HGS to Hire 300 Customer Service Professionals to Support Leading Digital Payments Company in Peoria, IL

First wave of hiring will add new web chat professionals immediately, with more positions in the next six months; applications currently being accepted

CHICAGO, March 27, 2018 - Hinduja Global Solutions (HGS) (listed in BSE & NSE), announced today the addition of 300 new customer service positions to support a leading digital (mobile) payments company's customers. HGS will be holding in-person interviews daily at the 1901 War Memorial Drive, Peoria, IL location, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. (CST). If you are interested, please stop by for an in-person interview any day. Individuals may also apply online at careers.teamhgs.com.

"HGS partners with leading companies across the globe to optimize customer experience and help make their businesses more competitive," said Scott Yates, Director of Operations. "Our employees are hardworking and committed to providing amazing customer service," Yates added. "If you're the kind of person who gets job satisfaction from helping put a smile on other peoples' faces, then this is a great opportunity for you."

HGS's new customer contact representatives will interact daily with consumers who have billing, point-of-purchase, general questions, or account and service requests. HGS is looking for solution-oriented problem-solvers who enjoy helping people within a customer service environment. Previous customer service experience and basic computer skills are considered strengths.

HGS provides professional training, is committed to career path development and commonly promotes from within. HGS also offers health benefits, 401K matching, loyalty programs, celebration awards, and incentive opportunities. Join our team to find out why so many of our leaders have been with HGS for more than 10 years.
