NO LONGER FEEL AN OBLIGATION TO THINK PURELY OF PEACE: POTUS TO NORWAY PM

Trump Links Greenland Threat to Nobel Peace Prize Snub

■ EU considers tariffs on $108 billion of US imports ■ Trump push straining NATO, EU-US trade relations

Reuters

Paris | Oslo: US President Donald Trump linked his drive to take control of Greenland to his failure to win the Nobel Peace Prize, saying he no longer thought "purely of Peace" as the row over the island on Monday threatened to reignite a trade war with Europe.

Trump has intensified his push to wrest sovereignty over Greenland from fellow NATO member Denmark, threatening punitive tariffs on countries which stand in his way and prompting the European Union to weigh hitting back with its own measures.

The dispute is threatening to upend the NATO alliance that has underpinned western security for decades and which was already under strain over the war in Ukraine and Trump's refusal to protect allies which do not spend enough on defence.

It has also plunged trade relations between the European Union and the US, the bloc's biggest export market, into renewed uncertainty after the two sides painstakingly reached a trade deal last year in response to Trump's swingeing tariffs.

DENMARK, GREENLAND SUGGEST ARCTIC NATO MISSION

Denmark and Greenland have discussed the possibility of having a NATO mission in Greenland and the Arctic. Danish Defence Minister Troels Lund Poulsen said on Monday as Trump intensified his push to wrest sovereignty over Greenland from Denmark, prompting the EU to weigh hitting back with its own measures.

Poulsen made his remarks after a meeting with NATO Secretary General Mark Rutte and Greenlandic Foreign Minister Vivian Motzfeldt in Brussels.

Germany, France 'Will Not be Blackmailed': Fin Ministers

Berlin: The German and French finance ministers said on Monday that European powers would not be blackmailed and that there would be a clear and united response to Trump's threats of higher tariffs over Greenland. "Germany and France agree: We will not allow ourselves to be blackmailed," German FM Klingbeil said at his ministry. "Blackmail between allies of 250 years, blackmail between friends, is obviously unacceptable," French FM Lescure said. Reuters

UK PM Rebukes Trump Tariff Threats as 'Completely Wrong'

UK PM Keir Starmer said Trump's threats of new tariffs on European nations would damage the British economy. "The use of tariffs against allies is completely wrong," Starmer said at a press conference. He made clear he had no intention of levying retaliatory tariffs against the US, setting him apart from the EU's own response. "A trade war is in no one's interests," he said, arguing instead that his priority was to try to talk Trump down from his threats. Bloomberg

China's Economy Grows 5% despite Trump

Hong Kong: China's economy expanded at a 5% annual pace in 2025, buoyed by strong exports despite US President Donald Trump's tariffs.

However, growth slowed to a 4.5% rate in the last quarter of the year, the government said Monday. That was the slowest quarterly growth since late 2022, when China was beginning to loosen stringent Covid-19 pandemic restrictions.

The economy, the world's second largest, grew at a 4.8% annual pace in the previous quarter.

China's leaders have been trying to spur faster growth after a slump in the property market and disruptions from the pandemic rippled through the economy. AP

Fed Chair Powell to Attend Supreme Court Argument on Cook Case

Washington: Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell will attend the Supreme Court's oral argument Wednesday in a case involving the attempted firing of Fed governor Lisa Cook, an unusual show of support by the central bank chair.

The high court is considering whether President Donald Trump can fire Cook, as he said he would do in late August, in an unprecedented attempt to remove one of the seven members of the Fed's governing board. Powell plans to attend the high court's Wednesday session, according to a person familiar with the matter, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

It's a much more public show of support than the Fed chair has previously shown Cook. But it follows Powell's announcement last week that the Trump administration has sent subpoenas to the Fed, threatening an unprecedented criminal indictment of the Fed Chair. Powell — appointed to the position by Trump in 2018 — appears to be casting off last year's more subdued response to Trump's repeated attacks on the central bank in favor of a more public confrontation.

Powell issued a video statement Jan. 11 condemning the subpoenas as "pretexts" for Trump's efforts to force him to sharply cut the Fed's key interest rate. Powell oversaw three rate cuts late last year, lowering the rate to about 3.6%, but Trump has argued it should be as low as 1%, a position few economists support.

The Trump administration has accused Cook of mortgage fraud, an allegation that Cook has denied. No charges have been made against Cook. AP

Birth Rate at the Lowest Since 1949

China's birth rate fell last year to its lowest level since 1949, highlighting a deepening demographic struggle for Beijing even as officials roll out new subsidies to encourage couples to have more children.

The number of births per 1,000 people dropped to 5.6, the lowest since at least the founding of the country, according to data released on Monday. Bloomberg

Putin Gets US Invite to Join Gaza Peace Board

PTI

Moscow: Russian President Vladimir Putin has received an invitation to join US President Donald Trump's Gaza Peace Board, and the invitation is under consideration, the Kremlin said on Monday. "Indeed, President Putin also received an offer through diplomatic channels to join this Peace Board," the Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov told reporters.

"We are currently studying all the details of this proposal, and we hope to contact the American side to clarify all the details," he said.

Several other countries have received offers from the US to join this body. Prime Minister Narendra Modi and his Pakistani counterpart, Shehbaz Sharif, have also received invitations to join the Peace Board.

The board is being projected by Washington as a new international body to usher in peace and stability in Gaza and beyond.

High-Speed Trains Collide in Spain, 39 Killed

At least 39 people died and more than 120 were injured in the deadliest train accident in Spain in over a decade. The crash occurred Sunday at 7:45 pm when the tail end of a train carrying 289 passengers from Malaga to Madrid went off rails. It slammed into an incoming train travelling from Madrid to Huelva, according to rail operator Adif. Efforts to recover bodies continued Monday, and the death toll is likely to rise. AFP

Japan PM to Call Snap Election

Tokyo: Japanese PM Sanae Takaichi will officially announce Monday her plans to dissolve parliament for a snap election, media reports said, hoping for a stronger mandate to push through her ambitious policy agenda. The country's first woman leader, Takaichi is banking on her high poll numbers to lead the unpopular ruling Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) to victory. After signalling her intentions to party officials last week, Takaichi will lay out her plans for a vote expected as early as February 8, media outlets reported. AFP

अलग-अलग हेल्पलाइन होंगी बंद, 112 बना एकमात्र आपात नंबर

जनसत्ता संवाददाता
नई दिल्ली, 19 जनवरी।

दिल्ली में आपातकालीन सेवाओं को और अधिकतम तेज, सरल और प्रभावी बनने के लिए अब सभी आपात स्थितियों में केवल 112 नंबर ही डायल करना होगा। मुख्यमंत्री रेखा गुप्ता ने सेवारक को यह जानकारी देते हुए बताया कि 'आपातकालीन प्रतिक्रिया सहायता गणली' (ईआरएसएस) 2.0 के तहत राजधानी में अलग-अलग हेल्पलाइन नंबरों की व्यवस्था समाप्त की जा रही है।

मुख्यमंत्री ने कहा कि अब तक पुलिस, अग्निशमन, एंबुलेंस, महिला और बाल सहायता सहित विभिन्न सेवाओं के लिए अलग-अलग नंबर प्रचलन में थे, जिससे लोगों को परेशानी होती थी। नई व्यवस्था में सभी सेवाएं 112 से

एकीकृत होंगी। उन्होंने बताया कि केंद्रीय गृह मंत्रालय पहले ही 112 को राष्ट्रीय आपातकालीन नंबर घोषित कर चुका है।

ईआरएसएस 2.0 के तहत काल, मोबाइल एप, पैनिक बटन, एसएसएस और वेब अलर्ट एक ही पब्लिक सेफरी अंसरिंग प्लाईंट पर प्राप्त होंगे। सिस्टम स्वतः काल करने वाले की लोकेशन बहचा लेगा और उसी आधार पर नियंत्रकी पुलिस वैन, एंबुलेंस या दमकल वाहन को तुरंत भेजा जाएगा। इससे आपात स्थिति में 'गैल्लन आवर' के दौरान मदद तेजी से पहुंच सकेगी। मुख्यमंत्री ने बताया कि इस योजना को चरणबद्ध तरीके से लागू किया जाएगा। पहले चरण में सभी मौजूदा आपात नंबरों को 112 में समाहित किया जाएगा, इसके बाद तकनीकी उन्नयन और जन-जागरूकता अभियान चलाया जाएगा।
