Encl: As above.

emerging as a serious industrial challenge for Delhi-NCR's export sector, said industry executives. Also, the latest rise in diesel and bal market. "Container freight costs, local transportation expenses, generator operations amid power fluctuations, employee mobility, and warehousing charges have all risen sharply," said Sadh. "Simultaneously, international buyers continue to enforce strict delivery timelines, often imposing heavy penalties for delays. As a result, many manufacturers are no longer operating for profitability, but simply to preserve business continuity and retain long-standing global clients."
