ED likely to confront industrialist with evidence in loan fraud case on Nov 14

Raghav Ohri

New Delhi: The Enforcement Directorate (ED) has summoned Reliance Anil Dhirubhai Ambani (ADA) Group chairman Anil Ambani again for questioning in a money-laundering case linked to a multi-million crore alleged loan fraud case.

Ambani has been asked to appear at the agency's headquarters in New Delhi on November 14, said people in the know. This is the second time he has been summoned for questioning. He was previously quizzed by the ED in August.

According to the people, he will be confronted with evidence—both digital and statements of executives of the Reliance ADA Group and others—gathered by the agency in past four months.

The ED in October arrested a close aide of the industrialist, Reliance Power chief financial officer Ashok Pal, over a ₹68 crore fake bank guarantee case. He was the first senior executive of the group to be arrested in this case.

Ambani, certain current and past senior executives of his group companies and several bank officials are under investigation by the ED for their alleged involvement in another ₹17,000 crore loan fraud case.

Following Pal's arrest, Reliance Power issued a statement saying that he had demitted the office of executive director and CFO "pending the ongoing matter and in order to assist the investigation". The statement said Anil Ambani had not been on Reliance Power's board for the past more than three and a half years and "is not concerned with this matter in any manner".

The federal agency made its first arrest in the bank guarantee case on August 1. It arrested Partha Sarathi Biswal, managing director of Odisha-based Biswal Tradelink, for allegedly arranging the fake bank guarantee that a Reliance Power subsidiary had sought for participating in a Solar Energy Corporation of India tender.

te (ED) on Thursday said it has provisionally attached assets worth ₹1.14 crore belonging to former cricketers Suresh Raina and Shikhar Dhawan in connection with its probe into the illegal offshore gaming application IxBet. The attachments were made under provisions of the Prevention of Money La-and an immovable property valued at ₹4.5 crore belonging to Dhawan. Both players have the option to contest the provisional attachment order before the adjudicating authority. They were not immediately available for comment. The ED alleged that Raina and Dhawan "knowingly entered into endorse-

Shikhar Dhawan (L) and Suresh Raina ment agreements" with foreign entities linked to IxBet, promoting the platform through its surrogates in return for pavers are linked to proceeds of crime generated from illegal betting activities. The central agency is probing network of offshore betting and gambling platforms allegedly operating in India through surrogate advertising, covert promotions on social media and influencer campaigns in violation of national laws.
