HC issues rule of contempt against 2 state dept secretaries

Subrata Chatterjee

Kolkata: The Calcutta High Court on Monday issued a rule of contempt against the state health secretary and the education secretary for failing to carry out an order from 2017.

A division bench of Justices Anil Banerjee and Aparna Sinha Ray issued the rule of contempt against respondents Sorwan Sengupta Nigam and Manish Jain after they didn't turn up for court proceedings on Monday.

In May 2017, the division bench of Justices Anil Banerjee and Aparna Sinha Ray issued a division bench of Justices Joydip Bhattacharya and Anil Banerjee seeking direction to state authorities to file a safe substitute for lead in Braille books. "In any event, such change must be implemented by the end of September 2017," the division bench had ordered.

Acting on the PIL, the division bench had directed the state to conduct medical tests on all persons using the Braille system to safe till date. "If upon examination, it is found that they have suffered any adverse effect, the state shall take appropriate remedial measures including medical treatment by 2018 end," the bench had ordered.

The division bench of Justice Banerjee and Justice Sinha Ray on Monday observed: "It seems that the respondents are taking the court proceedings very lightly and casually."

New Delhi: Holding that BEd degree holders are not trained in pedagogical skills needed to handle kids, the Supreme Court has ruled that only diploma holders in elementary education can be appointed as primary school teachers.

It quashed the 50th notification of National Council for Teacher Education which specified BEd qualification. In other words, elementary education implies quality education and appointing untrained teachers amounts to compromising quality.

BEd qualification has been trained to impart teaching to secondary and higher secondary students. The academic authority which is NCTE, is mandated by the Act to set up a curriculum and evaluation procedure for the recruitment of a child, mindful of all the fears and anxieties which a child may have," the bench said.

The top court said the Council did not apply its mind independently and it took the decision to include BEd as a qualifying degree for primary teachers merely on the recommendation of the Council. Before 2018, only diploma holders in primary education could apply for teaching jobs at this level. The court now said that the Council was giving priority to the pedagogical skills of a teacher and said: "But our priority seems to be different. It is not to impart quality education, but to provide more job avenues to BEd trained candidates, as this seems to be the only reason for their inclusion."

Must follow ITAT order, return ₹16L to lawyer: HC to IT dept

Swaati Deshpande

Mumbai: Underlining the importance of judicial discipline, the Bombay High Court recently directed the Income Tax department to return Rs 16 lakh seized by its Air Force Intelligence Unit (AFIU) from a Mumbai lawyer headed to the Supreme Court in his case.

The court, in a judgment, said that revenue officers are bound by the decision of the appellate authority. The AFIU had seized money. The AFU had intercepted Mendakkar at Delhi airport in July 2018 and found Rs 16 lakh in his possession. The department said it was unexplained income.

Following his plea after the ITAT ruled in his favour, the HC directed the IT department to return the entire Rs 16 lakh seized from Mendakkar by August 31, failing which it would have to pay the amount to Mendakkar. The HC then said observing that the tribunal's order is binding on the additional commissioner and his subordinate. "The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) accepted the lawyer's explanation in May that it was his professional income from his clients on which he subsequently paid tax. The principal of judicial discipline requires that orders of the higher appellate authority should be followed by the subordinate authorities," the HC bench said.

'Adopted son has no right over genitive family assets'

Bengaluru

Bengaluru: An adopted son cannot continue to exercise rights as a coparcener in his genitive family, the Karnataka High Court has observed in a recent judgment.

Dismissing the regular second appeal filed by Bheemanna, Justice KC Joshi has pointed out that in M Krishna vs M Ramachandran and another case, the HC had already held that on adoption, the adoptee gets transferred into the family that adopts him with the same rights as that of a natural-born son, and such transferee of the adopted child severs all his rights with the family from which he was taken in adoption.

"It was categorically held that besides the right of succession in genitive family properties," the judge said. Bheemanna argued that Ramanna was not a natural-born son, and such transferee of the adopted child severs all his rights with the family from which he was taken in adoption. SC: Action being taken on false quote of CJI online

New Delhi

New Delhi: Taking exception of a false quote of CJI DV Chandrachud being circulated on social media, the apex court on Monday said appropriate action will be taken.

The post doing the rounds on social media falsely said that the CJI has appealed to people to come out on the streets against the "dictatorial regime" of the SC.

"It has come to the notice of the Supreme Court that a social media post (linking the public in protest against the authorities) using a false photograph and falsely quoting the CJI is being circulated. The post is false, ill-intended and misleading. No such post has been issued by the Chief Justice. Information has been shared with the post," the SC said.
