

Infotech Enterprises Receives Award for its Contribution to German-Indian Business Relations

Indo-German Chamber of Commerce honors Infotech for special achievement

Hyderabad, 24th June 2011: Infotech Enterprises Ltd, a leading Global Engineering Services company, headquartered at Hyderabad, India received a high honor at the annual meeting of the Indo-German Chamber of Commerce in Düsseldorf, Germany. Mr. Martin Trostel, President Infotech Enterprises Europe, accepted the award for “Exceptional Contribution to the Development of German-Indian Business Relations” before an audience of over 400 international guests.

Infotech Enterprises GmbH was recognized for its unprecedented work in the improvement of German-Indian business relations, exemplified by rapid growth of business and ability to service some of the best known manufacturing companies in Aerospace, Rail, Energy and Consumer Electronics. From a small 10 people office Infotech Enterprises GmbH, Germany (IEG) has now grown to be a 328 people strong headquarters of Europe in eleven years with revenues of over Rs.431 Crores as of end March 2011. The relationship between India and Germany has developed so positively that Infotech Enterprises GmbH is now the European headquarters of Infotech Enterprises Ltd. which reflects a further decisive step in the continued improvement of business relations between Germany and India.

Mr. BVR Mohan Reddy, Chairman & Managing Director, Infotech Enterprises Ltd said, “It is a matter of pride for Infotech Enterprises to receive such a high honour from Indo-German Chamber of Commerce. It is a great way of recognizing our commitment and for our work being done in Germany. We see a lot of potential and sustainable growth in the region with our deep domain expertise and leadership in Engineering Services.”

This recognition received by Infotech Enterprises placed particular emphasis on the flawless teamwork of German and Indian colleagues, the managing of cultural differences and the achievement of mutual understanding. Martin Trostel stressed in his acceptance speech the importance of building cross-border engineering teams of German and Indian colleagues.

Commenting on the occasion, Mr. Martin Trostel, President Infotech Enterprises Europe stated, “This recognition is a great honor and a tribute to the achievements to Infotech Enterprises. Such a distinction is because of the efforts of both our German and our Indian colleagues, who do exceptional work and continually strive to further optimize our internal and external cooperation.” He further highlighted the significant role of NASSCOM (National Association of Software and Services Companies) in the positive development of German-Indian business relations, whose work has helped create the environment for companies such as Infotech.
