xxx

- a. The conditions / scenario's stated by the Resolution Applicant under the Resolution Plan qua the Proposal for MIHAN Warehouse under Part – B, Clause 1.2.2 (a) of the Resolution Plan, plays a vital role in the Implementation of the Resolution Plan.

SCENARIO'S MENTIONED UNDER THE RESOLUTION PLAN:

That this flexibility has been thoroughly evaluated and accepted by the members of the Committee of Creditors of the Corporate Debtor after conducting comprehensive commercial due diligence during its 27th and 37th Meeting held on 19.06.2024, 24.06.2024, and 01.08.2024 and 04.03.2025 respectively. That such provisions are designed to achieve the optimal outcome under the Resolution Plan, envisaging collective negotiations with the Landlords of various Warehouses leased to the Corporate Debtor, to secure access and facilitate the seamless restart of the operations of the Corporate Debtor at the desired intensity and value. 32. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the matter of Ebix Singapore Private Limited vs. Committee of Creditors of Educomp Solutions

IN THE NATIONAL COMPANY LAW TRIBUNAL

MUMBAI BENCH, COURT – III

I.A. 60/2024 IN C.P. NO. 96(IB)/MB/2022

Limited and Anr.; Civil Appeal No. 3224 of 2020 has observed that “once the Resolution Plan has been approved by the Committee of Creditors of the Corporate Debtor and has been submitted by the Resolution Professional before the Hon’ble Adjudicating Authority under Section 30 (6) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, such Resolution Plan attains finality and, consequently, cannot be withdrawn, revised, or modified by the Resolution Applicant.” The SRA shall be bound by the resolution plan submitted by it along with all explanations, clarifications, undertakings etc.

33. We refer to the judgment of K Sashidhar v. Indian Overseas Bank & Others (2019) 12 SCC 150, the Hon’ble Apex Court held that if the CoC had approved the Resolution Plan by requisite percent of voting share, then as per section 30(6) of the Code, it is imperative for the Resolution Professional to submit the same to the Adjudicating Authority (NCLT). On receipt of such a proposal, the Adjudicating Authority is required to satisfy itself that the Resolution Plan, as approved by CoC, meets the requirements specified in Section 30(2). The Hon’ble Apex Court further observed that the role of the NCLT is ‘no more and no less’. The Hon’ble Apex Court further held that the discretion of the Adjudicating Authority is circumscribed by Section 31 and is limited to scrutiny of the Resolution Plan “as approved” by the requisite percent of voting share of financial creditors. Even in that enquiry, the grounds on which the Adjudicating Authority can reject the Resolution Plan is in reference to matters specified in Section 30(2) when the Resolution Plan does not conform to the stated requirements.
34. It can be seen from the provisions of the Code as well as in a catena of judgements that the commercial wisdom of the CoC in approving a resolution plan is given paramount importance and the scope of this Tribunal is limited to the extent of provisions under section 31 of the Code.

IN THE NATIONAL COMPANY LAW TRIBUNAL

MUMBAI BENCH, COURT – III

I.A. 60/2024 IN C.P. NO. 96(IB)/MB/2022

35. In Committee of Creditors of Essar Steel India Limited through Authorised Signatory Vs. Satish Kumar Gupta & Ors (2020) 8 SCC 531, the Hon'ble Apex Court clearly laid down that the Adjudicating Authority would not have power to modify the Resolution Plan which the CoC in their commercial wisdom has approved.
36. In view of the law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court, the commercial wisdom of the COC is to be given paramount importance for approval / rejection of the resolution plan. As the Resolution Plan meets the requirements of the Code and the IBBI (CIRP) Regulations, 2016 the same needs to be approved.

ORDER

37. Based on the above discussions and the undertakings given by the SRA, the Resolution Plan is approved under Section 31(1) of the Code, with the following directions:
