

HCL AXON Expands Partnership with Sybase for Strategic Industries Mobile Solution Offering

HCL AXON Extends Services Portfolio for Travel and Logistics, Utilities and Financial Services Industry Solutions with Sybase's Enterprise Mobility Platform

Jersey City, NJ. — August 16, 2010 — HCL AXON, a division of HCL Technologies – an organization that delivers significant business value through innovative implementations of SAP® solutions – announced today a strategic development and Go-To-Market Partnership with Sybase Inc., an industry leader in enterprise and mobile software. The partnership will support a number of HCL AXON's key industries where the demand for a comprehensive mobile solution tightly integrated with SAP is driving rapid advances in workforce productivity. Built on the industry-leading Sybase® Unwired Platform (SUP), the mobile solution will focus on delivering key SAP capabilities in industries such as Utilities, Travel & Logistics, Oil & Gas and Financial Services.

HCL AXON is committed to meeting the exponentially growing needs of field workforces and SUP is the natural platform to address this market. Worldwide, mobile worker growth currently accounts for 29 percent of the workforce and is expected to grow to over 35 percent of the worldwide workforce by 2013 – representing a total of more than 1.2 billion workers. The joint HCL AXON and Sybase solution will boost worker productivity by delivering seamless integration between enterprise information resources and a broad range of mobile devices. The resulting ability to make informed, timely decisions while staying in close contact with key stakeholders will transform the way organizations operate their field workforces.

"Over the past year, HCL AXON has helped show customers the vast potential of mobile and multi channel access to their SAP solutions," said Ian Greenhalgh, executive president, Solution Management, HCL AXON. "As a result, the demand for anytime, anywhere access to SAP solutions using mobile devices has never been stronger. Our partnership with Sybase allows us to deliver instant value to our customers around the globe. With the Sybase Unwired Platform, we can provide any information required on any platform. It is a truly transformational solution."

"We are pleased that Sybase and HCL AXON have strengthened a partnership where the two companies team up to mobilize SAP solutions by using the Sybase Unwired Platform," said Willie Jow, vice president of mobility marketing, Sybase. "Enterprises in industries such as travel, transportation and utilities will receive tremendous productivity increase by enabling their workforce to access SAP applications on a mobile device."

HCL AXON is rolling out its first Mobile Solution for the Travel and Transportation industry. The solution will help railroad companies support their maintenance and inspection in the field with significantly more data and access to maintenance records for faster maintenance turnaround.
