Elephants run amok

Shankar Raj THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

While Wayanad has a burning issue with wild elephants attacking local people at regular intervals, two domesticated jumbos fought a pitched battle during a temple festival near Koyilandy in Kozhikode district killing three devotees and injuring 35 others. The incident took place at the annual Manakkulangara Bhagavathy Temple near Koyilandy Thursday night.

According to eye-witnesses, one elephant suddenly turned rogue and attacked the jumbo standing beside it. The attacked elephant panicked and ran towards the exit, bringing down a portion of the temple building.

According to Koyilandy MLA Kanathil Jameela, one of the elephants turned violent due to fireworks and loud music. When the two elephants were locked in a fight, two devotees were crushed to death. The third devotee died when the office building fell on him.

Bank employees staged a protest rally in capital city Raipur in support of their five points demand under the banner of the United Forum of Bank Unions (UFBU), which represents nearly 100% of bank employees. The protest was organized near the PNB Main Branch, Moti Bagh of capital city Raipur on Friday.

Bank employees' main demands are adequate recruitment in banks, implementation of a five-day banking week, resolution of pending issues, stop outsourcing of jobs, and other pending demands.

During the protest the demonstrators raised anti-establishment slogans and criticized the policies of ruling government policies and termed them anti-people.

"It has been decided to launch an agitational programme culminating in a twoday continuous strike on March 24 and 25, 2025," said UFBU in a statement.
