c. Proposed extension of the time limit for utilisation of the unutilized proceeds of IPO:
The Company has proposed the extension of the time limit for use of unutilized proceeds of IPO towards all the objects (including the proposed amended objects) by Financial Year 2028-29.
2. Particulars of the proposed variation/alteration:
Please refer to the explanation given in point no. 1 above.
3. Reasons/justification for the variation:
The reasons / justification for seeking variation in the objects of the IPO are detailed hereunder:
a) Reallocation of unutilised IPO Proceeds from the object of 'Setting up new modern stores under the 'BabyHug' brand' to the Object of 'Setting up new modern stores under the FirstCry brand and other home brands of our Company':
In view of the evolving customer preferences, the changing retail landscape and the business considerations, the Company proposes to reallocate the unutilised IPO Proceeds from the existing object of setting up new modern stores under the 'BabyHug' brand towards setting up new modern stores under the 'FirstCry' brand through investment in our wholly owned subsidiary Digital Age Retail Private Limited . Over the last few years, customer shopping behaviour has evolved significantly. Parents increasingly prefer a one-stop destination where they can access BabyHug alongside other leading national and international brands in various categories including toys, fashion, feeding, nursery and maternity products. A FirstCry-format store caters to these broader shopping missions much better than a single-brand format. Hence, from a business standpoint, a multi-brand format also allows us to improve productivity per square foot, increase basket size, drive higher customer frequency and better leverage our omni-channel ecosystem.
