STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 102(1) OF THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013 READ WITH RULE 22 OF THE COMPANIES (MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION) RULES, 2014 AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AS REQUIRED UNDER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE BOARD OF INDIA (LISTING OBLIGATIONS AND DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS) REGULATIONS, 2015 AND CIRCULARS ISSUED THEREUNDER:

As required by Section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") the following Explanatory Statement sets out all material facts relating to the business mentioned under Items No. 1 to 11 of the accompanying Postal Ballot Notice dated November 04, 2026:

Item No. 1 & 2

The Company values employees who are committed to building a successful organization and in order to incentivize, induce, reward and motivate the employees to contribute effectively towards the future growth and profitability of the Company. The board of Directors ("Board") and Members had adopted "Gaja Employee Stock Option Scheme 2025" ("ESOP 2025" / "Scheme") in their meeting held on June 2, 2025 and June 5, 2025 respectively in terms of the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") and provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits and Sweat Equity) Regulations, 2021 ("SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations), prior to the listing of the Equity Shares of the Company through Initial Public Offering ("IPO") on BSE Limited ("BSE") and National Stock Exchange of India Limited ("NSE") (collectively "Stock Exchanges").

In terms of Regulation 12(1) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits and Sweat Equity) Regulations, 2021 , as amended from time to time ("SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations."), no company shall make any fresh grant of employee stock options which involves allotment or transfer of shares to its employees under any schemes/ plans formulated prior to its IPO and prior to the listing of its Equity Shares ("Pre-IPO Scheme/Plan") unless such Pre-IPO Scheme/ Plan (i) is in conformity with the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations.; and (ii) is ratified by its Shareholders subsequent to the IPO. Further, as per proviso to Regulation 12(1) of the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations., the ratification under clause (ii) may be done any time prior to grant of new options or shares under such pre-IPO scheme/ plan.

The Company got listed in the National Stock Exchange (NSE) and Bombay Stock Exchange Limited (BSE) on August 26, 2026, pursuant to which the ESOP 2025 is sought to be ratified in line with SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations, 2021.

Further, in terms of Regulation 6(3)(c) of the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations, approval of the Members by way of a separate resolution is required for grant of options to the employees of a subsidiary company. Since the Scheme extends to the employees of the subsidiary companies of the Company, approval of the Members is sought for the same by way of a separate special resolution at Item No. 2.

The Board at its meeting held on November 4, 2026, based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") and subject to approval of the Members of the Company, have consented the proposal for ratification of the Scheme.

Accordingly, approval from the Members of the Company is being sought.

Capitalized terms used but not defined in the table below, shall have the meaning assigned to them under the Scheme or under the Act, Regulation governing /applicable to the Company.

The disclosures as required under the applicable laws are as follows:

Sr. No.	Particulars	Details
1.	Brief Description of the Scheme	The Scheme provides for grant of employee stock options ("Options") to the Employees (as defined in Sr. No. 3 below), as may be permissible under the Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations. After vesting of options, the option grantee earn a right (but not obligation) to exercise the vested Options within the exercise period and obtain equity shares of the Company subject to payment of exercise price and satisfaction of any tax obligation arising thereon. The employees may create wealth depending on prevailing market price of Shares as on the date of sale. The Scheme shall be administered by the Board, which may delegate some or all of its functions to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. All questions of interpretation of the Scheme shall be determined by the Board and such determination shall be final and binding upon all persons having an interest in the Scheme.
2.	The total number of Options, SARS, Shares or Benefits, as the case may be, to be offered and granted	The maximum number of ESOPs to be granted under the Scheme shall not exceed 15,87,462 (Fifteen Lakhs Eighty-Seven Thousand Four Hundred and Sixty-Two Only) Options, which if exercised would be converted into fully paid-up 15,87,462 Equity Shares of the Company with a face value of Rs. 5/- (Rupees Five) each, representing approximately 1.13% of the paid-up equity share capital (post- Listing) of the Company. Options lapsed or cancelled due to any reason including the reason of lapse of exercise period or due to resignation of the employees or otherwise, would be available for being re-granted. The Board is authorized to re-grant such lapsed / cancelled Options as per the Scheme. Prior to the listing of its equity shares on the Stock Exchanges, the Company had granted 16,30,200 Options under the Scheme (including re-grant of Options which had lapsed), out of which 69,500 Options have lapsed on resignation of the Option grantees. As on date, 15,60,700 Options are outstanding and 26,762 Options are available for grant under the Scheme. No Options have been granted under the Scheme after the listing of the equity shares of the Company.
3.	Identification of classes of employees entitled to participate and be beneficiaries in the scheme	"Employee" means (i) an employee as designated by the Company, who is exclusively working in India or outside India; or (ii) a Director of the Company, whether a whole-time Director or not, including a non-executive Director who is not a promotor or member of the promoter group, but excluding an Independent Director; or (iii) an employee as defined in sub-clause (i) or (ii) above, of a Group Company including a Subsidiary Company, in India or outside India; but does not include: a) an employee who is a promotor or a person belonging to the promoter Group; or b) a director who, either himself or through his relative or through any body-corporate, directly or indirectly, holds more than 10% of the outstanding equity shares of the Company.

4.	Requirements of vesting and period of vesting	Any Option granted under the Scheme shall vest not earlier than minimum vesting period of 1 (one) year and not later than the maximum vesting period of 10 (ten) years from the date of grant as may be determined by the Board. The vesting dates and relative percentages in respect of Options granted under the Scheme shall be determined by the Board and may vary from employee to employee or any class thereof. Vesting of Option would be subject to continued employment with the Company or its Subsidiary Company, as the case may be. In addition to this, the Board may also specify certain performance criteria subject to satisfaction of which the Options would Vest. An option grantee who has tendered his/her resignation and is serving the notice period after resignation, such notice period shall not be considered for vesting and all the unvested Options as on date of resignation shall be cancelled forthwith. In the event of death or permanent incapacity of an Employee, the minimum vesting period shall not be applicable and in such instances, all the unvested Options shall vest with effect from date of the death or permanent incapacity as required under the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations.
5.	The maximum period within which the options shall be vested	The Options granted shall vest in not more than 10 (Ten) years from the date of grant of such Options.
6.	Exercise price, purchase price or pricing formula	The Exercise Price per Option shall be determined by the Board, which shall be equal to or less than the Fair Market Value of the Shares as on the date of Grant, provided that the Exercise Price shall not be less than the face value of the Shares. Post Listing, "Fair Market Value" means the "Market Price" within the meaning of the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations., i.e. the latest available closing price on the recognised Stock Exchange on which the Shares are listed, on the date immediately prior to the Grant Date; where the Shares are listed on more than one

		Stock Exchange, the Stock Exchange with the highest trading volume on that date shall be considered.
7.	The exercise period and the process of exercise	The exercise period in respect of a vested Option shall be subject to a maximum period of 3 (three) years commencing from the date of each Vesting. The vested Options can be exercised by the option grantee by making an application in writing to the Company, or by any other means as decided by the Board, subject to payment of the exercise price and applicable taxes. The Option will lapse if not exercised within the specified exercise period.
8.	The specified time period within which the employee shall exercise the vested Options in the event of a proposed termination of employment or resignation or retirement of employee	In case of resignation / termination without misconduct, all vested Options can be exercised by the employee within 60 (Sixty) days from the date of such resignation / termination. In case of retirement of an employee, all vested Options as on the date of retirement can be exercised by the Option grantee within 6 (Six) months from the date of retirement.
9.	The conditions under which Options vested in employees may lapse	The vested Options shall lapse in case of termination of employment due to misconduct or due to breach of Company policies or the terms of employment. Further, irrespective of employment status, in case vested Options are not exercised within the prescribed exercise period, then such vested Options shall lapse.
10.	The appraisal process for determining the eligibility of employees for the scheme	The Options shall be granted to the employees as per eligibility criteria determined by the Board as it deems fit, from time to time, which may include designation period of service, performance linked parameters such as work performance and such other criteria as may be determined by the Board at its sole discretion, from time to time.
11.	Maximum number of options, shares, to be offered and issued per employee and in aggregate, if any	The maximum number of Options under the Scheme that may be granted to an Employee in any year and in aggregate shall not exceed 11,65,000 (Eleven Lakhs Sixty-Five Thousand only) Options at the time of grant of Option under the Scheme. Provided that if the number of Options that may be granted to an eligible Employee, during any one year, shall be equal to or more than 1% (one percent) of the issued capital (excluding any outstanding warrants and conversions) of the Company at the time of grant of Options, then the Company shall take prior approval from shareholders of the Company by way of a separate resolution.
12.	Maximum quantum of benefits to be provided per employee under a scheme	There is no contemplation of benefit other than grant of Options and any benefit arising out of Options shall be subject to ceiling specified in Sr. No. 11 above.

13.	Whether the Scheme is to be implemented and administered directly by the Company or through a trust	The Scheme shall be implemented and administered directly by the Company.
14.	Whether the Scheme involves new issue of shares by the Company or secondary acquisition by the trust or both	Fresh issue of Equity Shares by the Company
15.	The amount of loan to be provided for implementation of the Scheme by the Company to the trust, its tenure, utilisation, Repayment terms, etc.	Not Applicable
16.	Maximum percentage of secondary acquisition that can be made by the Trust for the purposes of the Scheme	Not Applicable
17.	A statement to the effect that the company shall conform to the accounting policies specified in regulation 15 of the SEBI (Share Based Employee Benefits and Sweat Equity) Regulations, 2021	The Company shall comply with the disclosure and the accounting policies prescribed as per prevailing accounting guidelines and upon listing of shares of the Company, the Company shall comply with the accounting policies and disclosure requirements as prescribed under Regulation 15 of the SEBI (SBEB & SE) Regulations.
18.	The method which the Company shall use to value its options	To calculate the employee compensation cost, the Company shall use the fair value method for valuation of the Options granted as per prescribed under Ind-AS 102 or under any relevant accounting standard as notified by appropriate authorities from time to time.
19.	Lock-in period, if any	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee/ Compensation Committee may specify Lock-in Period, if any, as it deems appropriate and shall specify the same in Letter of Grant while granting Options in respect of the Shares, which may be issued and allotted on Exercise of such Options Granted pursuant to this Scheme.
20. Also, Members seeking to inspect the same can send an email to compliance@gajacapital.com. The Scheme is also available at the website of the Company at www.gajacapital.com.

None of the Directors or Key Managerial Personnel (as defined under the Act) or Senior Managerial Personnel and their immediate relatives are concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, except to the extent that the employee stock options that are or may be granted to any of them pursuant to the Scheme.

The Board therefore recommends the resolutions set out at Item Nos. 1 and 2 of this Notice for approval of the Members as Special Resolutions.

Item No. 3

As per Section 186 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act'), the Company can give loans, advances, guarantees or provide any security in connection with the loan: up to 60% of its paid-up share capital, free reserves and security premium account; or 100% of its free reserves and securities premium account, whichever is more. Under the provisions of Section 186 of the Companies Act, 2013 the power to make loan(s) and/or give guarantees or provide security (ies) in connection with loan(s) made and to make investments in shares, debentures and/or any other securities of any other body corporate, in excess of the limits prescribed, can be exercised by the Board of Directors only with the consent of the shareholders obtained by means of a Special Resolution.

Although the current loans and investments of the Company are well within the limits specified under the Act, the Board considers it expedient, keeping in view the current and future plans of the Company and its subsidiaries, to enhance the limit under Section 186 of the Act to an overall limit of Rs. 1,000 Crores (Rupees One Thousand Crores Only) outstanding at any point of time, with the approval of the Members, to provide greater financial flexibility and enable optimal financial structuring.

The said limit shall include the capital contributions and investments towards sponsor commitment proposed to be made by the Company in the related parties referred to in Item Nos. 4 to 9 of this Notice, to the extent they constitute loans or investments under Section 186 of the Act.

The Board of Directors is of the opinion that the proposed resolution is in the best interests of the Company and recommends the Special Resolution set out at Item No. 3 of the accompanying Notice for approval of the Members.

None of the Directors, Key Managerial Personnel of the Company or their respective relatives is concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the proposed resolution, except to the extent of their shareholding, if any, in the Company.

Item No. 4:

Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited ("GAAML" or "the Company") is an alternative asset manager, engaged in sponsoring, managing and advising alternative investment funds and providing investment management services to funds. The Company acts as the Investment Manager and Sponsor of Gaja Capital India Fund 2021 – Domestic Feeder Fund ("the Fund"), a SEBI-registered Category II Alternative Investment Fund. Gaja Trustee Company Private Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, is the Trustee of the Fund. The Company also holds a direct economic interest in the Fund through its capital commitment.
Given the nature of its business operations, the Company is required to undertake various transactions with its subsidiaries and other related parties in the ordinary course of business. These transactions may, inter alia, include provision and availing of advisory, management and other support services, funding arrangements, loans and advances, investments, capital contributions, reimbursement and recovery of expenses, sharing of common resources and other business-related arrangements. Such transactions are undertaken in connection with the Company's business operations and those of its subsidiaries and group entities, including entities forming part of its investment management and advisory ecosystem. The nature, terms and value of these transactions are dependent on the business requirements and operational needs of the respective entities and are proposed to be undertaken on an arm's length basis and in the ordinary course of business, wherever applicable.

STATUTORY BACKGROUND

In accordance with Regulation 2(1)(zc) of the Listing Regulations, a Related Party Transaction ("RPT") includes any transaction involving the transfer of resources, services, or obligations between a listed entity or any of its subsidiaries, on one hand, and a related party of the listed entity or any of its subsidiaries, on the other hand, regardless of whether a consideration is charged. The term "transaction" shall be construed to include a single transaction or a group of transactions forming part of a contract or arrangement.

Further, in terms of Regulation 23 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"), as amended, all material related party transactions require prior approval of the shareholders through ordinary resolutions, even if such transactions are undertaken in the ordinary course of business and are at arm's length. A transaction shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds scale-based threshold basis as prescribed in Schedule XII of the Listing regulation. As per Schedule XII, where the annual consolidated turnover of the listed entity is up to Rs.20,000 crore, a transaction with a related party is considered material, if the value of the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into, either individually or taken together with previous transaction(s) during a financial year, whether directly or indirectly with a related party, exceed(s) 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the listed entity, as per the last audited financial statements of the listed entity. Based on the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for FY 2025-26, the annual consolidated turnover of the Company is Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold for the Company for seeking shareholders' approval for related party transactions is Rs. 13.55 crore.

Considering the nature, volume and frequency of the proposed transactions, the aggregate value of such transaction(s), whether undertaken individually or collectively or in tranches, is expected to exceed the materiality thresholds prescribed under Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations and the Company's Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and on dealing with Related Party Transactions. The proposed transactions with Gaja Capital India Fund 2021 of Rs. 103.60 crore represent 76.44% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The approval of the members pursuant to resolution no. 4 is being sought for the related party transactions / contracts / agreements / arrangements set out in Table A.

Also SEBI vide its circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/CFD-PoD-2/P/CIR/2025/93 dated June 26, 2025, has introduced the Industry Standards on "Minimum information to be provided for review of the audit committee and shareholders for approval of a related party transaction" ('Standards') to facilitate uniform approach and assist listed companies in complying with the provisions of Regulation 23 of the SEBI Listing Regulations read with the SEBI Master Circular No. HO/49/14/14(7)2025-CFD-POD2/I/3762/2026 dated January 30, 2026 ('SEBI Master Circular'). The Standards inter alia requires listed entities to provide minimum information, in specified format, relating to the proposed RPTs, to the Members while seeking approval.

Details of the proposed RPTs between the Company and Gaja Capital India Fund 2021, including the minimum information required to be disclosed in the Explanatory Statement pursuant to the SEBI Master Circular dated January 30, 2026 and the Industry Standards, are as follows:

The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that, in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, all related parties (whether or not they are a party to the aforesaid transactions) shall abstain from voting on the relevant Resolution under Item No. 4.

None of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 4 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review, the Audit Committee has approved and noted that the proposed transactions between the Company and the related party are in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are at arm's length.

The Board of Directors has also approved and recommends the resolution at Item No. 4 for the approval of the Members of the Company as an Ordinary Resolution.

Item No. 5:

In furtherance of its business activities, the Company has entered into / will enter into transactions / contract(s) / agreement(s) / arrangement(s) with related parties in terms of Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"). All related party transactions of the Company are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Company enters into transactions with Gaja India AIF 2021 LLP (formerly Gaja India AIF 2021 LLP (earlier known as Gaja Capital India Fund 2020 LLP)) ("Master Fund"), a SEBI-registered Category II Alternative Investment Fund constituted as a limited liability partnership. The Company is the Investment Manager and Sponsor of the Master Fund and also has a direct economic interest in it through its capital commitment.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions of Rs. 40 crore represent 29.51% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Further, all related party transactions of the Company are undertaken after obtaining prior approval of the Audit Committee. All related party transactions as set out in this Notice have been unanimously approved by the Audit Committee after satisfying itself that the related party transactions are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee of the Company reviews periodically the details of all related party transactions entered pursuant to its approvals.

The value of transactions for the period from April 01, 2026 till the date of this Notice has not exceeded the materiality threshold. However, the value of the proposed transactions during the financial year 2026-27, taken together with the transactions already undertaken, is likely to exceed the materiality threshold and, accordingly, the proposed transactions constitute material related party transactions requiring prior approval of the Members.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The approval of the members pursuant to resolution no. 5 is being sought for the related party transactions / contracts / agreements / arrangements set out in Table B.

Details of the proposed RPTs between the Company and Gaja India AIF 2021 LLP (earlier known as Gaja India AIF 2021 LLP (earlier known as Gaja Capital India Fund 2020 LLP)), including the information required to be disclosed in the Explanatory Statement pursuant to the SEBI Master Circular dated January 30, 2026 and the Industry Standards, are as follows:

The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the related parties as defined thereunder (whether such related party(ies) are a party to the aforesaid transactions or not), shall not vote to approve Resolution under Item No. 5.

None of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 5 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review and approval of the Independent Directors on the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors recommends the Ordinary Resolution contained in Item No. 5 of the accompanying Notice to the Members for approval.

Item No. 6:

In furtherance of its business activities, the Company has entered into / will enter into transactions / contract(s) / agreement(s) / arrangement(s) with related parties in terms of Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"). All related party transactions of the Company are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Company enters into transactions with Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius is subsidiary of Gaja Advisors Limited, Cayman which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions of Rs. 33.50 crore represent 24.72% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius (GAL Mauritius) is a Mauritius-incorporated company providing investment advisory services (restricted). The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the related parties as defined thereunder (whether such related party(ies) are a party to the aforesaid transactions or not), shall not vote to approve Resolution under Item No. 6.

None of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 6 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review and approval of the Independent Directors on the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors recommends the Ordinary Resolution contained in Item No. 6 of the accompanying Notice to the Members for approval.

Item No. 7:

In furtherance of its business activities, the Company has entered into / will enter into transactions / contract(s) / agreement(s) / arrangement(s) with related parties in terms of Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"). All related party transactions of the Company are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Company enters into transactions with Gaja Investments, a partnership firm in which the Company holds 99% share as a partner and Mr. Gopal Jain, Managing Director & CEO of the Company, holds 1%.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions of Rs. 30 crore represent 22.14% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Gaja Investments is a partnership firm engaged in trading and investment activities.

Further, all related party transactions of the Company are undertaken after obtaining prior approval of the Audit Committee. All related party transactions as set out in this Notice have been unanimously approved by the Audit Committee after satisfying itself that the related party transactions are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee of the Company reviews periodically the details of all related party transactions entered pursuant to its approvals.

The value of transactions for the period from April 01, 2026 till the date of this Notice has not exceeded the materiality threshold. However, the value of the proposed transactions during the financial year 2026-27, taken together with the transactions already undertaken, is likely to exceed the materiality threshold and, accordingly, the proposed transactions constitute material related party transactions requiring prior approval of the Members.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The approval of the members pursuant to resolution no. 7 is being sought for the related party transactions / contracts / agreements / arrangements set out in Table D.

Details of the proposed RPTs between the Company and Gaja Investments, including the information required to be disclosed in the Explanatory Statement pursuant to the SEBI Master Circular dated January 30, 2026 and the Industry Standards, are as follows:

The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the related parties as defined thereunder (whether such related party(ies) are a party to the aforesaid transactions or not), shall not vote to approve Resolution under Item No. 7.

Mr. Gopal Jain, Managing Director & CEO of the Company, is a partner in Gaja Investments holding 1% share in its capital and profits, and may be deemed to be concerned or interested in the Resolution at Item No. 7 to that extent. Except as mentioned above, none of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 7 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review and approval of the Independent Directors on the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors recommends the Ordinary Resolution contained in Item No. 7 of the accompanying Notice to the Members for approval.

Item No. 8:

In furtherance of its business activities, the Company has entered into / will enter into transactions / contract(s) / agreement(s) / arrangement(s) with related parties in terms of Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"). All related party transactions of the Company are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Company enters into transactions with Eastgate Secondaries Advisor LLP, a subsidiary of the Company in which the Company holds a 99.99% partnership interest, the remaining 0.01% being held by Gaja Corporate Advisors Private Limited.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions of Rs. 15 crore represent 11.07% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Eastgate Secondaries Advisor LLP, Limited liability partnership established under the Limited Liability Partnership Act. Its stated activities relate to alternative investment fund advisory/management. The FY 2025–26 special purpose financial statements report nil revenue from operations; these statements were prepared for GAAML consolidation purposes.
Further, all related party transactions of the Company are undertaken after obtaining prior approval of the Audit Committee. All related party transactions as set out in this Notice have been unanimously approved by the Audit Committee after satisfying itself that the related party transactions are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee of the Company reviews periodically the details of all related party transactions entered pursuant to its approvals.

The value of transactions for the period from April 01, 2026 till the date of this Notice has not exceeded the materiality threshold. However, the value of the proposed transactions during the financial year 2026-27, taken together with the transactions already undertaken, is likely to exceed the materiality threshold and, accordingly, the proposed transactions constitute material related party transactions requiring prior approval of the Members.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The approval of the members pursuant to resolution no. 8 is being sought for the related party transactions / contracts / agreements / arrangements set out in Table E.

The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the related parties as defined thereunder (whether such related party(ies) are a party to the aforesaid transactions or not), shall not vote to approve Resolution under Item No. 8.

None of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 8 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review and approval of the Independent Directors on the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors recommends the Ordinary Resolution contained in Item No. 8 of the accompanying Notice to the Members for approval.

Item No. 9:

In furtherance of its business activities, the Company has entered into / will enter into transactions / contract(s) / agreement(s) / arrangement(s) with related parties in terms of Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations"). All related party transactions of the Company are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Company enters into transactions with Gaja Capital India Fund V, GAAML is the settlor of Gaja Capital India Fund V Trust and is identified as its Investment Manager in the registered Indenture of Trust dated 16 June 2025. Gaja Trustee Company Private Limited is the trustee. The Trust Deed provides for appointment of the Investment Manager under a separate Investment Management Agreement.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions of Rs. 135 crore represent 99.61% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Gaja Capital India Fund V, Gaja Capital India Fund V is registered with SEBI as a Category II Alternative Investment Fund (registration no. IN/AIF2/26-27/2316, dated 8 September 2026). Gaja Capital India Fund V – Scheme I is the first scheme; its Private Placement Memorandum (PPM) was filed with SEBI, as acknowledged in SEBI's letter dated 8 September 2026. The Fund has not undertaken its first closing as of the disclosure date. Further, all related party transactions of the Company are undertaken after obtaining prior approval of the Audit Committee. All related party transactions as set out in this Notice have been unanimously approved by the Audit Committee after satisfying itself that the related party transactions are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee of the Company reviews periodically the details of all related party transactions entered pursuant to its approvals.

The value of transactions for the period from April 01, 2026 till the date of this Notice has not exceeded the materiality threshold. However, the value of the proposed transactions during the financial year 2026-27, taken together with the transactions already undertaken, is likely to exceed the materiality threshold and, accordingly, the proposed transactions constitute material related party transactions requiring prior approval of the Members.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the related parties as defined thereunder (whether such related party(ies) are a party to the aforesaid transactions or not), shall not vote to approve Resolution under Item No. 9.

None of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 9 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review and approval of the Independent Directors on the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors recommends the Ordinary Resolution contained in Item No. 9 of the accompanying Notice to the Members for approval.

Item No. 10:

Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius - Investment Manager/Advisor
Gaja Capital Fund II Limited - Public Limited Company

Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius ("GAL Mauritius") is a step-down subsidiary of the Company, being a subsidiary of Gaja Advisors Limited, Cayman, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Gaja Capital Fund II Limited ("GCF II") is a fund for which GAL Mauritius acts as Investment Manager / Advisor, and GAL Mauritius receives advisory fees for its services. The Company is not a party to the proposed transactions. However, since the transactions are between a subsidiary of the Company and its related party, they constitute related party transactions of the Company under Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Listing Regulations and require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company under Regulation 23(2) of the Listing Regulations. The transactions help smoothen the business operations of both entities and ensure a consistent flow of services of the desired quality.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions between Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius and Gaja Capital Fund II Limited of Rs. 40 crore represent 29.51% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Further, all related party transactions of the Company are undertaken after obtaining prior approval of the Audit Committee. All related party transactions as set out in this Notice have been unanimously approved by the Audit Committee after satisfying itself that the related party transactions are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee of the Company reviews periodically the details of all related party transactions entered pursuant to its approvals.

The value of transactions between Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius and Gaja Capital Fund II Limited for the period from April 01, 2026 till the date of this Notice has not exceeded the materiality threshold. However, the value of the proposed transactions during the financial year 2026-27, taken together with the transactions already undertaken, is likely to exceed the materiality threshold and, accordingly, the proposed transactions constitute material related party transactions requiring prior approval of the Members.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The approval of the members pursuant to resolution no. 10 is being sought for the related party transactions / contracts / agreements / arrangements set out in Table G.

Details of the proposed RPTs between Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius and Gaja Capital Fund II Limited, including the information required to be disclosed in the Explanatory Statement pursuant to the SEBI Master Circular dated January 30, 2026 and the Industry Standards, are as follows:

The said transaction, being a material RPT, requires prior approval of the Members of the Company in accordance with Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Members may note that in terms of the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the related parties as defined thereunder (whether such related party(ies) are a party to the aforesaid transactions or not), shall not vote to approve Resolution under Item No. 10.

None of the Directors and KMPs of the Company and/or their respective relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise in the Resolution set out at Item No. 10 of the accompanying Notice.

Based on the review and approval of the Independent Directors on the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors recommends the Ordinary Resolution contained in Item No. 10 of the accompanying Notice to the Members for approval.

Item No. 11:

Eastgate Secondaries Limited is a subsidiary of Gaja Advisors Limited Mauritius (a step down subsidiary of the Listed Company)

Eastgate Secondaries Limited ("ESL") is a subsidiary of Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius ("GAL Mauritius"), which holds 66% in ESL. GAL Mauritius is a subsidiary of Gaja Advisors Limited, Cayman, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. ESL and GAL Mauritius are therefore step-down subsidiaries of the Company. ESL proposes to avail a loan / advance of up to Rs. 50 crore from GAL Mauritius for fund set-up and pre-business commencement expenditure. The Company is not a party to the proposed transaction. However, since it is a transaction between subsidiaries of the Company, it constitutes a related party transaction of the Company under Regulation 2(1)(zc)(i) of the Listing Regulations and requires prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company under Regulation 23(2) of the Listing Regulations. All related party transactions of the Company and its subsidiaries are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business.

In terms of Regulation 23(1) read with Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations, a transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) entered into / to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed 10% of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per its last audited financial statements, and shall require prior approval of the Members by way of an ordinary resolution, even if the transactions are in the ordinary course of business and on an arm's length basis. The annual consolidated turnover of the Company for FY 2025-26 was Rs. 135.53 crore and, accordingly, the materiality threshold is Rs. 13.55 crore. The proposed transactions between Eastgate Secondaries Limited and Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius of Rs. 50 crore represent 36.89% of the annual consolidated turnover and therefore exceed the materiality threshold.

Further, all related party transactions of the Company are undertaken after obtaining prior approval of the Audit Committee. All related party transactions as set out in this Notice have been unanimously approved by the Audit Committee after satisfying itself that the related party transactions are at arm's length and in the ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee of the Company reviews periodically the details of all related party transactions entered pursuant to its approvals.

The value of transactions between Eastgate Secondaries Limited and Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius for the period from April 01, 2026 till the date of this Notice has not exceeded the materiality threshold. However, the value of the proposed transactions during the financial year 2026-27, taken together with the transactions already undertaken, is likely to exceed the materiality threshold and, accordingly, the proposed transactions constitute material related party transactions requiring prior approval of the Members.

The Audit Committee of the Company has, on the basis of relevant details provided by the management as required by the law, at its meeting held on November 03, 2026, reviewed and approved the said transaction(s), subject to approval of the Members, while noting that such transaction shall be on arms' length basis and in the ordinary course of business of the Company and are in accordance with Related Party Transactions Policy of the Company. The approval of the members pursuant to resolution no.11 is being sought for the related party transactions / contracts / agreements / arrangements set out in Table H.

Details of the proposed RPTs between Eastgate Secondaries Limited and Gaja Advisors Limited, Mauritius, including the information required to be disclosed in the Explanatory Statement pursuant to the SEBI Master Circular dated January 30, 2026 and the Industry Standards, are as follows:
