Corporate Financial Advisory

Finance forms a basic ingredient for any growth objective. We have the right blend of people with requisite skills to render corporate financial services.

Private Client Services

Most of the businesses in India are family owned. The inherent needs and drivers of the promoters and the businesses they own are aligned yet so distinct. More often than not the ecosystem to manage the business is well developed, whereas the mechanisms to nurture and protect promoter family's interests are primitive. The inherent needs and drivers of such high net-worth global promoters, families and their businesses are distinct and warrant a distinct approach & innovative solutions of trusted advisors. We at Nangia Andersen LLP appreciate and understand that personal needs of the 'Promoters require Promoter focused Private Client Service' offering which aims to provide niche solutions based on an avant-garde comprehensive strategy to define and satisfy, often complex and sophisticated, promoter objectives. Our specialists can assist such promoters through the myriad of obstacles:

06 | Risk Advisory

- Forensic Advisory
- Cyber Security Services

Forensic Advisory

Managing risk in today's multi-jurisdictional regulatory environment is an uphill task. We help our clients manage risks by preventing and detecting vulnerabilities from fraudulent activities, malpractices, non-compliance and corruption arising from internal and external sources. We also partner with clients and counsels for forensic support in an out of court settlement or arbitration matters.

Our team brings a rich experience of conducting procedures such as investigative due diligences on investee companies and potential JV partners, anti-bribery/ anti-corruption reviews, digital forensic and e-discovery procedures to collect and review electronically stored data, investigations into specific conduct of employees and review of whistle-blower complaints.

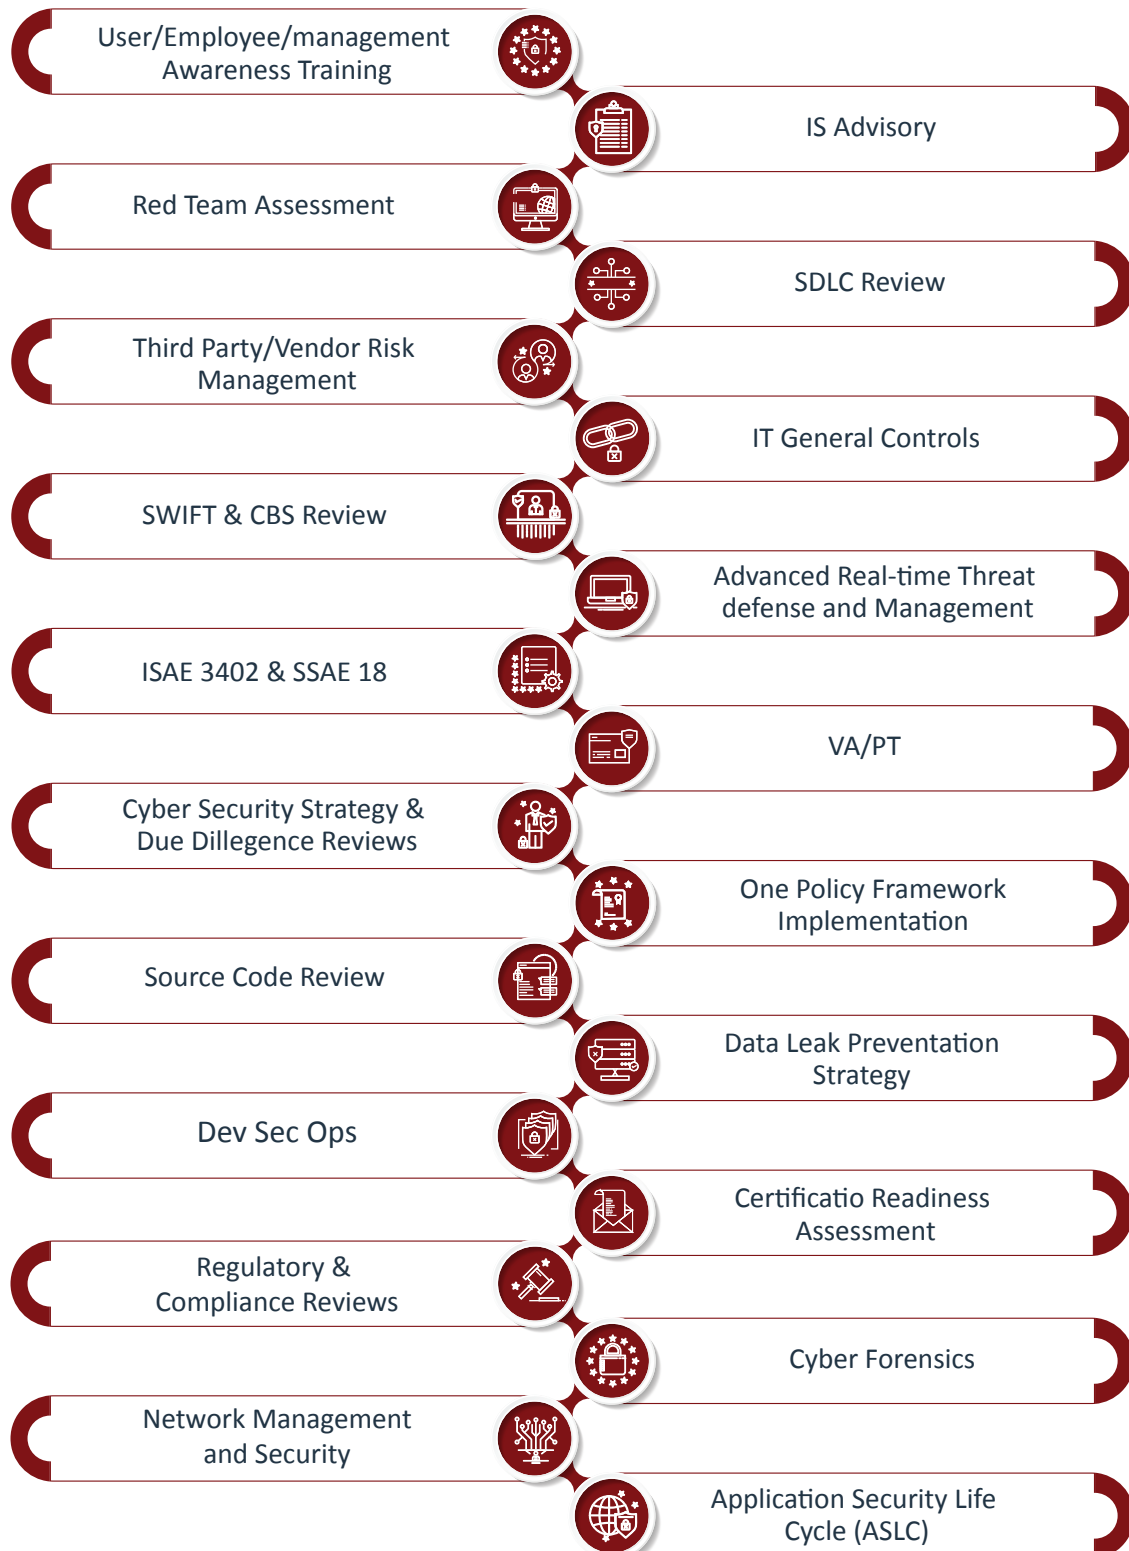

We help make organisations more resilient by conducting fraud risk assessments, drafting corporate governance related policies and procedures, conducting trainings and awareness sessions, and assisting in various ways to implement a cultural change and ethical environment. We assist parties reach an amicable solution by assisting in dispute resolution by quantifying losses, mediation and providing expert witness testimonies.

Bouquet of Forensic Services

Cyber Security Services

We look at cyber security as an enabler of, rather than a barrier to, capturing and extending value in this ever-growing digital economy. We perceive Cyber security as a business project with a strong tech component, unlike the traditional point of view of it being a Technology project. Our unique risk aligned business model, values and approach, combined with our trained and highly experienced workforce deliver deep insight and true value to customers seeking a partner they can trust and consult for their cyber security needs.
