Fed-up MH370 relatives head to Madagascar 4 arrested in China coal mine blast incident

Kuala Lumpur, Dec 03:

Relatives of missing MH370 passengers were headed to Madagascar today, harbouring hopes of finding seaborne debris, 1,001 days since the mysterious disappearance of the ill-fated Malaysia Airlines jet. Four Malaysians and two Chinese nationals left from Kuala Lumpur and will be joined in Madagascar by other MH370 next-of-kin travelling from France.

The Boeing 777 jet was carrying 239 passengers and crew when it disappeared en route from Kuala Lumpur to Beijing on March 8, 2014. It is believed to have crashed into the Indian Ocean, but an extensive deep-sea hunt off Australia's west coast has so far failed to find a single piece of debris from the plane, with the search set to end by early 2017. "It has fallen into our hands to take on this search upon ourselves," Grace Nathan, a Malaysian attorney who lost her mother on the flight, told reporters at the airport. "After repeated requests for mobilisation of a search along the east African coastline, nothing has been done to date."

Many next-of-kin have repeatedly complained about the lack of a coordinated search in the western Indian Ocean and along the African coast despite the recovery there of several pieces of debris which were either confirmed or declared highly likely to have come from MH370. Grace said once in Madagascar relatives will distribute brochures educating villagers on how to identify plane debris. "We want to reach as far and wide in Madagascar to coastal communities to villages. We want to speak to as many NGOs as possible," she said.

The first piece of debris found from MH370 - a two-metre wing part known as a flaperon - washed up on the French Indian Ocean island of Reunion in July 2015. Since then a range of debris linked to the flight has been found along western Indian Ocean shorelines. A report released last month by the Australian Transport Safety Bureau, which is leading the search, said the plane was likely out of control when it plunged into the ocean with its wing flaps not prepared for landing, casting doubt on whether a pilot was still in charge.

Beijing, Dec 03:

Chinese police today arrested four persons, including the owner of a coal mine, after 21 workers trapped in the mine four days ago were confirmed dead. Among the four suspects are three managers, the emergency rescue headquarters said in a statement. The workers were trapped after an explosion on Tuesday at the private coal mine in Qitaihe City, Heilongjiang province. Of the 22 miners trapped, 21 were confirmed dead and one remained missing. Rescuers retrieved the 21 bodies last night and search operation for the missing miner is on. State-run CCTV reported the workers could not be reached by rescuers due to presence of poisonous gases even as insurance firms began contacting the families of the workers to settle claims. Initial enquiries showed that the blast was an accident and the mine was unlicensed, police said.

Pak sending envoy to meet Trump team

Islamabad, Dec 03:

Pakistan has decided to send an envoy to the US to hold meetings with Donald Trump's transition team, two days after a "productive" telephonic conversation between Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif and the President-elect. Pakistani Prime Minister's special assistant for foreign affairs Tariq Fatemi will visit the US this weekend to meet officials of the Trump transition team.

Fatemi's meeting with officials of Trump transition team was confirmed by Jalil Abbas Jilani, Pakistan's Ambassador to the US. "Besides meeting members of the transition team, Fatemi will meet officials of the outgoing Obama administration," said Jilani.

US President-elect Donald Trump is scheduled to take the oath on January 20 but he has already set up a provisional team, encouraging foreign leaders and officials to visit his headquarters in New York for familiarisation meetings. Fatemi, who is coming on a two-week official visit, is also expected to meet some members of this team and in Washington, "he will also meet new US lawmakers elected last month," Jilani told a news briefing at the embassy. "This is a very important visit as much has happened in Washington since the November 8 elections," Jilani said.

The development came days after a telephonic talks between Trump and Sharif. Sharif called Trump last week to congratulate him as the two leaders discussed various issues. "I am ready and willing to play any role that you want me to play to address and find solutions to the outstanding problems. It will be an honour and I will personally do it."

China slaps new 10% tax on super-luxury cars

Beijing, Dec 03: China has imposed an extra 10 per cent tax on ultra-high-end cars costing over 1.3 million yuan (USD 190,000), the government said, the latest step in a wide crackdown on conspicuous luxury consumption. Under President Xi Jinping the Communist Party has overseen a sprawling campaign against graft and encouraged thrift among the country's political and economic elites, targeting showy displays of wealth. The new tax took effect today and was intended to "guide rational consumption" and promote energy-efficient vehicles, the finance ministry said in a statement late Wednesday. China already taxes imported vehicles at a high rate, slapping a 25 per cent tax on all foreign cars shipped to China. The extra charge will likely hit brands such as Ferrari, Rolls-Royce, and Lamborghini, as well as top-end offerings of Mercedes and BMW. Ferrari sales in China surged 26 per cent in the second quarter of this year, with 160 units delivered. Luxury carmakers have seen massive growth in China, the world's largest auto market, despite the anti-corruption campaign.

हुआल कंटोल पर काउंसिल में वोटिंग की संभावना नहीं है। बैठक के बाद जेटली ने बताया, परिषद की अगली बैठक में कानूनों के मसौदों के अंतिम रूप दिए जाने की पूरी संभावना है। इस दो दिवसीय बैठक में भी इन मसौदों पर चर्चा हुयी है लेकिन रण्यों को कुछ और वक्त की दरकार है। उन्होंने कहा कि कंसदाताओं पर दोहरे नियंत्रण के मुद्दे पर भी कोई निर्णय नहीं हो पाया है और इस पर भी अगली बैठक में चर्चा होगी। इसके साथ ही उस बैठक में रण्यों को क्षतिपूर्ति और जीएसटी से जुड़े कानूनों के मसौदों पर भी चर्चा होगी। जेटली ने कहा कि कुछ गंभीर मुद्दों पर सुझाव मिले हैं जिन पर विचार किया जायेगा। उन्होंने कहा कि नोटबंदी से रण्यों के राजस्व पर पड़ने वाले प्रभाव पर जीएसटी परिषद में चर्चा नहीं हुयी है, लेकिन पैनल परिचर्चा के बाद अनौपचारिक बैठक में इस पर चर्चा हुयी जहां रण्यों ने कुछ लचीला रख अपनाने की सलाह दी है।

आम सहमति बनने की कोशिश-विचमंजरी ने कहा, जीएसटी कानूनों के मसौदों पर शुरुआत से अब तक कड़ी मशक के बाद जीएसटी को लेकर पूरी तरह से आम सहमति बनी और अब इस तरह के विवादों में पड़ने तथा इसमें दलगत राजनीति को लाने की जरूरत नहीं है। परिषद की बैठक में हर मुद्दे पर आम सहमति बनाने की कोशिश होगी जिससे किसी भी प्रकार के मत विभाजन की आवश्यकता न रहे।
