Terrorists' Shelf Life Below One Year Since 2014: Rajnath Singh

Our Bureau

New Delhi: Defence Minister Rajnath Singh on Thursday issued a strong warning to Pakistan, saying that any "serious act" by the neighbouring country would invite a "stronger response from India than the one delivered last time."

India's commitment to peace should never be mistaken for weakness, he said, and stressed that the country must remain prepared for the possibility of war.

Speaking at the Times Network National Defence Council 2026, Singh, who was the chief guest, highlighted India's security capabilities and defence production plans.

He highlighted the changing approach of India's security forces towards terrorism, saying: "Since 2014, the shelf life of terrorists has reportedly fallen to less than one year. In other words, within a year of taking up arms against India, most terrorists have been eliminated by our security forces."

India's armed forces are now reaching the "very corner" of terrorism and working to "uproot them completely," he said.

Behind India's new-found confidence are the reforms undertaken by the government under the leadership of the Prime Minister, the changes in working methods and the transformation in our approach," he said.

Singh highlighted India's prowess in defence manufacturing and its ambition to establish itself as a "major global supplier of military equipment."

"We are making an ecosystem that not only boosts India's defence but also boosts its economy,"

"Around 2014, our domestic defence production stood at approximately ₹400 crore. Our target for this year is to cross the ₹1 lakh crore," he said.

In his address, Navy chief Admiral Krishna Sundar highlighted India's maritime security challenges and the Navy's growing focus on drone technologies.

"We monitor developments, track which vessels enter and leave the region, identify potential threats and try to position ourselves in advance. This ensures that when the time comes, we are already present, prepared and ready to act," he said.

SW Monsoon Exits with 13% Rain Deficit

Northeast monsoon sets in over southern India, bringing heavy rain to parts of TN

Our Bureau

New Delhi: The southwest monsoon made its withdrawal from the entire country Thursday in line with the onset of the northeast monsoon over southern peninsular India, bringing heavy rainfall to parts of Tamil Nadu, the India Meteorological Department (IMD) said in a statement.

The southwest monsoon set in over Kerala on June 1, three days after its normal onset date, ending the June-September season with a 13% rainfall deficit. India received 258.4 mm of rain infall during the period against the long-period average of 298.5 mm, making it the fourth lowest monsoon rainfall since 2001.

The northeast monsoon commenced over Tamil Nadu, Puducherry and Kerala, coastal Andhra Pradesh, Rayachoti, south interior Karnataka, and Kerala and Western Thailand.

The weather office said an upper-air cyclone in circulation over south-east Tamil Nadu and adjoining areas, along with easterly and northeasterly winds over southern peninsular India and parts of the Bay of Bengal supported the onset.

Fairly widespread rainfall occurred over Tamil Nadu, Puducherry and Kerala and adjoining parts of south coastal Andhra Pradesh and south Rayachoti in the preceding 24 hours. Heavy rainfall was also recorded at a few places in Tamil Nadu, Puducherry and Kerala.

Maharashtra FDA Bans Sale of Loose Spices

Krishna Kumar

Mumbai: The Maharashtra Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has banned the sale of loose spices to prevent adulteration. Tukaram Munde, the FDA commissioner on Thursday said, the ban is aimed at ensuring the safety of consumers by preventing the sale of adulterated spices.

Munde also said that action will be taken if it is found that artificial colours and chemicals are stored in the same place as the spices.

"There have been several instances where citizens' health has been endangered due to the use of artificial colours and dyes in spices. To ensure that citizens' health is not put at risk, we are today issuing a comprehensive compliance order," the FDA commissioner said.

Ministry reviews Asian Games show, demands results and future-proofing

Uthra Ganesan
NEW DELHI

The one-day conclave to review India's performance at the recent Asian Games and seek accountability was held here on Thursday.

While the ministry sources insisted that there were no fireworks, the national sports federations were made clear that there was no excuse for below-par performances, and

The day-long review meeting saw NSF's making presentations, analysing their respective performances and providing insights into future planning. The meet was also chaired by Sports Minister Mansukh Mandaviya and attended by Indian Olympic Association president P.T. Usha, sports secretary Hari Ranjan Rao, Target Olympic Podium Scheme (TOPS) CEO N.S. Johal.

Calling on NSFs to take more responsibility for India's sporting show, Mandaviya reiterated the need to work with further synergy and stressed on the fact that India needs to stop relying on a handful of proven champions

"How long will Mirabai Chanu alone keep winning medals for us? We need to produce 10 more Mirabai Chanus."

"Every federation must take this responsibility seriously. We have to identify talent, provide the right training and create an environment in which athletes can progress to the highest level," he said.

The review not only ad-addressed the issue of injured athletes travelling to Aichi-Nagoya – raised by Usha – but also tried to assess preparations for major upcoming events, including the 2028 Olympics, Commonwealth Games and Asian Games in 2030. Shooting, athletics, boxing, archery and squash were represented, among others.

The Sports Minister also emphasised the need for more tertiary sports ex-

"The minister was very clear that there is no dearth of resources and that NSF's can no longer complain about financial support.

"They have to deliver on the ground, not just make presentations," a ministry official said.

BR Shetty sues BoB for $15 Billion

J GOPIKRISHNAN ■ New Delhi

In a bizarre move, NRI industrialist BR Shetty filed a legal suit of $15 billion (₹1.44 lakh crore) in the Bombay High Court against Bank of Baroda (BoB) and its top officials and his ex-CEO for conniving, leading to the collapse of NMC Healthcare, headquartered in Abu Dhabi. Debt-ridden Shetty's move came within three months after BoB paid ₹5,700 crore, after it was found violating anti-money laundering norms by Abu Dhabi Global Market (ADGM). BoB was facing the charges in an insolvency case of NMC Healthcare in Abu Dhabi and London courts from 2020.

On July 2, BoB declared to Stock Exchanges that it decided to pay ₹5,700 crore without admitting any guilt in a bid to close long time legal case in foreign courts. Citing the judgment of the Abu Dhabi Court, The Pioneer on August 3 reported that Bank of Baroda was accused of violating anti-money laundering norms. In court proceedings, Shetty accused his CEO Prasanth Manghat for conniving with BoB's officials, leading to such a huge financial burden during 2012-2020 operations.

The Administrators of Insolvency in ADGM alleged that BoB's Abu Dhabi branch facilitated financing arrangements and banking transactions that allowed NMC Healthcare and related 37 entities to conceal their actual financial position. They also claimed that the bank failed to carry out adequate Anti-Money Laundering (AML), Know-Your-Customer (KYC) and due diligence checks, contributing to the continuation of the alleged fraud. "Claims are brought against Bank of Baroda based on allegations that it acted fraudulently and without proper care in contract (under Article 246 of the Civil Code) and in tort (under Articles 282 and 285 of the Civil Code). Secondly, there are the so-called "insolvency claims", which are made by the Joint Administrators under Section 251 of the ADGM Insolvency Regulations 2022 (the "IR 2022") in fraudulent trading against Shetty, Manghat and Bank of Baroda, and under Section 252 of the IR 2022 in wrongful trading against Shetty and Manghat. For present purposes, it is the civil claims that are relevant: it is common ground that they are all governed by UAE law. The insolvency claims are governed by ADGM law," said the judgment of Justice Sir Andrew Smith of Abu Dhabi Global Market (ADGM) Court of First Instance Commercial and Civil Division, dated March 25, 2025.

Nobody can browbeat judiciary: CJ

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ New Delhi

Taking a serious view of Rahul Gandhi's protest march to the Supreme Court on Monday, Chief Justice of India (CJI) Surya Kant warned on Thursday that "Nobody can browbeat the judiciary." Making this observation while listening to petitions by Rahul Gandhi and other INDIA bloc leaders regarding SIR, the bench, headed by the CJI and comprising Justice Jaymalaya Bagchi, issued notice to the Election Commission of India (EC) but added that serving notice does not mean condoning the conduct of the political leaders. The bench was hearing various pleas related to the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls, Delhi protests, march to the Supreme Court and alleged assault on journalists and lawyers on Thursday.

The court's observations came after Solicitor General Tushar Mehta and advocate Gaurav Bhatia raised the issue of the protest at the Supreme Court. "It is unacceptable that this court is seized with political procession. What happened in SC should not have happened," Bhatia pointed out. At this point, the CJI stated: "Nobody can browbeat the judiciary."

On Bhatia's assertion that the protest and protest march were an attempt to pressurise the court, the CJI called the attempts "feeble." "These are feeble attempts that nobody takes note of. Outside they make statements... We are not sitting in ivory towers. We know what statements they make outside and what they say in court. We know everything," the CJI observed. The bench, however, did not name the petitioner.

CJP's Tricolour march faces police curbs

ABHINAV KUMAR JHA ■ New Delhi

The Cockroach Janta Party's (CJP) plan to march with Tricolours at Central Park in Connaught Place on Friday may not get off the ground. The New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) has shut the park to the public on October 16 and 17 for "administrative reasons," and Delhi Police has told people to stay away, saying prohibitory orders under Section 163 of the BNSS are already in force in the area.

The NDMC said in a notice dated October 15 that the park would stay closed on October 16 and 17 "due to administrative reasons." The NDMC director issued the notice. The closure falls on the day the CJP has called people to the park at 5 pm with Tricolour flags. The civic body has also told Delhi Police about the closure. Police said in a statement on Thursday that it has asked for adequate security to prevent unauthorised access to the park. Police said Section 163 of the BNSS is already in force in Connaught Place and adjoining areas to maintain peace and protect lives and property. The statement said police would take legal action against those who defy the orders. People were urged to cooperate.

SC draws line on caste quotas after conversion

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ New Delhi

In a significant verdict, the Supreme Court on Thursday held that a Hindu belonging to a backward class could not claim the same reservation benefits as a Muslim member of a backward class merely on conversion to Islam. The court also said that a person professing a religion other than Hinduism, Sikhism, or Buddhism cannot be considered a member of a Scheduled Caste. The ruling highlights how religious conversion affects eligibility for caste-based reservation and legal protections.

A bench of Justices Prashant Kumar Mishra and Shree Chandrashekar clarified the law while dismissing a Tamil Nadu Government appeal seeking confirmation of the state's policy to provide reservation benefits to members of backward classes, most backward classes, denotified communities and scheduled castes who embrace Islam.

"No statutory benefit, protection, reservation, or other entitlement under Article 16(4) of the Constitution, the enjoyment of which is predicated upon a particular Hindu social order, can be claimed or extended merely based on such antecedent membership after the person has converted to Islam, Christianity, or any other non-Hindu social order," the bench held.

It said the court concluded that a person who converts from the Hindu social order to a non-Hindu social order cannot claim affirmative action under Article 16(4) of the Constitution merely because of the social backwardness associated with his pre-conversion status. "A backwardness suffered in the antecedent social order cannot by itself be carried forward to confer upon him the status of a backward class in the region to which he has converted..." it said.

HC refuses to restrain CJP's Tiranga march, NDMC shuts Central Park

AIMAN FATIMA

New Delhi, October 15

The Cockroach Janta Party's (CJP) 'Lehra Do Tiranga' protest is set to test the authorities' handling of demonstrations in central Delhi, after the Delhi High Court on Thursday declined to restrain CJP from holding its protest at Connaught Place's Central Park on Friday, October 16, recording the Delhi Police's assurance that it would take "all possible measures under the law" to regulate the gathering. Hours later, the New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) announced that the park would remain closed to the general public on October 16 and 17 for "administrative reasons", leaving it unclear whether protesters would be permitted to enter.

CJP CALLS FOR NATIONWIDE TIRANGA MARCHES

Meanwhile, Delhi Police has urged people to stay away from the CJP proposed 'Lehra Do Tiranga' march, while offering to facilitate a select group of people to wave the national flag and sing the national anthem at a suitable location. In a statement, police said prohibitory orders under Section 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) were in force in Connaught Place and adjoining areas to maintain peace and protect lives and public and private property. Police said trader and market associations had sought protection for their establishments against unruly elements and unlawful assemblies that could disrupt business during the festive season. Warning that violations of the prohibitory orders would invite legal action, police appealed to the public to cooperate in maintaining peace and tranquillity. It also said the national flag must be displayed and the national anthem sung in the prescribed manner, with due respect, dignity and decorum. CONTINUED ON P4

Caller name display must from Nov 1: DoT

OUR CORRESPONDENT

New Delhi, October 15

The Department of Telecommunications (DoT) has directed telecom operators to introduce a service displaying caller names on 4G and 5G mobile networks from November 1, 2026, in a move aimed at curbing online fraud. The facility, known as Calling Name Presentation (CNPAP), will enable recipients to identify incoming callers using information maintained by telecom service providers. In a circular dated October 13, the department said operators had connected trials to introduce CNAP on 4G and higher-generation networks. It instructed all service providers to roll out the facility across their respective service areas from November 1. CONTINUED ON P4

SUBSCRIBERS TO GET CALLER NAMES WITHOUT THIRD-PARTY APPS

No Truecaller? From Nov 1, your phone will tell you who's calling

● CNAP to show callers' names by default, free of cost

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, October 15

FROM NOVEMBER 1, even subscribers who do not use caller identification apps such as Truecaller will be able to see who is calling them, at no extra charge. The government has directed telecom operators to roll out Calling Name Presentation (CNAP) across their service areas, allowing the caller's name to appear alongside the telephone number on the recipient's screen. The pilot for the service had already begun, with calls displaying the names of callers starting to come through on users' phones.

This service will be available by default, without subscribers having to make a separate request. The department of telecommunications (DoT), in a circular dated October 13, said operators had conducted trials to introduce CNAP on 4G and higher-generation wireless networks. Its introduction

KNOW BEFORE 'HELLO'

- DoT directs telecom operators to roll out CNAP
- Service to cover 4G and newer networks
- No separate subscriber request needed
- Operators have conducted trials
- Accuracy depends on subscriber records
- Businesses may display verified preferred names
- Displayed names will depend on subscriber record accuracy
- 2G, 3G and landline rollout to be examined
- Saved contacts will show stored names
- Unsaved numbers to show caller names from records
- International calls to display 'International Call'

on 2G and 3G networks, as well as landline networks, will be examined separately.

Under the system, if the caller's number is saved in the recipient's contact list, the name stored on the phone will appear. For unsaved domestic numbers, the name will be drawn from the subscriber records maintained by the originating telecom operator. Calls from international numbers will be labelled 'International Call'.

The facility is expected to reduce dependence on third-party applications for identifying unknown callers, although the name displayed will depend on the accuracy of the operator's subscriber records.

CNAP is intended to make caller identification easier, but it is not a guarantee against fraud. Displaying a name does not establish that the caller is genuine or that the purpose of the call is legitimate. The DoT has prescribed technical safeguards, including a requirement that the mechanism used to retrieve and display caller names should not retain the caller's name identity after the call is completed. Operators must also adequately provision their networks and databases to handle queries efficiently and maintain the required quality of service.

For business and bulk connections, operators may allow users to display a preferred name instead of the name in their subscriber records. The preferred name must be supported by a registered trademark or a trade name registered on the Goods and Services Tax portal. Operators will have to verify the name before updating their records and provide existing subscribers with a mechanism to apply for such changes.

The guidelines also require operators to establish grievance redressal mechanisms for complaints relating to CNAP. Subscribers who have activated calling line identification restriction (CLIR), in accordance with existing rules, will be exempt from the facility, and their names must not be displayed.

The rollout follows Rule 48(1) of the Telecommunications (Authorisation for Provision of Principal Telecommunication Services) Rules, 2016, which requires caller identification to be presented in a manner protected against tampering.

Placement prospects at leading management schools remain strong despite economic uncertainty, Bharat Bhasker, director of IIM Ahmedabad, told Mannu Kaushik. He also discussed plans to expand funding for AI startups, the impact of the West Asia conflict on the institute's Dubai campus and how management education must evolve as businesses increasingly adopt AI.

With high crude oil prices, rising inflation and global trade uncertainties weighing on the economic outlook, how do you see these factors affecting final placements at IIM Ahmedabad? We saw some impact last year. However, I can speak for the top five or six institutes in the country, where the impact is likely to be limited. The economy is large, and the pool of high-quality management graduates available for immediate managerial roles remains limited. There are perhaps 25 management schools producing graduates who are ready to take on such roles. We produce around 400 graduates, and demand for them remains strong, regardless of whether the economy is performing well or poorly. We are unlikely to face a significant negative impact, although lower-ranked management schools could be affected much more.

Oil prices are the biggest crisis facing the economy. Uncertainty around import-export barriers is another concern, although companies have developed alternative export routes and may be able to adjust. However, a severe market crash would affect everyone.

IIM A's Dubai campus was inaugurated in September 2025. How has the West Asia conflict, which began within months of its launch, affected the campus, its students and its operations? We initially felt the impact. There was considerable uncertainty about how the conflict would develop, and our students were worried. We prioritised their safety and brought them to India, where they stayed for around two to two-and-a-half months. The UAE is now in a stable position, and we are back on track.

SC sends notice to CEC, will hear Jantar Mantar denotification

APURVA VISHWANATH
New Delhi, October 15

THE SUPREME COURT issued notice Thursday on a batch of more than 40 petitions arising from the October 10-11 protests in the Capital seeking the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar, and agreed to examine the Delhi Police's denotification of Jantar Mantar as a protest site.

In an hour-long changed hearing, a bench, comprising Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justice Jyotsna Jyotsna Bagchi, also directed the police to preserve all CCTV footage of the protests, amid allegations of excessive use of force by police.

The bench issued notice on several pleas, including a writ petition by INDIA bloc leaders challenging what they called the "unilateral and arbitrary exercise of the collective powers" of the Election Commission in conducting the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls.

The lead writ petition, Rahul Gandhi v Election Commission of India, names CEC Gyanesh Kumar as a personal respondent, and he will now be required to file a response.

The bench also issued notice to the Election Commission on the modification of Form 6, the paperwork for enrolling a new voter.

It made a pointed remark about one of the 13 petitioners from the INDIA bloc. "We have no problem with the other petitioners... We are issuing notice, but we are not condoning the conduct. Let the petitioner file an affidavit on their conduct," the bench observed, without naming the petitioner.

The Court agreed to hear pleas challenging the denotification of Jantar Mantar. On October 12, police said it had modified its standing order laying down guidelines for protests at the site, declaring that it now stands denotified. It designated three alternative sites: Buri Ground, Ramlika Ground and the CBD Ground.

Appearing for petitioner Swamy Malik, an advocate, former Delhi HC judge and senior advocate Mukta Gupta said the apex court's earlier ruling requires protest sites to be places where protesters can be "heard by the powers that be". Justice Bagchi observed that the "word 'heard' must be understood from the perspective of technology also."

Actor Imran Khan to challenge 'leave India' order in Bombay HC

ACTOR IMRAN KHAN, a US citizen and an OCI cardholder, will move Bombay High Court challenging a notice issued by the Mumbai Police directing him to leave India by October 28 for allegedly violating rules by participating in a political demonstration.

The 43-year-old actor, an Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) cardholder, is likely to file a petition in HC by Friday or Monday through his advocate Zulfiqar Memon.

The police action follows Khan's brief detention during an agitation at Mumbai's August Kranti Maidan on October 10. Protesters had gathered at the historical site in solidarity with a demonstration by Cockerach Janta Party in Delhi demanding the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar over the SIR issue.
