HCL Receives HP AllianceONE Partner of the Year Award for Cloud Computing Services

Sunnyvale, US/Noida, India, 11th July, 2011-- HCL Technologies Ltd. (HCL), a leading global IT services provider, today announced that it has been awarded with the HP AllianceONE Partner of the Year in the Cloud Computing Service Provider of the Year category.

The HP AllianceONE Partner of the Year Awards were presented to an exclusive set of HP alliance partners in recognition of their outstanding accomplishments in the development and delivery of innovative solutions that achieve standard-setting levels for business excellence and client satisfaction.

HCL won this award for its SAP-on-Demand (SAPoD) suite which caters to its customer's on-demand requirements for Tier-1 application resources. The reference architecture combines HCL MyCloud Services and HP Cloud Maps for HCL services and provides unparalleled flexibility and transparency in SAP lifecycle services. HCL's SAPoD offering is a complete end-to-end managed service offering delivered on a pay-per-use model, which accelerates value of SAP investments across industries.

"We are delighted to have been chosen as the 'HP AllianceONE Cloud Computing Service Provider of the year 2011'. We believe that besides reduced TCO and faster time to deploy the IT cloud deployments will also have to address service transparency, enhanced accountability, seamless data management and improved governance. Our SAPoD and MyCloud suites are testimonies to this advanced alignment" said Anubhav Saxena, Vice President and Global Head-Strategic Alliances, HCL Technologies Infrastructure Services Division.

"To manage the changing demands of their customers, organizations have to accelerate time to market and time to business value," said Duncan Campbell, vice president, Converged Infrastructure, HP. "HP with global partners like HCL, helps break down rigid IT silos with infrastructure specifically engineered to drive out cost and provide the foundation for agile service delivery."

HCL has been actively helping enterprises and ISV's to adopt cloud technologies and infrastructure utility services. HCL leverages full benefits of private, public and hybrid cloud through a set of services, methodologies and tools. The company's strategy is centered on building and delivering competency and domain-based sets of services and delivery models. HCL's cloud services cut across various layers such as Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS), Platform as a Service (PaaS) and Software as a Service (SaaS).
