HCLTech recognized as a Leader across all key areas in ISG Provider Lens™ - Automotive and Mobility Services and Solutions 2025

NEW YORK and NOIDA, India, Sept 08, 2025—HCLTech, a leading global technology company, has been recognized as a Leader in 2025 ISG Provider Lens™ - Automotive and Mobility Services and Solutions in North America, Europe and APAC in all five categories across the automotive and mobility ecosystem.

The report names HCLTech a Leader in automotive engineering and manufacturing services, electric vehicles and mobility services, autonomous systems and Software-Defined Vehicles (SDV), automotive retail and aftermarket services and technology transformation and consulting.

According to the report, HCLTech delivers strategic value for the automotive and mobility industry, accelerating product development, enabling sustainable e-mobility, advancing autonomous vehicle technologies and leveraging strong OEM partnerships. HCLTech empowers automotive clients to drive innovation and modernize IT infrastructure with digital engineering capabilities, integrated cybersecurity solutions and data-driven digital strategy development.

“HCLTech’s integration of engineering, cybersecurity and semiconductors expertise across the automotive supply chain and SDV technologies lays a strong foundation for trusted autonomous systems,” said Swadhin Pradhan, Assistant Director and Principal Analyst at ISG. “Its deep digital strategy, engineering capabilities and IT infrastructure enable automotive companies to navigate complex transformation.”

“Our leadership across the entire spectrum of automotive services and solutions, including automotive engineering, autonomous driving and e-mobility, reflects our commitment to pioneering innovation,” said Hari Sadarahalli, Corporate Vice President, Engineering and R&D Services at HCLTech. “With end-to-end capabilities from chip to cloud and strong industry partnerships, we help clients confidently navigate the evolving mobility landscape.”
