Scotland's Deputy First Minister meets HGS Europe's CEO in Selkirk

Selkirk, Scotland, February 18, 2019: Hinduja Global Solutions Ltd. (HGS), (Listed on NSE & BSE in India), a global leader in business process management, hosted Deputy First Minister of Scotland John Swinney at its' centre in Selkirk, Scotland.

HGS Europe CEO, Mr. Adam Foster met with Deputy First Minister Mr. John Swinney, on Tuesday 12th February 2019 to tour HGS's Selkirk contact centre operation, further to December's announcement that HGS is creating up to 150 brand new permanent jobs and investing into the site over the course of 2019.

(HGS CEO Europe, Mr. Adam Foster & Deputy First Minister Mr. John Swinney shaking hands)

HGS has purchased the site from its lease holder, has recruited a new management team and is embarking on a 12-month site-investment programme demonstrating its commitment to the Selkirk. The expansion of the Selkirk site is expected to be complete by the end of 2019 and will include a newly revamped employee breakout area and refit throughout making it a world-class customer service facility.

During the visit, Mr. Foster and the Deputy First Minister Mr. Swinney also discussed HGS's commitment to the Scottish Borders and opportunities for the future. Mr. Foster impressed upon the Deputy First Minister, his appreciation of the Selkirk team and their continued contribution to the successful performance of the business.

"I'm delighted to have hosted Scotland's Deputy First Minister at our centre in Selkirk and to reconfirm HGS's commitment to Scotland through the growth and development of our site." said HGS Europe CEO Adam Foster. "The location and people of Scotland deliver best-in-class performance for our growing client base and we are dedicated to bringing continued economic growth to the location over 2019."

Scotland's Deputy First Minister John Swinney added "Hinduja Global Solutions are highly valued investors and it is great to see continued success at their Selkirk site with the purchase of Claridge Mills. I had the pleasure of meeting their Group Chief Executive Partha De Sarkar on my recent visit to India where I had the opportunity to not only hear about the company's significant plans for expansion but his personal enthusiasm for Scotland. This ongoing investment is fantastic news for the local community and a clear indication that Scotland delivers the right environment for inward investors. I look forward to seeing the completion of these ambitious plans to develop a world-class call centre.”

Paul Lewis, MD of Scottish Development International, said: “HGS is a global success story, employing more than 44,000 people worldwide. We look forward to continuing to work closely with Adam and his team to cement the company’s commitment to Scotland. The company’s recent investment in Selkirk - creating up to 150 new permanent posts - will bring the total number of people employed at the site to around 400. This is fantastic news for the local community and a ringing endorsement of the talent and skills available here.”

HGS serves a variety of businesses from its Selkirk centre, both public and private, covering FMCG, Healthcare, Technology, Media and Telecom (TMT) and Financial Services customers and will be recruiting further in 2019 to meet its increasing customer needs.

In the UK, HGS operates customer contact centres based in Selkirk, Preston and Chiswick and employs 1,500 people. Across its business, HGS provides industry specific business process services and end-to-end multi-channel consumer services.
