Subject: - Intimation with respect to transfer of unclaimed shares u/s 124 (6) of the Companies Act, 2013 to the Investor Education and Protection Fund (IEPF)

Dear Shareholder(s),

Jay Bharat Maruti Limited has been declaring and paying dividend on its paid-up equity capital from time to time to its shareholders. The complete dividend details are available at its website i.e., www.jbm-group.com

In reference to the captioned subject & in pursuant to Section 124(6) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") read with Rule 6 (3) of Investors Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Rules, 2016, as amended from time to time, ("Rules") shares on which dividend has not been paid or claimed by a shareholder for a period of seven consecutive years or more, shall be transferred to demat account of the Investors Education and Protection Fund ('IEPF Account') constituted in accordance of the Rules. Upon transfer of such shares, all corporate benefits accruing on such shares shall also be credited to the IEPF Account and the Voting Rights on such shares shall remain frozen till the rightful owner claims the shares.

As per the records of the Company, you have not claimed the dividend declared by the Company for a period of seven consecutive years or/and more and therefore your shares are liable for transfer to the IEPF Account.

Please take note that unclaimed or unpaid dividend which have already been or the shares which are being transferred by the Company to IEPF Fund or IEPF Account including all benefits accruing on such shares, if any, can be claimed back by the shareholders from Investors Education and Protection Fund Authority ('IEPFA') by following the procedure given on the website of IEPFA i.e. <http://iepf.gov.in/IEPFA/refund.html>

We, therefore, advise you to claim your unclaimed or uncashed dividends for the financial year 2009-10 and onwards by making an application to either Company at above mentioned address or email id at jbminvestor@jbm.co.in or Registrar and Share Transfer Agent of the Company at their following address by not later than Friday, 15th September, 2017 so that your equity shares will not get transferred to the demat account of the IEPF Authority.
