PULLBACK OF CHINESE EMPLOYEES

Foxconn ops unaffected: Govt

WEN-YEE LEE Taipei, September 12

MAKING IN INDIA

INDIA DOES NOT expect significant disruption to Foxconn's operations in the country after the iPhone assembler ordered some employees from China to return home over the past few months, a top Indian government official said this week.

iPhone assembler's India operations didn't suffer even if some Chinese workers left

Foxconn has a plant in Chennai since five years and a new plant is coming up near Bengaluru

Other than the Chinese, there have been workers from Taiwan, and the US

Foxconn and its client Apple have been seeking to ramp up iPhone production in India some people from the US, Krishnan said late on Thursday during a visit to a trade show in Taiwan.

Hon Hai Precision Industry, asked hundreds of its engineers and technicians from mainland China to return home from its operations in India, Bloomberg reported in July.

Foxconn and its client Apple have been seeking to ramp up iPhone production in India to mitigate the impact of US President Donald Trump's threatened triple-digit tariffs on Chinese goods, which are on hold as Beijing and Washington negotiate a trade deal.

Most of the iPhones Foxconn makes for Apple are assembled in China. Krishnan said it was not clear why the employees from China were asked to return home.

Low-carat jewellery gains popularity

KRISHNA BAROT Ahmedabad, September 12

WITH GOLD AND fine jewellery becoming costlier due to soaring prices of the precious metal, a section of buyers has turned to 9-carat (9kt) products. Gold prices are hovering around ₹1.1 lakh per 10 g, an all-time high.

gold, which is composed of 37.5% pure gold and 62.5% alloy metals such as zinc, silver or copper, by the Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS).

Following the government move, retailers are noticing a steady growth in the low-carat jewellery segment.

Atul Sinha, chief operating officer at Caratlane, said: "We now see over 1,000 customers

Customer interest got a boost after govt approved hallmarking standards for 9-carat gold every month choosing 9kt designs across a wide range of products. Shyamala Ramanan, business head at Mia by Tanishq, said: "We are seeing customers open up to lower-carat options such as 9kt, alongside the more familiar and affordable 14kt."

According to Neil Sonawala, managing director at Zen Diamond, government initiatives such as BIS certification have played a key role in spreading awareness and boosting consumer trust. "While certification has prompted customers to explore the 9kt jewellery segment, we at Zen Diamonds have noted a resonance among customers with slightly higher-carat segments, such as 14kt jewellery. In fact, we've recorded a 17% year-on-year rise in demand for 14kt jewellery."

"The strongest traction comes from the 25-40 age group," Sinha said.
