relation to one of the constituent funds, i.e., Eastgate Secondaries Fund for registration as a Category II AIF. Our Company received approval from the SEBI dated October 9, 2025, for registration of Eastgate Secondaries Fund and subsequently received the certificate of registration dated October 17, 2025 from the SEBI.

Further, in relation to Fund V, we have registered a trust deed for one of the constituent funds, i.e., Gaja Capital India Fund V. Further, our Company has filed a private placement memorandum application with the SEBI on June 10, 2026 and other requisite approvals and registrations, as may be required under the applicable law, would be obtained in due course. If we are unable to obtain such approvals and registrations in a timely manner, or at all, we may have to vary the objects of the Offer. Also see, “Objects of the Offer—Details of the Objects—Investing towards our Sponsor Commitments to certain existing and new funds and for repayment of the Bridge Loan Amount in the manner as follows: (a) investing towards our balance Sponsor Commitment to certain constituent funds of Fund IV and for repayment of the Bridge Loan Amount; (b) investing towards our Sponsor Commitment to the proposed Fund V; and (c) investing towards our Sponsor Commitment to the Secondaries Fund” on page 114.

There can be no assurance that the proposed Fund V will be registered with the SEBI or that proposed Fund V will receive the necessary approvals within the anticipated time frame. The approval process may be delayed or impacted by changes in regulatory requirements, market conditions, or other unforeseen factors. Any delay in the registration of this fund could adversely affect our Company’s ability to raise capital, and we may have to vary the objects of the Offer. Also see, “—The objects of the Fresh Issue for which the funds are being raised have not been appraised by any bank or financial institutions. Any variation in the utilization of our Net Proceeds as disclosed in this Prospectus would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including a shareholders’ approval.” on page 41.

21. As of March 31, 2026, our top 10 Limited Partners contributed approximately 63.42% of our total commitments in Fund IV. This makes us reliant on a limited number of Limited Partners and exposes us to concentration risks, which could impact the performance and stability of the funds managed and advised by us.

We depend on a few Limited Partners, which pose a threat to the financial stability of the funds managed and advised by us. The table below sets forth the details of the contributions of the Limited Partners to the total commitments of the Fund IV for the periods indicated.

Particulars	Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Amount	%*	Amount	%*	Amount	%*
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)
Top 10 Limited Partners	10,928.66	63.42	10,928.66	63.42	10,955.28	63.55
Domestic	6,498.35	36.61	6,498.35	36.61	6,498.35	36.61

* Percentage of total commitments.

Such Limited Partners comprise domestic and overseas institutional investors, high-net-worth individuals as well as family offices. This concentration can lead to potential liquidity issues and increased risk if there are significant changes in the investment behaviour of these Limited Partners. The dependency on a few Limited Partners may pose a threat to the financial stability of the funds managed and advised by us if these Limited Partners fail to honour their capital calls or face financial difficulties themselves. We cannot assure that such events will not result in any fluctuations in the performance and returns of the funds managed and advised by us and accordingly, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

22. We are highly dependent on our Promoters, our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management. Any inability on our part to retain or recruit skilled personnel could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are highly dependent on our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management, for setting our strategic business direction and managing our business and funds. Mr. Gopal Jain, our Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer and one of our founding Promoters, has experience of over 27 years, and has been associated with our Company since its incorporation. Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah, our Executive Vice-Chairman and one of our Promoters, has over 19 years of experience and has been associated with our Company since 2006. Mr. Imran Jafar, our Executive Director and one of our Promoters, has over 27 years of experience and has been associated with our Company since 2005. They possess knowledge and understanding of, and extensive working experience in the alternative asset management industry. They collectively play a vital role in providing us strategic guidance and direction. For further details, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” and “Our Business—Our Strengths—Experienced Promoters and management team”, “Our Business—Team and Human Resources” and “Our Management” on pages 279, 226, 240 and 259, respectively. A loss of the services of any of our Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, our success depends to a large extent upon the continued efforts and services of the professionals with investing and operating experience who form part of our Core Team, which is responsible for exploring potential investment opportunities, engagement with target companies (including executing target company’s scale and transformation plan) and managing investor relations. As of March 31, 2026 we had 23 permanent employees. The table below sets forth the attrition rate of our employees for the periods indicated.

Attrition rate of our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management (%)	-	-	-
Attrition of total employee (#)	3	1	3
Attrition rate total employees (%)	13.33	4.76	16.22

Our ability to meet future business challenges depends on our ability to attract, recruit and retain experienced, talented and skilled professionals. Without a sufficient number of professionals, our operations could suffer. The industry in which we operate demands highly skilled professionals with specialized expertise in alternative investments. Competitive salaries, performance-based incentives, and long-term career growth opportunities are offered to attract and retain top talent. (Source: Crisil Report). The loss of, or inability to attract or retain, experienced professionals could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. We may also be required to increase our levels of compensation or otherwise incentivize our key employees, including our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management in order to remain competitive and attract skilled and experienced professionals. Our inability to increase compensation levels or otherwise adequately incentivize our key personnel, may lead to loss of their services and would lead to increased attrition levels. We cannot assure you that we will be able to recruit and retain qualified and capable employees in the future. The loss of the services of our key employees or other personnel or our inability to recruit or train a sufficient number of experienced personnel or our inability to manage the attrition levels could adversely affect our business and growth prospects.

23. We are dependent on the performance of the industries in which the portfolio companies of the funds managed and advised by us operate. The investments of the funds managed and advised by us are significantly focused in the EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology industries. Managing new funds may expose us to challenges and risks that may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The portfolio of investments of the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds, has been primarily focused on the Education-Employment-Employability (“EEE”), financial services, consumer and digital technology sectors. Our current investment strategy focuses on specific aspects of a fund’s portfolio company (“Portfolio Company”), including, (i) product, (ii) sales, (iii) human resources, and (iv) financial management. Further, majority of the Portfolio Companies are located in India. We are dependent on the performance of the industries in which the Portfolio Companies operate. The table below sets out the number of the existing Portfolio Companies by industry distribution as of the dates indicated.

	Number of Companies	% of total	Number of Companies	% of total	Number of Companies	% of total
EEE	4	22.22	4	26.67	4	26.67
Digital technology	3	16.67	2	13.33	2	13.33
Financial services	5	27.78	4	26.67	4	26.67
Consumer	5	27.78	4	26.67	4	26.67
Others	1	5.55	1	6.66	1	6.66
Total	18	100.00	15	100.00	15	100.00

The investments of the funds managed and advised by us are significantly focused in the EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology industries, therefore are significantly dependent on the performance of these industries. These industries may be sensitive to factors beyond our control, including general economic conditions such as consumer demand, consumer confidence, inflation, employment and disposable income levels, interest rate levels, demographic trends, technological changes, increasing environmental, health and safety regulations, government policies, political instability and fuel prices. A loss of, or a significant decrease in business or decline in the EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology industries could materially and adversely affect businesses of the Portfolio Companies and may in turn affect our cash flows and financial condition.

Additionally, we may launch new funds in the future that may follow different investment strategies with varied geographic and industry exposure as compared to our present funds, and any such new funds could have different returns than such existing funds. We will, from time to time, also adjust the strategies of the fund line-up we may have. Managing new funds with a different asset mix than we generally invest in or strategies may have different operational models and risk profiles as compared to our existing business strategies and we may not have sufficient operating experience and expertise to effectively manage these new funds and the corresponding risks. In addition, our future returns may be affected by the applicable risks described elsewhere in this Risk Factors section, including risks related to the industries and businesses in which the future funds may invest. Also see “—We may be unable to manage our growth or to successfully implement our business strategies. Our revenue from operations was ₹1,355.31 million and ₹1,219.99 million for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025, respectively.” on page 31.

As a result, our financial performance is subject to considerable uncertainty related to the investments made by the funds managed and advised by us or the funds we may manage in the future and may fluctuate based on various external and internal factors and successful realization of Investment Gains of such funds. Our inability to realize Investment Gains could materially impact our ability to sustain or increase our income and our results of operations could be adversely affected.

24. Our ability to raise capital commitments for the new funds could be adversely affected if the appeal of private equity and alternative investments were to decline in the market.

Our growth depends on the growth of alternative investment products as these are among the fastest growing managed investment products in India and over the past few years alternative investment funds have become one of the key segments in private markets in India. Between Fiscals 2019 and 2026, alternative investment fund commitments have been growing at a steady pace, registering approximately 29.2% CAGR, with a total commitment of ₹16.9 trillion as of March 31, 2026 (Source: Crisil Report). However, our ability to raise capital commitments for new funds could be adversely affected if the general appeal of alternative investment products were to decline in the market. An investment by a Limited Partner in a fund is more illiquid and the returns on such investment may be more volatile than an investment in listed securities for which there is a more active and transparent market. Alternative investment products could fall into disfavor as a result of concerns about liquidity and short-term performance. Such disfavor towards alternative investment products could impact our ability to raise capital commitments for new funds, which would in turn, adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Our failure to timely secure capital commitments may compel us to divest assets under suboptimal conditions, adversely impacting investment returns and fund performance. Such scenarios could also strain our relationships with Limited Partners, potentially hindering our ability to raise adequate capital in the future and impacting our revenue, profitability, and overall financial stability.

25. The ability to raise capital in the alternative asset management industry is subject to certain regulatory requirements which may adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

In accordance with the SEBI AIF Regulations, category II AIF funds are not permitted to borrow funds directly or indirectly or engage in any leverage for the purpose of making investments or otherwise, except for borrowing funds to meet temporary funding requirements, subject to conditions with respect to number of times in a year and quantum specified by SEBI. (Source: Crisil Report). Accordingly, in instances where the existing capital commitments of the funds managed and advised by us for a potential investment in a target company are insufficient, such funds would not be able to borrow money to bridge the difference. While we have not faced any instance where the funds managed and advised by us have not met the funding requirements during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such instances in the future, or that such instances will not have an adverse impact on such funds.

Furthermore, the onshore funds under Fund III and Fund IV are structured as alternative investment funds and are registered under the SEBI AIF Regulations. Accordingly, the ability of such funds to receive adequate funding is subject to the regulatory provisions of the SEBI AIF Regulations. Any changes or amendments to the SEBI AIF Regulations may adversely affect the fund's operations and performance. Additionally, the offshore funds are subject to laws applicable in Mauritius, and any changes or amendments to applicable laws in Mauritius, or their inability to adhere to such changes or amendments may adversely affect the fund's operations and performance.

26. We are subject to certain risks associated with the actions of our third-party distributors. Any mismanagement in handling our relationships with our distributors (i.e., placement agents) could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We have raised ₹844.92 million funds through our distributors in Fiscal 2024.

Mismanagement in handling our relationships with the third-party distributors for raising capital for the funds managed and advised by us could have a negative impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations. While we primarily rely on our own coverage team for our offshore Limited Partners and onshore Limited Partners, our distributors play a role in raising capital from high-net worth individuals and family offices.

The table below sets forth the details of the total number of distributors engaged for raising funds for the periods indicated.

Total number of distributors	Nil	Nil	3

Effective management and maintenance of our relationships with the third-party distributors are essential to our operational success and future growth. If we fail to manage these relationships effectively, it could result in a breakdown of communication, a loss of trust, and the withdrawal of support from key distributors. Distributors might choose to partner with our competitors, reducing our market reach and depleting crucial channels through which we acquire new investments. Such disruptions can lead to a decline in inflows of new capital, adversely affecting our revenue streams. The table below sets out the details funds raised through third-party distributors for the period indicated.

Funds raised through distributors (₹ million)	Nil	Nil	844.92
Total funds raised (₹ million)	Nil	Nil	4,705.70
Funds raised through distributors % of total funds raised (%)	Nil	Nil	17.96
Costs incurred (₹ million)	Nil	Nil	25.72
Costs incurred as a % of total expenses (%)	Nil	Nil	5.25
Distribution cost as a % of fund raised through distributors (%)	Nil	Nil	3.04

Note: The details in relation to the funds raised and costs incurred are solely in relation to Fund IV, with no other funds raised during this period.

Further, if these distributors misrepresent our business to Limited Partners or fail to comply with regulatory requirements applicable to them in their relevant jurisdiction of operation, it could lead to serious reputational damage and legal repercussions for our Company. Additionally, wrongful selling practices could attract regulatory scrutiny and potential sanctions or fines, impacting our compliance landscape and diverting resources to address legal matters. The distributors may also negotiate higher fees or commissions in the future, which could increase our operational costs and reduce our profitability. If we are unable to negotiate mutually beneficial terms with our distributors, it may impact our margins and reduce the overall financial benefits derived from our investment products. Strained distributor relationships could impair our market reputation and brand, making it more challenging to cultivate new relationships or restore damaged ones. This reputational damage could have long-term consequences, including decreased Limited Partner confidence and increased difficulty in launching new products or entering new markets.

We focus on engaging with reputed distributors who have proper systems and processes in place as they also run a reputation risk. These reputed distributors are more focused on offering suitable products in accordance with the Limited Partners' allocation needs. While there have been no such instances wherein any legal action has been initiated by or against us by any distributor during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 we cannot assure you that, it will not occur in the future and if it does, it may adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

27. There are outstanding legal proceedings involving our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters and Key Managerial Personnel. Any adverse outcome in such proceedings may adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

There are outstanding legal proceedings involving our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters and Key Managerial Personnel. These proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts and enquiry officers.

The Gaja Capital Funds typically have a right of board representation in their respective Portfolio Companies, and as a result, certain of our Directors hold directorship positions in these Portfolio Companies. Being a director in such Portfolio Companies exposes certain of our Directors to being a party to certain litigations involving the Portfolio Companies. Our Directors may be involved in proceedings involving defaults by the Portfolio Companies with whom they are or have been previously associated (and are currently not associated with) or other criminal or civil matters wherein they have been named as a party to a suit only by virtue of them having been a director on the board of such Portfolio Company. For instance, our Promoters, Mr. Gopal Jain and Mr. Imran Jafar, along with our Subsidiary, Gaja Trustee Company Private Limited and others, are currently involved in criminal proceedings in relation to a FIR bearing number 0150 under sections 403, 405, 415, 418, 420 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, as amended, ("FIR No. 0150") filed by Mr. Harjeet Singh on behalf of Educomp Learning Private Limited in relation to investments in EuroKids International Private Limited, one of the portfolio companies of Fund II. The FIR No. 0150 was registered pursuant to an order dated July 6, 2022 passed by the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class at Gurugram, Haryana. Pursuant to FIR No. 0150, the Economic Offences Wing, Gurugram issued notices dated August 1, 2023, August 10, 2023, and August 22, 2023 under Section 41A(1) of the CrPC and directed Mr. Gopal Jain to appear before the Commissioner of Police, Gurugram, Haryana ("Notices"). Mr. Gopal Jain replied to the Notices on August 11, 2023 and September 7, 2023.

Our Subsidiary, Gaja Trustee Company Private Limited, along with Mr. Imran Jafar and others ("Petitioners 1") filed a petition dated October 10, 2023 ("Petition 1") and Mr. Gopal Jain ("Petitioner 2", and together with Petitioners 1, the "Accused"), filed a petition dated September 16, 2023 ("Petition 2"), each under Section 482 of the CrPC before the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh ("High Court"). The High Court by way of its orders dated October 5, 2023 and October 19, 2023, in connection with Petition 1 and Petition 2, respectively, directed that no coercive steps shall be taken against Petitioners 1 and Petitioner 2, with a direction that the interim order is not to be construed to mean that in case the investigating officer requires to record any statement of the Accused, they shall not co-operate in the same. For further details, see "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments—Criminal proceedings against our Subsidiaries", "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments—Litigation involving our Promoters" and "Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments—Litigation involving our Directors" on pages 374, 377 and 376, respectively.

Further, in the event of any proceeding, investigation or enquiry being commenced by a regulatory or other governmental authority against any of the Portfolio Companies, our Directors (to the extent they were also directors of the relevant Portfolio Company) may be summoned to appear before a regulatory authority during the course of the investigation to depose and provide information requested from them. For instance, in the case of Educomp Solutions Limited there are investigations underway by various government agencies including Serious Fraud Investigation Office, Central Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement Directorate. Mr. Gopal Jain, one of our Promoters and our Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, has appeared as a witness before the Serious Fraud Investigation Office and the Central Bureau of Investigation, respectively (in his capacity as an erstwhile non-executive independent director of Educomp Solutions Limited) in the investigation being conducted into the affairs of Educomp Solutions Limited, its subsidiaries, associate and related companies by such authorities.

Such proceedings or investigations could divert management's time, attention, and consume financial resources in their defence or prosecution. Additionally, such proceedings could also adversely affect the reputation of our Promoters and Directors.

A summary of the outstanding legal proceedings involving our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management in accordance with requirements under the SEBI ICDR Regulations, to the extent quantifiable, has been set out below.

Except as disclosed in “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments—Litigation involving our Group Companies that have a material impact on our Company” on page 378, there are no outstanding legal proceedings involving any of our Group Companies that have a material impact on our Company.

Should any new developments arise in the above litigations, such as any rulings against us, we may need to make provisions in our financial statements that could increase expenses and current liabilities. Further, an adverse outcome in these proceedings may affect our reputation, standing and future business, and could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Further, we cannot assure you that any of these proceedings will be decided in favor of our Company, Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters, Key Managerial Personnel, Senior Management and Group Companies or that no further liability will arise out of these proceedings. Furthermore, we may not be able to quantify all the claims in which we or our Subsidiaries, Directors, Promoters Key Managerial Personnel, Senior Management and Group Companies are involved. Additionally, we cannot assure you that the provisions we have made will be sufficient or that further litigation will not be brought against us in the future. Failure to successfully defend these or other claims or if our current provisions prove to be inadequate, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected. Even if we are successful in defending such cases, we will be subjected to legal and other costs relating to defending such litigation, and such costs could be substantial. Additionally, such proceedings could also adversely affect their and our reputation. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition, and results of operation.

28. The alternative asset management business is highly competitive.

The alternative asset management industry operates in a highly competitive environment, driven by the increasing demand for high yield investments and risk adjusted returns. Our business competes with other alternative investment funds, venture capital funds, private equity funds, specialized investment funds, hedge funds, corporate buyers, traditional asset managers and other financial institutions. In order to maintain a competitive edge, alternative asset managers emphasize innovation, strategic partnerships, and strong risk management frameworks. (Source: Crisil Report). Also see “Industry Overview—Key competitive factors” on page 170. Set down below are certain factors that increase our competitive risks:

- our competitors may have greater financial, technical, marketing, human resources which may lead to some of the funds managed and advised by us not performing as well as competitors’ funds or other available investment products and our competitors having better expertise in a specific asset class or geographic region than we do;
- several of our competitors have access to significant amounts of capital, and many of them have similar investment objectives to ours, which may create additional competition for investment opportunities;
- some of these competitors may have access to funding sources that are not available to us, which may create competitive disadvantages for us with respect to investment opportunities;
- some of our competitors may have higher risk tolerances, different risk assessments or lower return thresholds than us, which could allow them to consider a wider variety of investments and to bid more aggressively than us for investments that we want to make;
- some of our competitors may be subject to less regulation and accordingly may have more flexibility to undertake investments than we do and/or bear less compliance expense and further raise certain types of investment funds under the respective negotiated investment management contracts;
- some of our competitors may have lower management fee, which provide them with a competitive advantage in raising investments;
- our competitors that are corporate buyers may be able to achieve synergistic cost savings in respect of an investment, which may provide them with a competitive advantage in bidding for an investment;
- some investors may prefer to invest in funds with an asset manager that is not publicly traded or is smaller with only one or two investment products that it manages; and
- other industry participants may, from time to time, seek to recruit our investment professionals and other employees away from us.

We may lose investment opportunities in the future if we do not match investment prices, structures and terms offered by our competitors. Alternatively, we may experience decreased rates of return and increased risks of loss if we match investment prices, structures and terms offered by our competitors. Moreover, if we are forced to compete with other alternative asset managers on the basis of price, we may not be able to maintain the terms of our Management Fee and Carried Interest.

This competitive pressure could adversely affect our ability to make successful investments and limit our ability to raise future funds, either of which would adversely affect our business, revenue, results of operations and cash flow.

29. The investments of the funds managed and advised by us in the Portfolio Companies are subject to a number of inherent risks which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We act as an investment manager to India focused funds, including category II and category I alternative investment funds and also act as advisors to offshore funds, which provide capital to companies in India. The securities of such companies are generally illiquid and comparatively less active when compared to the listed counter parts. Our results of operations are dependent on our continued ability to manage and advise funds and generate returns from their investments. The investments made by the funds managed and advised by us involve several risks inherent to alternative investment fund investing, which include, among others:

- the Portfolio Companies being subject to domestic and foreign regulations, such as businesses in the financial services sector, consumer sector and EEE sector that may involve greater risk due to changing market conditions and regulations governing those sectors and inability of the Portfolio Companies to comply with laws and regulations applicable to them;
- the Portfolio Companies may have limited financial resources and may require additional capital to support their operations, expansion, competitive position and repayment of debt;
- the funds managed and advised by us may be subject to legal liabilities and indemnities even after they exit from a portfolio company;
- the Portfolio Companies and their executive officers, directors and employees may be subject to litigation; and
- instances of fraud in the Portfolio Companies may undermine the due diligence efforts undertaken by us with respect to such companies and, upon the discovery of such fraud, may negatively affect the valuation of the investments as well as contribute to overall market volatility.

The occurrence of any of the foregoing may result in lower returns of the funds and thereby lower Carried Interest and lower Income from Sponsor Commitment, which would in turn adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

30. Any failure to protect our intellectual property rights could adversely affect our competitive position, business, financial condition and results of operation.

The use of our trademarks or logos by third parties could adversely affect our reputation, which could in turn adversely affect our business and results of operations.

The measures we take to protect our intellectual property, such as registration of our trademarks, may not be adequate to prevent unauthorized use of our intellectual property by third parties. Despite these precautions, it is possible that third parties may copy or otherwise infringe upon our rights. While there have been no such instances of third parties copying or otherwise infringing upon our rights during Fiscals 2026, 2025, and 2024 any such infringement in the future may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

For further details, see “Objects of the Offer” on page 111.

While a monitoring agency will be appointed to monitor the utilization of the Gross Proceeds, the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds is based on current business plans, market conditions and other commercial and technical factors including interest rates and other charges, the financing and other agreements entered into by our Company. Our management will have broad discretion to revise our business plans, estimates and budgets from time to time in compliance with applicable law. Consequently, our funding requirements and deployment of funds may change, which may result in rescheduling of the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds, subject to compliance with applicable law.

In case of an increase in actual expenses or shortfall in requisite funds, additional funds for a particular activity will be met by any means available to us, including internal accruals and additional equity and/or debt arrangements. If actual utilization towards the Objects of the Offer is lower than the proposed deployment, such balance will be used for future growth opportunities, including funding other existing objects, subject to compliance with applicable law. Certain factors may impact the pace of deployment across our funds, which in turn may result in underutilization of Net Proceeds in a particular year. These factors could be internal to us such as our inability to identify attractive investment opportunities or external factors driven by adverse macroeconomic conditions. If the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds is not completed within a fiscal year, it shall be carried forward to subsequent years. Further, at this stage, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control.

As on the date of this Prospectus, in relation to the Secondaries Fund, we have (i) entered into a trust deed; and (ii) filed a private placement memorandum dated June 23, 2025 with SEBI in relation to one of the constituent funds, i.e., Eastgate Secondaries Fund for registration as a Category II AIF. Further, in relation to Fund V, we have registered a trust deed for one of the constituent funds, i.e., Gaja Capital India Fund V. Further, our Company has filed a private placement memorandum application with the SEBI on June 10, 2026 and other requisite approvals and registrations, as may be required under the applicable law, would be obtained in due course. Any such variation in the objects of the Offer shall be made in compliance with Sections 13(8) and 27 of the Companies Act which requires us to obtain shareholders’ approval, and Regulation 59 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations which requires us to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Offer or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI and in accordance with any other applicable law. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilization of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the shareholders’ approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such shareholders’ approval may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, our Promoters would be required to provide an exit opportunity to shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Offer or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement for our Promoters to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer” on page 111.

34. Our Corporate Office and the Registered Office are located on premises not owned by us and has been leased to us. Any non-renewal of the lease may lead to disruptions and affect our business operations.

Our Corporate Office and Registered Office are located on premises that we occupy under lease arrangements. The tenure of the lease for our Corporate Office is 60 months from September 29, 2023 and is renewable in accordance with the terms of the relevant lease deed. Further, the tenure of the lease for our Registered Office is three years from March 1, 2025. For details of our properties, see “Our Business—Description of our Business—Properties” on page 244.

We may be required to re-negotiate rent or other terms and conditions of the lease deeds. We may not be able to renew or extend the lease of our Corporate Office and Registered Office at commercially acceptable terms, or at all and if we are unable to renew the lease deeds on terms and conditions acceptable to us, or at all, we would need to find alternative premises, which may be more expensive and/or be situated in a less desirable location and the relocation to the new premises could disrupt our operations.

We may also be required to vacate the premises at short notice as prescribed in the lease deed, and we may not be able to obtain possession of an alternate location, in a short period of time. Our ability to obtain possession of an alternate location depends on a variety of factors that are beyond our control such as overall economic conditions, our ability to identify such properties and competition for such properties. In addition, properties in convenient locations or supported by quality infrastructure may command a premium, which may exceed our budget. Occurrence of any of the above events could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

35. Our inability to make timely payment of our statutory dues may result in imposition of penalties, payment of additional interest which in turn may have an adverse effect on our business, our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. We have paid an aggregate amount of ₹286.59 million and ₹225.78 million towards statutory due payments for Fiscals 2026 and Fiscal 2025, respectively.

Our Company, in the regular course of its operations, is required to pay certain statutory dues including the employee state-insurance contributions, employee provident fund contributions, income tax payments, tax deductions at source, goods and services tax, equalization levies and professional taxes. In compliance with applicable laws, during Fiscals 2026, 2025, and 2024, we have paid an aggregate amount of ₹286.59 million, ₹225.78 million and ₹207.26 million, respectively as statutory dues to government agencies. The table below sets forth the details of statutory dues paid by our Company and its Subsidiaries for the periods indicated.

Further, the number of employees for which the employee state insurance, provident fund, income tax (tax deductions at source) is applicable along with the details of the paid and unpaid dues is given below:

We cannot assure you that going forward we will be able to make payment of our statutory dues in a timely manner or at all, which could result in penal or other regulatory action including payment of interest on the delay in payment of statutory dues, which could adversely affect our business and our results of operations and financial condition.

36. Our business operations may be adversely affected if we encounter challenges in the processes of Limited Partner onboarding and offboarding. Any failure to provide the Limited Partners of the funds managed and advised by us with key updates may result in regulatory and reputational consequences and could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

The processes of Limited Partner onboarding, offboarding and continuous engagement are critical to our operations. Any challenges or inefficiencies in these processes, such as delays or inaccuracies in documentation, could adversely affect our ability to manage the Limited Partner accounts of the funds managed and advised by us, efficiently. Inaccurate or incomplete documentation during the onboarding process may result in compliance issues, regulatory penalties, and damage to our reputation. Similarly, delays or errors in the offboarding process could lead to disputes and potential legal repercussions.

We are also required to furnish timely reports to the Limited Partners regarding their investment portfolio and under the relevant governing documents of the funds managed and advised by us, we are required to provide quarterly updates to the Limited Partners to ensure transparency and meet governance standards. These reports include, among others, a summary of the portfolio, investment updates and transactions in the pipeline. Limited Partners may rely on these communications for making informed decisions about their investments. However, it may be possible that due to unforeseen circumstances or operational oversights, we may not be able to send the reports on timely basis or not send at all. Failing to provide such reports, in the prescribed manner, may result in non-compliance with regulatory requirements, thereby attracting scrutiny and action by regulatory bodies under applicable law. Any missing updates may further decrease the level of transparency between us and the Limited Partners of the funds managed and advised by us and may harm our reputation, Limited Partner relations in the long term and our ability to raise further funds. While there have been no such instances during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that such instances may not arise in the future and accordingly, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

37. The due diligence process that we undertake in connection with investments by the funds managed and advised by us may not reveal all facts that may be relevant in connection with an investment. This may result in lower returns of the funds and thereby lower Carried Interest and lower Income from Sponsor Commitment.

Before making investments, a letter of intent or term sheet is typically executed with the potential target entities that we deem reasonable and appropriate based on the facts and circumstances applicable and we conduct due diligence on such target entity through third-party agencies. Third-party consultants, legal advisors and accountants are typically involved in the due diligence process in varying degrees depending on the type of investment. The objective of due diligence is to evaluate target entities by assessing the financial and operational condition and legal compliance of the target entity before making an investment. By conducting due diligence, we, together with the third-party agencies, seek to identify potential risks, liabilities and verify the accuracy of financial statements. For further details in relation to investment process, see “Our Business—Investment Process” on page 239.

When conducting due diligence of a target entity, we may be required to evaluate important and complex business, commercial, financial, tax, accounting, environmental, social and governance and legal issues. However, when conducting due diligence and making an assessment regarding an investment, we, together with the third-party agencies appointed by us, rely on the resources available to us, including information provided by the target entity and, in some circumstances, third-party investigations. The due diligence process may at times be restrictive with respect to newly set-up companies for which only limited information is available. Accordingly, we cannot be certain that the due diligence that we carry out with respect to any investment opportunity will reveal or highlight all relevant facts that may be necessary or helpful in evaluating such investment opportunity and instances of fraud, accounting irregularities and other deceptive practices can be difficult to detect.

While we have not encountered any instance of accounting irregularity or other deceptive practices in the portfolio companies in which the funds managed and advised by us have invested and which have materially affected the funds managed and advised by us during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that there will not be any such instances in the future, or that such instances will not have an adverse effect on the funds managed and advised by us.

Further, we cannot be certain that our due diligence process will result in investments being successful or that the actual financial performance of an investment by the funds managed and advised by us will not fall short of the financial projections we used when evaluating that investment. Failure to identify risks associated with such investments could adversely affect our business. In addition, our inability to complete transactions after conducting due diligence of potential target entities could adversely impact the potential transactions of the funds managed and advised by us.

38. We have experienced certain instances of negative cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in recent years. Any negative cash flows in the future would affect our cash flow requirements, which may adversely affect our ability to operate our business and implement our growth plans, thereby affecting our financial condition.

We have experienced negative cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in recent years. The following table sets forth certain information relating to our restated statements of cash flows for the periods indicated, as per the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements:

	(₹ million)
Net cash flow from/(used in) operating activities	(149.82)	(87.54)	208.91
Net cash flow from/(used in) investing activities	(1,087.30)	141.99	(61.86)
Net cash flow from/(used in) financing activities	1,516.17	(67.63)	(55.87)

Our negative cash flows in operating activities in Fiscal 2026 were primarily attributable to increase in other financial assets and other bank balances of ₹651.75 million. Further, our negative cash flows in investing activities in Fiscal 2026 were primarily attributable to acquisition of investments of ₹1,053.03 million.

Our negative cash flows in operating activities in Fiscal 2025 were primarily attributable to increase in trade receivables of ₹686.73 million. Further, our negative cash flows in financing activities in Fiscal 2025 were primarily attributable to dividends paid of ₹52.08 million.

Our negative cash flows in investing activities in Fiscal 2024 were primarily attributable to acquisition of investments of ₹52.43 million and acquisition of property, plant and equipment including intangible assets of ₹16.23 million. Further, our negative cash flows in financing activities in Fiscal 2024 were primarily attributable to the dividend payment of ₹51.04 million.

For further details, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation—Cash Flows” on page 362.

Negative cash flows over extended periods, or significant negative cash flows in the short term, could materially impact our ability to operate our business and implement our growth plans and could adversely affect our cash flows, business, future financial performance and results of operations. For further details, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 341.

39. Any downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our key focus as an alternative asset management company is on the mid-market segment in India. Majority of our operations and Portfolio Companies are located in India. As such, our financial performance is dependent on the condition of the Indian economy.

Factors that may adversely impact the Indian economy and hence, our results of operations, may include:

- any increase in interest rates or inflation;
- any exchange rate fluctuations, imposition of currency controls and restrictions on the right to convert or repatriate currency or export assets;
- any scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions in India;
- prevailing income conditions among Indian corporations;
- changes in India’s tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- changes in India’s FDI Policy;
- geopolitical tensions;

- unemployment rates;
- availability and cost of electricity;
- intensity of industry competition;
- macroeconomic factors, including in relation to interest rates movements, which may in turn adversely impact access of target companies to capital, fund raising avenues and changes in borrowing costs;
- occurrence of natural or man-made disasters or outbreak of an infectious disease or epidemic such as COVID-19 or any other force majeure events in the region or globally, including in India's neighboring countries;
- volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India's principal stock exchanges;
- prevailing regional or global economic conditions;
- any decline in India's foreign exchange reserves which may affect liquidity in the Indian economy; and
- any downgrading of India's debt rating by a domestic or international rating agency

Any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy or in certain regions in India could adversely impact the Portfolio Companies, which may in turn impact our cash flows and financial condition. While we have not been materially affected by such a slowdown during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, any future downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India could adversely affect the business of the Portfolio Companies and in turn our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

40. Failure to detect and deter misconduct of our Directors, employees, distributors (i.e., placement agents) or other third-party service providers could harm our brand and our reputation or lead to regulatory fines or litigation against us.

We are vulnerable to reputational harm because we operate in an industry in which personal relationships and the confidence of the Limited Partners are of critical importance. Our employees, agents and other third party service providers, appointed in relation to fund administration, custodian services, company secretarial services, tax consultants, from time to time, could engage in misconduct that may adversely affect our business. For example, if an employee were to engage in illegal or suspicious activities, we could be subject to regulatory fines and suffer serious harm to our reputation (because of the negative perception resulting in such activities), financial position, Limited Partner relationships and ability to attract new Limited Partners. While we have internal processes to detect, prevent and monitor our employees, distributors and other third parties, we may not be successful in identifying or limiting such occurrences. Such misconduct could include, engaging in misrepresentation or fraudulent, deceptive or otherwise improper activities when marketing our business, binding us to transactions, hiding unauthorized or unsuccessful activities, such as insider trading, improperly using or disclosing confidential and price sensitive information, making illegal or improper payments, falsifying documents or data, recommending transactions that are not suitable for the Limited Partners; misappropriation of funds, engaging in unauthorized or excessive transactions to the detriment of the Limited Partners or not complying with applicable laws or our internal policies and procedures. While we have not experienced such issues during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, there can be no assurance that such events would not happen in the future.

We are exposed to the risk of our Directors and employees being non-compliant with insider trading rules or engaging in front running in securities markets. While we have taken steps to reduce instances of fraud and other forms of misconduct by our agents, employees and distribution partners, including taking action against malpractices, conducting training programs for employees and distributors, there can be no assurance that these measures will succeed in detecting or deterring misconduct or to provide sufficient evidence to conclude investigations of misconduct.

Furthermore, our business often requires that we deal with confidential information. If our employees were to improperly use or disclose this information, even if inadvertently, we may be subject to legal action and suffer serious harm to our reputation, financial position and current and future business relationships. It is not always possible to deter employee misconduct and the precautions we take to detect and prevent such activities may not always be effective. Misconduct by our employees, or even unsubstantiated allegations of misconduct, could result in an adverse effect on our reputation and our business. While we have not experienced instances our employees improperly using or disclosing confidential information during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, there can be no assurance that it would not happen in the future. Further, while we have implemented specific initiatives to reduce the likelihood of such situations occurring in future, including enhanced due diligence measures for high-risk cases, there can be no assurance that we will not be subjected to fraudulent claims in the future. We may be also subjected to fraudulent behavior and disclosures by Limited Partners and third parties in respect of other areas of operations, including money laundering and forgery, which may negatively impact our ability to comply with applicable regulations and have an adverse impact on our results of operations, profitability and reputation.

41. We may face operational issues while deploying our funds, which could negatively impact the returns from investments.

Our business is subject to operational risks associated with the deployment of our funds, which include risks related to inadequate or failed internal processes, systems, or external events. Operational issues during the deployment of our funds can arise from variety of sources, including but not limited to, inadequate internal controls, human errors, system failures, or unforeseen events. Such operational challenges can disrupt our investment processes, leading to incorrect or delayed investment decisions, and potentially result in financial losses. For example, inaccuracies in transaction processing, misallocation of assets, or lapses in documenting, safeguarding documentation including title deeds or security creation documents and adhering to timelines for security invocation or liquidation at the time of default can impair our ability to capitalize on investment opportunities or expose us to unforeseen risks. Any such operational failures can contribute to poor fund performance, discouraging Limited Partners from committing new capital, thereby adversely affecting our business, financial condition, and results of operations. While we have not experienced any instances of operational issues while deploying our funds during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that, it will not occur in the future and if it does, it may adversely affect operations and performance of the funds managed and advised by us.

42. Our risk management procedures, and internal controls may not be adequate or effective in identifying or managing risks to which we are exposed, and this could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risk management procedures are integral to our business operations. Our business operations depend on the proper operation of business, accounting and other data processing systems, and the proper handling of documents relating to our business, finance and operation. If we make any mistake in operating data processing systems or handling documents, we may face business disruption, financial loss, intervention by regulatory authorities and reputational loss. We cannot assure you that there will be no operational errors in the future and if any operational errors occur, we may not be able to identify or rectify these operational errors and solve the problems caused thereby in a timely manner, or at all. Such problems may include failure to carry out the operation of key business, wrong execution or delay, impairing our ability to monitor and manage data or non-compliance with regulatory requirements. If we are unable solve these problems in a timely manner, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Our risk management procedures and internal controls may not be adequate or effective in identifying or managing risks to which we are exposed. While, we have not experienced instances any of delays in regulatory reporting, inaccuracies in investor communications, or errors in fund accounting during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, there can be no assurance that such or similar instances will not happen in the future. If we fail to address any internal control matters and other deficiencies in a timely and effective manner, such matters or deficiencies may result in investigations, disciplinary actions or even prosecutions being taken against us or our employees, or disruption to our risk management system, any of which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Additionally, the effectiveness of our risk management and internal controls and procedures may also be adversely affected by misjudgment, clerical mishandling and errors, reporting errors or resources in making accurate, complete, up-to-date or proper evaluations. Many of our methods for managing risk exposure are based upon observed historical market behavior or data. Future risk exposure can be significantly greater than what these methods have historically estimated. Moreover, the information and empirical data that we rely on may quickly become obsolete because of market and regulatory developments, and our historical data may not be able to adequately reflect risks that may emerge from time to time in the future.

44. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on management estimates and may be subject to change based on various factors, some of which are beyond our control.

As of the date of this Prospectus, our funding requirements are based on management estimates in view of past expenditures and have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution, since the Objects are being funded completely out of the Net Proceeds. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of the Net Proceeds are based on current conditions and are subject to change in light of changes in external circumstances, costs, business initiatives, other financial conditions or business strategies. We may have to reconsider our estimates or business plans due to changes in underlying factors, some of which are beyond our control, such as raising future funds and non-materialization of liquidity events in portfolio companies of the funds managed and advised by us.

The utilization of Net Proceeds towards general corporate purposes shall be at the discretion of the management of our Company. We cannot ascertain the quantum or period of utilization of funds towards general corporate purposes, which shall be determined by our Board based on business needs and requirements, subject to applicable laws to the extent that the total amount to be utilized towards general corporate purposes will not exceed 25% of the Gross Proceeds in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and in compliance with the objectives as set out under “Objects of the Offer—Details of the Objects—General corporate purposes” on page 119. Accordingly, prospective investors in the Offer will need to rely upon our management’s judgment with respect to the use of Net Proceeds. If we are unable to deploy the Net Proceeds in a timely or an efficient manner, it could adversely affect our business and the results of operations. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer—Details of the Objects” on page 114.

45. We may face conflicts of interest with entities or ventures in which the Directors of our Company and Subsidiaries have an interest and which operate in the same line of business as that of our Company.

As of the date of this Prospectus, our Non-Executive Chairman, Mr. Upendra Kumar Sinha has interests as a director in (i) Aavishkaar Venture Management Services Private Limited (“Aavishkaar”); and (ii) Nippon Life India Asset Management Limited (“Nippon”), which are engaged in businesses similar to ours.

Further, we have no agreements with our Directors that restrict us or them from offering similar services. As a result, our relationship with our Directors may cause certain conflicts of interest and we may compete with entities in which they have interests while undertaking our business in the future. We may also compete for capital as well as for the services of our business partners and other third-party service providers and we cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully compete with the entities and ventures in which our Directors are interested, if and when such conflict arises. Our Directors have no obligation to direct any opportunities to us. We cannot assure you that these or other conflicts of interest will be resolved in an impartial manner. Further, our relationship with and dependence on our Directors may prevent us from taking advantage of certain business opportunities. If we forego certain business opportunities because of our relationship with our Directors, it could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

46. This Prospectus includes certain Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. The Non-GAAP Measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the Indian alternative asset management industry and, therefore, may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain Non-GAAP Measures and certain other industry measures relating to our operations and financial performance have been included in this Prospectus. We compute and disclose such Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance as we consider such information to be useful measures of our business and financial performance, and because such measures are frequently used to evaluate the operational performance of entities in the alternative asset management industry, many of which provide such Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry related statistical information.

These Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance may not necessarily be defined under, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS and may not have been derived from the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements. These Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry related statistical information may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other companies in India and other jurisdictions. Such supplemental financial and operational information is therefore of limited utility as an analytical tool and should not be viewed as substitutes for performance or profitability measures under Ind AS or as indicators of our operating performance, financial condition, cash flows, liquidity or profitability. Investors are cautioned against considering such information either in isolation, or as a substitute for an analysis, of the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements.

Further, we track certain financial and operational performance indicators, including Management Fee, Carried Interest, Income from Sponsor Commitment/investments in funds, total income, profit/ (loss) after tax for the year, PAT Margin, net worth, total borrowings, cash and cash equivalents, total assets, cost to income ratio, return on equity and debt to equity ratio (times) (collectively, the “Key Performance Indicators” or “KPI”). The KPIs are supplemental measures of our operations and financial performance and are not required by, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS, Indian GAAP, IFRS or U.S. GAAP, and are prepared with internal systems and tools that are not independently verified by any third party and which may differ from estimates or similar metrics published by third parties due to differences in sources, methodologies, or the assumptions on which we rely. Our internal systems and tools have a number of limitations and our methodologies for tracking these metrics may change over time, which could result in unexpected changes to our metrics, including the metrics we publicly disclose. If the internal systems and tools we use to track these metrics under count or over count performance or contain algorithmic or other technical errors, the data we report may not be accurate. While these numbers are based on what we believe to be reasonable estimates of our measures for the applicable period of measurement. Limitations or errors with respect to how we measure data or with respect to the data that we measure may affect our understanding of certain details of our business, which could affect our long-term strategies.

Further, there can be no assurance that our KPIs will be higher than our comparable listed industry peers in the future. An inability to improve, maintain or compete, or any reduction in such KPIs in comparison with the listed comparable industry peers may adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares.

Also see, “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Non-GAAP Financial Measures” on page 348.

47. We are subject to impact of foreign exchange fluctuation. Any significant fluctuation in exchange rates may adversely affect our business, financial conditions, cash flows and results of operations.

Mu Funds co-invest in portfolio companies along with the domestic funds. Further, Mu Funds and Gaja Advisors Ltd, Mauritius transact in U.S. Dollar. The table below sets forth the details of our overseas income for the periods indicated.

Overseas Income (₹ million)	1,030.53	905.68	537.79

Any of the foregoing events, may adversely affect our profitability and financial condition.

We cannot assure you that we will generate sufficient revenues to cover our operating expenses and, as such, pay dividends to our Company's shareholders in the future consistent with our past practices, or at all. 49. We are subject to various laws and regulations governing our relationships with our employees.

We are subject to various laws and regulations governing our relationships with our employees, including in relation to working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and terminating the contracts of employees and contractors, and work permits. Any change in applicable labor laws that requires us to increase the benefits to the employees from the benefits now being provided could create potentially liability for us. Such benefits could also include provisions, which reduce the number of hours an employee may work for, or increase in number of mandatory casual leaves, which all can affect the productivity of the employees and can adversely affect our future results of operations.

50. We may be unable to obtain, maintain or renew our statutory and regulatory approvals, licenses, registrations and permits to operate our business in a timely manner, or at all.

We are required to obtain certain approvals, registrations, permissions and licenses from statutory and regulatory authorities under central, state and local government rules in India to carry out/ undertake our operations. These approvals, licenses, registrations and permissions are subject to various conditions. See “Government and Other Approvals” on page 381.

Further, some of our permits, licenses and approvals are subject to several conditions and we cannot provide any assurance that we will be able to continuously meet such conditions or be able to prove compliance with such conditions to the statutory authorities, which may lead to the cancellation, revocation or suspension of relevant permits, licenses or approvals. Any failure by us to apply in time, to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits, licenses or approvals, or the cancellation, suspension or revocation of any of the permits, licenses or approvals may result in the interruption of our operations and could adversely affect the business. Additionally, any actual or alleged failure on our part to comply with the terms and conditions of such regulatory licenses and registrations could expose us to legal action, compliance costs or liabilities, or could affect our ability to continue to operate at the locations or in the manner in which we have been operating thus far. Further, if we fail to comply with all applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business or their implementation change, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties or suffer a disruption in our business activities, any of which could adversely affect our results of operations.

Some of the material licenses held by Gaja Advisors Ltd, Mauritius, our Material Subsidiary are subject to renewal on a periodic basis. As on the date of this Prospectus, three of these material licenses held by Gaja Advisors Ltd, Mauritius are due to expire in their normal course of business. Our Material Subsidiary has already made applications to the appropriate authorities for renewal of such approvals, in accordance with applicable requirements and procedures. Set forth below are the licenses for which renewals have been applied for but not yet obtained by our Material Subsidiary.

S. No.	License	Validity/Last renewal	Status
1.	Investment adviser (restricted) license dated October 22, 2008	Valid for the period from July 1, 2025 to June 30, 2026	Applied for renewal but not yet obtained ⁽¹⁾
2.	Global business license dated October 22, 2008	Valid for the period from July 1, 2025 to June 30, 2026	Applied for renewal but not yet obtained ⁽¹⁾

While our Material Subsidiary has applied for the renewal of these licenses, there can be no assurance that the requested renewals will be received within the anticipated timeframe or on the same terms and conditions as the previous licenses. Any undue delay in the renewal process or refusal by the relevant regulatory authorities to renew the licenses of our Material Subsidiary could result in regulatory restrictions, suspension or cessation of business activities and adverse reputational consequences for our Material Subsidiary and, by extension, us. While we have not experienced any material adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition on account of approvals being rejected, suspended or revoked or not being able to obtain or renew approvals or licenses in Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that such occurrences will not occur in the future, such as due to non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action.

51. Ineffective or inadequate management of environmental, social and governance issues, or health and safety programs, could damage our reputation and, in turn, our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) is becoming an increasingly important criteria for Limited Partners, and our perceived failure to address these issues may lead them to seek other alternative asset management companies. Additionally, increased ESG focus of the Limited Partners may require us to prioritize certain investment opportunities over the other, potentially more profitable opportunities due to ESG considerations. Our failure to effectively manage any ESG issues, including those related to climate change, could adversely affect our reputation and our ability to attract and retain Limited Partners.

Furthermore, if our health and safety programs are found to be inadequate or ineffective, it could lead to workplace incidents or regulatory breaches, which could result in significant financial penalties, increased scrutiny, and reputational damage. Such incidents could decrease employee morale and productivity, increase employee attrition, and potentially lead to costly litigation or compensation claims.

Increased regulatory action in response to perceived or actual shortcomings in our ESG, or health and safety management could result in constraints on our operations, additional compliance costs, and potential fines or sanctions. While there have been no such instances during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, any of these outcomes could affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

52. We have certain contingent liabilities and commitments which, if materialized, may adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

We have certain contingent liabilities which, if materialized, may adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Set forth below are details of our contingent liabilities as of March 31, 2026.

Contingent Liabilities	As of March 31, 2026
1. Step-down subsidiary Gaja Advisors Ltd. (Mauritius) has a contingent liability payable to the certain fund investors, which is based on the realization of carried interest income which is recoverable from Gaja Capital Fund I Ltd. The recovery of such carried interest is contingent in nature, and the estimated amount of liability as at March 31, 2026 is ₹126.59 million (Previous year: March 31, 2025 - ₹154.00 million).
2. The step-down subsidiary company Gaja Advisors Ltd. (Mauritius) has received an assessment order (Case No. LTD/BRNC16071739/72466/NPR) from the Mauritius Revenue Authorities on 29th September 2025, raising an outstanding demand of USD 153,563 (₹14.54 million) in respect of carried interest income. Gaja Advisors Ltd. (Mauritius) has filed an appeal against the assessment order and has deposited 10% of the demand under protest with the Mauritius Revenue Authorities. The matter is currently under litigation, and the ultimate outcome is uncertain. Accordingly, the amount under dispute has been disclosed as a contingent liability, as the likelihood of outflow depends on the final decision of the appellate authority.
3. Gaja Corporate Advisors Private Limited (Subsidiary Company) has given corporate guarantee to 360 One Wealth Prime Limited (Financial Institution) for loan availed by Holding Company (Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) during the year.

The abovementioned contingent liabilities may crystallize and become actual liabilities. In the event that any of our contingent liabilities become non-contingent, and we are unable to manage our liquidity, our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected. For further details, see Note 40 to our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements included in “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements”, on page 339. For further details of the contingent liabilities of our Company, see “Summary of Contingent Liabilities” on page 72.

Further, in the ordinary course of business, we enter into capital commitments, i.e., Sponsor Commitments. These commitments are governed by the underlying fund documents. In the event of capital calls for such commitments, we may have to deploy capital towards such capital call. Set forth below are details of our commitments as of March 31, 2026.

Commitments	As of March 31, 2026 (₹ million)
Investment in Gaja Capital India Fund 2020 LLP	25.20
Investment in Gaja Capital India Fund 2021 (formerly Gaja Capital India Fund 2020)	544.80
Investment in third party funds	15.80
Net capital commitment	585.80

In the event we are unable to manage our liquidity and funding plans, our financial condition, cash flows and results of operations may be adversely affected.

53. Our financing arrangements contain certain restrictive covenants, and non-compliance with any of the covenants of our financing agreements could trigger an event of default.

As of June 30, 2026, our total borrowings were ₹606.97 million. Since the interest rates on certain of our borrowings may be subject to changes based on the prime lending rate of the respective lenders, such borrowings may be subject to renegotiation and/or escalation on a periodic basis.

The agreements governing certain of our debt obligations include terms that, in addition to certain financial covenants, restrict our ability to, inter alia, without the prior intimation/consent of lenders:

- undertake or permit any merger, consolidation, reorganization, scheme of arrangement or compromise with creditors, or shareholders or effect any scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction;

- effecting any change in the general nature of the business or any expansion or investment in any other entity;
- effecting any amendments to our Company's constitutional documents;
- change in ownership, control, shareholding; and
- change in management or constitution of our Company.

We have received consents from our lenders, where required, for the Offer.

While there have been no instances of breach of the covenants under our financing arrangements during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, we cannot assure you that we will be able to comply with such covenants at all times.

If one or a combination of the abovementioned factors were to arise, our business, financial condition, results of operations and growth prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

54. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all material risks.

We maintain insurance policies that cover customary risks for companies operating in our industry and that are commensurate with our operations. Our insurance coverage includes cover for electrical and mechanical appliances, electronic appliances, burglary and housebreaking, fire, earthquake and terrorism, group health insurance, as well as insurance covering electronic equipment. We cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, in part or on time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all our losses. The table below sets out our insurance claims receivable and our insurance expenses for the periods indicated.

Particulars	As of March 31, 2026	As of March 31, 2025	As of March 31, 2024
Insurance claims receivable	-	-	-
Insurance expenses	0.24	0.04	2.83

In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business, but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, at an acceptable cost, or at all.

The table below describes the amount and percentage of coverage of insurance vis-a-vis the total assets of the Company on a consolidated basis as of March 31, 2026:

Particulars	Carrying amount of assets	Percentage of total assets	Amount of insurance coverage	Percentage of insurance coverage
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)
Insured assets	17.59	96.60	22.60	100.00
Uninsured assets	0.62	3.40	-	-
Total assets	18.21	100.00	22.60	100.00

To the extent that we suffer loss or damage, or successful assertion of one or more large claims against us for events for which we are not insured, or for which we did not obtain or maintain insurance, or which is not covered by insurance, exceeds our insurance coverage or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, financial performance and cash flows could be adversely affected. Also see, “Our Business—Description of our Business—Insurance” on page 244.

55. We will continue to be controlled by our Promoters after the completion of the Offer and there may be a conflict of interest between the interests of our Promoters and other shareholders.

As of date of this Prospectus, our Promoters and Promoter Group together hold 80,179,559[^] Equity Shares constituting 71.03% of the pre-Offer issued, subscribed and paid-up share capital of our Company, and will hold 76,470,184 Equity Shares constituting 54.23% of the post-Offer paid-up share capital of our Company after the completion of the Offer (subject to finalization of Basis of Allotment). After the Offer, our Promoters will continue to exercise significant control and influence over us which will allow them to vote together in capacity as shareholders of the Company on certain matters in general meetings of the Company. Accordingly, while the interests of our Promoters, in their capacity as shareholders of the Company, may conflict with the interests of other shareholders of the Company, we will comply with applicable laws, including SEBI Listing Regulations in relation to such conflicts. Any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business.

56. Our Promoters, our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel have interests in our business other than the reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits.

In addition to payment of remuneration, we have entered into related party transactions with our Promoters for, among other things, salary, consulting charges, and travel advances. For details, see “Summary of Related Party Transactions” and Note 37 to the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements included in “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements” on page 73 and 332, respectively. We enter into certain related party transactions in the ordinary course of our business, and we cannot assure you that such transactions will not adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. Further, our Promoters, Mr. Gopal Jain, Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah and Mr. Imran Jafar are also interested in our Company to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them and any remuneration received by them in their capacity as Directors of our Company. Mr. Gopal Jain and Mr. Imran Jafar are also interested in the Company to the extent of the remuneration received by them from the subsidiaries of the Company, Gaja Corporate Advisors Private Limited and Gaja Investments, respectively.

Our Key Managerial Personnel, Mr. Abhinav Jain and members of our Senior Management Personnel, Mr. Dheeraj Prasad Devata and Mr. Sushane Chopra are interested in the Company to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them and the remuneration received by them in their capacity as Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management, as applicable, of our Company. Further, our Independent Directors, Mr. Shailesh Vishnubhai Haribhakti and Mr. Arindam Kumar Bhattacharya are also interested in the Company to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them in our Company and the remuneration received by them.

For further details of the shareholding of our Directors, Promoters, Senior Management Personnel and Key Managerial Personnel, see “Capital Structure” on page 88. Additionally, for the details of remuneration of all Directors, Senior Management Personnel and Key Managerial Personnel see “Our Management” on page 259.

In the event that any conflicts of interest arise, our Promoters, our Directors, our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management may take decisions regarding our operations, financial structure or commercial transactions that may not be in our shareholders’ best interest. Such decisions could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Should we face any such conflicts in the future, we cannot assure you that they will get resolved in our favor.

57. Negative publicity could damage our reputation and adversely impact our business and financial results.

Reputational risk, or the risk to our business, earnings and capital from negative publicity, is inherent in our business. While we believe that we have been perceived as a trusted alternative asset management company in the alternative asset management industry, however, any negative public opinion about us could adversely affect our ability to attract and retain Limited Partners, employees and raise funds and may expose us to litigation and regulatory action. Negative publicity can result from our actual or alleged conduct in any number of activities, including regulatory compliance, legal proceedings, mergers and acquisitions and related disclosure, sharing or inadequate data protection, overvalued investments and actions taken by government regulators.

58. Any failure, or perceived failure, by us to comply with the applicable regulations on personal information protection could expose us to proceedings and fines which may adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Regulators in various jurisdictions are increasingly scrutinizing how companies collect, process, use, store, share and transmit personal data. This increased scrutiny may result in new interpretations of existing laws, thereby further impacting our business. In India, the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 (the “Data Protection Act”) has been enacted for implementing organizational and technical measures in processing personal data, laying down norms for cross-border transfer of personal data to ensure the accountability of entities processing personal data. The Data Protection Act introduced stricter data protection norms for an entity such as ours and may impact our processes. The Data Protection Act is instituted to maintain the highest level of security and protection for all such information. Any failure, or perceived failure, by us to comply with any applicable regulatory requirements, including but not limited to privacy, data protection, information security, or consumer protection related privacy laws and regulations, could result in proceedings or actions against us by governmental entities or individuals who may subject us to fines, penalties, and/or judgments, which may adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Further, the Digital Personal Data Protection Rules, 2025 (“DPDP Rules”) intend to regulate the processing of personal data in India, ensuring individuals’ privacy rights are protected. The DPDP Rules apply to all entities that process digital personal data. It mandates the conduct of data protection impact assessments for high-risk processing activities and requires the notification of data breaches within a stipulated timeframe.

Furthermore, despite our efforts to comply with applicable laws, regulations and other obligations relating to privacy, data protection and information security, it is possible that our interpretations of the law or practices could be inconsistent with, or fail, or be alleged to fail to meet all requirements of, such laws, regulations or contractual obligations, which may adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

59. Any non-compliance with mandatory anti-money laundering (“AML”) and combating-terrorism financing (“CFT”) laws could expose us to liability and harm our reputation.

In accordance with the requirements applicable to our Company, we are mandated to comply with AML and CFT regulations in India. These laws and regulations require us, among other things, to adopt and enforce AML and CFT policies and procedures. While we have adopted policies and procedures aimed at collecting and maintaining all relevant AML and CFT related information from our customers in order to detect and prevent the use of our networks for illegal money laundering and terrorism financing activities, there may be instances where we collected information that may be used by other parties in attempts to engage in money-laundering, terrorism financing and other illegal or improper activities. In addition, a number of jurisdictions (including India) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA. Pursuant to these provisions, as part of our KYC processes, we are required to collect and report certain information regarding U.S. persons having accounts with us.

We have not had instances of breach of any applicable AML and CFT regulations during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 and we consider that we have adequate internal policies, processes and controls in place to prevent and detect AML activity. We may however not be able to fully control instances of any potential or attempted violation by other parties and may accordingly be subject to regulatory actions, including imposition of fines and other penalties by the relevant government agencies to whom we report to, including the Financial Intelligence Unit–India. Our business and reputation could suffer if any such parties use or attempt to use us for money-laundering, terrorism financing or illegal or improper purposes and such attempts are not detected or reported to the appropriate authorities in compliance with applicable regulatory requirements. Also see “Our Business—Risk Management and Compliance” on page 242.

60. Any disruption or failure of our technology systems may adversely affect our business and operations. Additionally, challenges in implementation of new technologies for our operations could be significant.

Our business is significantly dependent on the efficient and uninterrupted operation of our technology infrastructure and systems. For more information on our information technology systems, see “Our Business—Description of our Business—Information Technology” on page 242.

If we do not allocate and effectively manage the resources necessary to implement and sustain appropriate IT infrastructure, we could be subject to errors and inefficiencies. Our technology infrastructure is vulnerable to interruption by events beyond our control such as fire, earthquake, power loss, telecommunications or internet failures, terrorist attacks and computer viruses. We may also be subject to hacking or other attacks on our IT systems and we cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully block or prevent all such attacks. Any breaches of our IT systems may require us to incur further expenditure on repairs or more advanced security systems. While there have been no such instances of failures and interruptions to our IT systems during Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, any significant system failure could adversely affect our ability to manage overall operations, thereby adversely affecting our results of operations, reputation and cash flow. If such interruption is prolonged, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be materially and adversely affected.

Any significant upgrade to or replacement of our systems could require considerable capital expenditure, which could adversely affect our financial condition. Implementation of technology enhancements also entail risks such as administrative delays and failure to effectively train our personnel to operate new, emerging technologies. In addition, technological advances from time to time may result in our systems, methods or processing facilities becoming obsolete or performing less efficiently compared to newer and better technologies and processes in the future. Certain of our competitors may have access to similar or superior technology or may have better adapted themselves to technological changes.

External Risks

61. Adverse macroeconomic conditions in India and globally could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our performance and the growth of our business are necessarily dependent on the health of the overall Indian economy. Therefore, any slowdown in the Indian economy would materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. An increase in India's trade deficit, a downgrading in India's sovereign debt rating or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves could negatively affect interest rates and liquidity, which could adversely affect the Indian economy and affect our ability to raise overseas financing, the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available.

The Indian economy is also influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly emerging market conditions in Asia. Further, financial turmoil in United States, United Kingdom, China and elsewhere in the world in recent years has adversely affected, and may continue to affect, the Indian economy. A loss of investor confidence in other emerging market economies or any worldwide financial instability may adversely affect the Indian economy. Further, geopolitical developments in other regions of the world including the conflict between Ukraine and Russia and the conflict in the Middle East may also affect our business. Moreover, a potential China-Taiwan conflict could have adverse impacts on the Portfolio Companies' business thereby indirectly harming our business. Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby negatively affect the Indian economy. Financial disruptions could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. Further, economic developments globally can adversely affect our principal markets. Concerns related to a trade war between large economies may lead to increased risk aversion and volatility in global capital markets and consequently have an impact on the Indian economy.

These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have a material adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets, and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. This could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition and reduce the price of the Equity Shares.

Further, other factors which may adversely affect the Indian economy are scarcity of credit or other financing in India; volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on, India's principal stock exchanges; changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies including market perceptions regarding the impact of elections on such policies; political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally; the occurrence of natural or man-made disasters; prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including in India's principal export markets; and other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India.

62. Any adverse change in India's sovereign credit rating by an international rating agency could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our borrowing costs depend significantly on India's sovereign ratings. India's sovereign debt rating could be downgraded due to various factors, including changes in tax or fiscal policy or a decline in India's foreign exchange reserves, which are outside our Company's control. Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings by international rating agencies may adversely affect our ratings, terms on which we are able to raise additional finances or refinance any existing indebtedness.

This could adversely affect our business growth and financial performance, ability to obtain financing and the price of the Equity Shares.

63. Changing regulations in India could lead to new compliance requirements that are uncertain.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and is subject to change. Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules or regulations and policies applicable to us and our business could affect our business in general, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the Government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements. In such instances, our business, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. Additionally, our management may be required to divert substantial time and effort towards meeting such enhanced compliance requirements and may be unable to devote adequate time and efforts towards our business, which may adversely affect our future business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. Further, the GoI has introduced various tax reforms through Finance Act, 2026 (“Finance Act”) for the Fiscal 2027. Additionally, the Income Tax Act, 2025 (“Income Tax Act”) received the assent from President of India on August 21, 2025, and became effective from April 1, 2026, which inter alia, amends the income tax regime and replaces the Income Tax Act, 1961. We are currently unable to predict the nature of changes that will occur and, if so, the ultimate impact on our business. Any difference in our interpretations of the tax laws applicable to us, from those of the relevant regulatory authorities, may have an adverse impact on our business and results of operations.

Further, in December 2025, the Government of India introduced the 2025 Securities Markets Code Bill in the parliament to replace the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, the Securities (Contracts) Regulation Act, 1956 and the Depositories Act, 1996. We are currently unable to predict the nature of changes that will occur and, if so, the ultimate impact on our business. Also see, “—We, along with the funds managed and advised by us, are subject to securities regulation and any failure to comply with these regulations could subject us to penalties or sanctions.” on page 25.

There can be no guarantee that we will be able to comply with any increased or more stringent regulatory requirements, in part or at all. Failure to comply with such further regulatory requirements could lead to regulatory actions, including penalties, which may adversely affect our future business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. Furthermore, the manner in which new requirements will be enforced or interpreted can lead to uncertainty in our operations and could adversely affect our operations. Any changes to such laws, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Tax and other levies imposed by the central and state governments in India that affect our tax liability include central and state taxes and other levies, income tax, turnover tax, goods and service tax, stamp duty and other special taxes and surcharges that are introduced on a temporary or permanent basis from time to time. The final determination of our tax liabilities involves the interpretation of local tax laws and related regulations in each jurisdiction as well as the significant use of estimates and assumptions regarding the scope of future operations and results achieved and the timing and nature of income earned and expenditures incurred. Moreover, the central and state tax scheme in India is extensive and subject to change from time to time. Any future increases or amendments could affect the overall tax efficiency of companies operating in India and could result in significant additional taxes becoming payable. If the tax costs associated with certain transactions because of a particular tax risk materializing are greater than anticipated, it could affect the profitability of such transactions.

64. If inflation rises in India, increased costs could result in a decline in profits.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue. India has experienced high inflation relative to developed countries in the recent past. In recent months, consumer and wholesale prices in India have exhibited increased inflationary trends, as the result of crude oil prices, international commodity prices, and domestic consumer and supplier prices. While the RBI has enacted certain policy measures designed to curb inflation, these policies may not be successful. Continued high rates of inflation may increase our expenses related to salaries or wages payable to our employees and other expenses.

Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to control the increase in our expenses related to salaries or wages payable to our employees. In such case, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

65. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as Indian GAAP, IFRS and U.S. GAAP, which may be material to investors' assessment of our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of Section 26 of Part I of Chapter III of the Companies Act, the SEBI ICDR Regulations, as amended and the Guidance Note on Reports in Company Prospectuses (Revised 2019) issued by the ICAI, as amended from time to time. For further details, see “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements” on page 285. The degree to which the financial information included in this Prospectus provides meaningful information may be dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Ind AS. Ind AS differs in certain significant respects from other accounting principles and standards with which investors may be more familiar with, such as Indian GAAP, IFRS and U.S. GAAP.

We have not made any attempt to explain those differences or quantify their impact on the financial information included in this Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements to any other accounting principles or standards. If we were to prepare the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements in accordance with such other accounting principles, our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows may be substantially different. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of Indian GAAP, US GAAP or IFRS on the financial data included in this Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of Indian GAAP, US GAAP or IFRS. Accordingly, the degree to which the financial statements included in this Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Ind AS. Persons not familiar with Ind AS should limit their reliance on the financial disclosures presented in this Prospectus.

66. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be different from laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights are as per the Indian laws and may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholders of an entity in another jurisdiction.

67. Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company incorporated in India must offer its equity shareholders pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages prior to issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution by shareholders of such company. However, if the law of the jurisdiction that you are in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, you will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights, unless we make such a filing. To the extent that you are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of the Equity Shares, your proportional interests in our Company may be reduced.

68. We may be affected by competition laws, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, as amended (the “Competition Act”) prohibits any anti-competitive agreement or arrangement, understanding or action in concert between enterprises, whether formal or informal, which causes or is likely to cause an appreciable adverse effect on competition in India. Any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment or provision of services, shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner by way of allocation of geographical area, type of goods or services or number of consumers in the relevant market or in any other similar way or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an appreciable adverse effect on competition.

The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. The combination regulation (merger control) provisions under the Competition Act require acquisitions of shares, voting rights, assets or control or mergers or amalgamations that cross the prescribed asset and turnover based thresholds to be mandatorily notified to, and pre-approved by, the Competition Commission of India (“CCI”). Any breach of the provisions of Competition Act, may attract substantial monetary penalties.

The Competition Act aims to, among other things, prohibit all agreements and transactions, which may have an appreciable adverse effect in India. Consequently, all agreements entered into by us could be within the purview of the Competition Act. Further, the CCI has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside of India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an appreciable adverse effect in India. We are not currently party to any outstanding proceedings, nor have we ever received any notice in relation to non-compliance with the Competition Act. The applicability or interpretation of the Competition Act to any merger, amalgamation or acquisition proposed by us, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI in future, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI may affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

69. Investors may have difficulty enforcing foreign judgments against our Company or our management.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India as a public company limited by shares and all our Directors are based in India. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process upon our Company or such persons in jurisdictions outside India, or to enforce judgments obtained against such parties outside India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if that court was of the view that the amount of damages awarded was excessive or inconsistent with public policy, or if judgments are in breach or contrary to Indian law. In addition, a party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the RBI to execute such a judgment or to repatriate outside India any amounts recovered.

Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments is provided for under Section 13 and Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (“CPC”). India has reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with certain countries including the United Kingdom, the United Arab Emirates, Singapore and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment from a jurisdiction with reciprocity must meet certain requirements established in the CPC. The CPC only permits the enforcement and execution of monetary decrees in the reciprocating jurisdiction, not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes, other charges, fines or penalties. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions which do not have reciprocal recognition with India, cannot be enforced by proceedings in execution in India. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any court in a non-reciprocating territory for civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the general laws of the non-reciprocating territory, would not be directly enforceable in India. The party in whose favor a final foreign judgment in a non-reciprocating territory is rendered may bring a fresh suit in a competent court in India based on the final judgment within three years of obtaining such final judgment. However, it is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action were brought in India or that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages as excessive or inconsistent with the public policy in India.

70. A third party attempting to acquire control of our Company shall be subject to anti-takeover provisions under Indian law.

There are provisions in Indian law that govern takeover or change in control of a Company. Under the SEBI Takeover Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. These provisions have been formulated to ensure that the interests of investors/shareholders are protected and any acquirer will need to comply with the provisions of the Takeover Regulations in the event of a takeover.

71. The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and the Offer Price may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer. Further, the current market price of some securities listed pursuant to certain previous issues managed by the Book Running Lead Managers is below their respective issue prices. You may be unable to resell the Equity Shares you purchase in the Offer at or above the Offer Price or at all.

The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and was determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLMs through the Book Building Process. The Price Band was based on various factors, including factors described in “Basis for Offer Price” on page 124 and the Price Band and the Offer Price may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate as a result of, among other things, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- quarterly variations in our results of operations;
- results of operations that vary from those of our competitors;

- changes in expectations as to our future financial performance, including financial estimates by research analysts and investors;
- changes in research analysts' recommendations;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic alliances, joint operations or capital commitments;
- announcements by third-parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us;
- new laws and governmental regulations applicable to our industry;
- additions or departures of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management;
- a downgrade in the Government's credit rating;
- changes in exchange rates;
- fluctuations in stock market prices and volumes; and
- general economic and stock market conditions.

In addition to the above, the current market price of securities listed pursuant to certain previous initial public offerings managed by the Book Running Lead Managers is below their respective issue price. For further details, see "Other Regulatory and Statutory Disclosures—Price information of past issues handled by the BRLMs" on page 392.

You may be unable to resell the Equity Shares you purchase in the Offer at or above the Offer Price or at all.

72. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes and duties arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

A securities transaction tax ("STT") is levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. The Finance Act, 2019 amended the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 with effect from July 1, 2020 and clarified that, in the absence of a specific provision under an agreement, the liability to pay stamp duty in case of sale of securities through stock exchanges will be on the buyer, while in other cases of transfer for consideration through a depository, the onus will be on the transferor. The Finance Act, 2020, has, among other things, provided a number of amendments to the direct and indirect tax regime, including, without limitation, a simplified alternate direct tax regime and that dividend distribution tax will not be payable in respect of dividends declared, distributed or paid by a domestic company after March 31, 2020, and accordingly, that such dividends not be exempt in the hands of the shareholders, both resident as well as non-resident, and that such dividends likely be subject to tax deduction at source. The Company may or may not grant the benefit of a tax treaty (where applicable) to a non-resident shareholder for the purposes of deducting tax at source from such dividend. Investors should consult their own tax advisors about the consequences of investing or trading in the Equity Shares.

Further, under current Indian tax laws and regulations, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months is subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Such long-term capital gains exceeding ₹0.12 million arising from the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange are subject to tax at the rate of 12.50% (plus applicable surcharge and cess). A STT will be levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which our Equity Shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares held for more than 12 months by an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and as a result of which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long-term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short-term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to short-term capital gains tax at a higher rate compared to the transaction where STT has been paid in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of our Equity Shares will be exempt from taxation in India in cases where an exemption is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is a resident.

In cases where the seller is a non-resident, capital gains arising from the sale of the equity shares will be partially or wholly exempt from taxation in India in cases where the exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident. Historically, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of the equity shares.

Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. Further, we cannot predict whether any tax laws or other regulations impacting it will be enacted or predict the nature and impact of any such laws or regulations or whether, if at all, any laws or regulations may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

73. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid, and Retail Individual Bidders are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after Bid/ Offer Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Bidders can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until Bid/ Offer Closing Date. While our Company is required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges within three Working Days from the Bid/ Offer Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders' ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

74. Any future issuance of Equity Shares or convertible securities or any other equity linked instruments may dilute your shareholding and adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and sales of the Equity Shares by our major Shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth, whether organic or inorganic, through future equity offerings. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary offering of Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares (including pursuant to the ESOP Scheme), may lead to the dilution of an investor's shareholdings in us. Any future issuances of Equity Shares or the disposal of Equity Shares by our major Shareholders or the perception that such issuance or sales may occur, including to comply with the minimum public shareholding norms applicable to listed companies in India, may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences, including difficulty in raising capital through offering of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. We cannot assure you that we will not issue further Equity Shares or that our major Shareholders will not dispose of Equity Shares after the completion of the Offer (subject to compliance with the lock-in provisions under the SEBI ICDR Regulations) or pledge or encumber their Equity Shares.

75. Fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on the value of our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

On listing, our Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the Stock Exchanges. Any dividends in respect of our Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time that it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating outside India the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares may reduce the proceeds received by Equity Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated substantially in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares and returns on our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

76. Upon listing of the Equity Shares, our Company may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures by the Stock Exchanges, such as additional surveillance measures (ASM) and graded surveillance measures (GSM), which are implemented in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interests of investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

The SEBI and the Stock Exchanges have implemented surveillance measures in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interests of investors, such as "additional surveillance measures" ("ASM") and "graded surveillance measures" ("GSM"), which are applicable to securities based on certain criteria notified by the Stock Exchanges. The criteria for placing a security under the GSM framework include a failure of the listed entity to maintain a specified net worth, net fixed assets, market capitalization, price-to-earnings ratio, etc. Generally, securities that exhibit price or volume variation and volatility in trading are placed under the ASM framework. The market price of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after listing due to, among others, broad market trends, financial performance and results of our Company post-listing, and other factors beyond our control, which could lead to the Equity Shares and our Company being placed under the ASM or GSM frameworks. The surveillance actions applicable to such securities which have been placed under the ASM or GSM frameworks include monitoring of price and volume movements, shifting to the trade-to-trade segment of the Stock Exchanges, restrictions on intraday leverage and pledging of such securities and limits on the trading frequency of such securities. If our Company is placed under the ASM or GSM framework by the Stock Exchanges, trading in the Equity Shares may be adversely affected. There can be no assurance that investors will be able to sell their Equity Shares in such a scenario at or above the Offer Price or at all, resulting in a loss of all or part of their investment.

77. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Offer.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, final approval for listing and trading of the Equity Shares will not be granted until after certain actions have been completed in relation to this Offer and until our Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Such approval will require the submission of all other relevant documents authorizing the issuance of the Equity Shares. In accordance with current regulations and circulars issued by SEBI, the Equity Shares are required to be listed on the Stock Exchanges within a prescribed time. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that the trading in the Equity Shares will commence in a timely manner or at all and there could be a failure or delay in listing and trading of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges, which would adversely affect your ability to sell the Equity Shares.

78. The Offer Price, market capitalization to revenue multiple and price to earnings ratio based on the Offer Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing.

Our revenue from operations for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025 was ₹1,355.31 million and ₹1,219.99 million, respectively. Our EBITDA for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025 was ₹720.52 million and ₹608.09 million, respectively. Our profit after tax for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025 was ₹819.59 million and ₹619.51 million.

Our market capitalization (based on the Offer Price) to revenue multiple for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025 is 14.30 times and 18.30 times, respectively.

Our price (based on the Offer Price) to earnings ratio (based on diluted EPS) for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025 is 22.32 and 28.01, respectively, each at the upper end of the Price Band; and our enterprise value to EBITDA ratio (based on EBITDA) for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025 is 24.82 and 29.41, respectively. The Offer Price was determined by our Company in consultation with BRLMs through the Book Building Process, and was based on numerous factors, including factors as described under “Basis for Offer Price” on page 124 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. Accordingly, the Offer Price, multiples and ratio may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares on listing or thereafter. The factors that could affect the market price of the Equity Shares include, among other, broad market trends, our financial performance and results post-listing, and other factors beyond our Company’s control. We cannot assure you that an active market will develop, or sustained trading will take place in the Equity Shares or provide any assurance regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing.

79. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Offer may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the stock exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Our Equity Shares are expected to trade on NSE and BSE after the Offer, but there can be no assurance that active trading in our Equity Shares will develop after the Offer, or if such trading develops that it will continue. Investors may not be able to sell the Equity Shares at the quoted price if there is no active trading in the Equity Shares. There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and the trading price of the Equity Shares after the Offer could fluctuate significantly as a result of market volatility or due to various internal or external risks, including but not limited to those described in this Prospectus.

80. Any significant business disruptions and failure to maintain an effective business continuity management plan, could materially and adversely affect our business.

Events such as natural disasters (such as typhoons, flooding and earthquakes), epidemics, pandemics and man-made disasters, including acts of war, terrorist attacks and other events such as political instability, including strikes, demonstrations, protests, marches or other types of civil disorder, many of which are beyond our control, may lead to economic instability, including in India or globally, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations. Our operations may be adversely affected by fires, natural disasters and/or severe weather, which can result in damage to our property or inventory and generally reduce our productivity and may require us to evacuate personnel and suspend operations.

Cyber-attacks also pose a persistent threat, with the potential to compromise sensitive data, disrupt operational processes, and incur substantial financial and reputational costs. As we increasingly rely on digital systems for our operations, these threats necessitate stringent cybersecurity measures. Technical failures, including system breakdowns and technical malfunctions, can cause significant disruptions to our service delivery.

An economic slowdown or recession due to health epidemics and pandemics may affect our customers' ability to obtain credit to finance their business on acceptable terms, which could result in reduced spending on our product offerings.

81. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements, then a prior regulatory approval will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. Further, this conversion is subject to the shares having been held on a repatriation basis and, either the security having been sold in compliance with the pricing guidelines or, the relevant regulatory approval having been obtained for the sale of shares and corresponding remittance of the sale proceeds. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained with or without any particular terms or conditions.

In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of the Equity Shares is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, can only be made through the Government approval route, as prescribed in the FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Subsequently, in accordance with Press Note No. 2 (2026 Series), dated March 15, 2026 issued by the DPIIT, the FDI Policy has been further amended to, inter alia, define the expression "beneficial owner" and to provide that prior approval of the Government of India shall be required only where citizen(s) and/or entity(ies) of a country sharing a land border with India hold, directly or indirectly, individually or cumulatively, more than 10% of the shares, capital or profits of the investor entity, or exercise control over such investor entity, or exercise ultimate effective control over the investee entity. The amendments under Press Note No. 2 (2026 Series) came into effect from May 2, 2026, i.e., the date of notification of the corresponding amendments to the FEMA (Non-debt Instruments) Rules. For further details, see "Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities" on page 426.

We act as an investment manager to India focused funds, including category II and category I alternative investment funds (“AIFs”), and also act as advisors to offshore funds, which provide capital to companies in India. As an alternative asset management company focused on private equity, we establish funds (primarily category II AIFs) as a sponsor and further manage and advise them in areas relating to, inter alia, investment strategy, fund management, fund investments, portfolio management and investor communications.

Our current business activities primarily comprise three revenue streams, i.e., (i) management fee; (ii) carried interest; and (iii) income from Sponsor Commitment. For further details, please see, “Our Business—Description of our Business—Revenue Streams”. Commitment as a sponsor is an important driver of economics in relation to our revenue streams and we have historically maintained a high proportion of Sponsor Commitment across the funds managed and advised by us. For instance, we invested approximately ₹2,740.00 million, i.e., 6.41% of the total size of the Gaja Capital Funds as Sponsor Commitment in the Gaja Capital Funds and currently maintain 8.45% Sponsor Commitment to our latest Fund IV. We, as approved by our Board, propose to maintain a similar high proportion of Sponsor Commitment to the proposed Fund V and Secondaries Fund. Our Sponsor Commitments have consistently grown in absolute terms across the Gaja Capital Funds and stands at ₹1,500.00 million for Fund IV.

Under the SEBI AIF Regulations, the manager or the sponsor of an AIF is required to have a continuing interest in the AIF of not less than 2.5% of the corpus or ₹50.00 million, whichever is lower, in the form of investment in an AIF for Category II AIFs (“Minimum Sponsor Commitment”). For further details, see “Key Regulations and Policies—Laws in relation to our business” on page 245.

Set forth below are details of our Sponsor Commitment to the Gaja Capital Funds:

Particulars	Total fund size	Sponsor Commitment	Sponsor Commitment as a % of Fund Size
	(₹ million)		(%)
Fund II	9,024.26	540.00	5.98
Fund III	15,983.80	700.00	4.38
Fund IV	17,750.41	1,500.00	8.45

Benefits derived from higher Sponsor Commitment

Certain benefits that we derive from maintaining a high Sponsor Commitment are set forth below:

- Costs of raising funds: A substantial Sponsor Commitment acts as an anchor investment, providing the initial capital needed to launch a fund and meet regulatory requirements. This also attracts institutional investors to contribute to our funds thereby reducing our cost of raising funds. For example, in our latest fund (Fund IV), the distribution costs paid by us to third-parties amounted to ₹112.43 million, equivalent to 0.63% of the size of the fund (in terms of total commitments). For further information on risks associated with third-party distributors, see “Risk Factors—We are subject to certain risks associated with the actions of our third-party distributors. Any mismanagement in handling our relationships with our distributors (i.e., placement agents) could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We have raised ₹844.92 million funds through our distributors in Fiscal 2024” on page 36.

- (ii) Skin-in-the-game: Skin-in-the-game exhibited through Sponsor Commitment higher than the regulatory requirements demonstrates our confidence in a fund and our investment strategy, which is an important consideration for prospective investors of a fund.
- (iii) Fund economics: A higher level of Sponsor Commitment also leads to higher yields for us, as no management fee is chargeable and no carried interest is shared on the Sponsor Commitment portion of a fund.
- (iv) Returns for Shareholders: Better fund economics, in turn, will result in higher returns for Shareholders of our Company, i.e., better fund economics could lead to our Company receiving higher gains on the Sponsor Commitment and realizations at the time of our exit from the respective funds.

The table below sets out the fair market value of Sponsor Commitments to the Gaja Capital Funds for the periods indicated.

	2026	Change from the prior Fiscal	2025	Change from the prior Fiscal	2024

Realization of Sponsor Commitment

Generally, Sponsor Commitment is deployed and realized as set forth below:

(i) Initial Capital Contribution:

The sponsor makes an initial capital commitment to a fund at the time of the fund's formation, which is often in the form of a committed capital amount which is drawn down over time. When the sponsor commits capital to a fund, they are typically allotted units in exchange for their contribution. The allotment of units is proportionate to the amount of capital contributed by such sponsor with the overall fund size. In addition, the sponsor receives a different class of units, where no management fee is chargeable or carried interest is shared.

(ii) Drawdown Requests:

During a fund's investment period, being three to five years, the sponsor's commitment is realized through periodic capital calls made by the fund manager for the purpose of making investments. In certain instances, such as investments in Secondaries Fund, a majority of the commitment is realized in the initial capital call, therefore, the investment periods are comparatively shorter.

As the fund makes investments or incurs other expenses, the fund manager issues a drawdown request to the sponsor and other investors. The sponsor is obligated to contribute the committed amount when such requests are made, as per the terms outlined in the fund documents.

(iii) Realizations:

Upon exit from portfolio companies, the fund distributes the proceeds so received to the unit holders of such fund, which includes the sponsor of a fund. The commitment is ultimately realized in terms of returns or profits from the fund, which are returned to the sponsor along with other investors upon exits from portfolio companies.

 - g) We benefit from the experience of our Promoters and Executive Directors, Mr. Gopal Jain, Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah and Mr. Imran Jafar, who have established track records in alternative asset management and private equity in India

The Offer Price of ₹160 is 32.00 times of the face value of the Equity Shares and is justified in view of the above qualitative and quantitative parameters. The trading price of Equity Shares could decline due to factors mentioned in "Risk Factors" on page 20 and you may lose all or part of your investments.

ANNEXURE

STATEMENT OF POSSIBLE SPECIAL TAX BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO GAJA ALTERNATIVE ASSET MANAGEMENT LIMITED (THE "COMPANY"), ITS MATERIAL SUBSIDIARY AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS

Direct Taxation

This statement includes possible special direct tax benefits available to the Company, its Material Subsidiary and its shareholders under the direct tax laws in force in India. This statement is required as per paragraph (9)(L) of Part A of Schedule VI of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. This statement is as per the Income-tax Act, 2025 as amended by the Finance Act, 2026 read with the relevant rules, circulars, and notifications applicable for the Tax Year 2026-27, presently in force (together, the "Act").

(A) Special tax benefits available to the Company from income-tax perspective

Lower corporate tax rate under Section 200 of the Act

Section 200 of the Act, which allows domestic companies to avail a concessional tax rate of 22% (plus applicable surcharge and education cess), provided such companies do not avail the following deductions / exemptions:

- a) Deduction under the Section 144 of the Act (deduction for units in Special Economic Zone);
- b) Deduction under Sub-Section 8 of Section 33 of the Act (Additional depreciation);
- c) Deduction under Section 48 read with Schedule IX or Section 49 read with Schedule X of the Act (Investment allowance in notified backward areas, tea, coffee, rubber development account, site restoration fund);
- d) Deduction under Sub-Section 2 and Clause (a), (b) or (c) of Sub-Section (3) of Section 45 of the Act (Expenditure on scientific research);
- e) Deduction under Section 46 and Section 47 of the Act (Deduction for specified business, agricultural extension project and expenditure on skill development);
- f) Deduction under any provisions of Chapter VIII of the Act other than the provisions of Section 146 or Section 148 of the Act
- g) No set off of any loss carried forward or depreciation from any earlier assessment year, if such loss or depreciation is attributable to any of the deductions referred from clause a to f above; and
- h) No set off of any loss or allowance for unabsorbed depreciation deemed so under Section 116 of the Act if such loss or depreciation is attributable to any of the deductions referred from clause a to f above.

This option is available from the Financial Year 2019-20 can be exercised by filing Form 10-IC on the Income Tax portal. Once exercised, the option will apply to subsequent Tax Years. The applicability of the concessional tax rate of 22% is not dependent on the company's turnover and becomes effective once the company opts for Section 200 of the Act.

Additionally, vide Circular No. 29/2019 dated October 02, 2019, and in terms of Sub-clause (ii) of clause (q) of Sub-Section (1) of Section 206 of the Act, if the Company opts for the concessional income tax rate under Section 200 of the Act, the provisions of Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) under Section 206 of the Act will not apply.

Further, we understand that pursuant to the amendments proposed under the Act, the unutilised MAT credit would not be permitted to be carried forward under the old tax regime. The Company would be eligible to carry forward and utilise such MAT credit only if it opts for the provisions of Section 200 of the Act, 2025 for Tax Year 2026–27. In such a case, the MAT credit would be allowed to be set off only up to 25% of the tax liability for the remaining eligible period.

In view of the above, the Company may consider evaluating the feasibility of transitioning to the concessional tax regime under Section 200 of the Act from Tax Year 2026–27 onwards.

The Company has invested in Gaja Investments ("the partnership firm").

- Further, in case of shareholders who are individuals, Hindu Undivided Family, Association of Persons, Body of Individuals, whether incorporated or not and every artificial juridical person, surcharge applicability towards dividend income would be restricted to 15%, irrespective of the amount of dividend.
- In respect of non-resident shareholders, the tax rates and the consequent taxation shall be further subject to any benefits available under the applicable Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement, if any, between India and the country in which the non-resident has fiscal domicile.
- Section 69 of the Act prescribes that buy-back of shares completed on or after April 01, 2026, will be chargeable to tax under the head 'Capital Gains' in the hands of the shareholders. Shareholders will be taxed only on the actual gain, i.e., the difference between the value of consideration and the cost of acquisition. In the case of individual promoters, the gains arising from such buy-back of shares shall be subject to an effective tax rate of 30 percent, comprising the applicable capital gains tax and additional tax. Executive Summary

India's economy is one of the fastest growing economies in the world and is poised to grow by 6.6% in the current fiscal year. The growth will primarily be driven by strong private consumption, which is expected to improve due to healthy agricultural production and cooling food inflation. The RBI kept repo rate unchanged at 5.25% as of June 2026 prioritizing stability over fresh rate cuts. India is also expected to remain a high-savings economy with a gross domestic savings rate higher than the global average.

The Indian managed investments segment, particularly in alternative products represented by AIFs, has experienced significant growth over the years. From 1.5% in fiscal 2019, the share of AIFs as a % of GDP has increased significantly to 4.9% as of fiscal 2026, reflecting a promising trajectory. Despite this growth, the AIF market in India is still considered underdeveloped compared to global standards. Over the past seven years, AIFs have emerged as a key constituent of India's private markets, showcasing a remarkable ~29.2% CAGR in commitments between March 2019 and March 2026. With total commitments reaching Rs 16.9 trillion as of March 31, 2026, it is evident that high net-worth individuals, ultra-HNIs, and institutional investors are increasingly drawn to these differentiated products for diversification and better returns. Looking ahead, the AUM for alternative investments in India is projected to grow substantially, with estimates suggesting a 25-27% increase between March 2026 and March 2030, potentially reaching Rs 41-44 trillion by 2030. This growth surpasses that of traditional asset classes like mutual funds and deposits, underscoring the attractiveness of alternative investments in the Indian market.

Furthermore, the private equity and venture capital investments landscape in India remains robust, with consistent growth in commitments, funds raised, and investments. Factors such as a conducive investment environment and the thriving startup ecosystem have positioned India as a preferred destination for private equity investments. Notably, the mid-market category within PE investments is gaining traction, with its market share on the rise and expected to grow further. PE investor exits have also seen a substantial increase, indicating a healthy market with strong liquidity. Secondary deals have maintained a steady pace, with significant deal values recorded in recent years, pointing towards a promising outlook for the Indian investment landscape in the secondaries segment. In recent years, traditional financiers like banks and NBFCs have displayed a risk-averse attitude towards lending, creating a void in the market. With regulatory constraints tightening on bank lending, private credit has emerged as a crucial alternative for corporates seeking tailored financing solutions for various purposes such as acquisitions, share repurchases, and large projects.

In India, domestic institutional investors like Banks, Insurance companies, Mutual funds, EPFO, and NPS play a significant role in providing long-term capital and fostering capital market growth. While these entities have traditionally favored fixed-income instruments, the evolving regulatory landscape and the growing prominence of AIFs are gradually attracting institutional interest towards alternative investment products. The AIF industry in India has witnessed substantial growth, with the share of alternative products in managed investment products rising three-fold, from 3.5% in March 2019 to approximately 7.3% in March 2026. This growth underscores the increasing significance of AIFs in the Indian economy and their potential to play a more substantial role in the country's economic development.

1. Macroeconomic scenario in India

Global Macroeconomic outlook

The International Monetary Fund's (IMF) World Economic Outlook of April 2026 reports that the global economy showed remarkable resilience in calendar year 2025, with global real gross domestic product (GDP) growth reaching 3.4%. Despite initial uncertainties concerning tariffs imposed by the United States (US) and its potential impact on global growth, trade disruptions remained limited, given frontloading of imports in the first half of the year and swift reorganisation of supply chains to redirect trade flows.

The global geopolitical landscape is undergoing significant transformation, marked by ongoing conflict in West Asia and a shift in traditional power dynamics. The IMF projects the World GDP growth to moderate to 3.1% in 2026 and recover to 3.2% in 2027. The prolonged conflict has started adversely impacting commodity prices, inflation and financial conditions, potentially testing global and country-specific economic resilience. These challenges are particularly pronounced in countries that are not directly involved in the conflict but rely on West Asia for various needs. However, the situation may improve following the interim peace deal signed in June 2026, with renewed efforts focused on reopening the Strait of Hormuz. Global inflation is expected to increase to 4.4% in calendar year 2026, reflecting expected higher energy and food prices, before falling to 3.7% in 2027. Inflation in China is projected to rise from low levels, while India's is expected to return to near-target levels after a significant decline in 2025, driven by subdued food prices.

Meanwhile, the India-Europe free trade agreement finalised on January 27, 2026, aims to reshape trade, with the European Union dropping tariffs on 99.5% of Indian exports over 7 years, and India reducing tariffs on European luxury cars (from 110% to 10% over five years) and wines (from 150% to 75%). The deal serves as a strategic hedge to reduce dependency on China and the US. On the other hand, the FTA with New Zealand, signed in April 2026, aims to enhance exports, support MSMEs, attract investment, facilitate skills mobility, and promote broader economic cooperation. It grants immediate zero-duty access for 100% of Indian exports to New Zealand, subject to product-specific rules of origin, benefiting key sectors such as textiles, engineering, pharmaceuticals, marine products, and chemicals. This FTA further serves as a gateway to the wider Oceania and Pacific Island markets.

1. India's National Statistics Office (NSO) estimated real GDP growth at 7.4% in fiscal 2026, driven by strong domestic demand, high infrastructure spending and improvements in manufacturing and services. India has mitigated external shocks, such as US tariffs on account of diversified trade partnerships and robust foreign exchange reserves ($726 billion as on February 13, 2026).

India retains top spot as fastest-growing major economy

Driven by strong domestic demand, robust consumption and improved financial conditions, India's growth is significantly outperforming other major economies and emerging markets. The country's growth is fuelled by high consumer spending and positive investment sentiment, allowing it to outpace China's growth, which is projected to be ~4.4% in calendar year 2026 and 4.0% in 2027.

Crisil Intelligence expects inflation based on the Consumer Price Index (CPI) to rise to 5.1% on average in fiscal 2027 from an estimated 2.0% in the previous fiscal year as food inflation is expected to normalise from the lows of the past year. This is based on the expectation that crude oil prices will average $90-95 per barrel in fiscal 2027 compared with an estimated ~$70 per barrel last fiscal. In addition, potential El Niño-related effects this year may further contribute to an inflation uptick. The forecast is in line with recent trends as CPI inflation rose to 3.9% in May 2026 from 3.5% in April 2026 but remained within the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) target range of 2-6%. Given the uptick in inflation, we expect the RBI to maintain the current policy rates by keeping a close watch on the evolving inflation trajectory.

GDP projected to grow at 6.6% in fiscal 2027

From fiscal 2024 to 2026, the economy outpaced its global peers with faster growth. Crisil Intelligence forecasts a GDP growth of 6.6% in fiscal 2027, mainly due to an upward revision in average crude oil price outlook and its spillover effects, along with ongoing geopolitical uncertainties.

However, The U.S.-Iran peace deal & reopening of the Strait of Hormuz will significantly strengthen India's macroeconomic outlook on account of easing geopolitical tensions and reduced energy premiums will lower India's crude import bill, ease inflationary pressures, and provide critical support to the current account and government finances. This might lead to potential uptick in India's GDP growth.

India's nominal GDP has been growing at a rapid pace, with an average annual growth rate of around 10% over the past decade. As per IMF, India's nominal GDP is estimated to have grown by 8.94% in FY25-26 and is further projected to grow by ~11% in FY26-27. This is one of the fastest growth rates among major economies, followed by Brazil with an annual growth rate of 7%.

India's large and young population, below the age of 35, provides a significant demographic dividend. This demographic advantage is expected to support India's economic growth. India has a rapidly growing digital economy, with a large and growing base of internet users, mobile phone penetration and digital payments. This has created new opportunities for economic growth and job creation.

1.1 Contribution of various sectors to India's growth

- The trend in gross value added (GVA) at current prices by economic activity denotes that financial, real estate and professional services have consistently contributed the highest to the GVA and contributed an estimated 27% in FY26. Total GVA at current prices clocked a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 9.7% from FY23 to FY26.

1.2 Domestic growth resilience: GST rate cuts, government capex, and repo rate reduction mitigate external challenges

RBI held the repo rate unchanged at 5.25% in June 2026, maintaining neutral stance

The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) of the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) initiated a monetary policy easing cycle in calendar year 2025 through calibrated repo rate cuts to support economic growth. This decision reflected low inflation risks owing to healthy monsoon in 2025, and goods and services tax (GST) rate rationalisation, as well as a growth outlook, allowing the RBI to offer support while remaining vigilant on inflation. Non-banking financial companies will benefit from lower funding costs and improved liquidity. This will enable them to offer cheaper credit and lower-equated monthly instalments. The rate cut will spur loan demand and fuel economic activity. It will also benefit rural India with the help of MFIs by enabling them to offer cheaper credit, as lower funding costs and improved liquidity will allow MFIs to provide loans at reduced interest rates, thereby increasing access to credit for rural populations and stimulating economic activity in these areas.

The MPC kept the repo rate unchanged at 5.25% at its June 2026 meeting and maintained a 'neutral' stance, signaling continued confidence that India's economic growth will remain resilient, driven by a significant increase in capital expenditure outlined in the Union Budget 2026. The budget increased the capital expenditure outlay for fiscal 2027 to Rs 12.2 lakh crore, which accounts for 4.4% of the GDP. The MPC also cited sustained growth in private consumption and fixed capital formation as factors supporting its optimistic outlook. That said, it warned that external risks persist, including the expected El Niño this year and the prolonged conflict in West Asia. Higher energy and other input costs arising from the conflict, along with disrupted supply chains, could weigh on overall economic activity.

While the conflict in West Asia and uncertainty surrounding US tariffs remain a risk to external demand, the RBI expects structural reforms, including GST rate rationalisation, to partly offset these headwinds. Additionally, the standing deposit facility rate remained 5.0%, while the marginal standing facility rate and bank rate stood at 5.50%, supporting financial system stability.

1.3 CPI inflation to average at 5.1% in fiscal 2027 owing to the West-Asia conflict

Inflation based on the revised CPI series, with 2024 as the base year, rose to 3.9% in May 2026 from 3.5% in April 2026 as food inflation further normalised, driven by an uptick in food (4.8% in May vs 4.2% in April) and fuel (0.8% in May vs 0.7% in April) inflation. Within the non-food category, fuel and transport inflation are the first to face pressures from higher oil and gas prices and supply shocks arising from the conflict in West Asia.

Crisil Intelligence project CPI inflation to average 5.1% in fiscal 2027. Food prices are expected to remain stable, though potential El Niño conditions this year are likely to introduce additional uncertainties. Food inflation is expected to rise from the fiscal 2026 lows, with weather-related disruptions posing an upside risk.

Macroeconomic outlook for fiscal 2027

Parameters	FY25	FY26E	FY27P	Rationale for the outlook
Real GDP growth (on-year %)	6.5%	7.4%*	6.6%	The GDP outlook for FY27 shows a slowdown with lower year-over-year growth. Growth will still be supported by consumption, driven by low interest rates, higher disposable income from income tax cuts, and lower prices of mass consumption items due to GST rate cuts. Additionally, improving sentiment and recovery in private capex from emerging sectors will contribute, though the nearly three-month-long West Asia conflict is expected to dampen growth. Despite this challenge, India is projected to remain a growth outperformer in calendar year 2026.
CPI inflation (average, on-year %)	4.6%	2.0%	5.1%	Inflation in India is expected to increase due to the low base effect on food inflation and the ongoing West Asia conflict, which is impacting prices across various categories. Additionally, rising global commodity prices, driven by the conflict, are likely to further pressure inflation.
Fiscal deficit (% of GDP)	4.8%	4.4%^	4.3%^^	The government aims to bring down fiscal deficit via lower revenue spending as a percentage of GDP, while the capex thrust is maintained.
10-year government bond yield (March average %)	6.7%	6.7%	7.0%	Elevated crude oil prices, rising fiscal pressure, FPI outflows, and greater strain on government finances have contributed to an increase in yields.
Current account balance (% of GDP)	-0.6%	-0.8%	-2.2%	Current account deficit (CAD) is expected to further widen in fiscal 2027, as the trade deficit comes under pressure due to higher oil prices. 1.4 India's gross domestic savings rate was higher than the global average in calendar year 2024

In CY24, India's gross domestic savings stood at approximately 30% of GDP, up from roughly 13% in 1975 and slightly above the global average of around 26%. A structurally strong savings rate reflects household balance sheet stability and the capacity for capital formation in the economy. Higher domestic savings help support long-term investment, infrastructure development, and credit expansion by channelling households' accumulated savings into the economy through various financial assets and investments over time. As middle-class incomes and savings grow, this becomes a key driver of economic growth through increased domestic savings and investment.

Unlike most other countries, where financial savings dominate, physical assets constitute the majority of household savings in India. In fiscal 2014, household savings in physical assets stood at 62%. The share decreased to 47% in fiscal 2021 due to pandemic-induced nationwide lockdowns and slowdown in construction of houses. With the lifting of lockdowns post-pandemic, it surged to 63% in fiscal 2022 and 70% in fiscal 2024 owing to an increase in construction of houses.

Crisil Intelligence expects the share of financial assets in net household savings to increase over the next five years, as elevated inflation after the pandemic could have further encouraged investors to move to higher-yielding instruments in real terms. Interestingly, households are also opting to hold more cash after enduring the pandemic shock. Mutual fund investments by households have grown faster in the recent past. Investments through systematic investment plans (SIPs), mostly opted by individuals, continued to rise in fiscal 2026. Households are increasingly shifting away from deposit-based savings towards equities, mutual funds, alternative funds and small savings schemes, reflecting a growing appetite for risk and rising financialisation. This growing share of financial assets in net household savings presents an opportunity for alternative AMCs including venture capital funds, private equity firms and hedge fund managers, because HNIs and higher income households are looking for dependable and credible channels to invest their savings and pursue better long term returns.

1.5 India's long-term structural growth drivers remain intact

India has the world's largest population

As per the 2011 Census, India's population was approximately 1.25 billion, comprising nearly 187 million households. We estimate the population logged a CAGR of 1.1% between fiscals 2011 and 2021, reaching around 1.40 billion. The population is projected to cross 1.5 billion by fiscal 2031, with the number of households expected to increase to around 385 million, representing a CAGR of 4.6% between fiscals 2021 and 2031. This indicates a significant expansion in the country's demographic landscape. India has the largest young population (15-29 years) among the major economies, with over 380 million individuals in this age group.

Population and number of households (in million)

Note: Data at the end of each fiscal; P: Projected; Source: United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, (<https://population.un.org/wpp/>), Census India, Crisil Intelligence

Favourable demographics

India has the largest youth population in the world, with a median age of 28 years. Also, ~90% of the country's population is below 60 years. In 2025, at 26%, India was estimated to have the highest share of young working population (15-29 years) among the major developed and developing economies. We expect India's large working-age population, along with rapid urbanisation and rising affluence, to drive economic growth. This large young and working age population, combined with urbanisation and rising incomes, is expected to support higher consumption, savings, and financial asset ownership. For private equity firms, this creates opportunities to invest in companies serving fast growing consumer segments such as financial services, healthcare, education, housing, technology, retail, and digital platforms. A larger workforce also supports entrepreneurship and business formation, improving the pipeline of growth stage and buyout opportunities. For hedge fund managers, rising financialisation and deeper capital markets can improve liquidity, broaden investment opportunities, and support demand for alternative investment strategies.

Rising urbanisation

Urbanisation is one of India's most important economic growth drivers. It is expected to spur substantial investments in infrastructure development, which, in turn, will likely create jobs, develop modern consumer services and increase the ability to further mobilise savings. India's urban population has been rising consistently over the decades. According to the World Urbanisation Prospects 2025, India's urban population accounted for about 34% of its total population in 2020. The report projects this share will rise to 37% by 2030. Notably, this level remains the lowest among major global economies, indicating significant scope for further urban growth. With rising per capita income, India's urbanisation is set to expand steadily.

Urban areas often provide better access to essential services such as healthcare, education and social amenities, leading to an enhanced standard of living that attracts the rural population. The growth of industries and the services sector in urban areas contributes to higher income levels and job creation. Also, with cities acting as hubs for international trade and foreign investment, urban areas are seeing rapid expansion. For Managed Investment Products, these trends create an opportunity to direct rising savings into infrastructure, services and manufacturing investments, helping to accelerate the country's economic growth, and potentially delivering stronger returns linked to India's expanding economy.

Key structural reforms: Long-term positives for the Indian economy

The Union Budget of 2026-27 announced a 9% rise in capital expenditure at Rs 12.2 trillion, from Rs 11.2 trillion in fiscal 2026. Infrastructure sectors continued to get the highest allocation (22.9% of total budgetary capex). Investment is expected to be driven by higher capacity utilisation, lean corporate balance sheets and healthy government capital expenditure.

The shift to the new tax regime introduced in Union Budget 2025, and its continuation in Budget 2026. This is expected to increase the disposable income of investors, creating greater investable surplus and enabling higher levels of investment.

On May 5, 2026, the Union Cabinet approved Rs 181 billion for Emergency Credit Line Guarantee Scheme (ECLGS) 5.0, offering Rs 2.55 trillion in credit support (including Rs 50 billion for airlines) to aid businesses affected by the West Asia crisis. It will provide 100% guarantee for MSMEs and 90% for non-MSMEs, including airlines, to support liquidity, preserve jobs, and sustain supply chains. The measure comes amid rising energy costs and supply chain disruptions affecting export-oriented MSMEs due to the ongoing conflict in West Asia.

MSMEs have received special focus, with initiatives such as the new credit guarantee scheme, offering coverage of up to Rs 100 crore per applicant, and increase in the limit for the Tarun Plus category under Mudra loans from Rs 10 lakh to Rs 20 lakh. The government launched the Credit Guarantee Fund Scheme for Micro and Small Enterprises (CGMSE) to make available collateral-free credit to the MSE sector. Both existing and new enterprises are eligible for coverage under the scheme. The Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises and Small Industries Development Bank of India established a trust named the Credit Guarantee Fund Trust for Micro and Small Enterprises to implement the CGMSE. Moreover, public banks have taken steps to develop an in-house technology-based underwriting model to assess MSMEs, which will improve credit facilities for these enterprises.

Budgetary support towards rural areas will support rural employment, income and consumption. The government has allocated higher funds to the PM Awas Yojana – Rural (up 70.3% on-year) and PM Gram Sadak Yojana (up 11.8% on-year). Aggregate allocation on major rural schemes like Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi, Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, PM Gram Sadak Yojana, PM Awas Yojana – Rural has increased to Rs 2.2 lakh crore, a 12.6% on-year rise.

Faster settlement cycles and the transition to electronic trading have improved overall market efficiency. In addition, SEBI has introduced reforms aimed at increasing transparency, strengthening investor protection and enhancing market functioning. Broader reforms such as the goods and services tax, Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code and Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 have also helped create a more structured market environment. In addition, they are aimed at making the capital market safer and more secure for investors.

Rising Middle India to support India's growth story

Middle income households have been expanding over the past decade and are expected to continue to do so with rising GDP and household income. Crisil Intelligence estimates there were 41 million middle income households in India in fiscal 2012 and expects the number to increase to 181 million by fiscal 2030. A large number of households that have entered the middle-income bracket in the past few years are likely to be from semi-urban and rural areas. MSMEs, the backbone of the economy, account for approximately 30% of the GDP and 45% of manufacturing output and employ a substantial 110 million people. The growth of MSMEs is crucial in generating employment opportunities. Crisil Intelligence believes that improvement in literacy levels, better access to information and awareness, increase in the availability of necessities and the improvement in road infrastructure have increased the aspirations of Middle India, which is likely to translate into increased demand for financial products and financial services providers.

Key drivers for growth in Middle India economy

In recent years, Middle India has emerged as a key driver of the country's consumption growth story, propelled by factors such as increasing disposable income, urbanisation and the rise of e-commerce. This demographic group has expanded rapidly over the past decade. Its contribution to the economy is evident in its role in boosting consumption, driving investments and fostering entrepreneurship. With the number of middle-income households growing, the demand for high-quality consumer goods, healthcare, education, and housing is expected to rise, fueling further economic growth. Additionally, the segment's active participation in investments across asset classes, including stocks, real estate and mutual funds, has helped channel savings into productive investments. Its substantial contributions to tax revenue, meanwhile, have played a vital role in funding public welfare schemes and infrastructure projects. The government has introduced several reforms and initiatives to support and empower the middle class, aiming to enhance its quality of life, financial security and overall well-being. Some key initiatives include:

Tax benefits:

In the Union Budget for fiscal 2025, the government unveiled various initiatives to reduce the tax burden on the expanding middle class. These measures include revising the tax slabs, raising the standard deduction for salaried employees from Rs 50,000 to Rs 75,000 and increasing deductions on family pension from Rs 15,000 to Rs 25,000.

Entrepreneurship and business support:

The Pradhan Mantri MUDRA Yojana was rolled out in April 2015 to provide accessible and collateral-free microcredit to non-corporate, non-agricultural small and medium enterprises (SMEs). The government recently doubled the limit for the scheme from Rs 10 lakh to Rs 20 lakh for entrepreneurs who have effectively utilised and reimbursed loans under the 'Tarun' category. This programme has played a crucial role in empowering small businesses and promoting entrepreneurship.

Housing for all

The PMAY aims to achieve housing for all, with a target of 49.5 million houses in rural areas by 2029 and completion of sanctioned urban houses by December 31, 2025. Under the scheme, eligible families receive financial assistance including Rs 0.25 million in urban areas and up to Rs 0.12 million in rural areas, along with concessional loans and additional support such as toilet construction assistance and liquified petroleum gas connections to support housing construction and upgradation.

The Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana – Urban (PMAY-U) is a flagship programme of the government to ensure that all eligible urban beneficiaries have access to durable, all-weather pucca houses. The Cabinet approved PMAY-U 2.0 in August 2024 to provide financial assistance to one crore urban poor and middle-class families.

Digitalisation aided by technology to play pivotal role in economic growth

Technology is expected to play an important role by progressively reducing the cost of reaching out to smaller markets. In India, fintech adoption has risen sharply in recent years, supported by the rapid expansion of smartphone usage from about 30% of total phones in FY17 to an estimated 70% in FY26, driven largely by the country's young population, which is comfortable with new age technology products like smartphones. Among many initiatives by the government, the Unified Payments Interface (UPI) is playing a pivotal role towards financial inclusion. It provides a single-click digital interface across systems for smartphones linked to bank accounts and facilitates easy transactions using a simple authentication method. The volume of digital transactions has also seen a surge in the past few years, driven by increased adoption of UPI. Apart from the financial services industry, digitalisation in other industries such as retail will also play an important role in growth.

India's digital leap: 5G adoption and mobile penetration drive financial inclusion

India had ~1,162 million wireless subscribers at the end of fiscal 2026. The expanding reach of mobile networks, internet connectivity and electricity is extending subscriber access to remote areas, driving higher smartphone and internet penetration. Also, ~25 million subscribers migrated to 5G services following its launch in fiscal 2023, with the number estimated to have risen to over 314 million by the end of fiscal 2026. This shift has been supported by the availability of 5G services at 4G data plan prices, a surge in data demand and increasing accessibility of affordable 5G handsets.

In fiscal 2027, we expect 5G subscribers to reach 421 million, on the back of rising data consumption across over-the-top platforms, education, banking, healthcare and gaming. Managed Investment Products can capitalize on this trend by offering innovative, digitally enabled financial services that cater to the growing demand for online and mobile-based transactions. This could lead to increased financial inclusion, improved customer engagement, and expanded business opportunities.

Digital payments have witnessed substantial growth

Higher mobile penetration, improved connectivity and faster and cheaper data supported by Aadhaar, and bank account penetration have led to India's shift from being a cash-dominated economy to a digital one. Total digital payments in India have grown significantly over the past few years. Between FY21 and FY26, the volume of digital payments transactions has increased from 43.7 billion to 281.7 billion, growing at a CAGR of ~45%. During the same period, the value of digital transactions has increased from Rs. 1,414.6 trillion in FY21 to Rs 3,251.0 trillion in FY26. Consumers are increasingly finding transacting through mobile convenient.

Crisil Intelligence expects the share of mobile banking to increase dramatically over the coming years. In addition, we expect improved data connectivity, low digital payment penetration and proactive government measures to drive digitalisation in the country.

Digital public infrastructure reforms continue to aid the economic growth

Digitisation improves the transparency and efficiency of government processes, and widespread digital transformations help governments and institutions in policy implementation and broad policy outreach. The key idea for digital public infrastructure (DPI) is not completely digitising narrow public services but establishing a building block of digital modularity, which can be used by both government and private players to create the specific digital infrastructure required. The India Stack is a collective name for a set of open application programming interfaces (APIs) and public goods in digital form, such as DigiLocker, UPI and e-Sign.

Open Credit Enablement Network (OCEN)

OCEN was introduced as a step to promote financial inclusion and democratisation of credit. OCEN is a set of open standards which facilitate interactions and collaborations among borrowers, lenders, lending service providers, and technology service providers. This will help digital platforms leverage their position in credit delivery and value addition in the lending value chain. OCEN will also promote innovation in distribution of credit, making loans accessible to MSMEs, small vendors and individuals, leading to financial inclusion.

Use of generative artificial intelligence (AI) and new technologies

Generative AI, or GenAI, leverages extensive training on large datasets to swiftly produce diverse content forms like text and multimedia in response to prompts. In banking, financial services and insurance (BFSI), GenAI enables efficient, conversational banking, delivering prompt responses, enhancing customer experience and saving time. GenAI can swiftly detect potentially fraudulent activity by analysing customer behaviour patterns, which can help BFSI companies take proactive measures to bolster transaction security. It also helps in risk analysis and synthetic data generation, offering detailed insights from intricate financial datasets which can be employed for decision making. The different uses of GenAI at present show only a fraction of its potential to transform the BFSI sector.

Account aggregators

The RBI launched the account aggregator system on September 2, 2021, which has the potential to transform the MSME finance space once it is widely adopted by the lending community. These account aggregators would provide granular insights to lenders into customers' financial assets and their borrowing history, with customer consent. Inclusion of additional data, such as electricity bill payments and mobile recharges/bill payments, under the purview of account aggregators would enhance their utility.

Increase in number of wealthy individuals to drive investments across asset classes

India's robust economic and entrepreneurial ecosystem is poised to drive a significant increase in the number of high networth individuals (HNIs) and ultra-high networth individuals (UHNIs). These affluent individuals have substantially transformed India's financial wealth accumulation landscape by diversifying their investments from traditional financial instruments to higher-yielding assets, such as mutual funds and equities.

Despite this shift, a substantial portion of household savings still consists of bank and non-bank deposits, which grew to Rs 12.5 trillion in fiscal 2025 from Rs 8.4 trillion in fiscal 2022. At the same time, categories such as mutual funds, equities, PPF and insurance have gained traction in recent years, reflecting households' growing preference for products that offer better returns and more attractive risk adjusted profiles for long term growth. For example, MFs have emerged as the fastest-growing segment of financial savings, rising from Rs 1.6 trillion in fiscal 2022 to Rs 4.7 trillion in fiscal 2025 at a remarkable CAGR of 42.6%.

Growth in India's asset management sector driven by increasing participation from all segments of investors

The Indian mutual fund industry has experienced significant growth over the past six years with CAGR(FY21-26) of 20.4%, driven by a thriving domestic economy, substantial inflows, and increased participation from individual investors. Industry is witnessing a surge in growth, driven by equity space, where assets have increased significantly over the past decade.

This shift is attributed to retail investors transitioning from traditional debt products to equity funds, resulting in a substantial rise in equity investments. Mutual fund AUM as a proportion of bank deposits in scheduled commercial banks has risen from 19.7% in March 2020 to 28% as of March 2025 indicating increase in investor participation in mutual funds.

QAAUM surged by more than Rs 14 trillion, reaching a record high of Rs 81.5 trillion by March 2026 from Rs 67.4 trillion in March 2025. The outstanding performance of equity-oriented funds, significant progress in hybrid funds, rising penetration in B30 cities and the rising popularity of systematic investment plans (SIPs) which have seen higher participation by individual investors, were key factors contributing to growth.

Individual AUM from retail and high net worth investors constituted 52% of total MF AUM as on March 2020 which increased to 60% as of March 2026. Also, in fiscal 2026, monthly SIP flows remained consistently above Rs. 260 billion from April 2025 to March 2026 and above Rs 300 billion from March 2026 to May 2026, highlighting rising flows from SIPs.

The trajectory of the mutual fund industry in the last year is indicative of its adaptability to shifting market conditions as well as its durability. These insights can act as a compass for investors as they make their way through the complex financial landscape, enabling them to make well-informed decisions and capitalize on the industry's potential for long-term success.

Individuals outpace institutional investors in terms of MAAUM

Traditionally, the majority of the industry's assets were controlled by institutional investors, primarily comprising corporates. The mutual fund industry has experienced a significant increase in participation from individual households in recent years, driven by factors such as growing financial awareness, improved financial inclusion, enhanced access to banking channels, and the increased adoption of technology by non-bank distributors. Individual customers tend to favor equity-oriented schemes, which generally attract higher investment management fees in comparison to non-equity-oriented schemes. Individual Investors generally tend to have longer holding periods, contributing to a more stable asset base.

There has been a steady increase in retail investor participation. The non-individual participation has declined from 46.1% in FY21 to 39.9% in FY26 reflecting moderation in institutional and corporate allocation.

The rising share of HNI investors expands the addressable market for alternative AMCs, as these investors typically seek more sophisticated investment solutions, enhanced risk-adjusted returns, and greater portfolio diversification beyond traditional savings and investment options.

This is important because as investors move up the wealth curve, their financial objectives become more complex. HNIs are often more willing and able to allocate capital to alternative investment products such as private equity, venture capital, private credit, hedge funds, real estate funds, and structured strategies. These products can offer access to private markets, differentiated sources of return, and lower correlation with public equities and debt markets.

The increasing AUM in equity-oriented schemes reflects growing interest in high-risk, high-return opportunities. This trend suggests that a segment of investors is increasingly comfortable with market-linked volatility in pursuit of long-term wealth creation.

For AMC's, this expanding risk-oriented investor base presents a strategic opportunity. AMC's can leverage this pool of investors by introducing or expanding access to alternative investment avenues such as thematic funds, sector-focused strategies, hybrid products, or AIFs.

By doing so, AMC's can help investors diversify beyond traditional equity schemes while still aligning with their return expectations and risk appetite. This can also enable AMC's to deepen customer engagement, improve product differentiation, and capture a larger share of the rising investor wallet of India.

Trend in average MF AUM – individual investors

The number of folios increased from 97.1 million to 272.3 million from FY21 to FY26 indicating rapid onboarding and increased interest from retail investors. The average mutual fund AUM for individual investors, on the other hand, has been muted at around Rs 180 thousand during the same period, with interim volatility. The muted average AUM may also reflect market volatility, redemptions, profit-booking, or investors spreading their savings across multiple products such as direct equities, fixed deposits, insurance, PMS, AIFs, gold, real estate, and other structured products. As a result, mutual funds are benefiting from broader participation but not necessarily capturing the full increase in domestic financial savings.

The strategic implication is important for alternative investment firms. A larger financially aware investor base creates a broader addressable market, especially as some retail investors mature into affluent or HNI investors. If traditional mutual funds are not capturing a rising share of wallet, alternative platforms such as private equity, venture capital, hedge funds, PMS, and AIFs may have an opportunity to attract capital by offering differentiated risk-return profiles, access to private markets, thematic strategies, and portfolio diversification beyond conventional mutual funds.

Trend in average MF AUM - institutional investors

The average MF AUM grew at a CAGR of ~1.3% for the period FY21 to FY26. The steady increase in average AUM despite modest folio growth highlights high-ticket nature of institutional investments.

Trend in Demat accounts in India

The Demat Accounts, that holds shares and securities in electronic form enabling easy trading and investment in the stock market, in India have grown at 32.43% CAGR from Fiscal 2021 to Fiscal 2026. The rise in demat accounts suggest the increasing awareness and willingness of the people to participate in capital markets for either trading or with a long-term outlook and shift to increased investment in equities and mutual funds. As of fiscal 2026, the total demat accounts stood at around 224.5 million accounts.

The Impact of Market Volatility on Equity Mutual Fund Inflows

During fiscal 2026, Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) have exhibited volatility amidst global uncertainty, with significant net outflows, particularly in March 2026 (Rs. 1,177.8 billion), due to global risk aversion.

However, Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) and Mutual Funds (MFs) have maintained consistent net inflows, with DIIs peaking at Rs. 1,429.6 billion in March 2026 and MFs supported by steady SIP contributions, effectively offsetting FII outflows and reinforcing stability in India's equity market. The total equity inflows for 2025 were approximately Rs. 3.03 trillion, reflecting broad investor participation across categories. In March 2026, equity mutual funds recorded net inflows of Rs. 404.5 billion, a 55.7% increase month-over-month (MoM). Therefore, the increasing role of domestic investors has strengthened the stability of long-term asset accumulation trends.

India's equity market has remained resilient amid volatility, maintaining net inflows driven by domestic investors even during market corrections. This reflects sustained investor confidence and rising demand for investment products, creating greater opportunities for alternative AMCs to attract capital. With domestic market confidence intact, investors may increasingly allocate to alternative strategies as they diversify beyond traditional equities.

1. Alternative asset management companies

Introduction to alternative assets

Alternative assets typically refer to financial assets that offer diversification benefits to portfolios and generate higher returns than traditional asset classes such as stocks or bonds. They are not usually traded on public exchanges and include private equity (PE), venture capital, hedge funds, real estate, infrastructure, commodities and other non-traditional assets.

Alternative asset managers, therefore, are financial professionals or firms that specialise in identifying, executing and managing these types of alternative asset classes, which typically have the potential to generate higher returns compared with traditional asset classes.

In India, the alternatives industry is divided into three primary structures: alternative investment funds (AIFs), real estate investment trusts (REITs) and infrastructure investment trusts (InvITs). AIFs constitute the bulk of the industry, while REITs and InvITs account for a significantly smaller share.

Offshore funds have increasingly become active participants in the Indian alternatives industry. These funds are typically investment vehicles registered outside India that pool capital from international investors to invest in Indian assets. These funds often collaborate with domestic AIFs or alternative asset management companies (AMCs) to tap into their strategic expertise on local markets, on-the-ground insights, regulatory compliance and efficient deal execution. This is a win-win collaboration, offering foreign investors access to India's high-growth alternatives market while leveraging the expertise and network of domestic players.

Business model of alternative asset managers

Certain asset classes such as PE and hedge funds typically follow a 2%/20% compensation structure, wherein 2% of the total AUM is paid as management fee, while a 20% performance linked profit share is levied on the profits that the fund generates above a specific threshold. Investors can benefit from the performance-based fee structure as managers are encouraged to take calculated risks that could potentially lead to higher returns.

Management fees: PEs and hedge funds generate income principally from fees that are based on specified percentages of the net asset of the funds they manage. These fees are called management fees. Management fees are based on factors such as AUM, strategy of investment, servicing requirements, regulatory considerations, client relationships and client type. Depending on the product, management fees typically vary from 1-2%. The fees charged for equity funds are generally higher than those for debt and liquid funds, which are closer to 1%. Equity funds command relatively stable fees, whereas debt fund fees vary significantly depending on market conditions, fund duration and the competitive environment, and are typically lower than the maximum limits imposed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI).

Carried interest: Carried interest is a performance linked profit share that is usually levied on the profits generated by the fund, which is designed to incentivise managers to generate positive returns for investors. Carried interest typically varies from 10% to 20%. However, it could also be charged in different ways by managers, wherein the fee is attributed entirely to the management firm, or partial allocations are made to specific members of the team in the form of their individual performance-linked incentives.

Sponsor commitment (or general partner contribution): The Sebi AIF guidelines mandate that sponsors maintain a consistent stake in the AIF of not less than 2.5% of the corpus or Rs 50 million, whichever is lower. This sponsor commitment in the AIF reflects its skin in the game. Higher skin in the game demonstrates the manager's confidence in the fund, which is an important consideration for prospective investors. A higher level of sponsor commitment also results in superior economics for the manager as there is no fee charged or carry shared on this portion of the fund. In the Industry higher sponsor contribution ranging between 5 to 10% of the fund corpus has been observed.

Roles of an alternative asset manager

Investment strategy: The asset manager is responsible for defining the fund's investment objective, thesis and strategy, including focus sectors of the funds, portfolio construct, risk tolerance and return expectations.

Fund raising: The asset manager plays a crucial role in raising capital for the fund by engaging with investors and leading the fund set-up, documentation and marketing activities.

Fund management: The asset manager is responsible for day-to-day management of the fund, including managing investor relationships and overseeing operations.

Fund investments: The asset manager makes investment decisions on behalf of the fund, including sourcing the deals, identifying potential investments, conducting due diligence, negotiating with the portfolio company's management and finalising a term sheet, getting requisite approvals for the investment and overseeing the portfolio investments.

Portfolio management: The asset manager is also responsible for monitoring the performance of the portfolio companies and ensuring a timely and appropriate exit from the investments to generate returns for the investors.

Investor communications: The asset manager is also responsible for providing reliable and accurate information regarding the fund and its performance with investors on a regular basis.

Typical structure is as under:

Source: Crisil Intelligence

Value drivers for alternative AMCs:

Management fee: The asset manager receives a fee for managing the day-to-day operations of the fund. The management fee is dependent on the total commitment raised by the fund and fee charged across different share classes.

Carried interest: A key incentives for asset managers, carried interest refers to the share of profits they earn based on the fund's performance. The fundraising capability of an asset manager improves based on the superior performance of its existing funds.

Sponsor's commitment: AIF regulation requires that the sponsor/asset manager maintain a continuing interest in the fund. Returns generated on the sponsor commitment would depend on the performance of the fund and the commitment made.

Operational efficiency: Optimising operational costs, including distribution costs, can enable the asset manager to increase the fund's operational efficiency, which helps reduce expenses and ultimately drives profitability of an alternative AMC.

2. Alternative asset landscape in India

Alternatives have a huge headroom for growth in the Indian managed investments segment

The following products are included as a part of managed investments

The share of alternative products, as represented by commitment raised by AIFs, grew to 7.3% in March 2026 from 3.5% of total AUM of managed investment products¹ in March 2019. The share of managed investment products was ~67.6% of India's nominal GDP as of March 2026. Despite such a strong growth in AIF, India's AIF market is still underdeveloped as against the rest of world. As of March 2026, the ratio of Indian AIF industry's commitment to GDP stood at ~4.9%, which is significantly underpenetrated when compared to the ratio of the AIF net asset value (NAV) to

GDP in the European Union (EU), which stands at ~42% (as of calendar year 2022) indicating substantial scope for further penetration for AIFs in India.

The alternative asset management industry operates in a highly competitive environment, driven by the increasing demand for high yield investments and risk adjusted returns. Businesses within this industry compete with other alternative investment funds, venture capital funds, private equity funds, specialized investment funds, hedge funds, corporate buyers, traditional asset managers, and other financial institutions. To maintain a competitive edge, alternative asset managers emphasize innovation, strategic partnerships, and strong risk management frameworks.

Key competitive factors

Investment Performance

The ability to generate superior risk-adjusted returns is a critical element in attracting and retaining investors. Firms must demonstrate consistent performance across market cycles, showcasing their ability to navigate complex market conditions and deliver strong returns. A strong track record of investment performance is essential for building trust and credibility with investors.

Business Relationships

Strong relationships with institutional investors, family offices, and distribution partners are vital for enhancing fund-raising capabilities. Access to proprietary deal flow and strategic partnerships provides a competitive advantage, enabling firms to identify and capitalize on investment opportunities that others may miss. Building and maintaining these relationships requires a deep understanding of investor needs and preferences, as well as a strong network of contacts and connections.

Quality of service

Providing high-quality service to investors is essential for building trust and loyalty. This includes transparent reporting, effective risk management, and tailored investment strategies that meet the unique needs and goals of each investor. Dedicated client services and effective communication are also critical, enabling firms to respond quickly to investor inquiries and concerns, and to provide timely updates on investment performance.

Fund terms, including Fees

Competitive fee structures, including management fees and performance fees, are key to investor decision-making. Investors are increasingly favouring lower fees, co-investment opportunities, and alignment of interests with fund managers. Firms must be able to offer flexible and transparent fee structures that reflect the value they provide to investors.

Operational Efficiency and Risk Management

Effective risk management frameworks and operational efficiency are essential for driving long-term sustainability. Scalable investment platforms and strong internal controls improve cost efficiency and investor trust, enabling firms to manage risk and optimize investment returns. This includes implementing robust risk management systems, conducting regular audits and compliance reviews, and maintaining a strong culture of risk awareness and accountability.

Talent Acquisition and Retention

The industry demands highly skilled professionals with specialized expertise in alternative investments. Firms must offer competitive salaries, performance-based incentives, and long-term career growth opportunities to attract and retain top talent. This includes providing ongoing training and development programs, as well as opportunities for professional advancement and growth.

Significant barriers to entry

Entering the alternative asset management industry requires complex regulatory requirements, expertise, making it difficult for new entrants to establish themselves. Firms must navigate complex regulatory requirements, build strong relationships with investors and partners, and demonstrate a deep understanding of the alternative investment landscape.

Regulatory Compliance

The alternative asset management industry is heavily regulated, with firms subject to a range of regulatory requirements and oversight. Firms must be able to demonstrate a strong commitment to regulatory compliance, with robust systems and processes in place to manage risk and ensure adherence to regulatory requirements.

The AIF industry witnessed strong growth between fiscal 2019 and fiscal 2026

Over the past few years, AIF has become one of the key segments in private markets in India. Alternative investment products are among the fastest growing managed investment products in India. Total commitments have been growing at a steady pace seeing a ~29.2% CAGR between March 2019 and March 2026, with a total commitment of Rs 16.9 trillion as on March 31, 2026. The segment is expected to remain one of the fastest growing managed products categories over the next few years as more high net worth individuals (HNIs), ultra-HNIs and institutional investors seek out differentiated products that give them an option to generate better returns on their investments.

Alternative investments are expanding the market by capturing share from other asset classes, not mutual funds. Their relatively higher yields than other asset classes add to increased firm's profitability, driving growth in the investment landscape. As of fiscal 2026, the AUM for alternative investments in India stood at Rs 16.9 trillion and is expected to grow at 25-27% CAGR between March 2026 and March 2030 and reach Rs 41-44 trillion by March 2030.

Category II AIFs have been at the forefront in the AIF space, contributing to 75.2% of the commitments raised as on fiscal 2026. This denotes their prominence and influence within the AIF market.

Investments made refer to the amount invested by the AIFs. Investments made as a percentage of funds raised rose from 82.2% as of March 2020 to 96.2% as of March 2026. The increase was steady over the past years, which would generally mean that after the fundraising process is completed, the investment managers and AIFs have been deploying the capital and making investments for the investors.

Growth in AIF AUM is significantly higher than traditional asset classes such as mutual funds and deposits

While AIFs logged a ~29.2% CAGR between fiscal 2019 and fiscal 2026, mutual funds saw a substantially slower 18.7% CAGR in the same period. Similarly, aggregate deposits in banks in India logged a ~11% CAGR between fiscal 2019 and FY26, which was muted in comparison to the growth in AIFs. The scale of AIFs versus mutual fund AUMs and aggregate deposits in banks is still miniscule, indicating headroom to maintain the strong growth.

AIFs are gaining significant traction as private equity (PE) and venture capital (VC) investments are stepping up their India plays

AIF denotes any fund established or incorporated in India, which is a privately pooled investment vehicle collecting funds from sophisticated investors, whether Indian or foreign, to invest in accordance with a defined policy for the benefit of investors.

Alternative assets include private equity, private debt (dealing mainly in performing credit, distressed assets, real estate credit, and infrastructure funds), early-stage ventures, special opportunity funds, and art. However, they do not include traditional investments such as mutual funds and life insurance. Private equity AIFs cater to HNI/UHNI clients and institutions such as sovereign wealth funds, insurance companies, and banks. Private equity AIFs compete with portfolio management services (PMS) for the wallet share of such UHNI and HNI clients. While the private equity industry saw strong growth over the past decade, with investors rushing to invest in start-ups in India, newer products such as social ventures, arts, small and medium enterprise (SME) funds, and real estate funds are also gaining prominence. On the debt side, institutional investors such as insurance companies and pension funds are also investing in alternative assets in search of better returns.

Investor profile

Resident Indian individuals, non-resident Indians (NRIs), foreign nationals and institutional investors can invest in AIFs. However, due to minimum investment requirement of Rs 10 million, Rs 2.5 million in the case of angel funds only sophisticated private investors (non-retail) can invest in AIFs. Also, as per SEBI guidelines, AIFs can only be marketed through private placement. The directors, employees and fund managers of AIFs are permitted to invest in AIFs with a minimum amount of Rs 2.5 million. Investor profile varies depending upon the investment objective of the fund and targeted market segment. Usually, UHNIs/HNIs, corporate treasuries, insurance companies, family offices, etc invest in AIFs (family offices are the personal wealth management firms of ultrarich families). UHNIs/HNIs and institutional investors are well informed and attuned to adopting higher risk return strategies.

AIFs have become popular in India because they offer investors a range of alternative assets, including private equity, real estate and infrastructure. They provide diversification beyond traditional asset classes such as listed equities, bonds, currencies, or gold and offer potentially better returns.

Since their inception, AIFs have witnessed a remarkable rise in the number of funds registered, commitments raised, and new investments made. This was enabled by the enterprise of the industry and propelled by SEBI's measures to enhance and streamline the ecosystem.

In India, SEBI-accredited investors are high-net-worth individuals or entities certified by recognized agencies to access exclusive, high-risk investment products. Eligibility criteria include an annual income of Rs. 10 million and net worth of Rs. 5 million for individuals and Rs. 500 million for body corporates/trusts. Accredited investors enjoy lower investment thresholds, access to specific funds, and reduced compliance requirements. The accreditation process involves verification of financial documents by SEBI-recognized agencies, enabling participation in Accredited Investors Only Funds and exempting them from certain regulatory constraints.

AIF activity in terms of commitments raised has clocked a CAGR of ~29.2% between fiscal 2019 and fiscal 2026. India is expected to remain an attractive destination for PE and VC investments in the long-term.

Robust economic growth, rising entrepreneurship, a large consumer base, higher digital adoption, favourable regulatory environment and government initiatives and schemes should provide ample opportunities for investors in the coming years.

Equity funds in private markets outperform public-market peers

Private equity funds are generally expected to have outperformed public market returns over the long-term on account of value generated from smaller sized companies, insulation from the volatility of public markets and an opportunity to leverage a large, inefficient market, enabling the asset class to generate higher returns. However, a trade-off to availing these returns for private equity investors is to lose out on the liquidity inherent to the public markets.

Typically, private equity funds generate higher returns than their public market peers for the following reasons:

Value creation - PE funds usually maintain strong relationships with the management teams of their portfolio companies, offering guidance and influencing critical business decisions. PE funds also bring in board representation in their portfolio company and constitute operations advisory teams. They build targeted value creation plans, by leveraging existing networks, aimed at increasing profitability and driving revenue growth of their portfolio companies through acquisitions or market expansion. Additionally, PE funds have access to a larger set of companies across sectors and at different stages, which enables the asset class to obtain an edge over public equity.

Market inefficiency – In theory, investors are equipped with superior information that enables them to get better returns. This advantage, however, relies on market participants not having equal access to the same information. In public equity markets, decisions are predominantly made based on widely available data such as company disclosures, quarterly results, analyst reports etc, resulting in frequent transactions and price efficiencies. Hence, outperforming in public markets is more challenging than private markets as information often is derived from primary sources, industry experts, and on-site evaluations. The infrequency of transactions and information asymmetry in private equity markets support the market inefficiency theory, providing private market investors with an added advantage.

Size of target companies – Usually, PE players target smaller companies with lower market capitalisation because of the potential of higher returns. PE managers typically aim to grow these businesses by enhancing management teams, pursuing synergistic acquisitions, improving operational efficiencies, investing in technology and providing better access to capital. Such smaller firms also offer numerous opportunities to build value, enabling PE firms to leverage various strategies for enhanced performance.

Protection from short-term market volatility – As short-term market fluctuations do not usually affect PE valuations; asset owners can implement long-term value creation strategies without worrying about market volatility. During market downturns, PE funds can acquire quality assets at favourable prices, especially when other equity investors are compelled to liquidate their positions.

Debt/leverage – PE funds typically deploy significant levels of debt to finance their investments. They tend to finance the acquisition of a company using the assets and projected cash flows of the acquired company as collateral. Typically, the cost of debt is lower than the expected return on equity, thereby magnifying investment returns. However, if debt becomes costly or if the company faces a financial strain, the PE fund would find it difficult to service its debt obligations and keep investing in growth initiatives.

Exit strategies – PE funds maximise returns by strategically timing exits using IPOs, secondary sales or other such routes. The Indian stock market has become an attractive destination for these funds because of its growth in recent years, opening up opportunities for them to exit their investments through IPOs, mergers and acquisitions or strategic sales. The bottom line is that though private equity funds charge higher fees than other investment funds, they can still be more lucrative for investors because of their ability to drive value creation, insulate themselves from the volatility of public markets and to leverage a large and inefficient market.

Factors driving the growth of AIFs in India

Alternative investment funds (AIFs) have become popular in India because they offer investors a wide range of alternative assets, including private equity, real estate and infrastructure. This diversification beyond the traditional asset classes — such as listed equities, bonds, currencies and gold — gives AIF investors a chance to earn higher returns. This segment is expected to grow on the back of a growing pool of UHNIs and HNIs, an increase in the flow of domestic capital flow, better regulatory support and the presence of more experienced managers.

AIFs offer global investors the opportunity to invest in sectors with higher growth potential, such as technology, consumer goods, financial services, healthcare, infrastructure and renewable energy. In India, the changing economic landscape gives investors an opportunity to earn enormous returns by investing in such promising sectors and diversifying to minimise risk.

Alternatives, as an asset class, are seeing higher adoption among investors with higher risk appetite. Even domestic retail investors, who have traditionally preferred fixed income instruments such as bank fixed deposits, are now starting to find capital-market products more attractive. HNIs and ultra-HNIs, along with an increasing number of domestic institutions, form the foundation of the domestic AIF industry. The SEBI has been proactively trying to bring in more transparency in the industry.

The reasons for the growth of AIFs can be summarised as:

Diversification benefits

AIFs offer diversification benefits beyond the traditional asset classes. So, it can generate higher returns because of exposure to a wider range of assets and specialised investment strategies. Investors seeking diversification and higher returns find AIFs attractive.

Emergence of experienced managers

Experienced and established managers with a proven ability to navigate all market conditions are necessary for the growth of any investment class. The domestic market is seeing more such experts who have a consistent track record of generating higher returns across multiple funds and business cycles.

More eligible investors

Institutional capital flow into the domestic market has increased recently due to better economic growth and a strong equity market. There is also a rise in HNIs, UHNIs and first-generation entrepreneurs looking to invest in assets that can give higher returns.

Increase in domestic capital flow

Currently, foreign investors dominate the AIF industry in India. The shift in focus from traditional investment products to AIFs and SEBI making regulatory changes proactively would help change the investment mix in favour of domestic investors. In recent years, domestic institutional investors, such as retirement funds and insurance companies, have been allowed to invest in AIFs. This will be a major growth driver for the industry.

Demographic advantages

India has a median age of below 30 years and one of the world's youngest workforces. This implies that there is a readily available pool of skilled and efficient labour to drive domestic and foreign capital investment. Further, the size of the younger population could drive innovation in the economy, leading to a more thriving startup ecosystem. Additionally, the increased in per capita income and disposable income in the country can potentially drive investments into newer asset classes such as alternative investments and portfolio management services.

Rise of startup culture

Over the past few years, the startup culture in India has been thriving. The government says the launch of the Startup India initiative in 2016 has created more than 223,000 recognised startups as on fiscal 2026. The PE industry has shown strong growth over the last decade as new investors rush to invest in the startups. The dynamic nature of the underlying supply will ensure there are enough exit options, which will boost investor confidence.

Deepening financial markets

India's financial ecosystem is flourishing as credit penetration increases. This will facilitate AIFs to infuse capital into startups and MSMEs, leading to economic expansion

RBI's allowance of foreign investment

Category III AIFs with foreign investments can make portfolio investments in only the securities or instruments in which an FPI can invest under the Foreign Exchange Management Act or the regulations made thereunder. In May 2021, SEBI, in consultation with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), doubled the overseas investment limit for AIFs from $750 million to $1,500 million.

Increase in investment opportunities in smaller cities

Tier-1 cities in India are usually the hub for most VC and PE investments as these places have well-developed infrastructure, a stable and growing economy, better technology and many other advantages. While AIFs have preferred tier-1 cities for investments, they have lately started shifting their focus to the smaller cities as well. One reason for this is that these cities and towns are seeing a considerable rise in entrepreneurship. Also, the Make in India initiative by the Union government, increased digitalisation and educated population have given these regions more visibility within the startup ecosystem.

Regulatory oversight for the AIF segment

The AIF sector has been continuously evolving and growing. The policy developments initiated by the regulator have been focused on compliance and are aimed at building investor confidence, increasing transparency and bringing in more participants. Some of the regulatory initiatives include:

Standardising the private placement memorandum (PPM) and PPM audits, and mandatory benchmarking of AIFs, which will play a key role in improving transparency and help investors make informed decisions

Introducing more investment opportunities such as encouraging AIFs to be set up in the International Financial Services Centre (IFSC) in GIFT City by offering tax incentives, access to world-class infrastructure, proximity to onshore markets and certain exemptions to non-resident investors, among others

Mandating that AIFs hold their units and investments in the demat form, to safeguard investor interest and to protect them from fraud

Making it compulsory for AIFs to appoint a custodian (previously, AIFs had to do this only if they had a corpus of more than Rs 5 billion)

Relaxing the borrowing guidelines for Category I and II AIFs to meet temporary funding needs. Such borrowings are permitted for up to 30 days, can occur a maximum of four times in a calendar year, and must not exceed 10% of the investable funds

A timeline of some of the major regulatory changes made over the years:

Regulatory Changes

SEBI introduced several key regulatory changes, including a lighter regulatory framework for schemes exclusively for accredited investors, allowing for more customization and flexibility. The minimum investment threshold for Large Value Funds (LVFs) was reduced to Rs.250 million from Rs. 700 million, widening access for smaller institutional investors and family offices. Additionally, for Accredited Investors (AI)-only funds, trustee responsibilities are now handled by the fund manager to streamline governance. AI-only funds can now extend their tenure up to 5 years (previously 2 years), subject to two-thirds investor approval.

Crackdown on "Evergreening" and Enhanced Due Diligence

To prevent the misuse of AIF structures and ensure investor protection, SEBI and RBI introduced measures to crack down on "evergreening" and enhance due diligence. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) banned regulated entities from investing in AIF schemes that directly or indirectly invest in debtor companies of those lenders, preventing "evergreening" of stressed loans. SEBI mandated thorough due diligence by AIFs before executing investments to prevent misuse of AIF structures. Furthermore, SEBI introduced a "dissolution period" for unliquidated investments, allowing funds to hold assets for up to 5 years after the scheme's tenure expires as well as the tightening of governance and compliance requirements has increased operating costs for managers, potentially accelerating industry consolidation.

Other Developments

The industry is also seeing a shift toward thematic, sector-specific, and ESG-focused AIFs. There is growing interest in Quantitative PMS strategies using data-driven models. Furthermore, Category III AIFs have shown a sharp increase in investments in listed holdings, such as REITs and InvITs.

Industry Transition

As of early 2026, the AIF industry is transitioning from a "light-touch" regulatory approach to a more structured, "right-hold" framework to ensure investor protection while encouraging innovation. This transition aims to balance the need for investor protection with the need to foster innovation and growth in industry.

Landscape before AIF regulations

Private equity Funds started investing in the Indian market shortly after liberalisation of the economy, in early 1990s. These were the early years of India's alternatives ecosystem. To encourage the flows, which were primarily early-stage venture capital investment in tech-related companies, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) introduced the SEBI Venture Capital Funds Regulations, 1996. It also introduced the Foreign Venture Capital Investor Regulations in 2000.

The segment grew with a wide variety of funds investing in various stages of companies. Due to the lack of a coherent regulatory structure in AIFs, the funds faced challenges while catering to the diverse set of private capital funds. Adopting a one-size-fits-all approach was ineffective. As a result, the AIF regulations were introduced in 2012, recognising alternative investment funds such as PE and VC funds as a distinct asset class.

AIF regulations of 2012

The SEBI (Alternative Investment Funds) Regulations, 2012, on May 21, 2012, represents a pivotal moment for the Indian private capital industry. This regulatory framework aims to address the evolving needs of an industry that has expanded significantly since its inception in the mid-1980s.

The regulations mandated that all funds established in India for pooling capital from domestic or foreign investors must register with SEBI. AIFs can mobilise funds on a private placement basis, it added.

SEBI has defined three categories of AIFs on the basis of the investment strategy, purpose, leverage and complexity of trading strategies:

Category I AIFs: These invest in startups, early-stage ventures, social ventures, infrastructure or other sectors that the government deems socially or economically desirable. These funds are perceived to have a positive impact on the economy and may receive government incentives.

Category II AIFs: These are AIFs that do not fall under Category I & III, and which do not undertake leverage or borrowing other than to meet day-to-day operational requirements, as permitted in the SEBI (Alternative Investment Funds) Regulations, 2012. These include private equity funds, real estate funds, debt funds and fund of funds.

Category III AIFs: These funds employ complex trading strategies and may use leverage through investments in listed or unlisted derivatives.

Fund of funds (FOFs): These are a relatively new investment category that has been gaining popularity among investors. FOFs invest in other funds, ranging from small family offices to large asset management firms. They offer a way for investors to diversify their portfolio without taking on the risk of investing directly in these funds. They also provide the advantage of reducing bias, wherein the managers managing the funds are not biased toward any specific region or industry and base investment decisions based on performance or potential.

Different categories of AIFs

Category I	Category II	Category III
Venture capital funds (including angel funds) – New-age startups with high-growth prospects that require large financing during their initial days can approach a VC fund. An angel investor invests in budding startups and brings in early business-management experience.	Private equity funds (including secondary funds) – A PE fund typically invests in unlisted private companies by availing of equity interest	Funds that engage in many complex trading techniques, e.g., listed, or unlisted derivatives
SME funds – invest in small and medium businesses	Real estate funds – invest in securities that are offered by public real estate companies	Hedge funds – a pooled investment vehicle from UHNIs/HNIs or institutional investors that invest and trade in different markets, strategies and instruments (equity, debt and derivatives)
Social venture funds – invest in socially responsible businesses; they are in similar to philanthropic investments but have a scope for earning returns for investors	Funds for distressed assets –invest in stressed assets of companies, with the investment philosophy that a turnaround of these assets can provide high returns	Private investment in public equity (PIPE) funds – invests in shares of publicly traded companies, wherein shares are acquired at a discounted price
Infrastructure funds – invest in infrastructure companies, including those involved in road construction and railway construction

The AIF regulations, 2012, also stipulate several important conditions, including:

A minimum fund size of Rs 200 million, A maximum of 1,000 investors per fund, with a minimum investment of Rs 10 million per investor

A continuing sponsor commitment of either 2.5% of the corpus or Rs 50 million (whichever is lesser) for category I AIFs and Category II AIFs; and 5% of the corpus or Rs 100 million (whichever is lesser) for Category III AIFs

Specific disclosure requirements regarding investment strategies, valuation procedures and methodologies, as well as potential conflicts of interest

Sponsor or manager for Category I or Category II funds may appoint a custodian registered with the SEBI, if the corpus is more than Rs 5 billion. While Category III AIFs are to compulsorily appoint a custodian irrespective of its corpus

3.1 Private equity

India has emerged as a preferred destination for private equity investments driven by favourable factors, that create a conducive environment for investors. India's entrepreneurial ecosystem has witnessed significant growth in recent years, with a surge in startups and small businesses across various sectors. However, access to capital remains a major challenge for many Indian entrepreneurs, hindering their ability to scale and grow. Private Equity and Venture Capital investments play a pivotal role as a crucial source of funding for Indian entrepreneurs, providing the necessary capital for businesses to grow and expand their operations. Moreover, in the past few years the country experienced a surge in private equity transactions within the startup segment, propelling India to the third position globally as of FY24 with more than 110 unicorns, trailing behind the United States and China.

Private equity funds investing in promising startups, driving growth and delivering strong returns

Private equity AMCs have played a crucial role in providing vital support and financial backing to emerging startups and businesses at various stages of their growth and operation. Their involvement has been instrumental in fuelling the development of these ventures, enabling them to scale, innovate, and navigate challenges effectively. The funds managed by these AMCs invest in and manage growing companies, with the goal of generating returns through the eventual sale or IPO of these companies. The business model of private equity involves raising capital from investors which are also known as limited partners (LP) or investors. They provide capital to the fund but do not participate in the management of funds. These investors can be institutional investors, high net worth individuals etc. General partner (GP) or alternative asset manager is responsible for the management of funds and their operations. They also contribute their own capital showcasing their commitment to the opportunity, and identify and acquire promising companies, they add value to these companies through operational improvements and strategic guidance and ultimately exiting the investments to realize returns. Private Equity AMCs primarily generate revenue through number of streams, including asset management fees (~2% of AUM) which is charged to clients as a percentage of assets being managed, profits from sponsor commitment, and carried interest of ~20% of the fund's profit above a certain threshold which is also known as the performance fee paid to Private Equity AMC. A private equity fund typically has a life span of about 8-10 years, with an investment period of ~3-5 years.

Rise in investment activity in terms of number of deals between fiscal 2020 and fiscal 2026

The Indian startup ecosystem witnessed a remarkable surge in early 2010s, driven by growth in ecommerce. During the period, private equity funds emerged as the most active investment in Indian startups actively participating in various industries, including financial services, consumer products, and services companies. Notably, companies such as Flipkart and Snapdeal, achieved rapid scaling due to these investments, which enabled them to expand their operations and improve their market presence. Further, PE investments facilitated the growth of new-age startups in the financial space, allowing them to innovate and disrupt traditional business models. Additionally, consumer-focused companies, such as Zomato and Swiggy, received significant PE investments, enabling them to scale their operations and expand their geographic footprint. Over the past decade, these companies have undergone significant transformations, driven by their ability to adapt to changing market conditions and consumer preferences. The Indian private equity investments ecosystem witnessed a significant surge in volume between fiscals 2015 and 2019, with 7,907 deals worth ~Rs 7.40 trillion. Fiscal 2022 saw a total of 2095 deals valued at Rs 4,590.0 billion, a substantial increase from fiscal 2021's 1,377 deals worth Rs 3,467.6 billion. This uptick can be attributed to the post-pandemic economic recovery, leading to an increase in investor confidence and a subsequent rise in deal activities, with significant investments flowing into sectors, such as information technology, consumer discretionary, healthcare and financials. In fiscal 2025, India saw the closure of 1,377 private equity investment deals amounting to about Rs 2,111.3 billion. As of fiscal 2026, private equity investment deals amounted to Rs 3,988 billion with 2,125 deals.

Private equity investments have witnessed a substantial surge in value in the last 2 decades, with a total of ~Rs 18.24 trillion worth of deals reported during fiscal 2020 and 2025. Within this period, fiscal 2022 saw significant growth, with investments reaching ~Rs 4.6 trillion. While fiscals 2023 and 2024 saw year on year declines in investment in terms of value, fiscal 2025 grew by 3% year on year, indicating potential rebound in the investment cycle.

Over years, there has been a notable shift in the investor approach, with a focus on selective investments that support sustainability, profitability and long-term value creation. Additionally, macroeconomic factors such as heightened interest rates and inflation have increased capital costs, leading to a more cautious approach. This shift is reflected in the decline in volume from fiscal 2022 to fiscal 2026. However, similar to the trend observed in investment value, the number of deals also exhibited a 16% year-on-year increase in fiscal 2026.

Deal type analysis

Angel/seed funding: Angel/seed funding represents the earliest stage of private equity investments, commonly extended to startups or early-stage enterprises. Angel/seed funding is used to support the development of a business idea, product, or service. This funding aids entrepreneurs in validating their ideas, creating prototypes, and gearing up for subsequent funding stages.

Angel/seed funding, characterised by its relatively small investment sizes, has seen a downturn in both the number and value of deals in fiscal 2026, compared to its peak in fiscal 2022. Despite this, the average investment size has risen to Rs 0.14 billion in fiscal 2025, indicating that investors are becoming more selective and opting to back startups with strong growth prospects. In fiscal 2026, the average investment size increased further to Rs 0.25 billion.

Venture funding: Venture capital funding is a type of private equity investment that invests in companies with established products, strong management teams, and scalable business models. VC funding is typically provided in multiple rounds, with each round increasing in size and valuation. VC firms play an active role in guiding the company, offering strategic advice, and facilitating connections with industry networks.

Venture capital funding has significantly expanded since the past decade and saw ~5.6 times increase in terms of value, increasing from Rs 131 billion in fiscal 2014 to Rs 738 billion in fiscal 2025 to Rs. 681 billion in fiscal 26TD. Between fiscal 2023 to 2024, venture capital investments saw a 40% decline in value, leading to a drop in the average ticket size to Rs 1.81 billion from Rs 2.19 billion in the same period. The funding category has been consolidating, as investors are placing a strong emphasis on the economic sustainability of the firms they invest in. In fiscal 2026, there was an improvement seen in terms of value, volume and average ticket size.

Private equity funding: It is a type of investment provided to established companies that require capital to expand or restructure. PE firms invest in companies with a proven track record of profitability, with the goal of generating returns through financial leverage, operational improvements, and strategic acquisitions. PE firms sometimes take a controlling stake in the company and work closely with management to implement operational improvements and drive growth.

Private equity witnessed uptick in volume from 104 deals in fiscal 2024 to 151 deals in fiscal 2025 to 351 deals in fiscal 2026. Its average ticket size decreased to Rs. 6.42 billion due to decrease in value in fiscal 2025 and Rs. 5.55 billion in fiscal 2026.

Pre-IPO funding: Pre-IPO funding is a type of PE investment provided to companies that are preparing to go public. This type of funding is used to support a company's growth and expansion plans, as well as to prepare for the IPO process. In fact, pre-IPO funding is often used to strengthen a company's balance sheet, invest in growth initiatives and build a strong management team.

The uptake of this investment route can be gauged from the fact that pre-IPO funding posted a five-fold increase over fiscals 2023 to 2025, to 21 deals from 4 deals and in fiscal 2026TD deal reach to 31. This can be attributed to restored investor confidence and a buoyant equity market, which, consequently, saw the number of IPOs increase to 272 in the fiscal 2024 from 164 in fiscal 2023, i.e. a 66% on-year rise. This had a strong cascading effect for pre-IPO funding, as companies sought additional capital to strengthen their balance sheets and meet regulatory requirements in a push to go public. In fiscal 2026, the average ticket size of investment stood at Rs. 3.48 billion.

Public equity

Public equity refers to ownership of shares in a publicly traded company. Public equity is a liquid investment, i.e. investors can easily sell a company's shares on the open market.

Public equity volume decreased to 59 deals in fiscal 2025 from 78 deals in fiscal 2024. Similarly, the ATS reduced to Rs 3.99 billion from Rs 4.37 billion, owing to a decrease in the value terms by 31% over the period. Public equity volume decreased to 43 deals in fiscal 2026 from 59 deals in fiscal 2025 but average ticket size has improved to 10.98 billion.

Among deal types, PE dominated in value terms, with a 49% market share in fiscal 2026, 46% market share in fiscal 2025, followed by VC at 22% in fiscal 2026 and 35% in fiscal 2025 and public equity at 12% in fiscal 2026 and 11% in fiscal 2025.

In volume terms, Angel/Seed funding remained the most sought after, with its total funding share rising to 53% in fiscal 2025 from 51% in fiscal 2020. This can be linked to a growing Indian startup ecosystem. Conversely, VC deals within the overall deal pie declined to 27% in fiscal 2026 from 32% in fiscal 2020. Private Equity has grown during the same period from 9% to 17%.

IT remained the leading recipient of PE investment over 6 years

Over the past 6 years, the information technology (IT) and consumer discretionary sectors secured the maximum deals in volume terms, with IT accounting for 37% share of the total transaction volume in fiscal 2025, followed by consumer discretionary, at 17%.

IT and consumer discretionary topped deals in value terms over past 6 years

The IT sector's growth has been fuelled by rising adoption of digital technologies. The sector is constantly evolving, with newer technologies and innovations. Companies in this space often require capital to invest in research and development (R&D), acquire new technologies and stay competitive.

In value terms, VC funding comprised the largest share over the years, as VCs are structured to take on higher risk for the potential of higher returns. VCs also provide the necessary capital from time-to-time for R&D, product development as well as strategic guidance and mentorship to help companies' scale.

But as the sector continues to evolve, PE investment firms can also expect to see a steady stream of opportunities to invest in innovative companies and help them scale.

While VCs dominate the IT landscape, it is PE and Venture Capital funding that finds appeal among consumer discretionary companies. From fiscal 2020 to 2025 the majority of the deals in this sector in value terms was via PE and Venture Capital.

Overall, there has been a significant uptick in PE deal transactions on the back of positive trends such as rising penetration of e-commerce, changing consumer tastes and rising income levels contributing to increased consumer spending. Also, as consumers increasingly seek tailored experience and unique products, companies within this sector require financial backing to adapt to evolving preferences and remain competitive.

PE firms focusing on larger deals

In fiscal 2026, the share of deal sizes ranging from Rs 150-500 million and Rs. 500- 2500 million increased in volume terms to 24% and 22%, respectively up from 16% each in fiscal 2020, whereas that of ticket sizes below Rs 150 million decreased, with a sharp shrinking in the Rs 5-150 million ticket size, which reduced to 30% from 37% over the period. This indicates that investors are prioritising larger investments in established businesses with stable cash flows.

The mid-market category, comprising deal sizes of ₹500–2,500 million, saw its market share increase to 19% by volume and 14% by value in fiscal 2025, up from 16% and 12% in fiscal 2020, respectively. It is expected that the share of mid-market within PE investments will rise further and at a faster rate. As of fiscal 2026, market share of mid-market category stood at 22% as compared to 19% as of fiscal 2025.

Sharp increase in deal exits in value and volume terms since fiscal 2005

PE investor exits surged to Rs 4.91 trillion between fiscals 2020 and 2025 from Rs 2.52 trillion during fiscal 2015 to 2019, or ~2x. Also, in fiscal 2025, there were 108 exits totalling Rs 465.0 billion. The exits in value terms rose sharply to Rs 1,204.4 billion in fiscal 2024 from Rs 604.5 billion in fiscal 2023. This significant increase can be credited to strong market conditions and increased liquidity, resulting from a bullish market trend.

Key growth drivers of PE

Growth in the Indian economy: Indian economy's structural growth drivers will continue to support long-term growth. The increasing share of young population and increasing participation of women in the labour force present favourable demographics to drive the consumption growth in the country. India is also expected to maintain a steady supply of skilled labour - enhancing increasing share of services sector as well as supporting growth in service-exports

Startup ecosystem: Government initiatives such as Startup India and Make in India have notably promoted entrepreneurial ventures and startups, creating opportunities for PE investors to fund these businesses for growth and expansion.

Emerging technology ecosystem: The rapid adoption of technology and digitisation in India has given rise to a thriving technology ecosystem. This has led to the emergence of various tech-enabled businesses that require capital to sustain growth and stay competitive in an ever-evolving technology landscape. Over the years, startups have grown and demonstrated scalability, and PE funds have enabled them to sustain growth. Furthermore, the availability of investment opportunities, talented promoters and a supportive entrepreneurship environment have created new avenues for PE investments. PE investors can capitalise on this trend by investing in startups and businesses that leverage technology to drive innovation and disruption.

Exit opportunities: The growth of the Indian stock market and the increasing number of initial public offerings (IPOs) have created attractive exit opportunities for PE investors. This has made India a more attractive destination for PE investments, as investors can now exit their investments through IPOs, mergers and acquisitions, or strategic sales, providing a clear path to liquidity. The Indian stock market has demonstrated significant growth in recent years, driven by a combination of factors such as economic growth, regulatory reforms and increasing investor participation. Notably, there has been a rise in IPO activity by PE/VC-backed startups.

Regulatory oversight

The PE industry in India is regulated by two primary authorities: the SEBI and the RBI. SEBI, the primary regulator, regulates AIFs through the SEBI (Alternative Investment Fund) Regulations, 2012. The RBI, on the other hand, regulates foreign investment in PE funds and VC funds through the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), 1999.

SEBI regulations

The SEBI (Alternative Investment Fund) Regulations, 2012, provide a comprehensive framework for the regulation of AIFs in India. Under these regulations, all AIFs are required to register with SEBI before they can accept commitments from investors and commence operations. The regulations also prescribe the eligibility criteria for AIFs, the investment restrictions and the disclosure requirements. PE funds fall under Category II AIFs, which are defined as AIFs that do not undertake borrowings other than to meet day-to-day operational requirements

RBI regulations

The RBI regulates foreign investment in PE funds and VC funds through the FEMA, 1999. The FEMA regulations provide framework for the regulation of foreign exchange transactions, including investments in AIFs.

The regulatory bodies have taken various initiatives to support and encourage private equity investments in India. For instance, increase in the foreign direct investment (FDI) limit in the insurance sector from 49% to 74% has hugely boosted PE investments. Similarly, relaxation of FDI norms in other critical sectors, such as e-commerce and pharmaceuticals, has also been instrumental in attracting PE investments.

3. Secondaries

Introduction

Secondaries refer to the sale of existing investments or assets in a PE fund by one investor to another and does not involve the infusion of new capital into the company. PE markets have a ready mechanism where investors can buy and sell their ownership in an equity investment through the stock exchange. In the private market, this exchange is generally done through the secondaries market. PE fund investments by default are long-term in nature, with a typically larger term of the fund. Secondaries provide investors with an opportunity to exit their investments before the fund's maturity date. There are two types of sellers in the secondaries market:

Limited partner (LP) sellers

LPs sell their commitment in a fund to a secondary buyer, which results in contractual commitment for future capital and receipt of future distributions being passed on to the secondary buyer, who becomes a new investor in the fund. LPs typically want to sell their holdings for reasons such as liquidity; portfolio rebalance and change in investment strategy.

General partner (GP) sellers

GPs can be sellers in the secondaries market as they might be looking to provide liquidity to LPs, or to realise portfolio asset returns as the fund approaches maturity. The GP might want to sell a portfolio asset, if it believes it is the right time to exit the investment and holding the investment for a longer period might not add any additional value against the investment. Sometimes a GP might want to hold on to an asset and provide liquidity to the existing LPs as the existing fund approaches the end of its term. This may be done by setting up a continuation fund and transferring the assets to it. Additionally, to provide liquidity to the existing LPs, GP might sell a portfolio asset to a strategic buyer or another GP (private equity fund/firm). This is one of the important exiting avenues for GPs in India.

Secondary fund and its benefits

A secondary fund engages in GP-led secondary transactions. Secondary funds typically acquire investments at a discount and must have a robust valuation process in place.

Benefits of secondary fund investments

Diversification: Secondaries allow buyers to gain exposure to a diversified portfolio across multiple strategies, sectors, vintage years, geographies and GPs, potentially reducing risk. Buyers and sellers can use secondaries to manage their portfolios, tailor their exposure to target specific themes or risk profiles.

Liquidity: It refers to the ability to easily buy or sell an interest in a fund without significantly impacting its valuation. LPs may need to exit their investment in a fund before its natural maturity, often due to cash flow requirements or a desire to rebalance their portfolio. Secondary funds provide liquidity to the existing LPs before the end of the fund term.

Manage uncertainties: One of the key advantages of secondary funds is that these offer buyers a high degree of visibility on the underlying fund assets. Secondary funds provide buyers with access to detailed information about the portfolio companies. This includes historical financial performance, track records, and valuations, enabling buyers to make more informed decisions about their investments. With this level of transparency, buyers can better assess the potential risks and returns of the investment, leading to a more confident and informed decision-making process.

Better pricing: Secondary buyers generally acquire PE investments at a discount to their net asset value (NAV) compared with the primary market. Secondaries can provide attractive investment opportunities and potentially enhance overall risk-adjusted returns.

J curve impact: The J curve phenomenon is a well-known pattern in PE investments, characterised by initial losses or negative returns in the early years, followed by a surge in positive returns as investments mature and value is created. Investing in a secondary fund reduces the J curve impact. Since secondary funds typically acquire existing investments, the initial negative returns have already been absorbed, allowing buyers to enter the investment at a more advanced stage and potentially reap the benefits of the value creation process. This can provide more immediate returns on investment and a smoother cash flow profile.

Managing fund exits and role of continuation funds in value creation

VC funds typically have a term life of 8-10 years, during which the GP makes investments, seeks exits and offers suitable returns. The fund aims to exit its investments during the harvesting period or at the end of its tenure. However, in some cases, holding on to investments for a longer period may be more beneficial for value creation. This requires a delicate balance as not all LPs may agree to extend the holding period and may prefer liquidity by the end of the original fund tenure.

As a fund approaches termination, the GP may identify certain assets that require a longer holding period to maximise value. If the GP can convincingly demonstrate this to the LPs, they may request a term extension to continue investing in these assets. However, if an extension is not legally permissible or if most LPs prefer to exit, the GP must prioritise providing liquidity and exits to the investors. To adhere to the terms of the fund and provide liquidity and exits to the investors, the AMC may look for options such as portfolio sale, single asset continuation fund, multi-asset continuation fund.

Portfolio sale refers to the selling of a group of similar investments in a single transaction. A continuation fund is a new investment vehicle created to hold and manage a subset of investments from an existing fund that is nearing or has reached the end of its term. The purpose of a continuation fund is to provide additional time and resources to maximise the value of these investments that may not have reached their full potential or require more investment to achieve their intended returns.

In a continuation fund, the existing assets are transferred from the original fund to the new fund, and the GP continues to manage and oversee them. This allows the GP to maintain control and oversight of the assets, while also providing a fresh investment horizon to optimise their value. LPs are generally given an option to cash out and lock in returns early, or an option to roll over, either fully or partially, into the continuation fund.

Secondaries transactions in India

The secondary² deals in India have maintained a steady pace over the past seven years, with fiscal 2022 being a notable exception, which saw a high deal value of ~Rs 1,066 billion. For fiscal 2025, the total deal value amounts to ~ Rs 377 billion, which is 32% higher than the total deal value of Rs 284 billion in fiscal 2024. For fiscal 2026, the total deal value reached ~ Rs 683 billion, which is ~78% higher than the total deal value of the fiscal 2025, showing an increasing trend in secondaries transaction. Notably, the average deal size which has been calculated based on the number of deals for which deal value has been made available has increased significantly, multiplying ~3 times from Rs 3.23 billion per deal in 2020 to Rs 9.75 billion per deal in fiscal 2026.

Early-stage investment trend in India, liquidity and potential growth opportunities for secondaries

² Based on data available on VCC Edge, secondary deals include PE, VC, pre-IPO and angel deals, having deal features as secondary. Those transactions where both seller and buyer details are available and the seller is a fund, or non-promoter or holding company of the target company are also classified as secondary deals. If a deal has both primary and secondary components, it has still been classified as secondary deals.

Early stage³ deals have recorded a steady uptrend, with more than 9,500 deals taking place between fiscals 2020 and fiscal 2026. In six of the past seven fiscals, the number of deals exceeded 1,000; fiscal 2024 was an exception, at 988 deals. Fiscal 2026 has witnessed total deal value of Rs 1123 billion which is ~133% of the total deal value of fiscal 2025.

As the PE and VC markets continue to expand, the focus will increasingly shift to liquidity strategies, enabling fund managers to divest their investments and redistribute capital and profits to their investors. With a typical fund life, PE and VC funds are designed to invest, hold and eventually exit their portfolio companies to generate returns. As the number of deals grows, several investments will soon reach maturity, prompting fund managers to seek exit opportunities. This wave of maturing investments along with the increase in number of registered AIFs in the past few years will facilitate buying and selling of existing PE and VC investments, which is expected to unlock a significant opportunity for the secondaries market.

The global secondaries market has evolved into a mature platform, enabling investors to buy and sell the existing PE investments, and has become an important strategy for alternative asset managers worldwide. Similarly, as India's PE and VC landscape continues to evolve, the secondaries market is expected to emerge as a vital component of the ecosystem. Although the secondaries market in India is at a very nascent stage, the growth of private markets and robust start-up ecosystem is expected to support the growth of secondaries in coming years.

3.2 Private credit

Private credit, or alternative credit, refers to debt financing provided by non-banking financial institutions, such as AIFs and family offices, to entities, often small and medium enterprises (SMEs). This form of investment involves lending, to businesses or individuals, outside of the traditional banking system.

The private credit industry saw significant growth after the 2008 financial crisis due to stricter capital requirements for banks, which discouraged them from lending to riskier borrowers, creating a demand-supply mismatch. Private credit investments have features of a typical debt instrument, such as tenor, collateral provisions and fixed/floating interest rates.

³ Based on data available on VCC Edge, we have considered angel/seed and VC deal type as early-stage deals. Deal count includes all deals even where deal value has not been given

Some of the key characteristics are:

Debt-based investment: The investments are in debt form, wherein the lender provides capital to the borrower for regular interest payouts and returns. Collaterals are used as one of the measures to manage counterparty risk. The type of collateral can vary depending on the type and nature of transactions, and generally includes charge over fixed assets, corporate guarantees, charge on sale proceeds, companies' operating cash flow and pledge of shares.

Illiquid: Investments are typically illiquid in nature and generally not traded in the secondary market.

Higher returns: Since the investments are illiquid and carry some credit risk, they offer higher yields than other traditional fixed income investments.

Customisation: Private credit investments can be tailored to meet the specific needs and requirements of lenders as well as borrowers. Returns from the investments can be structured by adding premium at the end of the term and introducing options and warrants. Hence, private credit investments offer more flexible terms than traditional bank loans.

Role of AIFs in private credit

AIFs offer a platform for investors to access a broad range of investment opportunities, including venture capital and private equity investments in startups and growth-stage companies, employ diverse strategies to generate returns, make real-estate investments in properties, undertake development projects and work with real-estate investment trusts (REITs), and pursue pre-IPO opportunities and debt investments, including private credit, venture debt and distressed debt.

AIFs have become significant drivers of growth of the private credit market in India. They provide a platform for investors to access attractive investment opportunities, while also enabling borrowers to secure financing from a non-traditional source. AIFs have played a crucial role in the growth of private credit and provide several benefits such as the following:

Capital availability: AIFs pool capital from various investors which has increased significantly over the last few years, and this influx of capital has expanded the overall pool of funds available for lending, making it easier for companies to access financing.

Professionally managed: Alternative funds often have teams of experienced professionals who specialise in credit analysis and risk management. This expertise allows them to identify and underwrite credit opportunities that may be overlooked by traditional lenders.

Diverse investment strategies: AIFs offer a flexible investment structure, allowing them to tailor their investment strategies to specific credit opportunities, including venture debt, distressed debt and special situation investments. Diverse strategies allow the AIFs to cater to the specific needs of the borrowers.

AIFs'4 investments in the private credit space

AIFs are generally close ended in nature, and the AMCs calls for capital from investors in tranches as and when an investment opportunity arises. These are called capital drawdowns. The amount of capital drawn down may vary depending on the fund's needs and the investors' commitments. The returns generated from the portfolio in terms of income is distributed back to the investors along with the initial capital, which is called distribution.

AIFs can invest in private credit opportunities through various strategies, including:

Debt funds: Debt Funds are generally registered under Category II as per SEBI AIF regulations and invest primarily in debt securities of listed or unlisted investee companies based on the fund's stated objectives.

Private credit – a huge, untapped opportunity in the Indian markets

Over the last few years, the traditional financiers such as banks and NBFCs have become risk-averse towards the segment owing to the NBFC liquidity crisis and a fall of some of the renowned corporates in the past. This has created a huge void and opportunity for the private creditors to capitalise and create a niche for them through their experience of structuring the credit, making funds accessible in situations that cannot be funded by banks and NBFCs. In addition, increasing regulatory restrictions on traditional bank lending have made private credit an essential alternative for the corporates to tap into. It provides customised financing for scenarios such as acquisitions, share repurchases, large projects, and support for businesses with lower credit ratings or those aiming to grow without diluting equity. These trends collectively illustrate a shift towards more adaptive, risk-embracing and company-specific financing strategies outside conventional banking. Below are some of the reasons for corporate India to access private credit:

Key points	Remarks and rationale
Regulatory constraints	Banks face stringent regulations on lending for activities such as acquisitions and share repurchases to mitigate systemic risks, leading to more conservative lending approaches.
Project financing	Large, risky projects often bypass traditional bank financing due to their scale and uncertainty. Here, project-specific financing from private sources focuses on the project's cash-flow potential rather than the company's creditworthiness
Preserving ownership	Companies seeking growth capital without diluting equity turn to private credit for patient capital solutions that resemble private equity but without the need for promoters to relinquish control
Revenue-based models	While banks typically require physical assets as security, private credit can leverage a company's revenue for financing, offering repayments aligned with income generation, thus opening the doors for asset-light businesses
Challenges with credit ratings	Mid-sized companies with lower credit ratings find it tough to secure conventional loans or bond financing. Private credit fills this gap, focusing more on the business' operational strengths and future prospects than just its credit score

Increasing focus of banks and NBFCs on retail loans has created a huge gap for private credit players to fill in Filling the gap in the wholesale lending market: Banks and NBFCs are prioritising retail loans due to their lower risk profiles and consistent repayment patterns, especially for sectors such as housing, education, vehicle and personal loans. This shift leaves a gap in the wholesale lending market such as corporate loans, infrastructure loans and other large-scale project financing that private credit is increasingly filling.

Opportunities in the underserved segments: Wholesale loans, particularly for sectors such as infrastructure, real estate and mid-market enterprises, often require customised financing structures that traditional lenders avoid due to stringent capital norms and asset-quality concerns. Private credit funds, with higher risk tolerance and fewer regulatory constraints, are stepping in to meet this demand.

Reduced competition in wholesale lending: With banks and NBFCs reducing their exposure to wholesale lending, private credit funds face less competition from traditional lenders and have greater bargaining power in structuring deals and selling terms.

Developing expertise: Private credit funds are increasingly bringing their sector-specific knowledge and strategic insights, thereby adding value beyond just financing. This expertise is creating opportunities for private credit providers to offer comprehensive financing and strategic solutions to businesses that are navigating complex industries or growth challenges.

Growth drivers of the private credit industry in India We believe that the private debt/credit, particularly from PE firms and AIFs, will grow significantly, driven by several factors such as higher returns, increasing demand for flexible capital solutions and attractive sectoral opportunities.

Demand for flexible financing solutions: Private debt from PE firms is more attractive for businesses seeking flexible financing solutions compared with traditional wholesale credit from NBFCs. PE firms provide structured debt (such as mezzanine financing, convertible debt and subordinated loans) tailored to the specific needs of a company. This flexibility is crucial for growth-stage companies, mid-market businesses and distressed assets that may require longer repayment periods, lower interest rates and/or debt that can convert into equity in the future.

Attractiveness of high-yielding private debt: Private debt investments typically offer higher yields compared with NBFC credit. Private debt also occupies seniority in a borrower's capital structure. PE firms often target high-risk or growth-focused sectors such as technology, healthcare, consumer goods and energy. For instance, mezzanine debt or subordinated debt provided by PE firms can yield interest rates of 10-20% or more annually, depending on the borrower's risk profile. These are substantially higher than the typical 6-12% offered by NBFCs on wholesale credit.

Sector focus of PE funds: Funds managed by private equity AMCs are increasingly focusing on high-growth sectors such as technology, fintech, biotech and renewable energy. These sectors promise high returns and offer greater opportunities for PE firms to generate significant value from their debt investments. As these sectors are often capital-intensive and have high growth potential, private debt becomes the preferred capital source. In contrast, NBFCs primarily focus on more traditional sectors such as real estate, infrastructure and MSMEs, which often have lower growth rates compared with emerging sectors such as technology or healthcare.

Stricter regulatory environment: NBFCs are regulated by the central bank (e.g., RBI in India), and their lending activities are subject to capital adequacy requirements and prudential norms that limit their ability to provide riskier, high-return loans. However, private debt firms (PE firms/AIFs) are less regulated and operate in the private markets, allowing them to take on higher-risk investments and offer higher-yielding products to investors and borrowers alike.

Investor appetite for high-yielding assets: Institutional investors, including pension funds, insurance companies and sovereign wealth funds, are increasingly looking for high-yield investments to diversify their portfolios. Private debt funds managed by PE firms are offering attractive risk-adjusted returns in the range of 10-20% IRR, which is highly appealing compared with the more traditional fixed-income assets. This has led to increased capital inflows into private debt funds, which is likely to fuel their growth relative to NBFCs.

Increased credit demand from SMEs: Several SMEs and startups in India are facing challenges in securing financing from traditional banks due to stricter credit norms, high collateral requirements and/or limited risk appetite. Private credit is becoming a go-to solution for such SMEs for availing flexible and customised financing options such as structured finance, mezzanine debt, bridge loans, etc. to meet their credit requirements.

IBC framework: The Insolvency & Bankruptcy Code (IBC) is significantly contributing to the growth of private credit in India by addressing non-performing assets and creating opportunities in distressed asset investments. The time-bound and transparent resolution process under IBC has attracted private credit funds to finance distressed companies and participate in turnaround financing.

Overall systemic credit

Corporate credit determines the growth in overall credit as it accounts for majority of systemic credit. Systemic credit in India grew at a 6-year CAGR of 12.02% over fiscals 2020 and 2026. Retail credit continues to lead the systemic credit growth in fiscal 2026, supported by the focused approach of banks and NBFCs in increasing the retail portfolio. Going ahead, CRISIL Intelligence projects systemic credit to grow at 13%-14% CAGR between FY26 and FY29.

Non-retail credit growth drivers

PM Gati Shakti: PM Gati Shakti is aimed at building next-generation infrastructure to improve the ease of living as well as ease of doing business. Multi-modal connectivity should provide integrated and seamless connectivity for the movement of people, goods and services from one mode of transport to another. It should facilitate last-mile connectivity of infrastructure and reduce travel time for people. Developments in infrastructure and connectivity are expected to support developments in the real-estate sector in the medium term.

Infrastructure Debt Fund (IDF): Providing an additional funding source for infrastructure projects, infrastructure debt funds (IDFs) have tapped private capital pools over the past three years. IDFs essentially act as vehicles for refinancing the existing debt of infrastructure companies, thereby creating headroom for banks to lend to fresh infrastructure projects. IDFs are investment vehicles which can be sponsored by commercial banks and NBFCs in India in which domestic/offshore institutional investors, especially insurance and pension funds, can invest through units and bonds issued by IDFs.

Introduction of tax-free bonds: Given the long-term nature of infrastructure projects and their importance to the economy, these projects have primarily been funded by the government through budgetary allocations. Apart from the government, banks and NBFCs have been other large financiers, meeting over a third of the sector's funding needs. NBFCs typically depend on market borrowings, particularly the bond market, to meet their funding requirements, with bond issuances accounting for over three-fourths of their funding mix. The introduction of tax-free bonds by the government has made it easier for these companies to raise funds from the market in recent years.

2. Domestic LP ecosystem: Introduction and overview

Introduction to GP and LP

Limited partners (LPs) are investors in the fund, who provide capital but have limited control or involvement in the fund's day-to-day activities. LPs may be institutional investors such as insurance companies, pension funds or family offices and high net worth individuals. LPs' liability is limited to the extent of capital invested in the fund.

General partner (GP) is the active manager and decision-maker responsible for running the operations of the fund. The GP is typically the sponsor or asset manager of the fund.

Key domestic institutional investors and their AUM growth

The Banks, Insurance companies, Mutual funds, Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO), and National Pension System (NPS), are recognised as among the foremost domestic institutional investors within India. These entities significantly contribute to the provision of long-term capital within the economy and facilitate the advancement of capital markets.

Banks

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) is the regulatory body for banks in India, overseeing their operations and ensuring compliance with laws and regulations. RBI sets guidelines and rules for banks' investments, lending, and risk management practices. The total investments under management of the scheduled commercial banks (excluding rural regional banks) have grown at a CAGR of approximately 9.9% over the last six fiscals as of March 2024.

RBI issues circulars from time to time, outlining the conditions and guidelines that banks must follow when making investments, including investments in AIFs. As per RBI's Master direction on financial services provided by banks dated August 10, 2021, no bank shall, without the prior approval of RBI, make an investment of more than 10 per cent of the paid-up capital/ unit capital in a Category I / II AIF.

Based on RBI circulars dated December 2023 and March 2024, Regulated Entities (REs) (including banks) are prohibited from investing in AIF schemes that have direct or indirect downstream investments in a debtor company of the RE. As per these circulars, downstream investments exclude equity shares but include all other investments, such as hybrid investments.

After reviewing the earlier circulars, the RBI issued the following directives in August 2025, which will come into effect from January 1, 2026, or from any earlier date as decided by the RE as per its internal policy. Existing circulars of December 2023 and March 2024 shall stand repealed from the effective date.

No bank can contribute more than 10% of the corpus of an AIF scheme

No AIF scheme shall have more than 20% of contributions by all banks

If a bank's investment in an AIF exceeds 5% and that AIF has downstream investments (excluding equity) in a company that already owes money to the bank, the bank must set aside 100% provisions proportionate to their investment in that company through the AIF, capped at their direct exposure to the debtor company

Downstream investments in Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares (CCPS) and Compulsorily Convertible Debentures (CCDs) are explicitly treated as equity instruments. Accordingly, no provisioning is required by Regulated Entities (REs) even if the AIF's investment in such instruments exceeds 5% of the scheme corpus and is in a debtor company of the RE.

Additionally, for banks investing in subordinated units of AIFs, the entire investment must be deducted from their capital funds, split between Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital, where applicable

Insurance companies

The Indian insurance sector has demonstrated robust growth with its AUM expanding at a CAGR of approximately 11.6% over the last seven fiscals as of March 2025. A breakdown of the sector's AUM growth reveals that the life insurance segment grew at a CAGR of ~11.4%, while the general insurance segment has witnessed a higher growth rate of ~13.8% between fiscals 2018 and 2025.

General insurance AUM (Rs lakh crore)

The Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI), a statutory body, plays a crucial role in safeguarding the interests of policyholders and promoting the orderly growth of the insurance industry in India. As per the regulations set by the IRDAI, insurance companies are subject to specific investment limits when it comes to venture funds and Alternative Investment Funds (AIFs) under categories I and II. Overall exposure of life insurance companies is limited to 3% of the respective fund size and up to 5% for general insurance companies. In terms of exposure to a single AIF/venture fund, it is 10% of the AIF/venture fund size or 20% of overall exposure, whichever is lower, for both life and general insurers.

Mutual funds

In India, SEBI regulations prohibit mutual funds (MFs) from investing in Alternative Investment Funds (AIFs). MFs are restricted to listed securities for liquidity and transparency, while AIFs involve unlisted, high-risk assets. This ensures MFs maintain a distinct risk profile, protecting investors from AIFs' illiquidity and complexity.

The assets under management (AUM) of the Indian mutual fund industry have grown at a healthy pace over the past few years against the backdrop of an expanding domestic economy, robust inflows and rising investor participation, particularly from individuals. Domestic mutual fund investors have continued to demonstrate confidence in Indian equities.

Average AUMs increased at 19.5% CAGR to reach Rs 67.4 trillion as of March 2025 from Rs 13.5 trillion as of March 2016. The stellar performance of the stock market in fiscal 2025, along with rise in inflows, growth in participation of retail investors and improved macroeconomic conditions drove the growth. The presence of high-net-worth individuals (HNIs) and ultra-high net worth individuals (UHNIs) has seen a notable uptick, marking a shift in the investor demographics of the Indian mutual fund industry. HNIs and retail investors are increasingly becoming key players, with the share of HNIs in mutual fund investments rising from 31.6% in fiscal 2019 to 35.4% in the first half of the current fiscal year.

Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO)

The Employees' Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) is a statutory body established by the Government of India under the Ministry of Labour and Employment (MOL&E). It is responsible for regulating and managing the provident fund (PF) schemes in India. The primary objective of the EPFO is to provide social security benefits to employees in the organised sector.

The government's initiative to expand the coverage of individuals within the organised space has resulted in a significant increase in the AUM. The EPFO's AUM (excluding Exempted PF) has grown at a CAGR of 16.2% between fiscals 2014 and 2025, with its assets increasing from ~Rs 5.5 lakh crore to ~Rs 28.4 lakh crore during this period.

3. EPFO Investments (Rs lakh crore)

There has also been a net increase in new subscribers to 1.54 crore in fiscal 2024 from 0.61 crore in fiscal 2019.

EPFO's investment guidelines are set by MOL&E which allow them to invest up to 5% of their annual investments in alternative assets, including investment in asset/mortgage-backed securities, units of INVITs/REITs, and category I and II AIFs. As of March 2025, EPFO has not made any investments in these alternative assets as there is no criteria for minimum investment in this category.

National Pension Scheme (NPS)

The Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA) oversees and manages the National Pension System (NPS) under the PFRDA Act, 2013. The central government launched NPS to assist individuals to have income in the form of pensions to manage their retirement needs. The overall AUM under NPS has more than doubled between fiscals 2021 and 2025 to ~Rs 14.4 lakh crore as of fiscal 2025 from ~Rs 5.8 lakh crore, ~84% of the NPS subscribers base is in the age group of 18 to 40 years as of fiscal 2025, indicating that the subscriber base is relatively young and that the pension liabilities are relatively long.

Source: NPS annual report, Crisil Intelligence

There are two types of accounts that can be opened under the NPS — Tier I and Tier II. The primary distinction between a Tier I and Tier II account lies in their tax benefits and liquidity available to subscribers.

Tier I account - This is the permanent retirement account into which the regular contributions made by the subscriber or their employer are credited and invested as per the scheme/fund manager chosen by the subscriber. A Tier I account offers subscribers a tax-saving option, allowing them to avail of tax deductions on their contributions.

Tier II account - This is a voluntary/optional withdrawable account which is allowed only if a subscriber has an active Tier I account. The withdrawals are permitted from this account as and when the subscriber requires. A Tier II account does not provide this tax-saving benefit.

As per PFRDA guidelines, investments can be made in category I and II AIFs subject to certain conditions listed below:

- Only AIFs whose corpus is more than Rs 100 crore
- Exposure to a single AIF shall not exceed 10% of the AIF's size
- AIFs which are invested in companies which are incorporated and operated outside of India are not allowed
- Sponsors of AIFs should not be the promoters of the pension fund

Currently NPS has 11 portfolio managers and 4 asset classes. As per the investment guidelines, investments in AIF can be made only under Scheme A of the all-citizen model. The PFRDA guidelines do not permit investment in AIF in other schemes. As per the NPS annual report, NPS portfolio managers had not made any investment in AIF as on March 31, 2025.

Indian HNIs and UHNIs

India's robust economic and entrepreneurial ecosystem is set to drive a substantial rise in the number of High-Net-Worth Individuals (HNIs) and Ultra-High-Net-Worth Individuals (UHNIs). These affluent individuals have reshaped the country's financial wealth accumulation landscape by diversifying beyond traditional financial instruments into higher yielding investment avenues such as Private equity. They actively engage in the domestic LP ecosystem, primarily through family offices.

Under-penetration in Indian LP ecosystem

The AIF industry in India has been largely driven by foreign investors, while large domestic institutional players have been slow to participate. Domestic institutional players such as the EPFO and NPS have traditionally favoured fixed-income instruments, such as government securities and bonds, owing to their risk-averse nature and because the regulatory framework for AIFs in India was still evolving, which may have contributed to the hesitation of institutional investors to invest in this asset class.

As of March 2025, there were no investments made by the EPFO and NPS in AIFs. Insurance companies have invested in Category I and Category II AIFs, but the same is below the permissible limit, hence there is a potential for inflows coming from these domestic institutions in the coming years.

Domestic alternatives market as a percentage of professionally managed AUM

AIF is one of the fastest-growing managed investment products in India. The share of alternative products as represented by the commitment raised, among managed investment products, grew from 4% of total AUM of managed investment products in March 2020 to 6% in March 2025. Managed products include life insurance, MFs, retirement funds including pension funds, provident funds (including exempted PF), AIFs, REITs, InVITs and PMS (discretionary AUM).

As of March 2025, the AIF industry's commitment to India's gross domestic product (GDP) stands at 4.08%⁵ which is expected to reach around 6%⁶ by 2027. This projected growth underscores the increasing importance of AIFs in India's economy and their potential to play a more substantial role in the country's economic development.

OVERVIEW

We are a well-established alternative asset management company, in terms of vintage, with 20 years of experience. We act as an investment manager to India focused funds, including category II and category I alternative investment funds (“AIFs”) and also act as advisors to offshore funds, which provide capital to companies in India.

We are an experienced, independent and home-grown alternative asset management company (“AMC”). With over two decades of experience in alternative asset management, we have navigated various investment cycles across the funds managed and advised by us. As an independent alternative AMC, we are not sponsored or owned by any financial institution, corporate group, or global firm and our ownership structure is predominantly held by our leadership team.

The home-grown character of our Company is rooted in the backgrounds of our Promoters and senior management, all of whom have developed their careers in India and are Indian citizens.

The portfolio of investments across the funds managed and advised by us, has been focused on various sectors, including, EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology. The chart below sets forth our business model:

For further details in relation to our corporate and fund structure, see “—Description of our Business—Fund Structure” on page 232.

We have been consistently profitable and between Fiscals 2024 to 2026, our profit after tax grew at a CAGR of 35.34%. The table below sets forth certain financial performance indicators as of and for the periods indicated:

We derive our income primarily from three income streams (i) Management Fee; (ii) Carried Interest; and (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment. The chart below sets forth the breakdown of our income streams:

- (i) Management Fee: It is the fee that we receive for providing management and advisory services to funds. Our Management Fee is a function of the size of a fund and is applicable on the capital committed/invested by external investors to the funds.
- (ii) Carried Interest: It is the performance linked share of profits generated by the funds managed and advised by us and is a function of the respective funds' net IRR. Carried Interest is calculated on a fund as a whole and not on an investment-by-investment basis.
- (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment: These gains are the capital gains earned on our capital commitment as a sponsor to the funds managed and advised by us and are a function of the gross Multiple on Invested Capital ("MOIC") of a fund.

Further, prospective investors in the Equity Shares of our Company (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) should note that after Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the Offer, they will be shareholders of the AMC entity (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) and not investors in the funds managed and advised by us, and therefore, shall not receive any returns, distributions, or profits arising from the performance of such funds, except to the extent of dividends declared by our Company from its own profits.

All the income generated from the funds managed and advised by us, across the three income streams, is received in its entirety by us. Our objective has been to capture the economic value generated by the funds managed and advised by us within our Company, with the goal of enhancing our enterprise value and strengthening our balance sheet.

On the expenditure side, team compensation forms a substantial share of our expenses and other major expenses include our fund-raise and business development costs. Our business has demonstrated significant operating leverage and efficiency through consistent improvement in profit margins and between Fiscals 2024 to 2026, our PAT Margins have improved from 43.04% to 51.94%. Our operating leverage comes from a calibrated growth in our employee base and management of our expenses, while our operating efficiency is a result of low cost of fund raising and leveraging equity ownership as a tool to compensate a majority of our senior leadership. For details, see "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" on page 341.

Key Expenditure Items

Team Compensation	Compensation across the fund lifecycle, including gestation period	Fund-raising & Business Development	Costs related to raising and launching of new products and funds	Other Operating Costs	General and admin expenses, rent, audit and legal costs

Our business model does not require substantial investment in fixed assets; however, certain aspects of our operations are capital-intensive. As a manager or sponsor of an AIF, we are required to have a continuing interest in such AIF in the form of an investment, i.e., Sponsor Commitment. A high contribution as a sponsor reflects our commitment and confidence in the long-term success of the funds managed and advised by us, and further aligns our interests with the LPs through greater skin-in-the-game and reduced cost of fund-raising. In addition, we have in the past leveraged our balance sheet to warehouse investment in a portfolio company for Fund IV, which we believe enhanced our proposition to prospective LPs. We have also used our balance sheet capital to bolster the deal flow for the funds managed and advised by us by investing in third party funds. For further details, see “—Major Uses of Capital” on page 236.

We were incorporated in 1999 as View Advisors Private Limited. These were the early years of India’s alternatives ecosystem when private equity funds started investing in the Indian market, shortly after the liberalization of the economy in the early 1990s. (Source: Crisil Report). We subsequently re-branded ourselves as “Gaja Capital” with the objective to raise, and directly manage and advise, domestic and offshore funds to make private equity investments in India. The “Gaja Capital” brand focuses on combining our investment and advisory experience, and aligning our interests with those of the investors and portfolio companies of the funds managed and advised by us (“Portfolio Companies”).

We benefit from the experience of our Promoters and Executive Directors, Mr. Gopal Jain, Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah and Mr. Imran Jafar, who have established track records in alternative asset management and private equity in India. Mr. Gopal Jain has been associated with our Company since incorporation and Mr. Imran Jafar and Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah have been associated with our Company since 2005 and 2006, respectively. Our Promoters are supported by our core team and operating advisors group, who enable us to maintain corporate governance standards across various aspects of our operations including coverage, deal appraisal and development, and portfolio management. As of March 31, 2026, our senior leadership comprised three Executive Directors, Chief Financial Officer and Senior Management, who have, on an average, been with our Company for 17 years. For further details, see “Our Management” and “—Team and Human Resources” on pages 259 and 240, respectively.

The AUM for alternative investments in India is expected to grow at 25-27% between March, 2026 and March, 2030 and reach ₹41-44 trillion by March, 2030 (Source: Crisil Report). The mid-market category, comprising deal sizes of ₹500–2,500 million, saw its market share increase to 19% by volume and 14% by value in Fiscal 2025, up from 16% and 12% in Fiscal 2020, respectively. It is expected that the share of mid-market within PE investments will rise further and at a faster rate. As of March, 2026, market share of mid-market category stood at 22% as compared to 19% as of Fiscal 2025 (Source: Crisil Report).

With our extensive experience in the mid-market segment, we have developed a differentiated alpha-oriented strategy for the funds managed and advised by us, with a focus on an invest-and-collaborate approach to add value to the Portfolio Companies. Our investment strategy focuses on specific aspects of a Portfolio Company, including, (i) product, (ii) sales, (iii) human resources, and (iv) financial management. Given our experience and customized investment strategy for the needs of the mid-market segment, we believe we are positioned to benefit from the projected growth in the alternative asset management industry in India. For further details, see “—Capitalize on the growth of the AIF segment and deepen our focus on high-growth sectors in the mid-market segment in the Indian economy” on page 229.

Our ability as an investment manager and advisor is demonstrated by the consistent performance of the funds managed and advised by us. We commenced our initial investment management and advisory operations with a set of four investments made on a deal-by-deal basis between 2005 and 2007 (“Prior Investments”). Following the Prior Investments, we formed Fund II in 2007 and Fund III in 2015. The latest fund, Fund IV (collectively with Fund II and Fund III, the “Gaja Capital Funds”) was formed in 2021. The Gaja Capital Funds have demonstrated consistent growth with the fund size of each subsequent fund larger than the preceding fund. Our long-standing relationships with LPs have been instrumental in helping us establish multiple funds. The LPs of the Gaja Capital Funds are spread across more than 20 countries including India, the United States, Europe and the Middle East.

In addition to growing capital commitments, we have focused on the performance of the funds managed and advised by us, as a tool to drive the enterprise value of our Company. We have managed and advised the Gaja Capital Funds through various stages, including fund-raising, investment and deployment of funds, portfolio management and exits from Portfolio Companies with a 3.3x average MOIC across the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds.

Our commitment to the Gaja Capital Funds is reflected in the high level of Sponsor Commitment we have made in the Gaja Capital Funds. The SEBI AIF Regulations prescribe threshold for sponsor commitment, which stands at 2.5% of the overall fund corpus or ₹50.00 million, whichever is lower. As of March 31, 2026, we had committed approximately ₹2,740.00 million, i.e., 6.41% of the total size of the Gaja Capital Funds, as Sponsor Commitment in the Gaja Capital Funds, which is substantially above the prescribed regulatory thresholds.

OUR STRENGTHS

Well-established alternative AMC with a differentiated business model focused on driving the enterprise value of our Company

With 20 years of experience in alternative asset management, we have demonstrated a consistent track record of our investment management and advisory capabilities. Our investment approach has developed with our experience across our Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds and has helped us navigate externalities such as the 2008 global financial crisis, demonetization in 2016, the liquidity crisis in the non-banking financial sector in 2018 and the COVID-19 pandemic.

Our differentiated business model focuses on increasing our operating leverage and efficiency by (i) maximizing transmission of economics from the funds managed and advised by us to our Company and (ii) informed management of our expenses. All the income generated by the Gaja Capital Funds through Management Fees, Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment is received in its entirety by us. We have traditionally relied on our network of investors to raise funds for the Gaja Capital Funds while keeping the proportion of funds raised through third-party distributors low. Long-term alignment through equity ownership of a majority of members of our senior leadership allows us to maintain our employee benefit expenses at a reasonable level and minimize attrition of our key managerial personnel and senior management. Our operating leverage comes from a calibrated growth in our employee base and management of our expenses, while our operating efficiency is a result of low cost of fund raising and leveraging equity ownership as a tool to compensate a majority of members of our senior leadership. We believe that these differentiated features of our business model have enabled us to enhance our enterprise value and strengthen our balance sheet.

Proven track-record of delivering consistent performance across the Gaja Capital Funds

As of March 31, 2026, the Gaja Capital Funds along with the Prior Investments had completed 28 investments (including fully realized investments). Our Prior Investments aggregated to ₹210.93 million which was invested by us on a deal-by-deal basis between 2005 and 2007. As of March 31, 2026, all the Prior Investments have been fully realized with an MOIC of 5.61x. As of March 31, 2026, Fund II has fully realized its investment from five out of its eight portfolio companies (with partial realization from the other three portfolio companies) with an MOIC of 3.81x. These exits include three initial public offerings (“IPOs”) and two strategic and financial sale transactions, among others.

Fund III was formed in 2015 and was deployed by 2020 with ten investments and is in its exit phase with two partial realizations, as of March 31, 2026. All capital across our Prior Investments, Fund II and III, has primarily been deployed in the EEE, financial services and consumer sectors. Fund IV was formed in 2021 with an additional focus on the digital technology sector. As of March 31, 2026, we had made 6 investments from Fund IV, deploying 62.00% of the total capital of the fund.

The performance of each of the Gaja Capital Funds along with the Prior Investments demonstrates our versatility in managing and advising investments across different economic cycles.

Focus on the high-growth alternative asset management industry in India with significant headroom to scale

Alternative investment products are among the fastest growing managed investment products in India and over the past few years alternative investment funds have become one of the key segments in private markets in India. Between Fiscals 2019 and 2026, alternative investment fund commitments have been growing at a steady pace, registering approximately 29.2% CAGR, with a total commitment of ₹16.90 trillion as of March, 2026. The AIF segment is expected to remain one of the fastest growing managed products categories over the next few years as more institutional investors, ultra-high net worth individuals (“UHNIIs”) and high net worth individuals (“HNIs”) seek out differentiated products that provide them an option to generate better returns on their investments (Source: Crisil Report). AIF activity in terms of commitments raised have been on the rise, clocking a CAGR of 29.2% between Fiscal 2019 and Fiscal 2026, and it is expected that India will remain an attractive destination for private equity and venture capital investments in the long term. (Source: Crisil Report)

Additionally, growth in AIF AUM is significantly higher in comparison to traditional asset classes such as mutual funds and deposits. The chart below depicts a comparison of the AIF commitments, mutual fund AUM and bank deposits highlighting the growth potential for alternative investments. (Source: Crisil Report)

We are an experienced, independent and home-grown alternative AMC. With over two decades of experience in alternative asset management, we have navigated various investment cycles across the funds managed and advised by us. As an independent alternative AMC, we are not sponsored or owned by any financial institution, corporate group, or global firm and our ownership structure is predominantly held by our leadership team. The home-grown character of our Company is rooted in the backgrounds of our Promoters and senior management, all of whom have developed their careers in India and are Indian citizens. We believe that our market position and exclusive focus on Indian alternative asset management industry enables us to take advantage of the high-growth dynamics in the industry.

Invest-and-collaborate approach with a key focus on value addition to portfolio companies of the Gaja Capital Funds

We follow an invest-and-collaborate approach with a key focus on value addition in the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds. Our portfolio management process incorporates an active engagement model and focuses on value addition in an environment where capital alone is no longer a differentiating factor. Our approach is to extend our participation with the Portfolio Companies beyond capital infusion and provide value-addition. For instance, we have had board representation in nearly all our portfolio companies across the Gaja Capital Funds, which allowed us to combine our investment management and advisory expertise with our operating experience to add value to the Portfolio Companies.

Our operating team, comprising four professionals (“Operating Team”), drives the invest-and-collaborate approach in the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds through an active engagement process. Our Operating Team builds engagement with potential target companies starting from the due diligence and business planning stage. Post Gaja Capital Funds’ investment in a portfolio company, our Operating Team works alongside the management team of such portfolio company to execute a scale and transformation plan across four key support areas: (i) product, (ii) sales, (iii) human resources, and (iv) financial management. Our engagement with the Portfolio Companies operates at three levels:

- (i) Level I: We primarily engage with the Portfolio Company in the form of board-level participation.
- (ii) Level II: We undertake a proactive approach at the board level and across key strategic areas. These strategic areas include business strategy, governance, fund-raising (equity or debt) and strategic or financial sales.
- (iii) Level III: In addition to areas covered under Level II, there is engagement at an operational level with the Portfolio Company. These areas typically include business growth, human resource support (hiring, organizational design, process realignment) and finance/legal support services (reporting, compliance, tax optimization, contract management and drafting).

Our Operating Team further provides value-addition to the Portfolio Companies by advising them on any further fundraising or strategic transactions, on exit opportunities such as IPOs and M&A deals. An invest-and-collaborate approach allows us to leverage our operating expertise and provide guidance to the Portfolio Companies while ensuring accountability and engagement with the relevant stakeholders.

Ensuring skin-in-the game and alignment of interest with the investors of the Gaja Capital Funds

One of our fundamental philosophies has been to align our interest with those of the investors/LPs and the Portfolio Companies. We achieve this by investing our own capital behind our strategies. A high contribution as a sponsor reflects our commitment and confidence in our investment strategies and the long-term success of the funds and further aligns our interests with the LPs. Additionally, a higher level of Sponsor Commitment yields superior economics in terms of value for us, as there is no fee charged or carry shared on such portion of the fund.

The SEBI AIF Regulations prescribe thresholds for sponsor commitment, which stands at 2.5% of the overall fund corpus or ₹50.00 million, whichever is lower. To align ourselves with our philosophy of “skin-in-the game”, as of March 31, 2026, we had committed approximately ₹2,740.00 million, i.e., 6.41% of the total fund size of the Gaja Capital Funds, as Sponsor Commitment in the Gaja Capital Funds, which is substantially above the prescribed regulatory thresholds. As of March 31, 2026, for Funds II, III and IV, we have made ₹540.00 million, ₹700.00 million and ₹1,500.00 million as capital commitments representing 5.98%, 4.38% and 8.45% of the fund sizes, respectively. Our emphasis on “skin-in-the game” contributes to informed decision-making, commitment to value addition, focus on risk mitigation and alignment of long-term goals.

Experienced Promoters and management team

We are led by our experienced Promoters and management team with significant experience in investment and operational management in the alternative asset management industry in India. Our management team has extensive domain knowledge with experience across AIFs, private equity and financial sector, and has been instrumental in implementing our business strategies.

Mr. Gopal Jain, our Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer and one of our founding Promoters, has an experience of over 27 years, and has been associated with our Company since its incorporation. Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah, our Executive Vice-Chairman and one of our Promoters, has over 19 years of experience and has been associated with our Company since 2006. Mr. Imran Jafar, our Executive Director and one of our Promoters, has over 27 years of experience and has been associated with our Company since 2005. As of March 31, 2026, our core team comprised 15 professionals (including our three Promoters and Executive Directors) with investing and operating experience (“Core Team”). The Core Team overall combines a group of ten investment professionals (“Investment Team”) and the Operating Team, a group of four experienced operating professionals, as well as one professional dedicated to investor relations. The Core Team is responsible for exploring potential investment opportunities, engagement with target companies (including executing target company’s scale and transformation plan) and managing investor relations.

As of March 31, 2026, we also had a group of operating advisors which comprises two former CXOs who previously served in other companies (“Operating Advisor” and collectively, the “Operating Advisors Group”). Each Operating Advisor has leadership experience in their given vertical which we leverage in relevant investments from time to time. In addition, our Board of Directors provides us advice on practices in investing, corporate governance and development of Portfolio Companies. The members of our Board of Directors come from diverse backgrounds and collectively add regulatory perspective, networks and industry relationships. The Board of Directors further provide inputs on the long-term strategies of our Company and help enhance our reach and connectivity within the alternative asset management industry. By leveraging the experience of our Promoters, Board of Directors, Core Team and Operating Advisors Group, we endeavor to deliver accountability and efficiency which are critical for us as an alternative AMC.

In addition, we have had the advantage of a stable team with a low level of attrition since our inception. As of March 31, 2026, our senior leadership comprised three Executive Directors, Chief Financial Officer and Senior Management, who have, on an average, been with our Company for 17 years. We have leveraged equity ownership in our Company to drive team stability and a majority of our senior leadership are equity owners in our Company. We believe that such approach allows us to take a long-term view on employee compensation and balance shareholder value creation. We will continue to leverage the experience of our Promoters and management team, and their understanding of the alternative asset management industry. For further details on the management of our Company, see “Our Management” on page 259. See also, “Risk Factors—We are highly dependent on our Promoters, our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management. Any inability on our part to retain or recruit skilled personnel could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 34.

Long-standing and well-established industry relationships with a diverse global investor base across the Gaja Capital Funds

We have access to a diversified global investor base including fund of funds managers, alternative asset managers, HNI, UHNIs, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, insurance companies and family offices across India, USA, Europe and the Middle East. Our long-standing relationships with LPs globally have helped us raise multiple funds with a consistent increase in the size of the Gaja Capital Funds.

With our demonstrated investment performance and track-record of returns, we have enjoyed the advantage of a committed investor base. The LPs of the Gaja Capital Funds are spread across more than 20 countries, with 63.42% of the total capital commitments in the Gaja Capital Funds being raised from outside India and 36.58% of the capital commitments raised from LPs in India. Further, the LP participation from domestic investors has increased in the funds managed and advised by us, with Fund IV, having received commitments from 72 domestic LPs, which is greater than the domestic LP participation in Fund II and III.

Our global investor network spans countries including Canada, the United States, United Kingdom, Netherlands, Ireland, France, Germany, Denmark, Switzerland, Australia and Saudi Arabia. We use our global reach to access capital and source opportunities for the Gaja Capital Funds and the Portfolio Companies. The chart presents the presence of the LPs of the Gaja Capital Funds by region as of March 31, 2026.

We seek to hold ourselves accountable in terms of investor reporting and compliance. We work with professional firms for support across accounting, legal and valuation related matters. In 2015, with the formation of Fund III, we adopted environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) standards in our investment approach, and in 2022, became a signatory to Principles for Responsible Investment (“PRI”), an investor initiative in partnership with UNEP Finance Initiative and UN Global Compact.

We believe that our relationships with financial advisors, insurance firms, development financial institutions and other financial intermediaries provide us with a competitive advantage in identifying transactions, securing investment opportunities and generating returns in an industry with significant barriers to entry. We continue to develop relationships with new investors and LPs to provide additional opportunities for the Gaja Capital Funds and source capital for future funds. We believe that the duration and the diversity of the LP base of the funds managed and advised by us, and industry relationships will continue to provide us with an advantage in raising capital, sourcing investment opportunities and continuing to grow our business. For further details, see “Risk Factors—Our inability to raise sufficient capital from Limited Partners or their inability to honor capital calls in relation to the funds managed and advised by us could adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.” on page 24.

Proven track record of delivering robust financial growth and a strong balance sheet

We have a proven track record of strong financial performance in our Company, which has allowed us to build significant scale in a highly capital efficient manner. Between Fiscals 2024 to 2026, our profit after tax grew at a CAGR of 35.34%, based on our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements. We have witnessed a consistent improvement in our PAT Margin, which stood at 51.94%, 50.24% and 43.04% as of March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, respectively. Our business operations have generated significant internal accruals allowing us to maintain a healthy balance sheet without dependence on significant external financing to meet our capital requirements.

As of March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024 we had a strong balance sheet with total equity of ₹6,133.49 million, ₹3,934.62 million and ₹3,339.52 million, respectively and low leverage levels, with borrowings (current and non-current) of ₹415.56 million, ₹40.02 million and ₹35.14 million respectively, which only comprised working capital facilities, based on our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements. As of March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025, and March 31, 2024, the cash and cash equivalents on our balance sheet was ₹710.74 million, ₹252.82 million and ₹237.00 million, respectively, based on our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements. In addition, as of March 31, 2026, we have ₹241.52 million in liquid mutual funds. For further details, see “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements”, and “Financial Indebtedness” on pages 285 and 370, respectively.

OUR STRATEGIES

Drive growth in the enterprise value of our Company by leveraging our business model and delivering on key value drivers

Our primary business objective is to grow the enterprise value of our Company. All the income generated by the funds managed and advised by us through Management Fees, Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment is received in its entirety by us. Consequently, our shareholders have an equitable share in all the economics derived from the funds managed and advised by us. The drivers for the growth of our enterprise value are aligned with the objectives of the funds managed and advised by us and the interests of the LPs in these funds.

The key value drivers are set forth in the chart below.

Enterprise Value Drivers

Growth in our enterprise value is primarily dependent on our ability to (i) raise larger funds, (ii) deliver better returns from the funds managed and advised by us, (iii) maintain a higher share of sponsor commitment and (iv) keep our fundraising costs lower.

- (i) Raising larger funds: Our ability to secure capital commitments from LPs is essential to driving the growth of the funds managed and advised by us and raising larger funds. An increase in the size of future funds directly impacts our revenue by providing us the opportunity to earn greater management fee. This objective requires us to maintain long-term relationships with a diversified investor base. Raising larger funds will enable us to enhance the scalability of our operations and increase our revenue from operations.

- (ii) Delivering better returns from the funds managed and advised by us: A key determinant of our long-term success lies in our ability to generate better returns from the investments made by the funds managed and advised by us. Delivering better returns will contribute to revenue generation of our Company by allowing us to earn a greater portion of Carried Interest, strengthen our reputation within the alternative asset management industry and reinforce confidence of the LPs in our ability to deliver on our financial commitments.
- (iii) Maintaining a higher share of Sponsor Commitment: The SEBI AIF Regulations prescribe threshold for sponsor commitment, which stands at 2.5% of the overall fund corpus or ₹50.00 million, whichever is lower. However, historically, our sponsor commitments have been substantially above the prescribed regulatory thresholds. A high contribution as a sponsor reflects our commitment in our investment strategies and further aligns our interests with the LPs. Additionally, a high sponsor commitment will also increase the income we receive, as we capture the gross MOIC generated by funds through the Income from Sponsor Commitment.
- (iv) Keeping fundraising costs lower: Managing the costs associated with fundraising is crucial for operational efficiency. We have traditionally relied on our network of investors to raise funds for the Gaja Capital Funds while keeping the proportion of funds raised through third-party distributors low. Lower fundraising costs and dependence on third-party distributors translate directly into improved profitability for both the LPs and our Company, contributing to the overall enhancement of enterprise value of our Company.

Capitalize on the growth of the AIF segment and deepen our focus on high-growth sectors in the mid-market segment in the Indian economy

While India's AIF market is still underdeveloped as compared to the rest of world, over the past five years, AIFs have become one of the key segments in private markets in India and is expected to remain one of the fastest growing managed products categories over the next few years.

In particular, Category II AIFs have been at the forefront in the AIF space, contributing to 75.2% of the commitments raised as of Fiscal 2026. Moreover, the share of alternative products as represented by commitment raised from AIFs grew from 3.5% of total AUM of managed investment products (including AUM of life insurance, mutual funds, national pension system, portfolio management services and commitments raised by AIFs) in March 2019 to 7.3% in March 2026. (Source: Crisil Report)

We manage category II AIFs and one category I AIF, and have, through their investment performance, demonstrated a consistent track record of our investment management capabilities. We intend to further leverage our experience in managing AIFs to capitalize on this underpenetrated market in India. Additionally, our key focus as an alternative AMC is on the mid-market segment in the Indian economy.

As of March 31, 2026, the AUM for alternative investments in India stood at ₹16.90 trillion and is expected to grow at approximately 25-27% between March 2026 and March 2030. The mid-market category, comprising deal sizes of ₹500–2,500 million, saw its market share increase to 19% by volume and 14% by value in Fiscal 2025, up from 16% and 12% in Fiscal 2020, respectively. It is expected that the share of mid-market within PE investments will rise further and at a faster rate. As of March, 2026, market share of mid-market category stood at 22% as compared to 19% as of Fiscal 2025 (Source: Crisil Report). Our endeavor is that with our experience and customized investment strategy for the needs of the mid-market segment, we will be positioned to benefit from the projected growth in the industry.

Industry scoping and identification is a crucial step in identifying the trends, technological advancements, societal and consumer needs which form the basis for potential investment opportunities. Over the last six years, sectors like information technology and consumer discretionary secured the maximum deals in volume terms. The growth of the information technology sector has been fueled by the increasing adoption of digital technologies. Companies in this sector often require capital to invest in research and development, acquire new technologies and stay competitive. Similarly, the consumer discretionary sector has witnessed a significant uptick in private equity deal transactions on the back of positive trends such as rising penetration of e-commerce, changing consumer tastes and rising income levels contributing to increased consumer spending. Further, as consumers increasingly seek tailored experience and unique products, companies within this sector require financial backing to adapt to evolving preferences and remain competitive. (Source: Crisil Report)

Our key focus has been on the EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology sectors and over the last 20 years, we have gained domain experience in these sectors in the mid-market segment. Two of these sectors, EEE and financial services, accounted for 60.00% to 65.00% of the investments by capital invested across Fund II and Fund III. Our focus on the digital technology sector has been built through investments in B2B tech platforms from Fund IV. We intend to leverage our understanding and experience in such high-growth sectors to further identify investment and exit opportunities for the Gaja Capital Funds and achieve sustained growth.

Continue to focus on delivering sustained growth and investment performance in our flagship private equity strategy

We aim to leverage our established track-record to launch new funds under our flagship private equity strategy. In line with our past record, we intend to launch new funds with an increasing corpus, i.e., fund size, which we believe will drive greater growth in our Management Fee and further bolster our market competitiveness. We also aim to maintain higher than prescribed sponsor commitment in future funds that will not only align us well with our investors but also further enhance our overall fund economics.

We believe that the sustained investment performance of the Gaja Capital Funds is central to the growth of our business. Investment performance of the Gaja Capital Funds drives both, our income from Carried Interest as well as the Income from Sponsor Commitment. We seek to generate returns through the Gaja Capital Funds by implementing a structured investment process supported by clearly defined investment objectives and a focus on value addition. Our investment process includes coverage-led deal sourcing, furthering our differentiated alpha-oriented investment strategy, use of our Economy-Industry-Business-Company (“EIBC”) framework, which is a thematic, top-down research-based framework for systematic coverage of opportunities and sourcing exit opportunities through IPOs, strategic sales and financial investor exits. For further details, see, “—Investment Strategies” on page 237.

We believe that our focus on further growing our private equity strategy and achieving sustained investment performance of the Gaja Capital Funds, combined with our cost-efficient business model, will contribute to our future growth and profitability. We also seek to benefit from leveraging our operating experience as we further scale our operations which we believe will help us improve our margin profile.

Leverage our expertise to progress on new growth strategies

As an alternative AMC, we have focused primarily on Category II AIFs and offshore funds investing in private equity. We intend to build a diversified business platform by identifying new strategies and business opportunities with long-term prospects in India’s mid-market segment. We believe that this will enable us to maintain growth and profitability notwithstanding market cycles by not limiting our dependence on any particular line of business or strategy, and also enable us to broaden client participation.

To this end, we have launched a new fund in the secondaries investment class which is sector agnostic in terms of its focus sectors. The secondaries fund focuses on providing general partner (“GP”) solutions and buying portfolio of assets from other GPs (“Secondaries” and such fund the “Secondaries Fund”). Secondaries refer to the sale of existing investments or assets in a private equity fund by one investor to another investor. Private equity fund investments by default are long-term in nature, with a typically longer term of the fund. Secondaries provide investors with an opportunity to exit their investments before the fund’s maturity date. The global Secondaries market has evolved into a mature platform, enabling investors to buy and sell existing private equity investments, and has become an important strategy for the alternative asset managers worldwide. Similarly, as India’s private equity and venture capital landscape continues to evolve, the Secondaries market is expected to emerge as a vital component of the ecosystem. Although the Secondaries market in India is at a very nascent stage, the growth of private markets and robust start-up ecosystem is expected to support the growth of Secondaries in coming years. (Source: Crisil Report)

Our new Secondaries Fund is headed by an experienced chief executive officer with more than 18 years of experience in the global Secondaries market. We believe diversification into Secondaries offers itself as an opportunity due to industry tailwinds, and we intend to leverage our demonstrated experience and existing industry relationships to further augment our Secondaries business. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer” and “Risk Factors—We may be unable to manage our growth or to successfully implement our business strategies. Our revenue from operations was ₹1,355.31 million and ₹1,219.99 million for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025, respectively.” on pages 111 and 31, respectively.

Strengthen our employee value proposition to continue to attract and retain talent

Our employees are key to our success, and we are committed to providing them with a growth-driven culture and opportunities for talent development. We believe that the experience of our Promoters, Board of Directors, Core Team and Operating Advisors Group have been instrumental in our growth, and we plan to use our employee value proposition to continue to attract and retain quality, result-driven individuals.

We seek to foster a culture of ownership that better aligns the interests of our employees with our goals. As an ownership-oriented Company, we follow a meritocratic model where our members are rewarded based on their performance. For instance, several members of our senior leadership, including Imran Jafar, Abhinav Jain, Sushane Chopra and Dheeraj Prasad Devata, have been promoted from within the Company. Our compensation model includes both fixed and performance linked incentives for our employees at different functional levels. Additionally, all the Carried Interest generated across our Gaja Capital Funds is attributable to our Company without any specific allocation to any individual which ensures fair distribution among team members.

As of March 31, 2026, we employed a total of 37 personnel across permanent and contractual staff. All our permanent employees were located in India and our contractual staff was spread across India and Mauritius. We have benefited from significantly low level of attrition rates in our key managerial personnel and senior management. For the Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and 2024, we did not face any attrition with respect to our key managerial personnel and senior management. The low-level of attrition rates recorded by us further displays our commitment to creating a strong employee value proposition with a rewarding work environment.

We will continue to invest in upskilling our team members and plan to further enhance our leadership competencies by assisting our employees in pursuing professional development opportunities and obtain relevant professional qualifications. We aim to continue developing a pool of potential leaders to support our business and growth.

Set forth below is a breakdown of our employee benefit expenses as a percentage of our total expenses, for the periods indicated.

Particulars	Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Amount	% of total expenses	Amount	% of total expenses	Amount	% of total expenses
	(₹ million, except % data)
Employee benefit expense	351.24	49.90	285.61	44.30	216.65	44.23

Enhance investor reach in India and globally and strengthen industry relationships

In the competitive environment of alternative asset management and private equity, cultivating relationships is essential for enhancing fund-raising capabilities. Our established brand and track record spanning nearly two decades provides us a significant advantage on this front. We seek to focus on alignment of interests and value addition in order to further our relationships with existing LPs and to build a new base of investor pool.

We are committed to growing our investor network through a systematic approach combining participation in relevant global events and direct investor outreach. Our senior leadership maintains regular interface with the investor community through speaking engagements and panel discussions across conferences. We believe that increasing the depth of our industry and investor relationships through such initiatives will enable us to strengthen our sources for raising capital, access varied investment opportunities and help us grow our business.

The Gaja Capital Funds are primarily focused on our flagship strategy, i.e., private equity. Private equity funding is a type of investment provided to established companies that require capital to expand or restructure. Private equity funds invest in companies with a proven track record of profitability, with the goal of generating returns through financial leverage, operational improvements and strategic acquisitions. Private equity funds typically take a controlling stake in the company and work closely with management to implement operational improvements and drive growth. The business model of private equity involves raising capital from investors which are also known as LPs. LPs provide capital to the fund but do not participate in the management of funds. A GP is responsible for the management of funds and its operations (Source: Crisil Report)

We operate as investment managers and advisors to the Gaja Capital Funds as a GP and assist them with (i) investment strategy; (ii) fund management; (iii) fund investments; (iv) portfolio management; and (v) investor communications, among others. Our key functions as the GP of the Gaja Capital Funds include:

- (i) Investment Strategy: The GP is responsible for defining the fund's investment objective, investment thesis and investment strategy including focus sectors of the funds, portfolio construct, risk tolerance and return expectations.
- (ii) Fund Management: The GP is responsible for day-to-day management of the fund, including managing investor relationships, and overseeing the fund's operations.
- (iii) Fund Investments: The GP makes investment decisions on behalf of the fund, including sourcing of the deals, identifying potential investments, conducting due diligence, negotiating with the portfolio company's management and finalizing a term sheet, getting requisite approvals for the investment, and overseeing the portfolio investments.

- (iv) Portfolio Management: The GP is also responsible for monitoring the performance of the portfolio companies and ensuring a timely and appropriate exit from investments to generate returns for the investors.
- (v) Investor Communications: The GP is also responsible for providing reliable and accurate information regarding the fund and its performance to the investors of the fund on a regular basis (Source: Crisil Report)

Income Streams

Our current business activities primarily comprise three income streams, i.e., (i) Management Fee; (ii) Carried Interest and (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment.

- (i) Management fee: We enter into investment management and advisory agreements with the Gaja Capital Funds pursuant to which we receive Management Fees in exchange for providing the funds with management/advisory services. The Management Fee is calculated based on the overall amount of capital committed to/invested from a particular fund and is generally fixed at 2% in proportion to the size of the fund. Our Management Fee is a function of the size of a fund and is applicable on the capital committed/invested by external investors to the funds.
- (ii) Carried interest: We are entitled to a Carried Interest allocated to us, being approximately 20% of the net profits generated from a fund's investments. Additionally, we follow a performance linked carry model which enables alignment of incentives between us and the investors, i.e., to qualify for Carried Interest, a particular fund must achieve a specified minimum return, known as the 'Preferred Return'. As a result, such Carried Interest has lower susceptibility to clawbacks. This philosophy enables greater "skin-in-the-game" and allows us to benefit only when LPs receive their expected returns. The income received from Carried Interest is primarily a function of the net IRR delivered by a fund.
- (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment: Our commitment as a sponsor is also an important driver of economics in relation to our income streams. We have typically maintained a high proportion of Sponsor Commitment across the Gaja Capital Funds, with the latest Fund IV having 8.45% Sponsor Commitment. Higher Sponsor Commitment enables "skin-in-the-game" and demonstrates our confidence in the fund and our investment strategies which is an important consideration for prospective investors. Additionally, a higher level of Sponsor Commitment yields superior economics in terms of value for us, as our Sponsor Commitment has been deployed from our balance sheet, and we do not have any Management Fee or Carried Interest payable on our Sponsor Commitment. Income from Sponsor Commitment are a function of the quantum of capital committed and gross MOIC generated by a fund.

In addition, the table below sets forth the details in relation to the frequency of the charging (i) Management Fee; (ii) Carried Interest and (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment.

Income stream	Particulars
Management Fee	It is the fee that the Company receives for providing management and advisory services to funds. Management Fee for each quarter is calculated based on applicable percentage rates based on the capital committed/invested by external investors to the funds at the beginning of such quarter.
Carried Interest	It is the additional variable return earned by the Company once the funds it advises or manages have achieved the hurdle rate of return for its investors. It is recognized when the right to payment of such Carried Interest has been established in any particular fund.
Income from Sponsor Commitment	Net gains from the fair valuation of investments in funds, determined using the weighted average NAV of subsequent investments by the respective AIF. Such gains are recognised on a quarterly basis, at the end of every quarter.

Key Heads of Expenditure

Our major expenses primarily comprise our (i) employee benefits expense, and (ii) other expenses which include inter alia our operating, fund-raise and business development costs. Set out below is a breakdown of our expenses, for the periods indicated.

Particulars	Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Amount	% of total expenses	Amount	% of total expenses	Amount	% of total expenses
	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)	(₹ million)	(%)

- (i) Employee benefits expense: Team compensation such as salaries, bonus and incentives form a substantial share of our expenses. We aim to maintain a competitive compensation model with our peers to retain our employees. We use a combination of fixed and performance-based incentives to reward employees. Further, long-term alignment through equity ownership of a majority of our senior leadership allows us to maintain our employee benefit expenses at a reasonable level and minimize attrition of our key managerial personnel and senior management.
- (ii) Other expenses: Our other major expenses include our fund-raise and business development costs. We have traditionally relied on our network of investors to raise funds for the Gaja Capital Funds while keeping the proportion of funds raised through third-party distributors low, which has helped us limit the cost of fund raising. Additionally, we undertake a number of measures to build the “Gaja Capital” brand and market the Gaja Capital Funds to investors in India and across the world. We regularly conduct investor events including our annual conference and initiatives such as the “Gaja Business Book Prize” to position our brand in the investment ecosystem. Our other operating costs include administrative, compliance and legal costs apart from rent, audit and other statutory expenses.

Our business has demonstrated significant operating leverage and efficiency through consistent improvement in profit margins and between Fiscals 2024 to 2026, our PAT Margins have improved from 43.04% to 51.94%. Our operating leverage comes from a calibrated growth in our employee base and management of our expenses, while our operating efficiency is a result of low cost of fund raising and leveraging equity ownership as a tool to compensate a majority of the members of our senior leadership. For details, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 341.

Major Uses of Capital

Our business model does not require substantial investment in fixed assets; however, certain aspects of our operations are capital-intensive. As a manager or sponsor of an AIF, we are required to have a continuing interest in such AIF in the form of an investment, i.e., Sponsor Commitment. The SEBI AIF Regulations prescribe threshold for sponsor commitment, which stands at 2.5% of the overall fund corpus or ₹50.00 million, whichever is lower. However, historically, our Sponsor Commitments have been substantially above the prescribed regulatory thresholds.

A high contribution as a sponsor reflects our commitment and confidence in the long-term success of the funds managed and advised by us and further aligns our interests with the LPs through greater skin-in-the game. A high sponsor commitment also increases the income we receive, as we capture the gross MOIC generated by the funds through the Income from Sponsor Commitment. As of March 31, 2026, we had committed approximately ₹2,740.00 million as Sponsor Commitment in the Gaja Capital Funds. We have launched a new fund in the secondaries investment class with a focus on providing general partner solutions. As we build presence across such new strategies, it requires us to use capital from our balance sheet in the form of investments related to initial fund set-up, team building and fund-raising.

In addition, we have in the past leveraged our balance sheet to warehouse investment in a portfolio company for Fund IV, which we believe enhanced our proposition to prospective LPs and helped us secure investments for the fund. We have also used our balance sheet capital to bolster the deal flow for the funds managed and advised by us. Venture capital-backed companies form a large part of the deal flow of the funds managed and advised by us. 13 of the last 16 investments made across Fund III and the Fund IV have been in portfolio companies that were venture capital backed. By investing in third party funds, we have been able to gain industry knowledge and add to our flow of potential investment opportunities. As an investor in these funds, we are able to build relationships with their portfolio companies and gain insights into their performance. As of March 31, 2026, our Company had committed ₹180.00 million across 12 such funds.

Investment Strategies

Our demonstrated investment performance is a result of our differentiated alpha-oriented investment strategy employed by the Gaja Capital Funds, which focuses on specific aspects of a potential portfolio company and includes the following key elements:

- (i) Focus on high-growth sectors in the mid-market segment in the Indian economy: We focus on companies operating in the high growth sectors in the mid-market segment in India. We choose a sector based on a combination of domestic demand-related growth prospects in comparison to other sectors, and domain knowledge and prior investing expertise of our Core Team. We use our Economy-Industry-Business-Company (“EIBC”) framework, a thematic, top-down research-based framework for systematic coverage of opportunities in the chosen sectors.

Focus on specific sectors helps us in proprietary deal development and coverage, which often leads to pricing power and an enhanced ability to add value derived from sector specialization. For instance, following our first investment in the EEE sector in 2005, we have deepened our focus on this sector and as of March 31, 2026, we had completed six further investments in the EEE sector through Fund II, III and IV, five of which have been proprietary. This focus has also helped us develop strong M&A capabilities and has played an instrumental role in undertaking acquisitions for the Portfolio Companies.

- (ii) Value addition through scale and transformation: We believe that both scale and transformation are essential aspects of a company’s evolution and enable a potential buyer of a company to visualize the growth to a significantly higher level at the time of the exit. In order to realize this, we focus on a value addition approach consisting of two main components (a) revenue/earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization (“EBITDA”) growth and (b) multiple expansion. Hence, one of the key considerations for us while evaluating an investment is the assessment of the value that we can add to the company by means of scale and transformation.

The first component of value addition is revenue/EBITDA growth. After undertaking a due diligence process of the potential portfolio company and its profitability profile, we seek to focus its resources on growing its core and high-margin segments to scale the business. The second component of value addition is multiple expansion, which is brought about by business transformation either organically or inorganically. Transformative changes may include new business lines, new products within existing business lines, development of new sales channels, geographic expansion, re-architecture of the brand umbrella, and fortifying governance frameworks.

Additionally, in line with our invest-and-collaborate approach, we aim to focus on active engagement with the Portfolio Companies to drive scale and transformation. Our Operating Team and Operating Advisors Group help manage the Portfolio Companies. We aim to add value to the Portfolio Companies by taking ownership of select deliverables, board representation, advising on business strategies, governance, fund-raising (equity or debt) and strategic or financial sale, among others.

- (iii) Focus on active engagement and exits: The funds managed and advised by us have been exercising more influence over the portfolio companies’ operations and liquidity events. Such influence is being achieved either through (a) acquisition of a significant minority stake with strong operating and exit-linked guardrails, (b) shared ownership along with other investors or (c) buyout transactions yielding ownership.

Our increasing orientation towards active engagement is demonstrated by the evolution of the portfolio across the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds. The Prior Investments did not have majority ownership, shared or otherwise, in any of the portfolio companies that it invested in. In Fund II, one-third of the portfolio companies were majority-owned by investors and we advised on our first buyout transaction in Fund II. Furthermore, all Fund III portfolio companies are majority-owned by investors.

- (iv) Investing in private enterprises: Our investment strategy is focused on privately owned unlisted companies. 27 out of 28 investments (including fully realized investments) across the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds have been in privately owned unlisted companies. Some of the key benefits of such focus include pricing power, greater engagement and influence over the portfolio company, and stronger rights including exit rights.
- (v) Partnering with professional entrepreneurs: Across most of the Portfolio Companies, we have partnered with professional founders and focus on a joint value-creation framework. Such partnership is critical for value addition and driving alignment between our business and investment objectives with those of the Portfolio Companies.
- (vi) Venture capital-backed portfolio companies: 13 of the last 16 investments made across Fund III and the Fund IV have been in portfolio companies that were venture capital backed. We have built relationships with a network of Indian venture capital firms that have a broad strategic fit with our investment strategy. The Core Team seeks to maintain consistent engagement with these venture capital firms and with relevant companies within their portfolios for potential new investments. In addition, these relationships also help maintain a M&A pipeline for existing or future portfolio companies.
- (vii) High degree of strategic value: We prefer to advise on investments in companies that offer value to strategic buyers. Key elements that drive strategic value include appropriate sector selection, focus on companies that have sector leadership, and driving alignment with the management of such Portfolio Companies through majority/shared majority features.

For example, while advising Fund II on one of its investments in 2011, we chose the alcobev industry as we believed at the time of this investment that this industry could see a higher strategic interest from global alcobev companies in the future.

- (viii) Sector leadership: Sector leadership has been a key consideration for us and has helped us mitigate the scale factor while exiting the Portfolio Companies and attracting follow-on investments. Many of the Portfolio Companies of the Gaja Capital Funds are not large in terms of revenue or profitability, however, some of them are leaders in their respective segments. Such positioning allows these companies to attract significant interest from strategic buyers or at the time of their IPOs.
- (ix) Implement portfolio diversification: We actively pursue diversification across three axes: ticket size, sectors and multiple years of portfolio construction. To diversify the portfolio of the Gaja Capital Funds, we have consistently sought to increase the number of investments of the Gaja Capital Funds. For instance, Fund II's investments were spread across eight companies while Fund III has expanded its portfolio to ten companies. Further, we have focused on measured portfolio construction. For instance, though Fund II was a 2007 vintage fund, its investments were spread across 2007 to 2013, which allowed Fund II to be diversified across years. Fund III portfolio was similarly constructed from 2015 to 2020 to achieve diversification across vintage years.

Investment Process

The investment process of the Gaja Capital Funds is monitored and supervised by us and includes the following stages:

- (i) Deal sourcing: Our deal-sourcing methodology referred to as “coverage” is the starting point of the deal-origination pipeline. Our EIBC research framework sets the parameters of our target investment in focus sectors such as EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology sectors. Our Investment Team identifies business models in these sectors and upon identification, leverages their network and those of the Operating Advisors to reach out to the targets.

Our Investment Team members engage with the target companies, building relationships with entrepreneurs and management teams, over time, to prepare an investment opportunity when the target company needs fresh capital. This often allows us to move early and emerge as the partner of choice in certain situations. 26 of the 28 investments (including fully realized investments) made by the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds have been sourced through coverage. The coverage process often equips us with an informational edge as we are able to research potential portfolio companies ahead of the fundraising round.

- (ii) Deal appraisal: Our investment appraisal process involves structured analysis to determine the risk-reward parameters of the opportunity followed by committee-based filtering at multiple stages to arrive at an investment decision. The investment proposal goes through two main control gateways, the Internal Pre-Investment Committee and the Investment Committee.

The preliminary analysis or board-based filtering includes meeting with the management team, conducting a basic review of the business plan and broad appraisal of the sector-specific prospects. The investment opportunity is then referred to the pre-investment committee which evaluates the transaction against parameters such as: market growth dynamics, growth strategy and business plan, leadership team, key risks, deal valuation, and operational rights.

Further, the investment team maps key risks relating to the investment and seeks to identify potential headwinds that have a probability of materializing around the following areas: scalability and growth, product development, competition, team stability and alignment, and exit.

- (iii) Deal execution: Deal execution involves negotiations with the Portfolio Company and its management, finalization of terms, structuring and navigating through any regulatory issues and hurdles. We engage with external consultants and experts to conduct business due diligence of the Portfolio Companies. The due diligence process includes commercial, financial, legal, forensic, and environment, social and governance due diligence.
- (iv) Investment Committee Approval: The next stage of appraisal involves seeking approval from the Investment Committee. The Investment Committee for our current Fund IV comprises three executive directors, Mr. Gopal Jain, Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah and Mr. Imran Jafar, along with a member of our Board, Mr. Manish Sabharwal. Agreement among all the members is essential for an investment to be approved.

- (v) Active portfolio management: We focus on scale and transformation of the Portfolio Companies through our invest-and-collaborate approach. We use the scale and transformation plan, and apply it to a combination of levels, including business mix, product, sales strategy, human resources, financial controls and management and M&A. Tactically, this is enabled through deployment of a variety of tools such as senior level hiring by utilizing our networks, expansion into adjacent business segments and expansion into new revenue channels. Our Core Team also reviews the entire portfolio formally once every month with an action-oriented approach on every Portfolio Company's business performance.
- (vi) Exits: We have over the last 20 years, delivered Portfolio Company exits through IPOs, strategic and financial sales. The Gaja Capital Funds have exited from Portfolio Companies by way of the following:
 - (a) IPO exits: Our Investment Team has demonstrated expertise in completing IPOs of relatively mid-sized companies in the past across several sectors including banking and EEE.
 - (b) Strategic investor exits: Our investment strategy places a great deal of importance on M&A as an exit route. Our international network and brand equity with investment bankers are important drivers of the M&A execution strategy.
 - (c) Financial investor exits: Secondaries provide investors an opportunity to exit their investments before the fund's maturity date (Source: Crisil Report). In a number of other portfolio companies of the Gaja Capital Funds, independent third-party investors have made follow-on investments, some of which have also included our full or partial exit from such portfolio companies.

Customers

In our capacity as the manager and advisor of the Gaja Capital Funds, we serve two sets of customers (i) Limited Partners and (ii) Portfolio Companies.

- (i) Limited Partners: The first group consists of the Limited Partners, i.e., investors who provide capital to the funds managed and advised by us. These LPs are typically fund of funds managers, alternative asset managers, HNI, UHNIs, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, insurance companies and family offices across India, USA, Europe and the Middle East. We seek to identify and secure opportunities that have the potential for long-term growth and value addition to align the investment decisions of the funds managed and advised by us with the risk tolerance and return expectations of the LPs.
- (ii) Portfolio Companies: The second group comprises the Portfolio Companies that receive investments from the funds managed and advised by us. The Portfolio Companies benefit from the financial support, as well as the guidance and strategic resources we provide. Our role extends beyond capital infusion; as we engage with the Portfolio Companies to foster their growth, optimize their operations, and support their management teams in achieving operational and financial milestones. We aim to create value within the Portfolio Companies to accelerate their growth, which in turn generates returns for the LPs.

Our objective is to maximize value for both set of customers, the LPs and the Portfolio Companies of the funds managed and advised by us, while maintaining a balanced and sustainable approach. To achieve this, we work to align the interests of both groups and seek to focus on value addition across all levels of the investment process.

Team and Human Resources

We believe that value addition by our experienced employees acts as a distinguishing factor and sets us apart from our competitors in the alternative asset management industry. In addition to the Core Team, members of our Operating Advisors Group have leadership experience in their given vertical and advice on practices in relation to investing, corporate governance and development of portfolio companies.

We work with a customer-oriented philosophy towards all stakeholders with the following factors in mind: (i) developing business and operating expertise within the team to deliver active engagement with Portfolio Companies, (ii) building institutional capabilities ahead of the curve to handle scale and reduce internal competition for resources between the Gaja Capital Funds, (iii) distribute firm ownership and earnings equitably within the team to enable team stability and demonstrate alignment to talent and (iv) re-invest management team earnings from Sponsor Commitment to fund team expansion and finance Sponsor Commitment to future funds.

Additionally, we seek to foster a culture of ownership that aligns the interests of our employees with our own. As an ownership-oriented Company, we follow a meritocratic model where our members are rewarded based on their performance. Our work force is a critical factor in maintaining the quality of services we offer which we believe further strengthens our competitive position. Risk Management and Compliance

Effective risk management is of primary importance to our operating success. We have established a risk management committee that is responsible to formulate a detailed risk management policy which shall include a framework for identification of internal and external risks specifically faced by our Company, in particular including financial, operational, sectoral, social (particularly, ESG related risks), information, cyber security risks and measures for risk mitigation including systems and processes for internal control of identified risks.

The Risk Management Committee is also responsible to ensure that appropriate methodology, processes and systems are in place to monitor and evaluate risks specifically faced by the Company; evaluating the adequacy of risk management systems of the Company; to set out risk assessment and minimization procedures and the procedures to inform the Board to review and recommend the Company's potential risk involved in any new business plan and processes among others. For details, see "Our Management" on page 259.

We also have an anti-money laundering (AML) policy and a code of conduct in relation to anti-money laundering and combating of financing terrorism in line with the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2002 (collectively, the "AML/CFT Code"), which specifies internal controls, customer due diligence measures, risk profiling, on-going monitoring mechanisms, awareness and training of employees against money laundering, and record keeping requirements.

We believe that the risk management systems and procedures that we have in place demonstrate our commitment to working ethically and functioning profitably while maintaining compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. They are intended to provide reasonable but not absolute assurance against loss, as well as to safeguard assets, maintain proper accounting records, increase the reliability of financial information, and the identification and management of business risk. Also see, "Risk Factors—Our risk management procedures, and internal controls may not be adequate or effective in identifying or managing risks to which we are exposed, and this could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations"

We have made conscious efforts to consistently upgrade our systems to enable efficiency and reduce redundancies. We have a dedicated IT professional, who overlooks network administration, system administration, desktop support, maintaining IT infrastructure, IT support to users and managing software updates. We also have a data security policy that outlines the expectation from our employees when dealing with data and provides a classification of the types of data with which they should be concerned with. The policy seeks to prevent the loss of restricted, confidential, or sensitive data to avoid adversely impacting our customers. Also see, "Risk Factors—Any disruption or failure of our technology systems may adversely affect our business and operations. Additionally, challenges in implementation of new technologies for our operations could be significant." on page 55.

Securities and Exchange Board of India (Alternative Investment Funds) Regulations, 2012, as amended (“SEBI AIF Regulations”)

The SEBI AIF Regulations specify, inter alia, criteria for registration and eligibility of AIFs, information requirements, procedure for the grant/refusal of certificate of registration. A certificate of registration is mandatory for a person or an entity to act as an AIF and such certificate shall be granted, subject to compliance with the requisite conditions under the SEBI AIF Regulations. The registration of the AIF is, inter alia, also dependent on the ability of the manager or sponsor to effectively discharge its activities by having the necessary infrastructure and manpower. The AIF sponsor and manager are each required to be a ‘fit and proper person’, based on the criteria specified in Schedule II of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Intermediaries) Regulations, 2008. The obligations of the manager include maintenance of records, addressing complaints of investors, taking steps to address conflicts of interest, ensuring transparency and providing all information sought by the SEBI. The manager is also required to establish and implement written policies and procedures to identify, monitor and appropriately mitigate conflicts of interest throughout the scope of business. Further, AIFs, key management personnel of the AIF, trustee, trustee company, directors of the trustee company, designated partners or directors of the AIF, as the case may be, managers and key management personnel of managers are required to abide by the code of conduct specified under the Fourth Schedule to the SEBI AIF Regulations. Under the SEBI AIF Regulations, a ‘manager’ is a person or an entity who has been appointed by the AIF to manage its investments. A ‘sponsor’ is defined as any person or persons who set up the AIF and includes promoter in case of a company and designated partner in case of a limited liability partnership. The manager of the AIF can also be the sponsor of the AIF. For Category I and II AIFs, the manager or the sponsor of the AIF is required to maintain a continuing interest in the AIF of not less than 2.5% of the corpus or ₹50 million, whichever is lower, in the form of investment in the AIF. For Category III AIFs, the manager or the sponsor of the AIF is required to maintain a continuing interest in the AIF of not less than 5% of the corpus or ₹100 million, whichever is lower. Category I and II AIFs cannot invest more than 25% of their investible funds in one investee company, directly or through investments in the units of other AIFs, subject to certain exceptions as set out under the SEBI AIF Regulations. A category III AIF cannot invest more than 10% of its investible funds in one investee company, directly or through investments in the units of other AIFs, subject to certain exceptions as set out under the SEBI AIF Regulations. Further, the SEBI AIF Regulations were amended to allow Category I and II AIFs to offer co-investment within the AIF structure by launching a separate Co-investment Scheme (“CIV scheme”).

Additionally, the Master Circular for Alternative Investment Funds (AIFs) dated June 3, 2026 (“Master Circular”) sets out certain guidelines in relation to, inter alia, (i) online filing system for AIFs; (ii) investment in AIFs; (iii) obligation of manager, sponsor and trustee of AIFs; and (iv) collection of stamp duty on issue, transfer and sale of units of AIFs. The Master Circular also specifies the procedure to be followed for filing private placement memorandum which is the primary document in which all the necessary information about an AIF is disclosed to prospective investors. It also comprises the investment method in AIFs by which the AIFs may raise funds from any investor whether Indian, foreign or non-resident Indians, by way of issue of units. The obligations of a manager, sponsor and trustee of an AIFs along with the code of conduct that all managers are required to follow is also provided under the Master Circular. The guidelines for AIFs to report their investment activities under Regulation 28 of the SEBI AIF Regulations with respect to the activities carried out by an AIF are also provided in the Master Circular. The Master Circular also requires the AIFs to bring to the notice of the investors, the investor charter as included in the Master Circular and mandates the disclosure of data on investor complaints received against an AIF.

Securities and Exchange Board of India (Portfolio Managers) Regulations, 2020, as amended (“SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations”)

The SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations govern the functioning of portfolio managers. Under the SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations, a ‘portfolio manager’ is a body corporate which pursuant to a contract with a client, advises or directs or undertakes on behalf of the client (whether as a discretionary portfolio manager or otherwise), the management or administration of a portfolio of securities or goods or the funds of the client, as the case may be.

Any applicant proposing to act as portfolio manager is required to be registered with the SEBI. Prior to grant of a certificate of registration, the SEBI will, inter alia, consider whether the applicant has the necessary infrastructure, qualifications of the principal officer and the compliance officer of the applicant, disciplinary action taken by the SEBI against a person directly or indirectly connected with the applicant and whether the applicant is fit and proper in terms of the criteria specified under Schedule II of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Intermediaries) Regulations, 2008. Additionally, any applicant proposing to act as a portfolio manager is required to have a net worth of not less than ₹50 million.

Portfolio managers are required to enter into an agreement containing certain details prescribed under Schedule IV of the SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations before taking up any assignment for the management of funds or a portfolio of securities on behalf of clients. Prior to entering into such an agreement, portfolio managers are required to provide a disclosure document to their clients, as specified in the SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations. As a condition of registration, portfolio managers are required to seek the prior approval of the SEBI in case of any change in control.

SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations define a ‘co-investment portfolio manager’ as a portfolio manager who is the manager of Category I or Category II AIFs. Such co-investment portfolio managers are authorized to provide portfolio management services solely to the investors of the specific Category I or Category II AIFs they manage. Furthermore, their investments are restricted to unlisted securities of investee companies in which those Category I or Category II AIFs make investments. The SEBI Portfolio Manager Regulations allow a co-investment portfolio manager to extend services to investors in other Category I or Category II AIFs which are managed by them and sponsored by the same sponsor. A co-investment portfolio manager can appoint a key member of their investment team as the principal officer, provided they meet the criteria outlined in Regulation 4(g) of the SEBI AIF Regulations. Additionally, while a standard portfolio manager needs a net worth of not less than ₹50 million, this requirement is waived for co-investment portfolio managers.

The Master Circular for Portfolio Managers dated July 16, 2025 (“PMS Master Circular”), sets out certain guidelines in relation to, inter alia, (i) fees and charges which can be levied by portfolio managers; (ii) direct on-boarding of clients; (iii) periodic reporting and reporting of performance by portfolio managers; and (iv) supervision of distributors. It also includes the procedure of application for registration as a portfolio manager. Under the PMS Master Circular, the guidelines for co-investment portfolio management services prescribe that a manager of Category I or Category II AIFs who is also a SEBI registered portfolio manager and intends to act as co-investment portfolio manager and offer co-investment services through portfolio management route, shall do so only by providing a prior intimation to SEBI.

c) Basis of Consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

The Company determines the basis of control in line with the requirements of Ind AS 110, Consolidated Financial Statements. Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when the parent has power over the entity, it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases. The financial statements of the Group companies are consolidated on a line-by-line basis and all intra-Group balances, transactions, income and expenses are eliminated in full on consolidation.

(ii) Non-Controlling Interests

Non-controlling interests in the net assets (excluding goodwill) of consolidated subsidiaries are identified separately from the Company's equity. The interest of non-controlling shareholders may be initially measured either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the fair value of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition to acquisition basis. Subsequent to acquisition, the carrying amount of non-controlling interests is the amount of those interests at initial recognition plus the non-controlling interest's share of subsequent changes in equity. Total comprehensive income is attributed to noncontrolling interests even if it results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

d) Basis of measurement

The Restated Financial Information have been prepared under the historical cost convention with the exception of certain assets and liabilities that are required to be carried at fair value by Ind AS.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. All assets and liabilities have been classified as current and non-current as per the Group's normal operating cycle which is based on the nature of businesses and the time elapsed between deployment of resources and the realisation of cash and cash equivalents. The Group has considered an operating cycle of 12 months.

e) Functional and presentation currency

The Restated Financial Information of the Group are presented in Indian Rupee ("INR"), which is the functional currency of the Group and the presentation currency for the Restated Financial Information. In preparing the Restated Financial Information, transactions in currencies other than the group's functional currency are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction.

At the end of each reporting year, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are re-translated at the rates prevailing at the end of the reporting year.

Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are re-translated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not translated.

Exchange differences arising on the re-translation or settlement of other monetary items are included in the statement of profit and loss for the year.

f) Significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

In the preparation of the Restated Financial Information, the Group makes judgements in the application of accounting policies; and estimates and assumptions which affects carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the year in which the estimate is revised and future years affected.

Impairment of financial assets (other than subsequent measurement at fair value)

Measurement of impairment of financial assets require use of estimates and judgements, which have been explained in the note on financial instruments under impairment of financial assets.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

The Group reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets at the end of each reporting year. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation and amortisation expense in future years. The policy has been detailed in note 2(g), 2(h) & 2(i).

A provision is recognised when the Group has a present obligation, legal or constructive, as result of a past event and it is probable that the outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. All provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

The Group uses significant judgements to assess contingent liabilities. Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past event where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be utilised to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the Restated Financial Information.

When the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques including Discounted Cash Flow Model. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values.

Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risks, credit risks and volatility. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Leases

The Group evaluates if an arrangement qualifies to be a lease as per the requirements of Ind AS 116 "Leases". Identification of a lease requires significant judgement in assessing the lease term including anticipated renewals and the applicable discount rate. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses incremental borrowing rate.

Retirement benefit obligations

The Group's retirement benefit obligations are subject to a number of assumptions including discount rates, inflation, salary growth and mortality rate. Significant assumptions are required when setting these criteria and a change in these assumptions would have a significant impact on the amount recorded in the Group's balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss. The Group sets these assumptions based on previous experience and third party actuarial advice. The assumptions are reviewed annually and adjusted following actuarial and experience changes.

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

g) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost/deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Cost includes all direct costs and expenditures incurred to bring the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Depreciation is provided so as to write off, on a Written Down Value basis, the cost / deemed cost of property, plant and equipment to their residual value. These charges are commenced from the dates the assets are available for their intended use and are spread over their estimated useful economic lives. The estimated useful lives of assets, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed regularly and revised when necessary.

Name of Asset	Useful life in years
Furniture and fixtures	10
Office equipment	5
Vehicles	10
Leasehold improvements	10 or lease year, whichever is lower

Subsequent to initial recognition, property, plant and equipment with definite useful lives are reported at cost or deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses.

h) Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are amortized on a straight line basis over the estimated useful economic life. The Group uses a rebuttable presumption that the useful life of an intangible asset will not exceed ten years from the date when the asset is available for use. If the persuasive evidence exists to the affect that useful life of an intangible asset exceeds ten years, the Group amortizes the intangible asset over the best estimate of its useful life. The amortization year and the amortization method are reviewed at least at each financial year end. If the expected useful life of the asset is significantly different from previous estimates, the amortization year is changed accordingly. If there has been a significant change in the expected pattern of economic benefits from the asset, the amortization method is changed to reflect the changed pattern. Such changes are accounted for in accordance with Ind AS 8 - Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors.

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets with definite useful lives are reported at cost or deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses.

i) Leases

The Group determines whether an arrangement contains a lease by assessing whether the fulfilment of a transaction is dependent on the use of a specific asset and whether the transaction conveys the right to control the use of that asset to the Group in return for payment.

The Group as lessee

The Group accounts for each lease component within the contract as a lease separately from non-lease components of the contract and allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components. The Group recognises right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term at the lease commencement date. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception comprises of the amount of initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date. Certain lease arrangements include options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. The right-of-use assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that such options would be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability.

The right-of-use assets are depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Lease liability is measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses incremental borrowing rate. The lease liability is subsequently remeasured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made and remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease.

j) Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability.

The transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss are immediately recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

(1) Financial assets

Cash and bank balances

Cash and bank balances consist of:

(i) Cash and cash equivalents - which includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term deposits which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and have original maturities of less than three months. These balances with banks are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

(ii) Other balances with bank - which also include balances and deposits with banks that are restricted for withdrawal and usage.

Notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Information

Financial assets at amortised cost

Financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost if these financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets measured at fair value

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if such financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and to sell such financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The Group in respect of certain equity investments which are not held for trading has made an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value of such equity instruments. Such an election is made by the Group on an instrument by instrument basis at the time of initial recognition of such equity investments.

These investments are held for medium or long-term strategic purpose. The Group has chosen to designate these investments in equity instruments as fair value through other comprehensive income as the management believes this provides a more meaningful presentation for medium or long-term strategic investments, than reflecting changes in fair value immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

Financial assets not measured at amortised cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income are carried at fair value through profit and loss.

Expected credit losses on financial assets:

The impairment provisions of financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected timing of collection. The Group uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the expected credit loss calculation based on the Group's history of collections, customer's creditworthiness, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting year.

De-recognition of financial assets

The Group de-recognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the financial asset and substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognises its retained interest in the assets and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a borrowing for the proceeds received.

(2) Financial Liabilities and Equity Instruments

Classification as debt or equity Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by the Group are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments: An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities: Trade and other payables are initially measured at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method where the time value of money is significant. Interest bearing bank loans, overdrafts and issued debt are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the settlement or redemption of borrowings is recognised over the term of the borrowings in the statement of profit and loss.

De-recognition of financial liabilities

The Group de-recognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire.

k) Employee Benefits

Defined contribution plans

Contributions under defined contribution plans are recognised as expense for the year in which the employee has rendered service. Payments made to state managed retirement benefit schemes are dealt with as payments to defined contribution schemes where the Group's obligations under the schemes are equivalent to those arising in a defined contribution retirement benefit scheme.

Defined benefit plans

For defined benefit retirement schemes, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit Method, with actuarial valuation being carried out at each year-end balance sheet date. Remeasurement gains and losses of the net defined benefit liability/(asset) are recognised immediately in other comprehensive income.

The service cost and net interest on the net defined benefit liability/(asset) are recognised as an expense within employee costs.

Past service cost is recognised as an expense when the plan amendment or curtailment occurs or when any related restructuring costs or termination benefits are recognised, whichever is earlier.

The retirement benefit obligations recognised in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligations as reduced by the fair value of plan assets.

Compensated absences

Liabilities recognised in respect of other long-term employee benefits such as annual leave and sick leave are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by the Company in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date using the projected unit credit method with actuarial valuation being carried out at each year end balance sheet date.

Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited to the statement of profit and loss in the year in which they arise.

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the year in which the employee renders the related service are recognised based on actuarial valuation.

Share Based Payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via Gaja Employee Stock Option Scheme 2025 ("the Scheme") maintained by Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited. Information relating to this scheme, and the awards issued under it, is set out in Note 38.

The fair value of options granted is recognized as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in other equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted.

The total expense is recognised over the vesting year, which is the year over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each year, the entity revises its estimates of the number of awards that are expected to vest based on the non-market vesting and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the statement of profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to other equity.

l) Tax Expenses

Tax expense comprises of current tax and deferred tax. Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities, using the applicable tax rates. Deferred income tax reflect the current year timing differences between taxable income and accounting income and reversal of timing differences of earlier years/year. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future income will be available except that deferred tax assets, in case there are unabsorbed depreciation or losses, are recognised if there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available to realise the same. Deferred tax assets are reviewed as at each balance sheet date and written down or written-up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realised.

Advance taxes and provisions for current income taxes are presented in the balance sheet after off-setting advance tax paid and income tax provision arising in the same tax jurisdiction for relevant tax paying units and where the Group is able to and intends to settle the asset and liability on a net basis.

Minimum Alternative Tax ('MAT') under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 is recognised as current tax in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The credit available under the Act in respect of MAT paid is recognised as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Group will pay normal income tax during the year for which the MAT credit can be carried forward for set-off against the normal tax liability. MAT credit recognised as an asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down to the extent, the aforesaid convincing evidence no longer exists.

m) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Income from services: Revenues from advisory services are recognized pro-rata over the year of the contract as and when services are rendered.

Income from investments: Income on investments are recognised on accrual basis to the extent identifiable. The following specific recognition criteria is considered:

i) Income from investment in equity: recognized as and when the profit is distributed or the investment is disposed.

ii) Income from investment in partnership firm: Share of profit or loss in partnership firm is recognized on annual basis, based on statement of accounts from the partnership firms.

iii) Income from investment in unquoted funds: Is recognized based on statement of accounts received from the funds and any intermediary distributions are treated as an adjustment to the cost of investment.

Interest: Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable interest rate. Interest income is included under the head "other income" in the statement of profit and loss.

Dividend: Dividend income is recognized when the Group's right to receive dividend is established by the reporting date.

n) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they are entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting year. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for events such as bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue, share split, and reverse share split (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

The fair value of trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, bank balances other than cash & cash equivalents, other current financial assets (except for instruments classified under level 1 hierarchy of such financial instruments), trade payables and other current financial liabilities approximate their respective carrying amounts due to short term maturities of these instruments.

The fair values for and security deposits except security deposit which are repayable on demand were calculated based on cash flows discounted using a current lending rate. They are classified as level 3 fair values in the fair value hierarchy due to the inclusion of unobservable inputs including counterparty credit risk.

Except financial assets valued measured at Fair Value through Profit & Loss, the fair value of non-current financial assets and liabilities has been disclosed to be same as carrying value as there is no significant difference in the carrying value and fair value.

(ii) Measurement of fair values

The different levels of fair value have been defined below:

Level 1: Level 1 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices for instance listed equity instruments, traded bonds and mutual funds that have quoted price.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, traded bonds, over-the counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2. Currently, there are no items falling under Level 2 fair valuation hierarchy.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

The Company's policy is to recognise transfers into and transfers out of fair value hierarchy levels as at the end of the reporting year.

(v) Risk management framework

The Board of Directors oversee compliance with the Company's risk management policies and procedures, and reviews the risk management framework.

(a) Credit risk

Based on the historical data & experience, bad debts written off indicate that there is no probability of default or loss given default. Also, based on current conditions and forecast of future economic conditions, there is no need to create a credit allowance of trade receivables. However, forecasts of future economic conditions should be assessed in periodic intervals.

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting the obligations associated with its financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when they are due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation.

The Company's primary sources of liquidity include cash and cash flow from operating activities. The Company seeks to increase income from its existing business by maintaining quality standards and by controlling operating expenses.

The majority of the Company's trade receivables are due for maturity within 0 - 60 days from the date of billing to the customer. Further, the general credit terms for trade payables are approximately 0 - 90 days. The difference between the above mentioned credit period provides sufficient headroom to meet the short-term working capital needs for day-to-day operations of the Company.

Consequently, the Company believes its cash flow from operating activities, along with proceeds from financing activities will continue to provide the necessary funds to cover its short term liquidity needs. In addition, the Company projects cash flows and considering the level of liquid assets necessary to meet liquidity requirement.

OVERVIEW

We are a well-established alternative asset management company, in terms of vintage, with 20 years of experience. We act as an investment manager to India focused funds, including category II and category I alternative investment funds (“AIFs”) and also act as advisors to offshore funds, which provide capital to companies in India.

We are an experienced, independent and home-grown alternative asset management company (“AMC”). With over two decades of experience in alternative asset management, we have navigated various investment cycles across the funds managed and advised by us. As an independent alternative AMC, we are not sponsored or owned by any financial institution, corporate group, or global firm and our ownership structure is predominantly held by our leadership team. The home-grown character of our Company is rooted in the backgrounds of our Promoters and senior management, all of whom have developed their careers in India and are Indian citizens.

The portfolio of investments across the funds managed and advised by us, has been focused on various sectors, including, EEE, financial services, consumer and digital technology. The chart below sets forth our business model:

Our Business Model

For further details in relation to our corporate and fund structure, see “Our Business—Description of our Business—Fund Structure” on page 232.

We have been consistently profitable and between Fiscals 2024 to 2026, our profit after tax grew at a CAGR of 35.34%. The table below sets forth certain financial performance indicators as of and for the periods indicated:

Particulars	As of and for Fiscal
	2026	2025	2024
Total Income (₹ million)	1,577.97	1,233.07	1,039.60
Profit/(loss) after tax for the year (₹ million)	819.59	619.51	447.42
PAT Margin (%)	51.94	50.24	43.04
Cash and Cash equivalents (₹ million)	710.74	252.82	237.00
Total Net Worth (₹ million)	6,065.15	3,889.67	3,318.77

We derive our income primarily from three income streams (i) Management Fee; (ii) Carried Interest; and (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment. The chart below sets forth the breakdown of our income streams:

Our Revenue Streams

- (i) Management Fee: It is the fee that we receive for providing management and advisory services to funds. Our Management Fee is a function of the size of a fund and is applicable on the capital committed/invested by external investors to the funds.
- (ii) Carried Interest: It is the performance linked share of profits generated by the funds managed and advised by us and is a function of the respective funds’ net IRR. Carried Interest is calculated on a fund as a whole and not on an investment-by-investment basis.

- (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment: These gains are the capital gains earned on our capital commitment as a sponsor to the funds managed and advised by us and are a function of the gross Multiple on Invested Capital (“MOIC”) of a fund.

Further, prospective investors in the Equity Shares of our Company (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) should note that after Allotment of Equity Shares pursuant to the Offer, they will be shareholders of the AMC entity (i.e., Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited) and not investors in the funds managed and advised by us, and therefore, shall not receive any returns, distributions, or profits arising from the performance of such funds, except to the extent of dividends declared by our Company from its own profits.

All the income generated from the funds managed and advised by us, across the three income streams, is received in its entirety by us. Our objective has been to capture the economic value generated by the funds managed and advised by us within our Company, with the goal of enhancing our enterprise value and strengthening our balance sheet.

On the expenditure side, team compensation forms a substantial share of our expenses and other major expenses include our fund-raise and business development costs. Our business has demonstrated significant operating leverage and efficiency through consistent improvement in profit margins and between Fiscals 2024 to 2026, our PAT Margins have improved from 43.04% to 51.94%. Our operating leverage comes from a calibrated growth in our employee base and management of our expenses, while our operating efficiency is a result of low cost of fund raising and leveraging equity ownership as a tool to compensate a majority of our senior leadership.

Key Expenditure Items

Team Compensation	Compensation across the fund lifecycle, including gestation period	Fund-raising & Business Development	Costs related to raising and launching of new products and funds	Other Operating Costs	General and admin expenses, rent, audit and legal costs

Our business model does not require substantial investment in fixed assets; however, certain aspects of our operations are capital-intensive. As a manager or sponsor of an AIF, we are required to have a continuing interest in such AIF in the form of an investment, i.e., Sponsor Commitment. A high contribution as a sponsor reflects our commitment and confidence in the long-term success of the funds managed and advised by us, and further aligns our interests with the LPs through greater skin-in-the-game and reduced cost of fund-raising. In addition, we have in the past leveraged our balance sheet to warehouse investment in a portfolio company for Fund IV, which we believe enhanced our proposition to prospective LPs. We have also used our balance sheet capital to bolster the deal flow for the funds managed and advised by us by investing in third party funds. For further details, see “Our Business—Major Uses of Capital” on page 236.

We were incorporated in 1999 as View Advisors Private Limited. These were the early years of India’s alternatives ecosystem when private equity funds started investing in the Indian market, shortly after the liberalization of the economy in the early 1990s. (Source: Crisil Report). We subsequently re-branded ourselves as “Gaja Capital” with the objective to raise, and directly manage and advise, domestic and offshore funds to make private equity investments in India. The “Gaja Capital” brand focuses on combining our investment and advisory experience, and aligning our interests with those of the investors and portfolio companies of the funds managed and advised by us (“Portfolio Companies”).

We benefit from the experience of our Promoters and Executive Directors, Mr. Gopal Jain, Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah and Mr. Imran Jafar, who have established track records in alternative asset management and private equity in India. Mr. Gopal Jain has been associated with our Company since incorporation and Mr. Imran Jafar and Mr. Ranjit Jayant Shah have been associated with our Company since 2005 and 2006, respectively. Our Promoters are supported by our core team and operating advisors group, who enable us to maintain corporate governance standards across various aspects of our operations including coverage, deal appraisal and development, and portfolio management. As of March 31, 2026, our senior leadership comprised three Executive Directors, Chief Financial Officer and Senior Management, who have, on an average, been with our Company for 17 years. For further details, see “Our Management” and “Our Business—Team and Human Resources” on pages 259 and 240, respectively.

The AUM for alternative investments in India is expected to grow at 25-27% between March, 2026 and March, 2030 and reach ₹41-44 trillion by March, 2030 (Source: Crisil Report). The mid-market category, comprising deal sizes of ₹500–2,500 million, saw its market share increase to 19% by volume and 14% by value in Fiscal 2025, up from 16% and 12% in Fiscal 2020, respectively. It is expected that the share of mid-market within PE investments will rise further and at a faster rate. As of March, 2026, market share of mid-market category stood at 22% as compared to 19% as of Fiscal 2025 (Source: Crisil Report).

With our extensive experience in the mid-market segment, we have developed a differentiated alpha-oriented strategy for the funds managed and advised by us, with a focus on an invest-and-collaborate approach to add value to the Portfolio Companies. Our investment strategy focuses on specific aspects of a Portfolio Company, including, (i) product, (ii) sales, (iii) human resources, and (iv) financial management. Given our experience and customized investment strategy for the needs of the mid-market segment, we believe we are positioned to benefit from the projected growth in the alternative asset management industry in India. For further details, see “Our Business—Capitalize on the growth of the AIF segment and deepen our focus on high-growth sectors in the mid-market segment in the Indian economy” on page 229.

Our ability as an investment manager and advisor is demonstrated by the consistent performance of the funds managed and advised by us. We commenced our initial investment management and advisory operations with a set of four investments made on a deal-by-deal basis between 2005 and 2007 (“Prior Investments”). Following the Prior Investments, we formed Fund II in 2007 and Fund III in 2015. The latest fund, Fund IV (collectively with Fund II and Fund III, the “Gaja Capital Funds”) was formed in 2021. The Gaja Capital Funds have demonstrated consistent growth with the fund size of each subsequent fund larger than the preceding fund. Our long-standing relationships with LPs have been instrumental in helping us establish multiple funds. The LPs of the Gaja Capital Funds are spread across more than 20 countries including India, the United States, Europe and the Middle East.

In addition to growing capital commitments, we have focused on the performance of the funds managed and advised by us, as a tool to drive the enterprise value of our Company. We have managed and advised the Gaja Capital Funds through various stages, including fund-raising, investment and deployment of funds, portfolio management and exits from Portfolio Companies with a 3.3x average MOIC across the Prior Investments and the Gaja Capital Funds.

Our commitment to the Gaja Capital Funds is reflected in the high level of Sponsor Commitment we have made in the Gaja Capital Funds. The SEBI AIF Regulations prescribe threshold for sponsor commitment, which stands at 2.5% of the overall fund corpus or ₹50.00 million, whichever is lower. As of March 31, 2026, we had committed approximately ₹2,740.00 million, i.e., 6.41% of the total size of the Gaja Capital Funds, as Sponsor Commitment in the Gaja Capital Funds, which is substantially above the prescribed regulatory thresholds.

SIGNIFICANT FACTORS AFFECTING OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Our ability to establish new funds

Our ability to establish new funds is influenced by a variety of factors, including market conditions, investor appetite, regulatory compliance, and the strength of our industry relationships. Further, the launch of new funds is also contingent on other macroeconomic conditions and factors affecting the attractiveness of the alternative investments. However, the process of launching new funds requires significant time and resources, and may be delayed or impacted by factors such as changes in market conditions or investor sentiment. Additionally, the success of new funds is contingent on our ability to identify investment opportunities that align with our strategic objectives, as well as our capacity to raise capital from the Limited Partners.

Our ability to establish new funds also impacts our revenue streams as an increase in the number of funds we establish will grow the management fee we earn. Our revenue model includes (i) Management Fee; (ii) Carried Interest; and (iii) Income from Sponsor Commitment. For further details, see “Our Business—Description of our Business—Income Streams” on page 234.

Management Fee is the fee that we receive in exchange for providing a fund with management services and is calculated based on the overall amount of capital committed to a particular fund and is generally fixed at two percent in proportion to the size of the fund. Carried Interest is the performance linked share of profits generated by the funds managed and advised by us and is a function of the respective funds’ net IRR. Income from Sponsor Commitment represents the capital gains earned on our capital commitment as a sponsor to funds and is a function of the gross MOIC of a fund. The table below sets out the breakdown of our total income which includes (i) Management Fee, (ii) Carried Interest (iii) other revenue, (iv) Income from Sponsor Commitment and (v) other income streams.

[#]Our Income from Sponsor Commitment was Nil in Fiscal 2025, primarily on account of a fair value loss.

The growth in our Management Fee primarily depends on our ability to establish new and larger funds. Delays or reductions in fund sizes for future funds may impact our management fee pool in the coming years. The alternative asset management industry operates in a highly competitive environment, driven by the increasing demand for high yield investments and risk adjusted returns. Our business competes with other alternative investment funds, venture capital funds, private equity funds, specialized investment funds, hedge funds, corporate buyers, traditional asset managers and other financial institutions. In order to maintain a competitive edge, we emphasize innovation, strategic partnerships, and strong risk management frameworks. (Source: Crisil Report). Any changes to our future funds' fee structure, whether due to regulatory reasons or increased competition, could affect our revenue growth and our ability to earn our management fee by establishing new funds.

The Carried Interest we earn is proportional to the net profits generated by the funds managed and advised by us, subject to a minimum IRR threshold. Unfavorable performance or our inability to effectively manage the current or future funds in line with our growth strategies may result in a reduction in the carried interest stream of our total income. Further, any changes to the terms of the future funds could also have an impact on the carried interest generated from the funds, thereby impacting our revenue growth.

Income from Sponsor Commitment is a direct function of the gross returns generated from a fund. Any underperformance of the funds (in gross MOIC terms) will impact our revenue attributable to Income from Sponsor Commitment. Further, any reduction in our share of Sponsor Commitment to the future funds that we may establish could adversely impact this revenue stream.

Since a significant portion of our total income is contingent upon the performance of the funds managed and advised by us, any unfavorable returns from such funds may result in a reduction of our total income. Also see “Risk Factors—The alternative asset management business is highly competitive.” and “Risk Factors—The historical returns attributable to the funds managed and advised by us should not be considered as indicative of the future results of such funds or of the future funds and the returns we may generate may be prolonged on account of the nature of these funds and may not be similar to what we may have generated historically.” on pages 39 and 21, respectively.

Our ability to execute our growth strategies

Our ability to execute our growth strategies effectively is critical for increasing our revenue, expanding our product strategies and enhancing the long-term value of the Gaja Capital Funds and the future funds that we may establish. Our growth strategies, are tailored to capitalize on emerging market trends, diversify our asset base, and maximize returns for the investors of the funds managed and advised by us. The ability to navigate our growth strategies requires an understanding of market dynamics, robust operational infrastructure and a team capable of executing on high-impact decisions. Moreover, effectively executing our growth strategies will enhance our reputation and foster investor confidence, which is essential for raising additional capital for the funds managed and advised by us and launching new funds.

We have launched a new fund in the secondaries investment class with a focus on providing general partner (“GP”) solutions and buy portfolio of assets from other GPs (“Secondaries” and such fund the “Secondaries Fund”). The new Secondaries Fund is headed by an experienced chief executive officer with more than 18 years of experience in the global Secondaries market. We believe diversification into Secondaries offers itself as an opportunity due to industry tailwinds, and we intend to leverage our demonstrated experience and existing industry relationships to further augment our Secondaries business. Any shortfalls on our ability to raise, deploy and manage the Secondaries Fund may impact our total income and profits after tax in the coming years. For further details, see Objects of the Offer—Investing towards our Sponsor Commitment in certain existing and new funds: (a) balance Sponsor Commitment in Fund IV; (b) Sponsor Commitment in the proposed Fund V; and (c) Sponsor Commitment in the Secondaries Fund” and “Risk Factors—We may be unable to manage our growth or to successfully implement our business strategies. Our revenue from operations was ₹1,355.31 million and ₹1,219.99 million for Fiscal 2026 and Fiscal 2025, respectively.” on page 114 and 31, respectively.

Our ability to maintain lower levels of fund-raising costs

We raise capital from third-party investors, both domestic and overseas, for the funds managed and advised by us. Our ability to raise capital from the Limited Partners depends on a number of factors, including, the performance of a particular fund, including its historical rate of returns, the performance of the markets and general economic conditions, applicable regulations in India regarding investments including the FDI Policy and FEMA Rules, and investment policies to which such Limited Partners are subject. Our Limited partners include fund of funds managers, alternative asset managers, HNIs, UHNIs, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, insurance companies and family offices, located across India, United States, Europe and the Middle East. As of March 31, 2026 out of the 298 Limited Partners associated with us, 139 were located in India and 159 were located outside India.

We have traditionally relied on our proprietary network of advisors, industry participants and existing investors to raise funds at lower costs. This has helped us manage our total cost of raising funds, as the share of funds raised via distributors (including brokers and wealth managers) is relatively low. Any impact on our ability to raise future funds in a similar manner, whether due to change in mix of funds raised through distributors or on account of change in commission structure, could have an adverse impact on our profitability. Also see “Risk Factors—Our inability to raise sufficient capital from Limited Partners or their inability to honor capital calls in relation to the funds managed and advised by us could adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.” and “Risk Factors—We are subject to certain risks associated with the actions of our third-party distributors. Any mismanagement in handling our relationships with our distributors (i.e., placement agents) could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We have raised ₹844.92 million funds through our distributors in Fiscal 2024” on pages 24 and 36.

Our ability to retain our employees and optimize operating expenses

The alternative asset management business is highly competitive where the value addition by our experienced employees is a distinguishing factor and sets us apart from our competitors in the alternative asset management industry. Our employees are key to our success and we believe that our success depends to a large extent upon their continued efforts and services, and we rely significantly on their experience. In the future, we may also be required to increase our levels of compensation or otherwise incentivize our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management in order to remain competitive, and attract skilled and experienced professionals. However, it can be difficult and expensive to attract and retain talented and experienced employees.

We create long-term alignment with our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management through equity ownership in our Company. This structure has helped us with retention of our senior employees and in the last three years, we have not witnessed any attrition in our KMPs and SMPs. Equity ownership helps in creating long-term value for our management, while helping us maintain lower employee benefit expenses on an annual basis. Our employee benefit expenses over the last three years have largely remained at a similar level, ranging between 20 to 23% (as a % of total income).

The table below sets out our key operating expenses for the periods indicated.

Also see “Risk Factors—We are highly dependent on our Promoters, our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management. Any inability on our part to retain or recruit skilled personnel could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition” on page 34.

As we expand the size and scope of our business, the profitability of our operations will depend on our ability to optimize our operational efficiency by reducing our operating expenses as a percentage of total income, primarily employee benefit expenses.

Macroeconomic conditions and other factors in India and attractiveness of the alternative investments

A vast majority of our revenue and profits depends on the performance of the alternative investments industry. Pursuant to the recognition of AIFs as a separate asset class by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Alternative Investment Funds) Regulations, 2012 (“AIF Regulations”) AIFs have become one of the key segments in private markets in India. (Source: Crisil Report).

Total commitments have been growing at a steady pace seeing a 29.2% CAGR between March, 2019 and March, 2026, with a total commitment of ₹16.9 trillion as on March 31, 2026. The AIF segment is expected to remain one of the fastest growing managed products categories over the next few years as more institutional investors, ultra-HNIs and high net worth individuals (HNIs) seek out differentiated products that give them an option to generate better returns on their investments. Alternative investments are expanding the market by capturing share from other asset classes, not mutual funds. Their relatively higher yields than other asset classes add to increased profitability, driving growth in the investment landscape. The AUM for alternative investments in India is expected to grow at 25-27% CAGR between March, 2026 and March, 2030 and reach ₹41-44 trillion by March, 2030. (Source: Crisil Report).

Short-term volatility or persistent volatility in the alternative investments industry could have an impact on investment patterns, which could have a material impact on our results of operations and financial condition. Additionally, we are also dependent on revenues from Management Fee, Carried Interest and Income from Sponsor Commitment, all of which could be influenced by the performance of the overall Indian alternative investments industry. For details of the breakdown of our revenue from operations see “Our Business—Description of our Business—Income Streams” on page 234.

Further, our Company and our Portfolio Companies are located in India, therefore, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects are significantly affected by general economic conditions and particularly macroeconomic conditions in India. Positive macroeconomic conditions generally support the overall economic growth, thereby accelerating the growth of our Portfolio Companies, while negative macro-economic conditions tend to adversely affect the economic growth and could impact our Portfolio Companies.

India is one of the fastest growing economies in the world. (Source: Crisil Report). Any change in macro-economic conditions in India, including changes in interest rates, inflationary pressures, government policies or taxation and political, economic or other developments, have affected, and will continue to affect our Portfolio Companies. Since our business, is generally dependent on growth of our Portfolio Companies, any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy or in certain regions in India could adversely impact the Portfolio Companies, which may in turn impact our cash flows and financial condition. Also see “Risk Factors—Any downturn in the macroeconomic environment in India could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition” on page 45.

In addition, the attractiveness of the funds that we manage relative to investments in other investment products could decrease depending on the economic conditions. This competitive pressure could adversely affect our ability to make successful investments and limit our ability to raise future funds, either of which would adversely affect our business, revenue, results of operations and cash flow. Also see “Risk Factors—The alternative asset management business is highly competitive.” on page 39.

Regulatory landscape and policies

The alternative asset management industry, securities market and our business are subject to extensive regulation in India by the SEBI, the RBI, and other governmental regulatory authorities. The regulatory environment in which we operate is also subject to change and we may be adversely affected as a result of new or revised legislation or regulations imposed by the governmental regulatory authorities. Compliance with many of the regulations applicable to us involves a number of risks, particularly in areas where applicable regulations may be subject to varying interpretations. We are also subjected to periodic reviews, requests for submission of information, audit and inspections from various regulatory agencies and are required to monitor compliance and comply with such regulations, thereby exposing us to incur substantial costs. If we are found to have violated an applicable regulation, administrative or judicial proceedings may be initiated against us that may result in censures, fines, trading bans, deregistration or suspension of our business licenses, the suspension or disqualification of our officers or employees, or other adverse consequences. While it may be possible that certain regulatory changes would be positive for some of our business operations, it may also so happen that such changes could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations. Also see “Risk Factors—We, along with the funds managed and advised by us, are subject to securities regulation and any failure to comply with these regulations could subject us to penalties or sanctions.” on page 25.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

We use certain supplemental Non-GAAP Measures and certain operational performance indicators to review and analyze our financial and operating performance from period to period, to evaluate our business, and for forecasting purposes. Although these Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures are not a measure of performance calculated in accordance with applicable accounting standards, our management believes that they are useful to an investor in evaluating us because they are widely used measures to evaluate a company's operating and financial performance. Further, our management believes that when taken collectively with financial measures prepared in accordance with Ind AS, these Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures may be helpful to investors because they provide an additional tool for investors to use in evaluating our ongoing results and trends. Presentation of these Non-GAAP measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, analysis of our historical financial performance, as reported and presented in our Restated Consolidated Financial Statements set out in this Prospectus.

These Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures are not defined under, or presented in accordance with, Ind AS and have limitations as analytical tools which indicate, among other things, that they do not reflect our cash expenditures or future requirements for capital expenditure or contractual commitments; changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs; and the finance cost, or cash requirements. Although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated and amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and these measures do not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements. These Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures may differ from similar titled information used by other companies, including peer companies, who may calculate such information differently and hence their comparability with those used by us may be limited. Therefore, these Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures should not be viewed as substitutes for performance or profitability measures under Ind AS or as indicators of our operating performance, financial condition, cash flows, liquidity or profitability.

Set out below are definitions of, and reconciliation to GAAP measures pertaining to, certain key Non-GAAP Measures presented in this Prospectus, along with a brief explanation of their calculation. Also see “Risk Factors—This Prospectus includes certain Non-GAAP Measures, financial and operational performance indicators and other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. The Non-GAAP Measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the Indian alternative asset management industry and, therefore, may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies” on page 49.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of our financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires our management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, the accompanying disclosures and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods. Changes in estimates are reflected in our financial statements in the period in which changes are made and if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to our financial statements.

Material Accounting policies:

Key accounting policies of our Company and our Subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) that are relevant and specific to our business and operations are described below. Our significant accounting policies are described in the notes to the Restated Consolidated Financial Statements in “Restated Consolidated Financial Statements” on page 285.

The material accounting policies applied by the Group in the preparation of its Restated Consolidated Financial Statements are listed below. Such accounting policies have been applied consistently to all the periods presented in these restated financial statements, unless otherwise indicated.

Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements of the Group are presented in Indian Rupee (“INR” or “₹”), which is the functional currency of the Group and the presentation currency for the financial statements. In preparing the financial statements, transactions in currencies other than the group's functional currency are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction.

At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are re-translated at the rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period.

Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are re-translated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not translated.

Exchange differences arising on the re-translation or settlement of other monetary items are included in the statement of profit and loss for the period.

In the preparation of the financial statements, the Group makes judgements in the application of accounting policies; and estimates and assumptions which affects carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and future periods affected.

The Group uses the following critical accounting estimates and judgements in preparation of its financial statements:

Impairment of financial assets (other than subsequent measurement at fair value)

Measurement of impairment of financial assets require use of estimates and judgements, which have been explained in the note on financial instruments under impairment of financial assets.

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets

The Group reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets at the end of each reporting period. This reassessment may result in change in depreciation and amortization expense in future periods.

Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized when the Group has a present obligation, legal or constructive, as result of a past event and it is probable that the outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. All provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

The Group uses significant judgements to assess contingent liabilities. Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past event where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be utilized to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Contingent assets are neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.

Fair value measurements of financial instruments

When the fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be measured based on quoted prices in active markets, their fair value is measured using valuation techniques including Discounted Cash Flow Model. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, a degree of judgement is required in establishing fair values.

Judgements include considerations of inputs such as liquidity risks, credit risks and volatility. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the reported fair value of financial instruments.

Leases

The Group evaluates if an arrangement qualifies to be a lease as per the requirements of Ind AS 116 “Leases”. Identification of a lease requires significant judgement in assessing the lease term including anticipated renewals and the applicable discount rate. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses incremental borrowing rate. The Group determines whether an arrangement contains a lease by assessing whether the fulfilment of a transaction is dependent on the use of a specific asset and whether the transaction conveys the right to control the use of that asset to the Group in return for payment.

Retirement benefit obligations

The Group’s retirement benefit obligations are subject to a number of assumptions including discount rates, inflation, salary growth and mortality rate. Significant assumptions are required when setting these criteria and a change in these assumptions would have a significant impact on the amount recorded in the Group’s balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss. The Group sets these assumptions based on previous experience and third party actuarial advice. The assumptions are reviewed annually and adjusted following actuarial and experience changes.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost/deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Cost includes all direct costs and expenditures incurred to bring the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use.

Depreciation is provided so as to write off, on a Written Down Value basis, the cost / deemed cost of property, plant and equipment to their residual value. These charges are commenced from the dates the assets are available for their intended use and are spread over their estimated useful economic lives. The estimated useful lives of assets, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed regularly and revised when necessary.

The estimated useful lives for the main categories of property, plant and equipment are:

Name of Asset	Useful life in years
Furniture and fixtures	10
Office equipment	5
Vehicles	10
Leasehold improvements	10 or lease period, whichever is lower

Subsequent to initial recognition, property, plant and equipment with definite useful lives are reported at cost or deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are amortized on a straight line basis over the estimated useful economic life. The Group uses a rebuttable presumption that the useful life of an intangible asset will not exceed ten years from the date when the asset is available for use. If the persuasive evidence exists to the affect that useful life of an intangible asset exceeds ten years, the Group amortizes the intangible asset over the best estimate of its useful life. The amortization period and the amortization method are reviewed at least at each financial year end. If the expected useful life of the asset is significantly different from previous estimates, the amortization period is changed accordingly. If there has been a significant change in the expected pattern of economic benefits from the asset, the amortization method is changed to reflect the changed pattern. Such changes are accounted for in accordance with Ind AS 8 - Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors.

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets with definite useful lives are reported at cost or deemed cost applied on transition to Ind AS, less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses.

The Group as lessee

The Group accounts for each lease component within the contract as a lease separately from non-lease components of the contract and allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative stand-alone price of the lease component and the aggregate stand-alone price of the non-lease components. The Group recognizes right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term at the lease commencement date. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception comprises of the amount of initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date. Certain lease arrangements include options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. The right-of-use assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that such options would be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability.

The right-of-use assets are depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognized in the statement of profit and loss.

Lease liability is measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses incremental borrowing rate. The lease liability is subsequently remeasured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made and remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease.

Financial Instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets and liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value measured on initial recognition of financial asset or financial liability. The transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss are immediately recognized in the statement of profit and loss. Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Financial assets

Cash and bank balances

Cash and bank balances consist of:

Cash and cash equivalents

Which includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term deposits which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and have original maturities of less than three months. These balances with banks are unrestricted for withdrawal and usage.

Other balances with bank

Which also include balances and deposits with banks that are restricted for withdrawal and usage. Financial assets at amortized cost financial assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost if these financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets measured at fair value

Financial assets are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if such financial assets are held within a business model whose objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and to sell such financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. The Group in respect of certain equity investments which are not held for trading has made an irrevocable election to present in other comprehensive income subsequent changes in the fair value of such equity instruments. Such an election is made by the Group on an instrument by instrument basis at the time of initial recognition of such equity investments.

These investments are held for medium or long-term strategic purpose. The Group has chosen to designate these investments in equity instruments as fair value through other comprehensive income as the management believes this provides a more meaningful presentation for medium or long-term strategic investments, than reflecting changes in fair value immediately in the statement of profit and loss.

Financial assets not measured at amortized cost or at fair value through other comprehensive income are carried at fair value through profit and loss.

Expected credit losses on financial assets:

The impairment provisions of financial assets are based on assumptions about risk of default and expected timing of collection. The Group uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the expected credit loss calculation based on the Group's history of collections, customer's creditworthiness, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period.

De-recognition of financial assets

The Group de-recognizes a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the financial asset and substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity.

If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognizes its retained interest in the assets and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay.

If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognize the financial asset and also recognizes a borrowing for the proceeds received.

Financial Liabilities and Equity Instruments

Classification as debt or equity financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by the Group are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments: An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities: Trade and other payables are initially measured at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest rate method where the time value of money is significant. Interest bearing bank loans, overdrafts and issued debt are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the settlement or redemption of borrowings is recognized over the term of the borrowings in the statement of profit and loss.

De-recognition of financial liabilities

The Group de-recognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire.

Employee Benefits

Defined contribution plans

Contributions under defined contribution plans are recognized as expense for the period in which the employee has rendered service. Payments made to state managed retirement benefit schemes are dealt with as payments to defined contribution schemes where the Group's obligations under the schemes are equivalent to those arising in a defined contribution retirement benefit scheme.

Defined benefit plans

For defined benefit retirement schemes, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the Projected Unit Credit Method, with actuarial valuation being carried out at each year-end balance sheet date. Remeasurement gains and losses of the net defined benefit liability/(asset) are recognized immediately in other comprehensive income. The service cost and net interest on the net defined benefit liability/(asset) are recognized as an expense within employee costs. Past service cost is recognized as an expense when the plan amendment or curtailment occurs or when any related restructuring costs or termination benefits are recognized, whichever is earlier. The retirement benefit obligations recognized in the balance sheet represents the present value of the defined benefit obligations as reduced by the fair value of plan assets.

Compensated absences

Liabilities recognized in respect of other long-term employee benefits such as annual leave and sick leave are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflows expected to be made by our Company in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date using the projected unit credit method with actuarial valuation being carried out at each yearend balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited to the statement of profit and loss in the period in which they arise. Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service are recognized based on actuarial valuation.

Share Based Payments

Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via Gaja Employee Stock Option Scheme 2025 maintained by Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited. The fair value of options granted is recognized as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in other equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted. The total expense is recognised over the vesting year, which is the year over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each year, the entity revises its estimates of the number of awards that are expected to vest based on the non-market vesting and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the statement of profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to other equity.

Tax Expenses

Tax expense comprises of current tax and deferred tax. Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities, using the applicable tax rates. Deferred income tax reflects the current period timing differences between taxable income and accounting income and reversal of timing differences of earlier years. Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future income will be available except that deferred tax assets, in case there are unabsorbed depreciation or losses, are recognized if there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available to realize the same.

Deferred tax assets are reviewed as at each balance sheet date and written down or written-up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain (as the case may be) to be realized.

Advance taxes and provisions for current income taxes are presented in the balance sheet after off-setting advance tax paid and income tax provision arising in the same tax jurisdiction for relevant tax paying units and where the Group is able to and intends to settle the asset and liability on a net basis.

Minimum Alternative Tax ('MAT') under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961 is recognized as current tax in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The credit available under the Act in respect of MAT paid is recognized as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Group will pay normal income tax during the period for which the MAT credit can be carried forward for set-off against the normal tax liability. MAT credit recognized as an asset is reviewed at each balance sheet date and written down to the extent, the aforesaid convincing evidence no longer exists.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized.

Income from services:

Revenues from advisory services are recognized pro-rata over the period of the contract as and when services are rendered.

Income from investments:

Income on investments are recognized on accrual basis to the extent identifiable. The following specific recognition criteria is considered:

- (i) Income from investment in equity: recognized as and when the profit is distributed or the investment is disposed.
- (ii) Income from investment in partnership firm: Share of profit or loss in partnership firm is recognized on annual basis, based on statement of accounts from the partnership firms.
- (iii) Income from investment in unquoted funds: Is recognized based on statement of accounts received from the funds and any intermediary distributions are treated as an adjustment to the cost of investment.

Interest:

Interest income is recognized on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the applicable interest rate. Interest income is included under the head "other income" in the statement of profit and loss.

Dividend:

Dividend income is recognized when the Group's right to receive dividend is established by the reporting date.

Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting preference dividends and attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they are entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue, share split, and reverse share split (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

In the month of April 2025, the fund received a favorable order from the Hon’ble Supreme Court, and the disputed amount has also been realized. Accordingly, the fair value of the investment in fund as at March 31, 2025 considered as good and recoverable and accordingly accounted for. We draw your attention to Note 38(d) to the standalone financial statements which states that the Board of Directors and Shareholders in their Board Meeting and Extra-Ordinary General Meeting held on June 2, 2025 and June 5, 2025 respectively introduced Gaja ESOP Scheme 2025, authorizing the Board of Directors of the Company to create, offer and grant up to 15,87,462 options to eligible employees, convertible into equivalent number of equity shares of face value of ₹5 each fully paid up.	With effect from April 01, 2023, the Company should use the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which has the features of recording audit trail (edit log) throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. However, the Company has used the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which did not have such features. Hence, we were unable to comment on audit trail feature of the said software at the time of finalisation of our statutory audit for financial year ended March 31, 2025.
Fiscal 2024	-	With effect from April 01, 2023, the Company should use the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which has the features of recording audit trail (edit log) throughout the year for all relevant transactions recorded in the software. However, the Company has used the accounting software for maintaining its books of accounts which did not have such features. Hence, we were unable to comment on audit trail feature of the said software at the time of finalisation of our statutory audit for financial year ended March 31, 2024.

As a corrective measure to the above adverse remarks, our Company has now fully implemented an accounting software with an audit trail feature with effect from August 28, 2025. For Fiscal 2026, such facility has operated throughout the year for all the relevant transactions recorded in the software except for the period from April 01, 2025 to August 27, 2025 where feature was not enabled. However, our Company has effective control mechanism over monitoring of the data and access to such data through routine checks and internal compliances. Further, there is no instance of audit trail feature being tampered with in respect of the accounting software where such feature is enabled in the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024.

Also see, “Risk Factors—The auditor’s report to the standalone financial statements of our Company as of and for the Fiscals ended March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025 makes reference to certain matters of emphasis and the auditor’s report to the consolidated financial statements of our Company as of and for the Fiscals ended March 31, 2026, March 31, 2025 and March 31, 2024, make reference to an adverse remark. We cannot assure that our financial information for future periods will not contain such adverse remarks.” on page 26.

Phased implementation of Unified Payments Interface

SEBI has issued the UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of inter alia, equity shares. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, the UPI Mechanism has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by RIBs through Designated Intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. The SEBI in its circular no. This Offer will be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures prescribed under UPI Phase III, subject to any circulars, clarifications or notifications which may be issued by the SEBI.

The requirements of the UPI Streamlining Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalized. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalized under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints, the relevant SCSB as well as the post-Offer BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues were provided the facility to make applications using UPI. Our Company appointed Sponsor Banks to act as conduits between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/ or payment instructions of the UPI Bidders using the UPI.

Further, pursuant to SEBI Circular No: SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/45 dated April 5, 2022, all individual investors applying in public issues where the application amount is up to ₹500,000 were required to use UPI and were required to also provide their UPI ID in the Bid cum Application Form submitted with any of the entities mentioned herein below:

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The RBI and the concerned ministries/departments are responsible for granting approval for foreign investment.

The Government of India has from time to time made policy pronouncements on foreign direct investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (earlier known as the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion) (“DPIIT”), issued the FDI Policy, which, with effect from October 15, 2020 consolidated, subsumed and superseded all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect as of and prior to October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular. As of date, under the FDI Policy, up to 100% foreign investment under the automatic route is currently permitted for our Company.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that: (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI Policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI. For details of the aggregate limit for investments by NRIs and FPIs in our Company, see “Offer Procedure—Bids by Eligible NRIs” and “Offer Procedure—Bids by FPIs” on pages 412 and 413, respectively.

In accordance with existing regulations issued by the RBI, OCBs could not participate in this Offer.

Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country (“Restricted Investors”), will require prior approval of the Government, as prescribed in the FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. Subsequently, in accordance with Press Note No. 2 (2026 Series), dated March 15, 2026 issued by the DPIIT, the FDI Policy has been further amended to, inter alia, define the expression “beneficial owner” and to provide that prior approval of the Government of India shall be required only where citizen(s) and/or entity(ies) of a country sharing a land border with India hold, directly or indirectly, individually or cumulatively, more than 10% of the shares, capital or profits of the investor entity, or exercise control over such investor entity, or exercise ultimate effective control over the investee entity. The amendments under Press Note No. 2 (2026 Series) came into effect from May 2, 2026, i.e., the date of notification of the corresponding amendments to the FEMA (Non-debt Instruments) Rules. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government. Pursuant to the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2020, a multilateral bank or fund, of which India is a member, shall not be treated as an entity of a particular country nor shall any country be treated as the beneficial owner of the investments of such bank or fund in India.

Each Bidder was required to seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Offer. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder was required to intimate our Company and the Registrar to the Offer in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Bid/Offer Period.

Accordingly, the Equity Shares are being offered and sold only outside the United States in ‘offshore transactions’ as defined in and in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act and the applicable laws of the jurisdictions where such offers and sales are made.
