Dear Sir,

Sub: Sale of Singapore Mercantile Exchange Pte. Ltd. (SMX) and Singapore Mercantile Exchange Clearing Corporation Pte. Ltd. (SMX CC).

Pursuant to the applicable Clauses of the Listing Agreement, we are pleased to inform you that Financial Technologies Singapore Pte. Ltd., (FTSPL), a wholly owned subsidiary of Financial Technologies (India) Ltd. (FTIL) announced today, the sale of 100% of its equity ownership in SMX (together with its wholly owned subsidiary SMX CC) to ICE Singapore Holdings Pte. Ltd., an entity owned by the Intercontinental Exchange Group, Inc. (NYSE: ICE) for US$150 million. The transaction was approved by the Board of Directors of FTSPL and FTIL today with signing of definitive agreements, and is subject to certain customary closing conditions and approvals.

FTIL will primarily utilize the amount towards repayment of outstanding debt towards External Commercial Borrowings (ECB) and Foreign Currency Loan (FCL) to Banks subject to regulatory approvals, if any, pursuant to which FTIL will become debt/lien-free.

Kindly take the above information on record and acknowledge receipt for the same.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
For Financial Technologies (India) Limited
