Hinduja Global Solutions (HGS) Inc., a leading provider of BPO services, has announced that it has completed the asset purchase transaction with Deloitte Consulting LLP to acquire its Extended Business Office Solutions division (EBOS).

EBOS provides Revenue Cycle Management services to large healthcare providers and networks in the US. Established in 2000, this unit has more than ten large US healthcare providers and networks as its clients. EBOS' existing contracts have been transferred to HGS Inc.

HGS is already serving Fortune 100 health insurance clients and has been ranked Global Best 10 for Healthcare in 2012 Global Outsourcing list by IAOP. EBOS brings a complementary capability in the provider side, which will make HGS a full spectrum player in the US healthcare market. The transaction is expected to result in incremental annual revenue of US$11 million.
