Commenting on the performance, Mr. Arjun Verma, Managing Director – GP Petroleums said, “During the second quarter, the lubricant sector experienced steady industrial demand amidst evolving raw material cycle and competitive pressures. Against this backdrop, GP Petroleums delivered a resilient performance while accelerating its strategic transformation. Our recent board approval to raise up to ₹130 crores through structured NCDs and OCDs with RevX Special Credit Opportunities Fund II marks a vital milestone to fortify our working capital and fuel our expansion into high-margin specialty segments. By combining disciplined operational efficiencies with robust institutional governance, we are well-positioned to enhance our market share, optimize cash flows, and deliver sustainable, long-term value to our shareholders.”
