RBI slams banks for failing to comply with instructions

ABHIJIT LELE
Mumbai, 14 June

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Tuesday came down heavily on banks for failing to strictly comply with prudential norms for financing infrastructure and housing projects of government-owned entities.

It asked banks to follow the regulator's instructions on aspects like assessing commercial viability, revenue streams, and the end use of funds in "letter and spirit".

The RBI said it had come across instances where banks had not been strictly complying with instructions on assessing commercial viability and ascertaining revenue streams for debt-service obligations. It also flagged the lack of adherence to rules about monitoring the end use of funds given to infrastructure/housing projects of government-owned entities.

Banks and financial institutions have been found to violate instructions that require that in the case of projects undertaken by government-owned entities, term loans should be sanctioned only for corporate bodies.

Due diligence should be carried out on the viability and bankability of the projects to ensure that the revenue stream is sufficient to take care of debt-service obligations. The repayment/servicing of debt should not be from budgetary resources, the RBI said.

Banks are advised to carry out a review and place before their boards a comprehensive report on the status of compliance with the instructions within three months, the RBI added.

Venu Srinivasan, Anand Mahindra, two others inducted in RBI board

The government has nominated Mahindra & Mahindra group Chairman Anand Mahindra, TVS Motor Chairperson Venu Srinivasan, Zydus Lifesciences' Chairman Pankaj Patel, and Ravindra Dholakia, a former professor of Indian Institute of Ahmedabad, as part-time non-official directors on the central board of Reserve Bank of India (RBI).

Dholakia was earlier a member of the six-member monetary policy committee (MPC) of RBI, which sets the interest rate. The appointments are for four years and start Tuesday. RBI board members do not engage themselves in monetary policy matters, but provide a broader vision for the central bank.

"The central government has nominated Anand Gopal Mahindra, Venu Srinivasan, Shri Pankaj Ramanbhai Patel and Ravindra H. Dholakia as part-time non-official Directors on the Central Board of RBI, for a period of four years with effect from June 14, 2022 or until further orders, whichever is earlier," RBI said.

The RBI central board has 11 members, excluding Tuesday's appointments. Tata Sons chairman Natarajan Chandrasekaran is among members whose term ended recently.

Banerjee to host Oppn meet to discuss Presidential polls

ADITI PHADNIS
New Delhi, 14 June

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee will host an Opposition conclave to discuss strategy for the upcoming Presidential elections and other issues - where the Congress will be only a bit player - at 3 pm on Wednesday.

President Ram Nath Kovind's tenure ends on July 24. Elections will be held on July 18 for the next President and counting, if required, on July 21.

The conclave will be attended by Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge, Jairam Ramesh, and Randeep Singh Surjewala, as well as Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) chief Sharad Pawar, who has told his party he is not in the running for the President.

Interestingly, the information that Pawar has refused to be the joint Opposition candidate was conveyed to the public by CPI(M) General Secretary Sitaram Yechury. Pawar met Yechury, CPI general secretary D Raja, and NCP leaders Praful Patel and P C Chacko in Delhi and conveyed to them his decision to not contest the election. "I have been informed that Pawar will not be the Opposition face for the presidential polls, other names are under consideration," said Yechury.

The West Bengal chief minister has invited 22 leaders, including her Delhi counterpart Arvind Kejriwal, Pinarayi Vijayan of Kerala, Naveen Patnaik from Odisha, Telangana's K Chandrashekar Rao, MK Stalin from Tamil

Nadu, Maharashtra's Uddhav Thackeray, Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren, Bhagwant Mann from Punjab, and Congress interim chief Sonia Gandhi. That the CPI (M) chief minister of Kerala is on the list of invitees is significant as Banerjee's rise in West Bengal has been at the cost of the Left party. Many of these leaders are heads of parties whose primary enemy is the Congress. They might not have attended the meeting if the Congress had convened it. Therefore, the attendance sheet becomes significant.

ED quizzes Rahul Gandhi for 2nd day

ADITI PHADNIS
New Delhi, 14 June

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi was questioned by the ED for the second consecutive day on Tuesday in the National Herald money-laundering case, with the grand old party calling the agency action vendetta politics of the Centre against opposition leaders.

Gandhi (5) arrived at the Enforcement Directorate (ED) headquarters on APJ Abdul Kalam Road in central Delhi around 11:05 am, accompanied by his sister and Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

His questioning began at 11:30 am.

After a session of about four hours, Gandhi took a break for about an hour at around 3:30 pm and went home. He rejoined the questioning around 4:30 pm.

In a similar play of events like Monday, the "Z+" category CRPF security personnel of Gandhi hanged on the footboard of his SUV as the convoy made a dash to the office in the morning. PTI

Judges write to CJI, urge suo motu action on UP demolitions

ADITI PHADNIS
New Delhi, 14 June

In an unusual move, several former Supreme Court and high court judges as well as senior advocates have written to the Chief Justice of India, NV Ramana, to intervene suo motu in the wake of incidents of violence and repression by state authorities on citizens.

While such a letter has been written to the prime minister in the past by retired bureaucrats (provoking a counter-campaign by other bureaucrats in support of the government), it is unusual for former judges to flag political issues.

The letter comes a day after Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind approached the Supreme Court for a stay on demolition of properties carried out by the Uttar Pradesh government against those arrested for causing violent protests last week. They were protesting against the derogatory remarks made about Prophet Muhammad by Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leaders Nupur Sharma and Naveen Kumar Jindal. Following international outrage against the remarks, the BJP suspended Sharma and expelled Jindal.

The UP police arrested more than 300 people and registered FIRs against those protesting and engaging in stone pelting.

The letter said: "Videos of young men in police custody being beaten with lathis, houses of protesters being demolished without notice or any cause of action, and protestors from the minority Muslim community being chased and beaten by the police, are circulating on social media, shaking the conscience of the nation."

Twelve former judges and senior lawyers have signed the letter and have asked the Supreme Court to intervene to stop the "deteriorating law and order situation" in Uttar Pradesh. The retired former Supreme Court judges who have signed the letter are Justice B. Sudarshan Reddy, Justice V. Gopala Gowda and Justice AK Ganguly; Justice AP Shah (former chief Justice of Delhi High Court and former chairperson, Law Commission of India); Justice K Chandru (former judge of Madras High Court); Justice Mohammed Anwar (former judge of Karnataka High Court); and a host of senior advocates in the Supreme Court, including Shanti Bhushan, Indira Jaising, Chandur Uday Singh, Prashant Bhushan, and Anand Grover.

The letter says instead of giving protestors an opportunity of being heard and to engage in peaceful protests, the state administration has sanctioned taking violent action against such individuals.

"The CM has reportedly officially exhorted officials 'to take such action against those guilty that it sets an example so that no one commits a crime or takes law into their hands in the future. He has further directed that the National Security Act, 1980, and the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986, be invoked against those found guilty of unlawful protests. It is these remarks that have emboldened the police to brutally and unlawfully torture protestors," the letter reads.

The letter states that pursuant to the statement of the chief minister, more than 300 persons have been arrested and FIRs registered against protesting citizens.

"Such a brutal clampdown by a ruling administration is an unacceptable subversion of the rule of law and a violation of the rights of citizens, and makes a mockery of the Constitution and fundamental rights guaranteed by the state," the former judges and senior advocate said.
