Thus, humbly request you to kindly Endeavour to follow the said time lines for the benefit of the investors community. Therefore, it is most appropriate to earnestly request you to kindly analyze the position of your Company vis-a-vis above mentioned world class norms being practiced by RIL. I also earnestly endeavour to suggest you to kindly strive for the adoption of such a world class standard.

3. With reference your letter No. SFSPL/IGR/GEL/TM-IEPF/2021/131 dated the 13th August, 2020 I submit as under: -
4. In respect of change of name, I have already forwarded the following papers/documents vide my letter dated the 15th April, 2021 to prove change of name; -
 - (i) The copies of publication in two newspapers.
 - (ii) Affidavit.
 - (ii) The said investment has been made in the name of Mrs Shashi Sood during era of pre 2000. During those days' strict compliance to KYC based on documentary evidences like voter card etc. was not invariably insisted upon for the opening of Bank accounts, investment in Mutual Funds or investment in equity of listed Companies. Thus this investment has been taken place in the absence of any documentary evidences. Therefore, no documentary evidence in the name of Mrs Shashi Prabha is available.
 - (iii) In the absence of valid KYC documents in the name of Mrs. Shashi Sood, the publication in E-Gazette is not possible.
 - (iv) The word Prabha has been inadvertently omitted while writing the name in application for the allotment of equity share of your Company. Thus Shashi Prabha Sood has been spelled as Shashi Sood in application for the allotment of equity share of your Company.
 - (v) In view of the aforesaid convincing ground realities and perusal of documents mentioned above, you are humbly requested to kindly waive the stipulation of publication in E-Gazette in respect of name change.
