Plea filed in SC seeks release of Rohingyas detained in Jammu jail

New Delhi : An application has been moved in the Supreme Court to seek the release of over 150 Rohingya refugees detained in a Jammu sub-jail and stall their deportation by the Centre. The application was filed by two Rohingya Muslim refugees, Mohammad Salimullah and Mohammad Shaqir as part of a petition that has been pending the consideration of the top court since 2017. According to the application, nearly 150 to 170 Rohingya refugees in Jammu were detained in a sub-jail on or around March 7 after verification by their embassy, and face the threat of being deported. “Disturbing reports from the Rohingya families have come in that subsequent to a biometric verification of Rohingya refugees undertaken by the Jammu and Kashmir administration, some people never returned to the camps from the verification but were detained and jailed by the police,” stated the application filed on behalf of the two men by advocate Prashant Bhushan. The jail where they have been detained has been converted into a holding centre and the Inspector General of Police (Jammu) has indicated that the detained refugees could be deported back to Myanmar, the application said.

On March 7 (Saturday), HT had reported that at least 155 illegal Rohingya immigrants who escaped persecution in Myanmar and were living in Jammu and Kashmir were on Saturday sent to a “holding centre”, under Section 3(2) e of the Foreigners Act. The immigrants were not holding valid travel documents required under Section (3) of the Passports Act, said officials. Inspector general of police (Jammu zone) Mukesh Singh had said on Saturday, “155 illegal immigrant Rohingyas staying in J&K were today sent to the holding centre established vide home department notification dated March 5, 2021,” adding, “This was done under section 3(2)e of the Foreigners Act. Due process of law was followed in this exercise. These immigrants were not holding valid travel documents required in terms of section (3) of the Passports Act.” Bhushan asked the court to consider issuing directions to immediately release the refugees detained illegally and direct the government to grant them refugee identification cards through the Foreigners Regional Registration Office (FRRO). The application also included a request that the government not proceed with the deportation of the detained refugees, and instead, allow United National High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) to intervene and determine the protection needs of the Rohingya refugees not just in Jammu but in camps across the country. According to information provided in the application, there are close to 6,523 Rohingyas in Jammu who have escaped from Myanmar fearing persecution. Some of them have cards issued by UNHCR acknowledging their status as refugees. India does not have any legislation recognising refugees, but the country adheres to the principle of non-refoulement (not sending refugees to a place where they face danger) as part of the customary international law.

Delhi logs 409 fresh Covid-19 cases, highest in over 2 months; tally at 642,439

New Delhi : on Thursday added more than 400 new cases of the coronavirus disease (Covid-19) in the last 24 hours, the highest in more than two months, the health department's bulletin showed. The last time the national capital registered over 400 cases was on January 3 when there were 424 infections in a single day, according to the health department. The fresh Covid-19 cases in Delhi are also up by 39 from Wednesday when 370 people were detected to be positive—the highest in nearly two months. The 409 fresh Covid-19 cases and three more fatalities have pushed the Capital's caseload and death toll to 642,439 and 10,934 respectively. The health department's data also showed as many as 286 people were discharged in the last 24 hours, which took the recoveries in the national capital to 629,485. The number of active cases has now climbed to 2020, the bulletin showed. A total of 69,810 tests were conducted in the last 24 hours which included 42,187 RTPCR / CBNAAT /

TrueNat tests and the remaining 27,623 were rapid antigen tests. More than 1,000 people continue to remain under home isolation while the containment zones are at 592. Cases have been on the rise in Delhi since the latter part of February—200 fresh Covid-19 cases were recorded on February 24. The initial days of February witnessed a respite as the daily cases of the coronavirus disease went above the 100-mark but stayed below the 200-mark. There were no deaths reported on four days of last month on 9, 13, 17, 25 and just 94 cases were seen on February 16, which had been the lowest in more than nine months.

Amid the recent surge in cases in states such as Maharashtra, Punjab, Gujarat etc, Delhi also has seen the overall Covid-19 situation worsening. In March alone, the daily cases have breached the 300-mark thrice—March 9 (320 cases), March 6 (321 cases) and March 5 (312 cases).

Students hit streets as Maharashtra government postpones MPSC exams

New Delhi: After the Maharashtra Public Service Commission (MPSC) examinations were postponed, students took to the streets in many cities in the state and created a ruckus. A large number of students hit the streets in Pune, Nagpur, Kolhapur, Aurangabad and Jalgaon. Students demanded the exams not be cancelled. The MPSC examination was scheduled to be held on Sunday (March 14).

The state government postponed the examination in view of the increasing cases of coronavirus. Many students raised slogans against the government. The protests happened in Navi Peth, Pune and at Sakkardara Chowk in Nagpur. In Kolhapur too, the students created a ruckus and demanded the government to reconsider the decision to postpone the exam. A large number of students crowded the Court Chowk in Jalgaon, disrupting the movement of vehicles. Protests were also carried out at Jyotiba Phule Chowk in Aurangabad.

Earlier, on Tuesday Mumbai Guardian Minister Aslam Shaikh said if coronavirus cases continue to rise in the city and the possibility of a night curfew or partial lockdown is high. Additionally, a three day 'Janata curfew' will be imposed in Maharashtra's Jalgaon district.

Chhattisgarh: A fast-track court here has sentenced a fake doctor to two jail terms of 20 years each for raping two sisters on the pretext of treating them in 2017. The court, in its order on Wednesday, said the two sentences will run consecutively, which amounts to a 40-year jail term, Special Public Prosecutor Tarachand convict, Kosale added.

In December 2016, the family members of the victims, then aged 21 and 19, took them to the accused for the treatment of their abdominal and waist pain. The accused started raping the siblings since early 2017 on the pretext of curing them through “black magic” and threatened them

Fast track court sentences fake doctor 40 yrs in jail for rape

Kosale said.

Additional Sessions Judge Pooja Jaiswal convicted Samay Lal Dewangan (48), a resident of Gandhi Nagar here, under section 376(2)(n) (committing rape repeatedly on the same woman) of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and sentenced him to two jail terms of 20 years each for raping the two women, he said. The court also imposed a fine of 10,000 on with dire consequences if they informed about it to anyone, the prosecutor said. The crime came to light in September 2017 when the victims narrated their ordeal to their parents, following which a complaint was lodged at the Gudhiyari police station, he said.

The accused was subsequently arrested and a case was registered against him.
