HCLTech recognized as a Leader in IDC MarketScape: Canadian AI Services 2025

MISSISSAUGA, Ontario, Feb 25, 2026 — HCLTech, a leading global technology company, has been named a Leader in the IDC MarketScape: Canadian AI Services 2025 Vendor Assessment (doc #CA51802124, September 2025).

This IDC MarketScape notes, "It stands out with its client centricity, tailoring engagement and commercial models to suit varying business contexts." Also noted in this IDC MarketScape,"Buyers familiar with its services share positive feedback on its capabilities, including the ability to showcase and codevelop AI use cases, range of AI services, domain and technical expertise and innovation."

"We believe HCLTech's position as a Leader reflects its success in aligning advanced AI capabilities with the specific operational and strategic priorities of Canadian enterprises," said Sreenivas Duvvuri Venkata, Research Analyst, IDC. "Clients value the company's ability to translate AI investments into practical, production-ready solutions through close collaboration and deep industry understanding."

"We believe this recognition reflects our commitment to helping Canadian organizations move from AI ambition to scalable, real-world impact," said Dave Chopra, Executive Vice President and Canada Country Head, HCLTech. "What differentiates HCLTech is our end-to-end AI portfolio, embedding AI across silicon, cloud, data, applications and infrastructure through capabilities such as AI Factory, AI Engineering, AI Advisory, AI Foundry, strong IPs like our GenAI-powered platform AI Force and Industry AI Solutions. Together, these enable clients to move beyond isolated experiments and adopt an AI-led way of working that delivers measurable business outcomes."

HCLTech has been operating in Canada for over 16 years and supports AI initiatives across financial services, telecom, retail, manufacturing and energy. Its AI-led engagements in the region help organizations build competitive advantage, advance sustainability goals and unlock growth through data-driven transformation and business model innovation.
