Subject: Clarification on News Item Published on Moneycontrol dated 01st August 2025

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is in reference to your email bearing reference no. L/SURV/ONL/RV/AJ/(2025-2026)/52 dated 01st August 2025, seeking clarification on the news item published on Moneycontrol titled “Pharma stocks slump as Trump shoots letters to 17 global drug majors seeking lower prices” and the consequent movement in the share price of Granules India Limited (“the Company”).

In this regard, we would like to clarify as follows:

1.No Company-Specific Communication Received: The Company has not received any communication, letter, or notice from the United States Government or any related authority in connection with the said development. As per the official press release dated 31st July 2025 issued by the White House, the letters were addressed to a specific group of 17 pharmaceutical manufacturers, namely: AbbVie, Amgen, AstraZeneca, Boehringer Ingelheim, Bristol Myers Squibb, Eli Lilly, EMD Serono, Genentech, Gilead, GSK, Johnson & Johnson, Merck, Novartis, Novo Nordisk, Pfizer, Regeneron, and Sanofi. Granules India Limited is not among the Companies listed.

2.No Ongoing Negotiations or Proceedings: There are no ongoing negotiations or regulatory/legal proceedings related to this matter involving Granules India Limited, nor is there any price-sensitive information known to the Company that has not been disclosed to the Stock Exchanges which could explain the movement in the Company’s scrip price on 01st August 2025.

3.Compliance with Disclosure Obligations: The Company continues to comply with Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and promptly discloses all material information/events that have a bearing on the operations and performance of the Company.

Accordingly, we confirm that the said news item, insofar as it relates to Granules India Limited, is not factually applicable to the Company.

This is for your information and dissemination to the members of the exchange.

Yours faithfully,

For GRANULES INDIA LIMITED
