HCL Technologies Receives Cisco 2018 Award for Excellence in Software and Cloud

Noida, India 29th November 2018 – HCL Technologies (HCL), a leading global technology company, today announced it was the recipient of the Cisco 2018 Excellence in Software and Cloud award. Cisco unveiled the award winners at its 27th Annual Supplier Appreciation Event at the Santa Clara Convention Center in California.

This award recognizes HCL Technologies for delivering outstanding collaborative performance in all areas and supporting Cisco's strategy for business model evolution.

"Our Supplier Appreciation Awards give us an opportunity to recognize the exceptional technology, execution and success by the very best of our extended supply chain," said Jeff Purnell, vice president, Global Supplier Management, Cisco. "The theme for this year's event, 'Digital Disruption' highlights our continued digitization journey, and the indispensable role our partner and supplier network play in enabling Cisco's growth, innovation and customer experience."

At the event, Cisco celebrated the collective achievements and contributions of its most strategic supply chain partners, and recognized how these strong, ongoing partnerships will continue to impact Cisco's business.
